About the Exhibitor

I started sewing at age 8, taught by my Aunt Grace. I sew a large variety of things such as wall hangings, children's items for their room, quilts for anyone, items that have fabric origami flowers and items that have machine embroidered sayings on them.

I have my own business called Sewing Is My Passion and I teach sewing, quilting, hand embroidery and floral fabric origami in my home and else where. I strongly believe that if people who have enjoyed sewing and quilting don't teach others, this method will die away even more than it already has. We must especially teach children because they are our future.
