Joy

Things that bought us joy in a tough year

Sailing the ocean blue, enjoying the beach, viewing the night sky...

Reminiscing about the good ole days by enjoying old photo albums...

Playing board games, doing crossword puzzles, having a family game night, playing games on the Nintendo Switch...

Enjoying authentic Chinese food, having groceries delivered...

Viewing "The Marvelous Mrs. Maisel" TV series...

Riding my bicycle, walking outdoors, watching my son's baseball games, watching birds fly...

Cooking homemade soup, meatloaf, chicken parmigiana, smoked salmon avocado toast, linguini with lobster, shrimp and clams, baking with my daughter, smelling fresh baked bread...

Viewing "The Crown," "We Are Who We Are," "True Crime," and the "Alaska" TV series...

Making memories while enjoying my family and grandchildren, spending time with my boyfriend and friends, savoring a neighbor's offer to food shop for me, hugging my dog...

Reading!

Being promoted at work...

Being a night owl...

Enjoying the arts - Listening to music, playing piano, coloring, learning how to paint...

Creating custom designs with an electronic decal maker...

Working on home improvements, cleaning out closets, home decorating...

What brings you joy? What delights you? Please share.
