DIAMOND DUST

(By Joe Charnello)

In the past there have been quite a few arguments raised between the students of the two local schools. One of Saint Mary's students will say that Hoffman High School was afraid to play the Blue and Gold, while on the other hand a Governor student would blame a St. Mary's for the severance of the relationship between the two schools. I believe there are very few people who really know the reason of the severance.

The two schools severed relations at the time Ed Primpka was mentor of sports at the John St. School. He objected to Charley Eppinger using a few Post Graduates in the basketball quintet.

Coach Eppinger refused to remove the Post Graduates because they were the backbone of his team, and without them Saint Mary's couldn't beat the Governors eighth grade team.

No blame could be imposed upon either of the coaches for their decisions in this case because at that time the rivalry between the two schools was at its peak. Some pessimistic fans formed the opinion that Coach Eppinger was to blame because he used P. G.'s in his lineup. This was unfair criticism because St. Mary's is classed as a Prep School, therefore Post Graduates are permitted to be on the sport roster. I am sure that if anyone of us bystanders was a coach of a school where some perfect athletes were enrolled as Post Graduates, and we were allowed to use them on the team, we would surely do so.

There is no reason why the two schools should not play each other now. I am sure that Saint Mary's would play Hoffman High School this year if one of the Governors' sport authorities would approach an official from the Augusta Street Institution. The reason for their not being booked again seems to be centered about Hoffman High. They have a stubborn official on their payroll who said that as long as he had anything to do with sports at the Governor's institution he would never play Saint Mary's again.

The Tiger gridgers were defeated Sunday by the Leonardo F. C. The score was 7-0. Bill Post exhibited some fast and shifty running in the above game. They tell me Arnold Mortensen, who plays end for the Tigers, was mowed under quite a few times during the football game Sunday. When he first went into the game Sunday, one of the hilarious fans shouted: "Hey Boy, you forgot the water jail!"

I notice that Butch Nebus is spending a lot of extra time with that Fourth Ward maid. St. Mary's cheerleaders are expected to be clad in new uniforms this coming year. Joe Bulman, St. Mary's basketball star did not return to school this year. Red Slover's father was a football star in his day with Drakes College of Perth Amboy. The Tigers are going around town telling everyone that Romeo's All-Stars are afraid to play the "rubber" tussle of their series. It seems to be the other way around.

A lot of action is expected from Conroy, Pavich and Lagoda when they play with the Hoffman High School this year. Plenty action will be given if Conroy stops playing the squirrel, if Pavich stays away from that fiery red-head and if Bustle Lagoda doesn't render to much of his time to Marie.

Indian Language a Puzzle

During the World war the Germans often tapped the underground telephone systems of the allies and secured valuable information, says a writer in Collier's Weekly. But one day new and strange sounds began to come over the wires, baffling the code experts and linguists up to the time of the Armistice. It was the language of a group of American Indians who had been taught to send and receive the messages.

Gloom Lifts at Rutgers University as Football Squad Shows Progress

New Material Develops Unexpected Strength in Practice Sessions.

Old grads of Rutgers University and undergraduates alike shake their heads these days as they read of the powerful freshman squad which has matriculated on the banks of the Raritan and skeptically repeat the time honored slogan, "Wait till next year."

Meanwhile the varsity, like the "forgotten man" of recent political tradition, prepares for the opening contest against Marietta College, determined to belie the dire expectation that Rutgers is in for its worst season since 1925.

With a line split open by the loss of four regulars of the 1935 campaign and no adequate reserves on hand, Coach J. Wilder Tasker called his forces together for pre-season practice with a feeling akin to apprehension. Little was expected from the sophomores who had come up to varsity ranks from a freshman team which had failed to win a single game last year.

But in the short period of three weeks three of the second year candidates have clinched regular positions in the forward wall and two others are making it hot for the regulars.

Paul Harvey, on left end, has given a new spark to the Scarlet line with his courageous defensive play, while Frank Golbey, a rugged sophomore, is waging a hard battle for the vacant guard berth and appears to have a slight edge over Art Rolph, one of last year's substitutes.

Faced as it was last season with the lack of capable reserves, Rutgers still lacks the manpower to score victories over Yale, Princeton and New York University, but the unexpected strength of these sophomores indicates that the Scarlet will at least have an eleven good enough to meet the other teams on its schedule on an equal footing.

The Progressive vote in this city last Tuesday at the Primary election did not show any strength, only one vote being polled in two wards and none in the others. In fact but little interest seemed to be manifested by any of the voters. The day was exceedingly quiet and even an argument could not be stirred up to a war measure.

In the First Ward Hetrick received one vote for Congressman on the Republican ticket. The Democrats polled 120 votes, Republicans 54 and Progressives none. The total votes registered for the primary was 336 of which 174 were polled. On September 8, 61 registered for general election, and on Tuesday 195, making a total of 256.

In the second ward the Democrats cast 120 votes, the Republicans 37, and Progressives none. The total registered for primary was 244 of which 156 were cast.

In the Third Ward the Democrats cast 131 votes, Republicans 21 and Progressives one. Hetrick received one vote for Congressman. The total number registered for general election was 239.

In the Fourth Ward the Democrats cast 50 votes, Republicans 59 and Progressives 1. The total registered for primary was 207 of which 115 were voted. The total registered for general election is 207.

On September 18th J. D. VanPelt, President of the Commutator's Association attended the hearing of the Public Utility Commissioners in the Chancery Chambers at 75 Montross street, Jersey City and presented in behalf of the commutators against the Pennsylvania Railroad discontinuing train No. 202 from the New York and Long Branch station.

Last April the Public Utility Commissioners ordered trains 202 and 221 stopped at the N. Y. & L. B. R. R. station and those two trains are the most important and necessary trains to and from town, giving the direct and most service and tube connections up town in the city of New York.

While the Board has not rendered any decision, it is hoped they will order those two trains to continue to stop at our main station, and that no further effort will be made by the railroad company to take those trains from the people.

Mr. Van Pelt in his fair argument very much impressed the officers of the railroad company as well as the members of the Utility Commission and his efforts in the matter are appreciated.

At the meeting of the Board of Education Thursday night a long discussion took place with regard to the responsibility of the different principals of the schools etc. Evidently one of the members was trying to find out just who was directly responsible for an offense recently committed by some of the pupils in throwing stones at passing automobiles.

A suggestion of the superintendent of schools for the formation of a night school was acted on. Night school will open on Monday, October 5th.

Friends in this city have received announcement of the marriage of Mr. Walter Peterson, the popular dispenser of drugs at Jaques drug store to Miss Gerda Jensen, of Woodbridge. From these cards it was learned that they were married in Brooklyn on January 7th last. The couple are now enjoying their late honeymoon trip, visiting various points in the Southern States.

will be very much in evidence in the lineup. The team will use Sheridan Park for their home games but expects to play a number of games away also, provided a suitable guarantee can be secured.

Another complaint against the Jersey Central sub-station on the corner of Fourth and Stevens avenue before the Board of Health at their regular meeting last Thursday evening. To further substantiate the former complaint a communication was read from Dr. Bulner to the effect that the nuisance in question was most certainly a menace to health especially to the people living in the immediate proximity.

The mayor stated that he felt it to be his duty to bring the matter before the board and advocated that something be done with the matter. He believed that an improvement could be made and that the present offensive vibration could be done away with. After much discussion the board finally decided to refer the complaint to the city solicitor for immediate action thereon.

A number of friends tendered a miscellaneous shower to Miss Myr-Avenue last Tuesday evening. The occasion proved most pleasant to all and the time whirled rapidly away in vocal and instrumental music, games and social chat. Refreshments were served to which all did ample justice. Many beautiful gifts were presented to Miss Compton, among them being hand-painted china, cut glass, silver and linen.

Among those present were: Miss Sarah Sprague, Miss Mabel Slover, Miss Nellie Wilson, Miss Cecelia Carey, Miss Kathryn Lyons, Miss Bertha Kaufman, Miss Cecelia Kaufman, Mrs. William Smith, Miss Lella Lisk, Miss Anna Malloy, Miss Vivia Magee, Miss Alva Compton, Miss May Compton, Miss Havel

COINCIDENCE?

Broadwayites gathered a bushel of laughs from one angle on the Safety Drive last week. It seems that one of the enterprising members of the committee, in placing posters about the city, selected a telephone pole in front of an undertaking establishment upon which to tack a banner which read "Stay Alive."

PENNY POST CARD!

The life and lot of a newspaperman is torn betwixt joy and woe, with a good helping of worry thrown in. Take for instance, the case we met up with this week. We received a card from one of our friends from Flint, Mich., on the opposite side of which is a picture of the county jail.

GRIM REAPER!

The inevitable hand of death clutched at Assemblyman John V. Burke, of Perth Amboy, on Wednesday morning and took from this state one of its leading statesmen. John V. Burke was perhaps the possessor of the most pleasing personality in Middlesex. He was a worker for the people. He was a lifelong student of education and government.

CRAZE IS SPREADING!

The Bingo mania is gaining head way. It has even invaded the sanctity of political circles. The Hoffman Republican club recently held a "corker" and now the Democrats of the Second ward are sponsoring one on the 16th.

BEARING FRUIT

As evidence at the Safety Week mass meeting on Wednesday night, people are becoming increasingly interested in the Safety problem. A splendid turnout of local persons, and commendable cooperation of civic and fraternal organizations all made the event one which will undoubtedly bear fruit.

However, the most intense interest in the campaign was manifested by the children of the various local schools. Which is an excellent and an accurate indication that those who must bear the Safety lesson in mind, namely the children, have learned their lesson well.

GOOD NEWS, KIDS!

The profusion of campaign buttons in the city is a welcome sign to the youth of the municipality, especially the boys. Caring little about the respective merits of the campaigns, the "kids" are anxiously awaiting the week following elections, when "pitching pin buttons" will be indulged in at the expense of Messrs. Farley and Hamilton.

Rahway Firm Is Awarded Contract
For Work On City Athletic Field

The contract for excavation and construction of the proposed athletic field on Feltus street and Ward avenue was awarded to John J. Cox, Inc. of Rahway, by the Common Council Tuesday evening. The price quoted for the fourteen items in the specifications by the Cox concern was $5,401.15.

There were three other bidders for the work, two of them local. F. D. Tedesco was the highest bidder, his figures being $8,475.63. The So. Amboy Construction Company had a bid of $5,888.92, which was $487.77 higher than the successful bidder. Arthur J. Jacobs, of Millburn, offered to perform the work for $5,735.10.

The specifications called for the moving of some 7,500 yards of dirt to level off the field; the construction of two concrete stands each 100 feet long, 20 ft. wide, 6 ft. high, with railings and screens, a back stop, steps, wire gates, and concrete walks, etc. The excavation unit price was exactly the figure estimated by the local men who worked up the proposition and other unit was expected, are considered quite reasonable. The total figures, while somewhat higher than was anticipated, were not sufficiently in excess of the estimates to warrant re-advertising for bids, which step would have held up the completion of the work until next spring and summer.

The contract when completed under present specifications will give a very fine job at an unusually low cost for such a project. Other Council business consisted of favorable action on a request by the Board of Public Works for funds which to construct a new well at the local pumping station, and the handling of a complaint about the present garbage dump being something of a nuisance.

The Board of Public Works certificate requesting the appropriation of $5,000 for a new 8" well and new pump and motor for the No. 5 well set forth that because of conditions at the plant the full efficiency is not being received and it is therefore frequently necessary to turn on Perth Amboy water supply, which cost is higher than that of local production.

The acting city solicitor was authorized to prepare the necessary papers.

R. M. Davis was the complainant about the garbage dump. Street Committee Chairman Grimley, when asked by President Fliskov, stated that he had been checking conditions at the garbage dump quite carefully for a long time and had failed to notice any condition serious enough to warrant a complaint of the nature under consideration. Mr. Wilbur, who sometimes serves the city when engineering facilities are required, corroborated the con-of All Emergencies.

Members of the official family here look upon the recent authorization for the issuance of $5,000 worth of city bonds for an additional well at the city water works as an economy move that will bear fruit at once.

At the present time, they declare, the water works run close to capacity at all times and when a load heavier than the average is demanded it is necessary to secure water from the Perth Amboy Water Works.

The present arrangement with the Perth Amboy department makes it necessary for this city to pay $125 per day for this service, regardless of the amount of water used.

The installation of the new well, which will cost in the neighborhood of $4,800, they feel certain will make this city independent of the Perth Amboy department, and it will, within a short time, more than pay for the cost of its construction.

Hrankowski Tavern and Klein
Grocery Store Are Entered

Investigations of two early morning robberies which took place here yesterday are occupying the local police, who expect to make several arrests late today.

The first took place at Hrankowski's Tavern on Cedar street, where entrance to the building was gained through a side window and a cash register and about $30 in silver were taken.

Another robbery took place at Klein's grocery store at the corner of Stevens avenue and David st., where the screen was pried from a rear window and the window forced. Twelve dollars in silver, three dollars in bills and a quantity of groceries and cigarettes were stolen here, and the robbers left the building through the back door.

tentions of Mr. Grimley. There was at least one man at the dump all the time engaged in covering the refuse with sand and the only thing he had noticed was a small column of smoke that had been covered in due course.

The complaint was referred to the Street Committee and the entire committee is asked to make an inspection of the dump in the early evening of a day this week to see for themselves just what the dump conditions really are.

An audit of the finances of the Board of Education for the year ending June 30th was referred to the Finance Committee, after a summary thereof as prepared by the auditors had been read by the City Clerk.

Three railroad grade crossings will be eliminated in this section of the highway and are scheduled for completion early in the spring. The federal government will furnish the funds for the railroad elimination project as a part of the $4,000,000 appropriation for the elimination of grade crossings made last year.

The total cost of the work here will be approximately $300,000 and will provide about 300,000 man hrs. of employment.

Rev. Charles G. Book Requests
Transfer to New Field.

Rev. George E. Taylor, new pastor of the John street M. E. Church will be welcomed by the members of the congregation on Sunday. He succeeds Rev. Charles G. Book, pastor for the past two years.

Rev. Taylor comes to the local parish after five years of service at the Pennington First M. E. Church where his work among the young people of the parish attracted considerable attention. Mr. Taylor is married, the father of two children and during his pastorate at Pennington held special classes in religious work at the Pennington High School.

Rev. Book could have been reassigned to this city, since he was very popular with the members of the congregation, but he preferred a change, with conference approval.

Rev. E. A. Wells, a former pastor of the local church who has served the parish of the Milltown M. E. Church for ten years, was again reassigned to that church despite his expressed desire to be transferred.

A building boom such as this city has not seen in some time, is now under way here, with a number of residences being erected and improvements being made to local business establishments.

The new home of Brennan's Tavern, at the southwest corner of Broadway and John street, is going up rapidly. Nearly all the side walls have been erected and the construction of the roof and work on the interior will begin in a short time.

The work at the Daylight Bakery is progressing toward completion. Here the entire interior of the building has been remodeled and enlarged, a new front has been installed and modern fixtures have been built.

Not only the store proper but the baking department of the establishment have been enlarged.

Within a short time extensive alterations and improvements will be made to the building at 108 South Broadway recently purchased by Mr. Harry Oppenheim. The store quarters are to be enlarged, an entire new modern front installed and the building will be improved generally on the ground floor where the store is located and on the second floor, used for residence purposes.

Richard McCloud, local butcher is the latest local business man to announce for improvements to his establishment. Audit Reveals Discrepancy In Finances of Public School System

Wednesday evening the Board of Education met in special session. The purpose was to receive and consider bids for the performance of a number of somewhat small carpenter jobs required to bring the schools into good condition.

There were four bidders for the work, the bids ranging from $1,495 submitted by Wm. F. Merrell; to $1764 submitted by John F. and Thos. J. Connors. In between were the bids of F. D. Tedesco of $1,568 and the South Amboy Construction Co. with a bid of $1,757. Connors Bros. and Merrell were the only two that had complied with a provision of the specifications that the number of days in which the work would be performed be quoted. Meeting Wednesday

Mayor Presides at Session Held

The weather had considerable effect on the anticipated attendance at the Safety Week mass meeting held in the Hoffman High School auditorium Wednesday evening, although there were about one hundred present.

Mayor Charles T. Mason presided as chairman introducing the various speakers.

G. K. Nickle of the DuPont Co., plant at Parlin gave an interesting talk on industrial safety which was followed by a demonstration of first aid work and accident prevention in connection with electric railroad equipment. This demonstration was given by J. K. Hirsch superintendent of telegraph and signals of the Pennsylvania Railroad assisted by three members of his staff.

A series of motion pictures on safe driving were also shown under the auspices of the Chevrolet Motor Company.

tract on his low figure, named 18 days, Connors Bros. offered to complete the job in 20 days.

With the bids matter out of the way the Board adjourned to go into executive session to presumably consider the audit prepared by Joseph Seaman Co. in response to the board's action of a few weeks ago. The Seaman concern had not only made an audit of the financial transactions of the board for the fiscal year ended June 30th, last, as requested by the board, but had enlarged the scope of the audit in accordance with a request from the city authorities, to endeavor to determine the exact amount of the overpayments by the city to the schools over a long period of years.

There was little comfort for board members in the results of the audit, in general, or the search for the overpayments in particular, according to the letter of comments of the auditors, which was read at the meeting of the Common Council Tuesday night. There was, it appeared, nothing seriously wrong, but there were several matters that needed correction, and there had been mistakes and omissions in handling the transaction that had cost the board money. Not much, however, $130 or so, which can be recovered.

But there was a very substantial discrepancy between the records of the Board Secretary and those of the Custodian of School Monies. And a still larger one between the Custodian and the City Treasurer. It was the recommendation of the auditor that the three sets of records be reconciled. How to get it done was probably the question that bothered the school board in their private session.

According to the auditors the records of the City Treasurer show that the Board of Education owes the city $19,976.28 as of July 1, 1936. But the records of the Custodian record the amount owing to the city as only $4,976.28, a difference of $15,000. The records of the Secretary to the Board of Education show the auditors say, that the city owes the Board of Education $1,085.

A study of the tables of figures prepared by the auditors indicate that overpayments to the amount of $4,976.28 have been a gradual accumulation; in comparatively small amounts over a period of years back as far as 1927. Evidently most of the data was obtained from the study of the records of the Custodian and City Treasurer, which records back to about 1922 are in very good shape. Beyond that date the records are, to put it mildly, not entirely complete. But the auditors went back of 1922 for ten years in the effort to clear up the other $15,000.

Between Thirty and Forty Percent of City
Homes Lack Mail Boxes

Recent Survey by Local Post Office Discloses Violation of Regulations.

During the past several weeks, on orders from Washington, employees of the local post office have been making a survey of the city to secure material for a report.

It has been discovered that between thirty and forty per cent of the homes in the city have no mail boxes, or similar receptacles for mail.

Commenting on this fact, Postmaster Downs has pointed out that departmental regulations, require provisions for the reception of mail and apparently during the twenty years free delivery has been furnished here, the original boxes have worn out and have not been replaced.

In view of the fact that every effort is being made to have everything connected with the postal system in this city conform with regulations in order that a new post office may be secured, Postmaster Downs has requested that mail boxes be placed on all residences as soon as possible.

"Safety Education" Is Subject of Address
Before Rotary Club

Abraham Swan, Jr. of Safety
Dept. Was Speaker.

"Safety Education" was the subject of a talk delivered to members of the South Amboy Rotary Club Tuesday noon at Wilhelm's Hall, the speaker being Abraham Swan, Jr., director of motor safety in this state. This bureau is a branch of the Motor Vehicle Department and comes under the leadership of Arthur W. Magee, commissioner of motor vehicles. Mr. Swan, who assumed his duties last June, was a very forceful and entertaining speaker. For the past 30 years he was engineer of the City of Trenton.

He said the matter of safety was a serious subject and he praised the present motor vehicle commissioner for the great amount of work he has done to promote safety among the automobile drivers of this state. Automobile accidents were not going to be stopped, he said, but that a continued effort on the part of the state to promote safety education among its many drivers would in time go a long way toward this end. Curtailment in appropriations, he stated, hindered the work of his department.

A talking motion picture entitled "Motor Mania" released by the Motor Vehicle Department featuring Governor Hoffman, Commissioner of Motor Vehicles Arthur W. Magee and news commentator Lowell Thomas was shown following Mr. Swan's talk. Presentation of the picture was under the direction of Motor Vehicle Inspectors Stern and Belfert. The picture was very interesting and disclosed the many different types of motor vehicle accidents that have been recorded in this state.

Will Request That School Board
Reconsider Its Recent Action

The Parent Teacher's Association of School No. 2 held a well attended meeting on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 24, when two interesting speakers were present.

Mrs. A. Forsythe spoke on the work of the girl's vocational school exhibiting various articles of clothing made by students of the school which were modeled by one of the girls. Mrs. J. Harrison also spoke on the same subject.

The organization framed a request that the Board of Education reconsider its action in not appointing a music teacher. A communication containing this request will be forwarded to the Board.

Mrs. J. Seaman was appointed as chairman of a card party to be held by the organization in the near future.

The attendance prize was won by Mrs. Julia McCaffrey. Refreshments were served.

The next meeting will take place on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 18th.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Douha of Bordentown spent Sunday and Monday of last week at the baker's convention at Atlantic City.

In the remote, little visited areas of southeastern Utah and northern Arizona the country is dotted with ruins left by a vanished, prehistoric people. The ruins are unquestionably old, possibly dating back 1,000 to 2,000 years. The evidences of the use of color by these people are numerous and consist largely of bits of colored pottery and pictographs on the walls of caves and cliffs. These pictographs are primitive paintings in black, mineral reds and browns.

Rutgers Meets Marietta In Opening Football Game Tomorrow

Ohio Team Lost But Three Regulars From Last Year's Team.

Rutgers, a dark horse in intercollegiate football circles, will open its 1936 campaign against Marietta College of Ohio at Nelson Field tomorrow afternoon.

Last year the Scarlet downed the Ohio eleven, 26 to 9, but the final score was no indication of the closeness of the contest. Marietta has lost only three regulars from the 1935 team and has been bolstered in the line by four sophomores who range six feet in height and average close to 190 pounds. Bob Tate, 195 lb. sophomore back will ore than offset the loss of Captain Ned Nickel who caused plenty of trouble for the Scarlet cause last year.

Rutgers will depend upon a diversified attack augmented by the punting of three backfield aces, Wally Pringle, quarterback; Art Perry, halfback, and Al Lundwall, a center who was converted into a back during the past week and who is the best kicker on the squad.

With Steve Stanowicz, 200 pound fullback showing steady improvement, Rutgers should be a real threat at the center of the line this season. This should draw in the secondary and make the pass attack more effective. With four or five men in the backfield capable of tossing the pigskin with a fair degree of accuracy, the Scarlet may make good use of the aerial game.

Three sophomores will probably crash the starting lineup. They are Walt Bruyere, of Red Bank, right guard, and Paul Harvey, Rockaway, L. I., left end. The loss of Frank Golbey, sophomore, who will be out for two weeks with an injury sustained in Saturday's practice scrimmage with Columbia will weaken the Scarlet line considerably.

Now This Town Wants Telephone Service Too

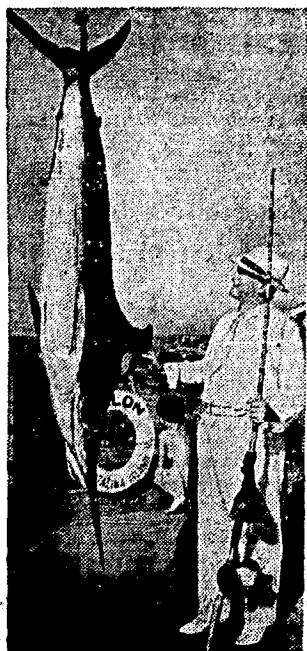

Forestville, Michigan, located in the northeast corner of Sanilac County, is one of the few towns in the country without either local telephones or telephone connection with the outside world.

Last winter, during February's unusually heavy snows, the town was completely isolated, for not only telephone but telegraphic communication was lacking and the mails could not get through. During this period of isolation, a number of travelers were snow-bound in the place and were unable to get word of their plight to their homes. Now residents of the village have started a movement to obtain telephone connections with nearby towns.

Commercial Car Manager Expects New All Time High Record for Year.

Sales of Chevrolet trucks during the current year have shattered all previous truck records in Chevrolet history, W. E. Fish, commercial car manager, announced this week.

Sales to date since Jan. 1 have totaled more than 25 per cent above those for the same period last year and more than 17 per cent above those for the corresponding period in 1929, the all time record year, he said.

"Truck sales through August," said Mr. Fish, were 163,575 units, as compared with 130,296 last year through August, and with 139,387 in 1929. Chevrolet dealers sold more than 20,000 units a month for six consecutive months beginning with March of this year—a feat unparalleled in their history.

"The outlook for truck business continues good. There is every reason to expect a new all time high mark at the end of the current year."
