

Republicans Speculate on Entry Of David Heneby in Mayor Race

Local Republicans this week pondered considerably over recent developments in the party and speculations were rife as to their effects. The principal cause of apprehension was the announcement made at a gathering of county Republicans at the home of state chairman Henry W. Jeffers at Plainsboro recently, that David Heneby would be a candidate for mayor on the Republican ticket in the primary. The formal announcement made by former Freeholder Wm. S. Dey, confirmed rumors that have been passed about in the Republican camp during the past several weeks that former Mayor Charles T. Mason, who recently announced his candidacy, will have primary opposition. The local delegation, one of the largest attending the Plainsboro get-together, was led by Mrs. Evelyn Hardy and former Freeholder Wm. S. Dey and talks were delivered by Dey; D. W. Heneby, Mrs.

Harold Hoffman and former police judge Charles M. Bloom. The political wise of the city appear to be divided in their opinion regarding the entrance of Heneby in the primary race. One group contend that it will serve to stimulate party interest and will result in the eventual amalgamation of two wings of the party that have been at odds for several years past. On the other hand, from equally reliable sources there came the prediction that a primary fight, while it will probably bring out one of the largest Republican vote in recent years would serve to widen the breach between the two factions and create greater discord in the party, regardless of which candidate wins. They predict also that the fight between the two factions will continue even after the primary, and its effects will be shown at the general election.

Youth Week Program Sponsored By Rotary Club

Climaxing its observation of National Youth's Week, the South Amboy Rotary Club held one of the largest meetings in history Tuesday noon, when eight boys, four representing each of the local schools, former Governor Harold G. Hoffman, Mayor Thomas F. Gleason and other city officials were guests at the noon luncheon.

That this country is not properly training its youth for the future is such nations as Italy, Germany and Japan was the contention of Patrick White, a member of the faculty of Perth Amboy High School, who was the principal speaker. He declared the increase in juvenile delinquency is a matter of grave consideration and every effort should be bent by parents and civic organizations to curb it. He declared the principal factors in youth guidance are the home, the church and the school. Rotary clubs and other organizations dedicated to community betterment should take a special interest in the important question of youth guidance. He declared the fact that movements such as National Youth Week are not followed up, and declared there is too much criticism of boy's organizations interested in boy's work and people generally fail to appreciate the wonderful work they accomplish.

Mayor Gleason told of the duties of the Mayor of South Amboy and showed the importance of all city agencies working in cooperation in order to secure good government. He concluded his remarks by declaring he had lived his entire life in this city and declaring it was second to none in the country.

Former Governor Hoffman also delivered a short talk in which he gave the boys some advice for their future conduct. Among the guests were M. F. Nagle, superintendent of the Board of Public Works, George A. Kress, city treasurer; John Zdanewicz, councilman-at-large, City Clerk G. Frank Disbrow, J. T. Dill, honorary member of the club and head of the Boy Scouts in this city, and Simone Oliver, an Eskimo, speaker at a previous meeting of the club, who rendered a piano solo.

During the morning, the boys occupied the various city offices under the supervision of their regular occupants and following the Rotary meeting they returned to school, where an address was delivered by Simone Oliver, who told of the life and costumes of the Eskimo people. The speaker was furnished by the Rotary Club.

The boy officials and the offices they occupied were: Mayor, John Triggs; City Solicitor, Neil Johnson; Fire Chief, Thomas Giltner; Street Commissioner, Neil Johnson; City Engineer, Richard Stratton; City Clerk, Thomas Giltner; First and Councilman, Fred Wheeler; Second Ward Councilman, John Lyons; Fourth Ward Councilman, Richard Stratton; Chief of the Council, Harry Steuber; Chief of Police, John Lyons; Tax Collector, John Triggs; Jailor, Fred Palmer; Water Commissioner and Police Judge, Neil Johnson.

Many Local Men Will Be Affected By Railroad Pay Cuts

Railroads Say Position Is Desperate—Unions Threaten To Fight

Approximately 250 local railroad men it is estimated, will be effected by a 15 per cent wage cut for 1,000,000 employees of the nation's major railroads effective July 1, recently voted by the Association of American Railroads, embracing 142 Class I lines, to save $250,000,000 a year and offset dwindling revenues and increased operating costs.

The Association contends the action was necessary because the financial position of the railroads is more desperate than in 1932 when employees accepted a 10 per cent reduction. The resolution however evoked a promise of stiff opposition from leaders of various railroad unions. D. B. Robertson, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, said, "There will be no wage reduction agreed to by railroad employees."

Robertson described the move as an "attempt to embarrass" President Roosevelt in his "efforts to bolster recovery," and asserted that the railroads had slashed their pay rolls $40,000,000 a month since October.

A similar sentiment was expressed by George M. Harrison, head of the Railroad Labor Executives Association. He declared, "I am disappointed that the railroads should launch a movement to cut wages and dry up purchasing power. The railroads problem is not as acute as management representatives are endeavoring to make the public believe."

The association, however, cited a drop of $13,710,622, or 10 per cent, in net operating income during the four months ended January 1, 1938, compared with the four months ended January 31, 1932.

The association too, drew attention to the fact that net operating income in January 1938, fell 38 per cent below that of January, 1932, and freight traffic has now fallen below the 1932 level.

As the first step toward the contemplated cut, the association served notice on the two unions. A spokesman said that if the unions should object, negotiations between management and employee representatives would ensue. Should these fail, the National Mediation Board could intervene at the request of either side. Finally, should arbitration effect no settlement, President Roosevelt could appoint a fact finding group to make recommendations.

The wage reduction of 10 per cent accepted by the unions in 1932 was restored during the subsequent general business improvement. Pay increases were granted in the face of strike threats last year.

The sixteen non-operating unions obtained an advance of 40 cents a day on October 1. This was calculated at about 6.6 per cent. The rises would have amounted to some $133,000,000 a year on the basis of 1936 operations.

New Policy On Water Bill Collection For Board of Works

Will Resort To Shut Off Policy To Comply With Demands Of New State Law

In order to comply with the provisions of the new State Budget Law, it has been necessary for the Board of Public Works to inaugurate a new system of billing of water accounts and adopt more stringent policies in order to meet the obligations placed upon it.

The board faces the necessity of paying off $6,000 for bonds and $3,000 in interest on bonds within the next few days in order not to violate the law, and every effort is being made to meet this demand.

Notices have been mailed out by the Board calling attention to the change in policy made necessary and it is expected sufficient funds will be secured to meet its financial obligations.

Officials of the board have declared that in cases where the bills are not paid it may be necessary to shut off water immediately. Three methods of meeting the situation have been discussed, first to cut off all delinquents, second to add a service charge for re-connection in cases where service is discontinued and third to increase the rates to all users. After considerable discussion the members of the board decided on the shutoff policy, feeling that a general increase in rates, because of the new law would be unfair to those water users who pay bills promptly.

The new ordinance sets the hours between 7 A. M. and 3 A. M. as the time taverns may be open for business.

LOOKING BACK
22 YEARS

Issue of May 6, 1916

Frederick A. T. Kerr, of this city, introduced a resolution at the meeting of the Board of Freeholders held in New Brunswick, on Monday for the improvement of Main street from Broadway to Washington avenue and continuing up the avenue to Deep Cut Bridge. It was unanimously adopted.

If the plans of the Mayor of this city materializes there will be another Old Home Day celebration here this summer. Mayor Dey has issued a call to all that are interested to meet in his office at the City Hall next Monday evening to discuss the matter. A special invitation is extended to the members of last year's committees and all others will be eagerly welcomed.

The celebration this year will fall on August 12th, that being the second Saturday in the month of August. Owing to the short space of time between that date and the present time, the committee will have to get a hustle on if the celebration is to be held. Last year's monster success will render much of the work comparatively easy, however, as many of the ideas can be used again to good advantage.

There is, of course, much to be done notwithstanding and a big meeting is hoped for next Monday night so that plans can be gotten out and work started with a rush.

South Amboy Council No. 426, has chartered a special train to take the members to Newark on Monday, May 15, the time set aside for the committee of one hundred on the 250th anniversary of the City of Newark for a night parade of the Knights of Columbus. From latest information there is likely to be 17,000 Knights in line. A band or drum corps will be engaged to lead South Amboy Council.

Official fobs may be obtained from John Connors, treasurer, for 25 cents each. Every member should have one. Tickets may be secured from any member of the committee, at regular fare rate, or may be secured at station by mentioning K. of C. special. Any person not a Knight can go, and no doubt many will avail themselves of seeing Newark's handsome decorations and illuminations. The parade of the K. of C. alone will be worth going miles to see.

The Congregation Seven Brothers of this city, has filed articles of incorporation at the County Clerk's Office, the object being to acquire land for the erection of a Jewish house of worship to be conducted along orthodox principles.

The trustees for the first year are Samuel Lerier, Alexander Goldstein, Joseph Goldstein and B. Faffer, all of this city. The papers were drawn by Leo Goldberger, of Perth Amboy.

The Woman's Club held their annual election of officers at a meeting on Thursday afternoon, and Mrs. William S. Nichols was elected to the office of the presidency of this organization for a third term. Mrs. Nichols has already served two terms in that office and was somewhat adverse to again accepting the honor. The Club, however, managed to persuade her to again guide the destinies of the organization.

Other officers elected were as follows: First vice-president, Mrs. G. W. Crane; second vice-president, Mrs. Edwin Jaques; recording secretary, Miss Edna Agan; corresponding secretary, Miss Josephine James. The office of corresponding secretary also includes that of press correspondent. Mrs. Emilie Christiani was elected as treasurer and directors for three years were as follows: Mrs. William S. Dey, Mrs. D. W. Reed, Miss Bertha S. Fulton, and Miss Bertha Delbert.

Church, and 14 admitted into the Methodist Protestant Church on probation. On account of the absence of a minister the Presbyterian Church postponed the admittance ceremonies.

With representatives present from thirteen out of the sixteen Councils in the county, the monthly session of the Past Councilors' Association Jr. O. U. A. M. was held at South River on Thursday evening. The association was the guest of Riverdale Council No. 33, which proved to be a entertainment furnished and the very generous host in the grade of liberal refreshments which were served after the meeting.

The meeting was known as "Public School" meeting and the speaker of the evening, Robert Bowne, a member of Riverdale Council, and a promising young member of the legal profession, gave an interesting talk along the lines suggested by the title of the evening's meeting. After his speech, which was interrupted from time to time by outbursts of applause, and roundly applauded at its conclusion, the speaker was accorded a vote of thanks and felicitation for his excellent talk.

The Boy Scouts of the Baptist Church hiked to Old Bridge last Saturday.

It is stated that an air ship was seen hovering over this city about 10 o'clock Tuesday evening.

George Delaney has taken over the agency for the Hupmobile and this week received one of the latest improved cars of that make. It is a big seven passenger, and is indeed a thing of beauty.

LOG OF THE U.S. MARINES

Through the trackless forests of Nicaragua a small patrol of native troops, commanded by U. S. Marines was slowly making its way in April, 1932. They were on the trail of bandits and their senses were keenly attuned to each movement in the jungle that might indicate the presence of the enemy.

Eager to make a contact, yet wary of some hidden ambush, one of the leaders of the party was Corporal Donald L. Truesdale, a U. S. Marine who also held the rank of lieutenant in the native military force. Corporal Truesdale fully realized his responsibilities. Despite his eagerness to come to grips with the bandits, he felt that it was his duty to afford as much protection as possible to his native Charges. Without warning he was faced by a crucial test.

A rifle grenade fell from its holder, carried by one of the native soldiers, and struck a rock, igniting the detonator and endangering several members of the patrol.

The young marine leader could have sought safety in flight, but he chose to risk his life in an effort to save his comrades. Springing toward the grenade, he grasped it in his hand and attempted to throw it away from the patrol before it exploded. He was a split second too late.

His patrol was saved, but Truesdale lost his hand and suffered painful wounds about the body. Today he wears the Cross of Valor of Nicaragua and the Congressional Medal of Honor for his self-sacrificing effort, which his citation truly states was "worthy of the highest traditions of the profession of arms."

Hackettstown, May 4.—Miss Helen Littell, a Junior at Centenary Junior College, is chairman of the program committee, arranging for the celebration of the fifty-eighth anniversary of the Pelthosophian Society.

The members of the society presented "Stage Door" on Saturday evening, and entertained at a dance in the gymnasium.

Miss Littell is the daughter of Mrs. H. D. Littell, of 265 Borden-town avenue, this city.

Blair, Bears Shortstop
"Had To Show Them"

Announcement that Buddy Blair would be the shortstop for the Newark Bears for this season didn't cause the fans to become excited. They assumed that Missouri attitude as fans do when the thermometer is down around zero. They wanted to be shown, and personally inspect the youngster before passing judgment.

When the Bears returned from their training camp the ability of Buddy was well known. Yet the fans reserved judgment. The former Binghamton player was seen in two exhibition games at Ruppert stadium and his work pleased. Then the race was on. Blair was off to a good start. His hitting stood up, his fielding was high class and his throwing made the fans marvel.

He has a great arm, fast and covers acres of ground. Buddy has already instilled himself with the Bear fans.

The youngster has improved very much since the race began. Manager Neun is satisfied he will be one of the stars of the team and also the league.

The Bears are now on their first trip through the north. They will wind up Saturday at Buffalo and move into Syracuse Sunday for a single game with the Chiefs. Then they go to Toronto for a three game series with the Maple Leafs.

The Rivers and Harbor Committee of the House of Representatives has adopted a resolution requesting a review of the reports on Compton Creek, Monmouth County, New Jersey, with a view to determining if it is advisable to modify the existing project in any way at this time. This resolution was presented at the request of boat owners who use Compton Creek, where it is stated, additional anchorage and docking facilities are necessary. The action is intended to permit the Chief of Engineers to decide farther up Compton Creek.

Beach Haven Inlet
The new Rivers and Harbors Omnibus Bill, H. R. 10298, which passed the House of Representatives a few days ago, included two measures your Congressman introduced. One of them, H. R. 8338, provided for "an examination and survey of Beach Haven Inlet by the Secretary of War, with a view to securing and maintaining a satisfactory channel at that point between the Atlantic Ocean and Barnegat Bay."

Cedar Run Creek
The other measure included was H. R. 9851 which authorized an examination and survey to be made of "Cedar Creek, Ocean County, New Jersey, from its mouth to the point where it is crossed by New Jersey State Highway No. 4, with a view to dredging a channel in Cedar Creek of adequate width with a depth of approximately eight feet at mean low water."

Hearings To Be Held
In all of these instances hearings will be held by the District Engineer at which those persons interested may state their views regarding the needed work in each case, the extent and depth of the channels and whatever data can be gathered to justify Federal participation in the cost of the work. Those desiring to be heard may be notified of the hearing by sending me their names and addresses and indicating the project in which they are interested.

Merchant Marine Act Amendments
A bill passed by the House and now awaiting Senate action, would amend the Merchant Marine Act of 1936 in a number of sections, chiefly designed to make the 1936 Act more workable, and smoothing out certain sections which presented administrative difficulties. There are, however, two important changes, both designed to stimulate the flow of private capital into American merchant ship construction.

The 1936 Act provided for ship subsidies not exceeding one-third of the ship construction cost except where the Maritime Commission possesses "conclusive" evidence that the actual differential between domestic and foreign construction cost is greater than that amount. Since it is almost impossible to state when evidence is "conclusive," the new act changes that word to "convincant" required of ship lines payment subsidies under the provision building ships under the provision shall be 25% of the "contract price" which does not include the subsidy, rather than 25% of the "contract price" which does include construction cost. The effect here is to reduce the amount of down payment required, which, of course, makes it easier for the ship line to finance a new ship.

The second major provision which will encourage flow of private capital to ship construction is the inauguration of a "ship mortgage insurance" policy, patterned after the Federal Housing Administration home mortgage insurance.

This new Title X provides for the insurance of preferred mortgages up to the 75% of the value of the ship when constructed, or, in the case of reconducing mortgages, when reconstructed. A pre-maturity charge of 20 years. A pre-maturity charge of one-half to one per cent is also provided for.

Ships engaged in Great Lakes, intercoastal, coastwise and foreign trade are eligible for this mortgage insurance, but the ships must be shown to be economically sound. The measure is expected to encourage old ship ships and modernization of age ships. As in Federal Housing old mortgages, but insures mortgages obtained from private financial institutions.

Controversial section 30 of the bill, which would give operation subsidies to intercoastal shippers, was struck out of the bill. It would have favored ocean shipping allegedly to the detriment of rail transportation.

St. Mary's School News

No piety would be truly Christian if it did not include in its object the Mother of the Incarnate Word. Devotion towards the Virgin Mary is not only important, but necessary. If we wish to draw abundantly at the source of life, to separate Christ from His Mother in our piety, is to divide Christ; it is to lose sight of the essential unity of His holy humanity in the distribution of divine grace. Where the Mother is left out, the Son is no longer understood.

Has not this befallen Protestant nations? In rejecting devotion to Mary under pretext of not derogating from the dignity of a single Mediator, have they not ended in even losing faith in the Divinity of Christ Himself? If Jesus Christ is our Saviour, our Mediator, our Elder Brother, because He has taken upon Himself our human nature, how can we love Him truly, how can we resemble Him perfectly, without having a special devotion for her from whom He took this human nature?

But this must be an enlightened devotion. We will consider what Mary has done for Jesus; secondly, what Jesus has done for His Mother; from this we shall see what the Blessed Virgin must be for us. What has Mary given to Jesus? While remaining a virgin, she has given Him a human nature. That is a unique privilege that Mary shares with none. The Word might have appeared here below by taking a human nature, drawn out of nothing and already formed in the perfection of its organism. For reasons of infinite wisdom, this was not done. What is so wonderful in this birth is that the Word made it subject, so to speak, to the consent of this woman, Mary. Mary is the Mother of Christ, for, as all other mothers do for their children, She formed and nourished with her most pure substance the body of Jesus. Such is the ineffable union existing between Jesus and Mary: she is His Mother; He is her Son.

Now all her greatness is founded on this privilege of her divine Motherhood. Christ has, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, "chosen" her in preference to all others. Moreover, there was a special predestination of Mary in the Divine plan, for the Church, on the feast of Our Lady applies to her a passage of Scripture which can only relate in certain points to Eternal Wisdom: "The Lord possessed me in the beginning of His ways, before He made anything from the beginning." (Prov. VIII, 23-25). Further, the Virgin Mary is "immaculate." All the children of Adam are born with the stain of original sin, slaves of the devil, enemies of God. This is the law passed by God for all men's race. Alone out of all creatures, Mary is to escape this universal law. The Eternal Word will make this one exception—one only—for her in whom He is so incarnate. Not only is Mary immaculate in her conception but grace abounds in her. For did not the angel salute her, as "full of grace?" There are the graces that the hidden life with Jesus brings to Mary; there are those coming from her union with her Son in the mysteries of His public life, and of His passion; and, to fill up the measure, there is her Assumption into Heaven. All of these privileges and graces, Mary receives from the eternal choice God made of Mary to be the Mother of His Son.

Let us, therefore, ask Our Lady that grace may be poured forth abundantly from her Jesus, upon us, so that by love we may become more and more conformed to this beloved Son of the Father, Who is also her Son.

State Scholarship Deadline Is June 1

Applications for state scholarships in the next entering class at Rutgers University must be filed by June 1st, according to announcement by Dean Fraser Metzger, chairman of the scholarship committee. These scholarships, open to students wishing to enter college next September, cover all tuition and fees except certain minor fees, but not living expenses and are allocated to counties numerically according to the number of legislators representing each county.

No student will be eligible for one of the awards unless he stands in the upper half of his graduation class, and unless he needs the assistance to obtain a higher education. Applicants must also satisfy requirements of character, evidence of leadership, and similar qualities of civic usefulness, and they must pass a scholastic aptitude test to be given at Rutgers in the latter part of June. Candidates must have the endorsement of their school principal or headmaster based on the above qualifications.

Requests for application blanks and for additional information may be obtained from Dean Fraser Metzger, Rutgers University, New Brunswick, N. J.

Wednesday evening when the series of game socials under auspices of St. Mary's Parish were resumed, four hundred persons attended.

Among the winners of the feature prizes were Mrs. Mary Friedman, an occasional chair; Mrs. Moran, IES floor lamp; Mrs. Frank McLaughlin, table radio—James Stolte reversible topcoat; Mrs. Edward McDonough, bowtie chair and Mrs. Flaga, an electric sewing machine.

Because the prosperity prize was unclaimed at the party this week, it will contain $100 at the party next Wednesday night. Among the prizes to be awarded will be a porch glider, Philco console radio, fishing rod and reel, electric food mixer and a 6 piece club aluminum set.

A series of novelty games will be staged including "the Lucky Seventh", Double Mystery and "Not Yet Please" games.

Army Will Recruit 1800 Young Men For Foreign Service

Recruits Will Be Sent To Panama Canal Zone and the Philippines

New York, May 1.—Army recruiting, closed since January 15, opened Monday to permit acceptance of 1,800 qualified young men to fill vacancies occurring in Regular Army garrisons in the Panama Canal Zone and the Philippines, according to an announcement by Colonel Lloyd B. Magruder, in charge of recruiting in New York, New Jersey and Delaware, with headquarters at No. 39 Whitehall street, New York City.

Suspension of recruiting for Army garrisons in Hawaii and within the continental United States will continue, it was indicated.

Fourteen hundred of the recruits sought will be sent to the Panama Canal Zone to serve in the Engineers, Medical Department, Coast Artillery, Field Artillery and Infantry. The remaining four hundred are destined for the Philippines as members of the Coast Artillery and Infantry.

Only unmarried American citizens between 18 and 35 years who can furnish evidence of good character and can pass the intelligence and physical tests of the Army will be considered by recruiting officers. Those under 21 years must have the written consent of their parents.

Spetswood Mayor Heads South River Hunn-Ford Agency

Mayor George J. Siegel Made
Manager of Ferry St. Sales
Office This Week

Mayor George J. Siegel, of Spetswood, former automobile racing star mechanic, was made manager of the Ferry street salesroom of the W. F. Hunn Ford agency in South River early this week. Mr. Hunn, who also manages the Spetswood agency of Ford-Lincoln sales and service, in announcing the appointment of Mayor Siegel as South River manager, said that the Mayor has brought good luck to the business from the time he entered the organization several years ago and that a pick-up in business since the decision to make him the South River manager has been noticeable already.

Mayor Siegel has been the head of the Spetswood governing body for eight years and was a Councilman for the borough for three years before that. He has an enviable reputation as a star in the automobile race years ago with a wide reputation as a star in the automobile bble game.

He has had thirty years' experience in the automobile business, during which he has been practically everything from mechanic to factory representative. He was the mechanic who rode with David Rasta when Rasta won the world's championship at 116 miles per hour on a wood plank track in a Peugeot car. Rasta was killed in England later and Mayor Siegel still has vivid recollections of his experiences with Rasta.

Mayor Siegel helped Gaston Chevrolet, a brother of Louis Chevrolet, after whom the present well known car of that name was named, build a special racing car in which Chevrolet later lost his life in a race in California.

Mr. Hunn thinks the recession is over and suggests that anyone interested in automobiles, even though not yet ready to make a purchase, drop in and get acquainted with Mayor Siegel, who can and will tell you of experiences that date back to the one-cylinder days of the automobile business and practically everything in between.

Two Railroad Vets Living in This City Were on 'John Bull'

The fact that South Amboy and South Amboyans have played an important part in the development of the railroad industry in the United States from its infancy, was brought out the other day when the members of the local Railroad Men's Association visited Elizabeth.

The local veterans were guests at the Elizabeth YMCA when motion pictures showing the development of equipment from the "John Bull", first engine on the Camden and Amboy railroad, until the present day were shown. It developed during the discussion that followed, that two members of the party, R. M. Kerr, Sr., former engine house foreman here and Charles B. Pearce, worked on the famous pioneer engine, which hauled the first train from Camden to this city. These two men were among the crew who reconditioned the famous engine before it was moved to the Smithsonian Institute in Washington, where it is now on exhibition. Both local men were mere lads at the time, beginning their railroad careers. Thomas Kerr, Sr. was the master mechanic in charge of the work.

The "John Bull" was the first locomotive used for passenger traffic in America. It was built by the Birmingham Iron Works in Tynes, England. In 1830 it was brought to this country in sections and landed at Philadelphia in 1831 and taken from there to Bordentown in a sloop and transported from the landing place to the track, about two miles distant, by teams and wagons, the track having been laid while the engine was being brought from England.

The trip to this city was made in May 1831 and was witnessed by a great multitude of people including members of the legislature and president and officers of the new road. Isaac Dripps was the engineer and Benjamin Higgins the stoker. During the trip it made the then almost unbelievable speed of ten miles an hour.

The trip to Elizabeth brought forth a flood of recollections of the "John Bull" and early railroading days here and former Mayor Chas. T. Mason unearthed an interesting souvenir in the shape of a nut from the old engine which he has been using for years as a paper weight. The nut, hand forged of brass is 2 1/4 in. wide and 1 1/2 in. long, the top grooved to a depth of about an inch to form a lock.

Other veteran railroaders recalled an interesting story in connection with one of the cars of the original train, which is now on exhibition in Washington. For some years, the car taken from railroad service was used as a chicken coop by the late Samuel Newton and when the historical value of the train was brought to the attention of the museum authorities, it was discovered after a considerable search and reconditioned for exhibition purposes.

During the Elizabeth visit, the local men were the guests of S. H. Ingraham, another railroad veteran and a former resident, and the "Old Guard", Elizabeth retired men's association. They visited the Union County Court House and Jail and later were served dinner at the Elizabeth YMCA.

Members of the local party were: Charles B. Pearce, Thomas S. Spangenberg, George G. Oliver, Charles H. Stockton, J. Tracy Dill, W. Britt Dietrick, T. P. Bloodgood, R. M. Kerr, George T. Allen, Marshall E. Magee, James K. Stults, John Brophy, T. F. Brennan, David H. Edwards, Peter W. Applegate, Benjamin H. Gominger, Henry M. Dill, William P. Nichols and Lewis Tringley.

At the next meeting of the local organization, to take place at the YMCA Tuesday afternoon, C. C. Lever of Elizabeth will talk on "the experiences of a telegraph operator".

WHY RETAIL STORES FAIL

Competition, from chains or other stores, is an insignificant factor in the failure of independent merchants. That statement goes against popular conception—but it is buttressed by impressive statistics.

According to Dr. Julius Klein, the well-known economist, 33 per cent of such failures are due to lack of capital; 30 per cent to lack of experience; 34 per cent to miscellaneous causes, and only 3 per cent to competition.

Dr. Paul H. Nystrom, another noted authority on merchandising, estimates that 75 per cent of all business mortality may be attributed to incompetence, inexperience, and lack of capital.

The United States Chamber of Commerce attributes 37.2 per cent of failures to lack of capital; 31.4 per cent to incompetence; 4.9 per cent to inexperience, and but 3.9 per cent to competition, with extravagance, unwise credits, natural disasters, etc., accounting for the balance.

The Federal Trade Commission recently investigated the underlying causes for the failures of 167 stores in 30 communities, and found that it had been the result of competition in only 3 cases.

It cannot be a coincidence that these four independent surveys reach almost identical conclusions. The adequately-financed thrifty, efficient and experienced merchant need have little fear of competition, or of failure from any other cause.

RUSSIAN "PROSPERITY"

(From the Boston Herald)

To earn a pound of butter the unskilled worker in Moscow must labor almost two days. His wages will be 150 rubles a month, a ruble being 20 cents. (That's $30 a month). Butter costs ten rubles a pound. The skilled worker may earn a pound of butter in a single day. The cheapest shoes to be had in Moscow, of a quality probably the worst in Europe, will cost the unskilled worker the equivalent of one month of toil.

For a decent pair of shoes the skilled worker also must invest his earnings of a month. For any sort of respectable suit of clothes a college trained employee, paid from 600 to 1,000 rubles a month, must hand over the wages of six weeks.

These comparisons, however, make no allowance for the deductions from the wages of every toiler. He will have to work many more hours and days for his butter, shoes and clothes, because one ruble in every five goes for trade union dues, association subscriptions, taxes and loans, all of which are collected under compulsion.

These comparisons are from the correspondence of the Manchester Guardian, in an article reproduced in the Baltimore Sun. Lately returned from a prolonged residence in Russia, the writer pictures conditions there as anything but alluring. Everybody is entitled to employment but nobody has any freedom to go and come as he pleases, or any control over his rates of pay. The low level of real wages, the worker's income, not in rubles and kopecks but in their exchange value for the necessities of life, is an unsolved problem in the Soviet republic.

The writer holds that the technique of production somehow must be mastered before long or else the "very existence of the Soviet system will be jeopardized." What is happening is what may be expected to happen anywhere when private initiative is abolished. Nobody who works in any sort of occupation in Russia takes any genuine interest in the quality or quantity of his output.

$1,200 JUDGMENT FOR FREDERICK HOLMAN

In an action before Judge William C. Leyden in the New Jersey Supreme Court, Wednesday, Frederick Holman, of Asbury Park, a former local resident, was awarded a judgment of $2,000 against the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. The action was the result of injuries Holman declared he received in an accident on April 28, 1934, at the intersection of Cliffwood avenue and the State Highway at Cliffwood, N. J.

Frank A. Reid, local attorney, represented Holman.

Ash From Cremation
Cremation destroys everything that is combustible and leaves behind only a small amount of ash. In the case of a human body, this amounts to about four pounds of compounds of calcium, potassium, sodium, magnesium, iron, etc., with oxygen. The composition and proportions of these will vary with the composition of the original vegetable or animal matter.

PIPE DREAMS

By Nick-o-Time

Man walking around with the best undertaker face during the past week was not an undertaker, but an ex-barber now a truck driver.

He pilots the red truck at the local power plant and always has it shined up like a pair of new shoes, was detailed to carry mud in it scooped from the meadows about the plant with steam shovels.

Everytime he backed the truck up and stood there watching it being loaded, he looked as if he was posing for a statue to be entitled "Calamity" or "Sad Charlie".

Local girl sat in the back seat of a car the other night, having her finger pinched, and she didn't say a word. It wasn't that she was sitting with one of our Romeos who was pinching her finger, and besides, who ever heard of local Romeos pinching fingers.

The truth of the matter is that the girl was riding in the back seat of a car belonging to a local bus mechanic and when she wanted to put the window down, caught her finger in it and rode along for ten minutes before she could think of the word "stop", so often used in the back seat of cars.

This girl, who works in a local uniform factory, was all put out of breath after her experience, and sat down emitting plenty of pants.

One of the local railroad vets, who went with the gang to Elizabeth Friday afternoon almost stayed in that city for a while, when he was found to be a spoon thief despite the fact that he's a prominent church member and has always been looked up to by local residents as an ideal citizen.

It was while the group were visiting in the jail kitchen that the undersheriff plunged his hand into the pocket of the ex-railroader and discovered he had one of the prison spoons. It was only because the undersheriff decided to be a good Scout too that the local ex-railroader escaped embarrassment. After our subsequent development, however, discloses the fact that the spoon was dropped into his pocket by another ex-railroader in the group.

Local automobile mechanic who works on a hill here, had trouble with his knee action while walking down First street the other day and almost stalled his engine at the corner of First and Stockton streets where he stood for several minutes swaying, then moving toward first one street then the other. He finally found the old town is still laid out as it always has been and proceeded slowly and with caution, to his destination.

Sunday afternoon the Lewis A. A. married and single men held another ball game and they are still debating whether the score was 783 to 7 or 73 to 7 in favor of the handicapped.

There were so many highlights in the game that it gave the appearance of an airport. The club sponsor found he was so fat that when he finally did hit the ball he had to call for a runner to get to first. Later when someone threw him the ball and he didn't catch it, he decided that since he didn't have the ball in hand he'd use a bat and slung the ball to him.

The big Moose of the post office staff was out in the field allegedly performing the duties of a fielder up until the time someone knocked a ball in his direction, he reached up for it and it came down on top of his head.

The grey haired bar wearer of the local police department prepared for several days for a fishing trip recently, then went off without the only real important part of the equipment—the reel.

When this former Marine arrived at the South Jersey fishing grounds, he found he had plenty of bait, a fishing line and a pole but no reel to use on the pole. He exhibited real concern over the absence of the equipment that is of real importance to every real fisherman and was set back several hours on his fish catching schedule before he could secure the necessary equipment.

Things are moving fast in this world nowadays that a fellow has all he can do to keep up with things. Popular young gas man of town got married one Saturday only a couple of weeks ago and last Sunday he strolled up Second St. with a bassinet.

At that rate we expect that by Decoration Day, we'll observe him sitting on the front porch with several of his grandchildren on his knee.

While he was walking down Smith street, Perth Amboy, Saturday night, a local mechanic certainly told his wife. When she got through talking he declared "I'll get a couple of shirts some other time." "Now you'll get them right now when I'm along, to help pick them out," she said, as if she was snapping out a Junior Order.

Some of these local boys who are exerting every effort to get just one girl, must envy that popular bus driver who recently became a landscape gardener and has to keep his foot on the brake when he drives a bus, to keep from running over the women who are anxious to get on his bus.

Saturday night, when he was piloting No. 24, two women were eager to get on his bus in Perth Amboy at five minutes to ten that they rushed out in the street in front of the vehicle, and only the fact that he's a good driver, prevented there being run over.

Apparently jealous of the publicity the proprietor of the "Ray of Sunshine", received recently over double yolk eggs, the "First Ward Wildman" went over to his friend's thirteenth birthday the other day and got what he thought was a dozen double yolk eggs and passed them out to the "Sage of Baptist Hill" and other barologists present in the place.

They turned out to be overgrown single yolk eggs, however so the "Wildman" only got half his money's worth. He has five witnesses ready to prove they only got single yolk eggs.

There's no doubt about it, Forty Two Street George is slipping. Last winter when he took the girls out in a car he used to turn off the heater and pull the windows down to keep the temperature even, he thought he was so hot. He's lost confidence in himself, however, and one recent hot day when he took his heart throb out in a car he turned on the heater.

Two Broadway grocery clerks went to New York the other day and were A&P (anxious and perturbed) before they arrived back here.

They journeyed to the big city to see "Jungle Love" and somebody figured the picture was so hot that the local boys didn't need their overcoats and stole them.

Sunday a local group went down to the South Jersey hunting grounds for a little party and one member, a Melroseite, took two bottles of soda home for his wife, fearing evidently that his dear would bowl him out for spending all that time in the deer woods.

When the local Elephant Lovers went to that Plainsboro conflagration recently, some of them left the crowd for huddle purposes. One member of the party, who was so dressed up, he looked like a rose in bloom, went off alone and thought he had found the place he was looking for, until he pushed a button on the plumb line. Then he found he wasn't there he thought he was, but in a shower bath, because the water came down from above, immediately after contact with the thumb and button. He was different from the rest of the politicians present after that, because he had to admit he was "all wet".

We've been using all our Powers of detection recently trying to learn the reason why a local comedian left a banquet one morning recently at 2 A. M. and told his companions to wait for him. They waited thirty minutes then left, and are still trying to find out why he didn't return. For their information, the fellow has persuasive Powers.

The other night a Chevrolet Sedan was parked directly in front of the double doors of the Broadway fire house and two Helens got out, walked back to the next corner for an ice cream cone, and left two other ladies in the back seat.

They returned in about half an hour but the car remained parked, while the occupants sat there eating their cones. When the firemen outside gave strong hints about the parking they got nothing but looks as cold as the contents of the ice cream cones.

Former local man about town, who deserted our fair city for Newark which he considered fairer, was slightly peeved at finding himself mentioned in this column. The truth of the matter is that he was worried about what the girl friend would think. However, although his name appears several times on page 18 of our little black book, we will not transfer the information to print right now, because he still stands Pat with us.

Man and woman who recently sent a dog to oblivion by means of an improvised gas chamber, as reported here recently, are still busy. They're trying to find how the news leaked out, since the gas didn't.

Prominent young man, ex-president of a popular club, denies he bought a DeSota car for the purpose of making it easy to meet the girl friend, who lives in President Park. We still see that har however. This same young fellow undertook to drive to work one rainy morning, and stopped in Perth Amboy to get a paper. When he re-entered the car he couldn't make it go forward, but had no trouble making it go backward. Puzzled he called a local wrecker then walked off to work in the rain. That night the mechanic told him there were nothing wrong with the car, except that its driver forgot it was "free wheeling".

Quite an ingenious fellow he is too, 've found. He wanted a dog house, but had no saw, borrowed one from a neighbor then set to work building the dog house with the aid of a stove lifter, screw driver, some rusty nails and screws, a cigar box, packing box and a double barreled hand saw.

But when, many funny things so to speak are happening in that neighborhood. For instance the paper hanger who recently went to Newark with a girl friend to purchase an ice box ice is now a varnisher and a big clay man starting work on the clay as soon as it comes from the Bank.

That popular Pine avenue hair clipper certainly believes in going at a lively clip in order to keep in practice. Recent Sunday morning he was observed shaving and trimming some poles that he intends to use for a barber's arbor.

"We've known for some time that the reason all these local firemen are desirous to be wardens is because the badges entitle them to free admission to some places, but we couldn't figure why a former chief of the local department was present at the showing of each new picture at the "Cowboy Theatre" in Perth Amboy until we discovered his brother is an usher over there.

Up on the Hill there are many queries concerning the whereabouts of "Cedar Street Mike". Apparently he's finally selected one from that string of women he has, to become his steady. Our guess is that it's a girl whose first name has five letters and begins with "H" and ends with "N".

Crack Eastern Pilots Promise Speed Thrills At Langhorne Opening

Many Entries For Event To Take Place May 15

Langhorne, Pa., May 4.—With cars identical in design and horsepower, with the trim speed craft that western and Indianapolis speedway drivers are bringing to Langhorne on May 15 for the opening of the big mile track, crack eastern drivers have served notice that they are prepared to accept every challenge from the invaders. Joe Dawson, zone supervisor for the AAA contest board advised.

The fact that tremendous high speeds are possible at Langhorne and the races are exceptionally long, AAA experts say that it isn't always to the swift that the race goes as only a machine in perfect mechanical condition can stand the pace and strain, particularly if the driver fails to breathe his motor regularly.

This condition develops hope for such consistent drivers as Frank and Don Moore, Eldridge and Monk Tadlock, Henri Guerand, Al Cusick, Red Redmond, Roy Lake, Eddie Stanek, Walt Brown, Doc Klein, and a couple of dozen more whose machines are not considered quite as fast as the screaming Millers, Cragers and McDowells. Dawson also points out that Frankie Bailey won the eastern championship in 1936 in a Hal Special and there will be at least a dozen Halls in the race May 15 that will have an excellent chance to cop the money.

Three Rutgers Teams To Face Lafayette Invaders Tomorrow

Scarlet Varsity Nine Revamped For Encounter

Lafayette, traditional rival of Rutgers, will furnish the opposition for three Scarlet athletic teams at New Brunswick this Saturday. The Leopard varsity and freshmen baseball teams and varsity tennis team comprise the invading forces.

The Scarlet baseball team will face the Marquis with a revamped line-up on Neilson Field at 2 P. M. A lame arm has benched Shorty Schank, peppery short stop, and Bub Shaw has been moved from 3rd base to short. Chuck Bobrowski will be at third, Parker Staples in left field, and Carl Miller will be at first in the absence of Moon Mullon, away to Maryland with the track team. Jim Oughton will be in Miller's regular spot in right field. Bill Freeman in center field, Stan Dreswick as catcher, and Shorty Tilton at second base completes the line-up.

Dick Steadman, dependable senior right hander, will probably be on the mound for Rutgers as the Scarlet seeks its first victory over Lafayette since 1935. Last year, the Leopards won twice, 9 to 1 and 6 to 2. In the series dating back to 1887, Lafayette enjoys a wide margin in the victory column. Leopards teams have won 38 games, Rutgers, 12, with one game in 1936, ending in a 6-6 tie.

A victory for the Rutgers freshman nine on Neilson Field following the varsity game, will give it the Middle Three crown, since it has already defeated Lehigh's cubs.

Seeking to repeat its 8 to 1 victory of last year over Lafayette and thus gain a leg on the Middle Three championship it is defending, the Scarlet tennis team will face the Leopards on the Blecker Place courts at 2:30.

The varsity track team will invade Maryland Saturday, for the first meet in history with a University of Maryland track team. The Scarlet will be heavily favored in the field events, but Maryland's superiority in the track events will probably give the Terrapins the meet.

The freshman lacrosse team will be seeking its first victory of the season when it meets the Manual Training High School team of Brooklyn on College Field at 2:30.

DIAMOND DUST

Recently our brother columnist, Bill Kozusko stated that Perth Amboy's gifts to organized baseball were playing regularly with their respective clubs but he hadn't seen Pete Pavich's name in the Fort Smith lineup.

The reason Pete Pavich's name was not seen in the Fort Smith lineup was due to the fact that he was stricken with two successive ailments. For the first three weeks of his training period, Pavich was unable to play because of his sore arm. After his arm healed, he was ordered to have his tonsils removed which left him idle for another week.

Even though Pavich suffered from the above injuries for more than a month, it is understood that he played shortstop for the Fort Smith club when the season started on May 4th. Incidentally, fans can be assured that Pavich will be seen in his team's lineup throughout the entire season, barring injuries.

Because of his numerous ailments, Pete's teammates nicknamed the local boy, Kid Ailment. Since he has his tonsils removed, Pavich should gain weight very easily.

Reporter's time clock: Sunday, April 24th: Saw Romeos lose to the Sayreville Cardinals and Allen Hoffman strike out with the bases loaded in the same game. Tuesday, April 26th: Witnessed the Governor's loss to Freehold and saw Bob Maxfield relieve Russ Sprague with the bases loaded and no outs. He pulled a Dizzy Dean and retired the side with three successive strikeouts. Took in the Tri-City Boxing Finals and saw Gus Balbach defeat DiNunzio, the idol of Perth Amboy.

Wednesday, April 27th: Witnessed the surprise of the bowling league when Peterson's Pharmacy defeated Green's and were crowned champions of the "Y" circuit. Thursday, April 28th: Attended the city baseball meeting and discovered that Romeo's trophy is in possession of the Hot'n Dogs. Friday, April 29th: Saw the Governors lead Keyport by a 10-1 score but the latter team rallied and defeated the locals by a 19-16 count. Saw Vince Fratello of Hackensack, 160 lb. open amateur champ of the state, win his 25th and 26th straight bouts and heard Sam Corti refuse to fight Gus Balbach because the Balbach A. A. wouldn't pay him twenty dollars for expenses.

A group of bowlers told yours truly that Shorty Stivers article in this column last week was very good but they added that Stivers forgot to mention that Shorty himself was the biggest bowling disappointment of the circuit. They also asserted that Red Coogan is the most improved bowler in the Class B league.

In their St. Peter's tilt Tuesday afternoon the Blue and Gold made five straight errors in the first inning. The Hot'n Dogs pitchers told this correspondent to wear a catching outfit when batting against the DiSantis club. The Mechanicsville team will wear new suits in the city league.

The city league should attempt to have the services of an officer of the law present at all city league games this season whose duty it would be to eradicate all profanity and vulgarity then maybe the women folk would witness the city league contests because of the lawlessness that existed last year most of the males refused to bring their female companions to the games.

After watching Banjo Scritore work out this corner is inclined to believe that the Tigers will have the next to best, if not the best, son. Better keep plugging, Budniak, catcher in the city circuit this season if you wish to be known as South Amboy's best catcher.

Lefty Jankowski is now pitching for the A. S. and R. in the industrial league. He quit pitching in Tottenville in preference of Saturday and Sunday games with a Linden team. He plays four games a week. One with the Hot'n Dogs, two with Linden and one with the Industrialists. He'll have his arm in a sling when this season terminates.

Here's a coincidence: The Peterson Pharmacy Bowling team went through the same routine as did the Romeo baseball team before they were crowned champions. In the first half of the bowling league, Peterson's rolled off with the Green's Men's Shop and lost. In the first half of the baseball league, Romeo played the playoff with the Sacred Hearts and lost.

In the second half, Peterson's bowled Brennan's in a roll off and won. Romeos played the Tigers a play off game for the second half and won. Peterson's met Green's for the championship and won. Romeo's encountered the Sacred Hearts and won the championship.

"Dixie" Brought Small Pay Daniel D. Emmett, who wrote that peppy favorite of the Southland, "Dixie," which Lincoln asked to be played at the end of the war, got only $500 in the sale of the copy-right.

Republicans Speculate on Entry Of David Heneby in Mayor Race

Local Republicans this week pondered considerably over recent developments in the party and speculations were rife as to their effects.

The principal cause of apprehension was the announcement made at a gathering of county Republicans at the home of state chairman Henry W. Jeffers at Plainsboro recently, that David Heneby would be a candidate for mayor on the Republican ticket in the primary. The formal announcement made by former Freeholder Wm. S. Day, confirmed rumors that have been passed about in the Republican camp during the past several weeks that former Mayor Charles T. Mason, who recently announced his candidacy, will have primary opposition.

The local delegation, one of the largest attending the Plainsboro get-together, was led by Mrs. Evelyn Hardy and former Freeholder Wm. S. Day and talks were delivered by Day; D.-W. Heneby, Mrs.

Harold Hoffman and former police judge Charles M. Bloom.

The political wise of the city appear to be divided in their opinion regarding the entrance of Heneby in the primary race. One group contend that it will serve to stimulate party interest and will result in the eventual amalgamation of two wings of the party that have been at odds for several years past. On the other hand, from equally reliable sources there came the prediction that a primary fight, while it will probably bring out one of the largest Republican vote in recent years would serve to widen the breach between the two factions and create greater discord in the party, regardless of which candidate wins. They predict also that the fight between the two factions will continue even after the primary, and its effects will be shown at the general election.

Youth Week Program Sponsored By Rotary Club

Climaxing its observation of National Youth's Week, the South Amboy Rotary Club held one of the largest meetings in history Tuesday noon, when eight boys, four representing each of the local schools, former Governor Harold G. Hoffman, Mayor Thomas F. Gleason and other city officials were guests at the noon luncheon.

That this country is not properly training its youth for the future is such nations as Italy, Germany and Japan was the contention of Patrick White, a member of the faculty of Perth Amboy High School, who was the principal speaker. He declared the increase in juvenile delinquency is a matter of grave consideration and every effort should be bent by parents and civic organizations to curb it. He declared the principal factors in youth guidance are the home, the church and the school. Rotary clubs and other organizations dedicated to community betterment should take a special interest in the important question of youth guidance. He declared the fact that movements such as National Youth Week are not followed up, and declared there is too much criticism of boy's organizations interested in boy's work and people generally fail to appreciate the wonderful work they accomplish.

Mayor Gleason told of the duties of the Mayor of South Amboy and showed the importance of all city agencies working in cooperation in order to secure good government. He concluded his remarks by declaring he had lived his entire life in this city and declaring it was second to none in the country.

Former Governor Hoffman also delivered a short talk in which he gave the boys some advice for their future conduct.

Among the guests were M. F. Nagle, superintendent of the Board of Public Works, George A. Kress, city treasurer; John Zdanewicz, councilman-at-large; City Clerk G. Frank Disbrow, J. T. Dill, honorary member of the club and head of the Boy Scouts in this city, and Simone Oliver, an Eskimo, speaker at a previous meeting of the club, who rendered a piano solo.

During the morning, the boys occupied the various city offices under the supervision of their regular occupants and following the Rotary meeting they returned to school, where an address was delivered by Simone Oliver, who told of the life and costumes of the Eskimo people. The speaker was furnished by the Rotary Club.

The boy officials and the offices they occupied were: Mayor, John Triggs; City Solicitor, Neil Johnson; Fire Chief, Thomas Giltner; Street Commissioner, Neil Johnson; City Engineer, Richard Stratton; City Clerk, Thomas Giltner; First and Second Ward Councilman, Fred Palge; Third Ward Councilman, John Lyons; Fourth Ward Councilman, Richard Stratton; President of the Council, Harry Steuber; Chief of Police, John Lyons; Tax Collector, John Triggs; Jailor, Fred Palge; Water Commissioner and Police Judge, Neil Johnson.

The completion of this work increases property values in this section by furnishing water and sewer facilities.

Many Local Men Will Be Affected By Railroad Pay Cuts

Railroads Say Position Is Desperate—Unions Threaten To Fight

Approximately 250 local railroad men it is estimated, will be effected by a 15 per cent wage cut for 1,000,000 employees of the nation's major railroads effective July 1, recently voted by the Association of American Railroads, embracing 142 Class I lines, to save $250,000,000 a year and offset dwindling revenues and increased operating costs.

The Association contends the action was necessary because the financial position of the railroads is more desperate than in 1932 when employees accepted a 10 per cent reduction. The resolution however evoked a promise of stiff opposition from leaders of various railroad unions. D. B. Robertson, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, said, "There will be no wage reduction agreed to by railroad employees."

Robertson described the move as an "attempt to embarrass" President Roosevelt in his "efforts to bolster recovery," and asserted that the railroads had slashed their pay rolls $40,000,000 a month since October.

A similar sentiment was expressed by George M. Harrison, head of the Railroad Labor Executives Association. He declared "I am disappointed that the railroads should launch a movement to cut wages and dry up purchasing power. The railroads problem is not as acute as management representatives are endeavoring to make the public believe."

The association, however, cited a drop of $13,710,622, or 10 per cent, in net operating income during the four months ended January 1, 1938, compared with the four months ended January 31, 1932.

The association too, drew attention to the fact that net operating income in January 1938, fell 38 per cent below that of January, 1932, and freight traffic has now fallen below the 1932 level.

As the first step toward the contemplated cut, the association served notice on the two unions. A spokesman said that if the unions should object, negotiations between management and employee representatives would ensue. Should these fail, the National Mediation Board could intervene at the request of either side. Finally, should arbitration effect no settlement, President Roosevelt could appoint a fact finding group to make recommendations.

The wage reduction of 10 per cent accepted by the unions in 1932 was restored during the subsequent general business improvement. Pay increases were granted in the face of strike threats last year.

The sixteen non-operating unions obtained an advance of 40 cents a day on October 1. This was calculated at about 6.6 per cent. The raises would have amounted to some $133,000,000 a year on the basis of 1936 operations.

New Policy On Water Bill Collection For Board of Works

Will Resort To Shut Off Policy To Comply With Demands Of New State Law

In order to comply with the provisions of the new State Budget Law, it has been necessary for the Board of Public Works to inaugurate a new system of billing of water accounts and adopt more stringent policies in order to meet the obligations placed upon it.

The board faces the necessity of paying off $6,000 for bonds and $3,000 in interest on bonds within the next few days in order not to violate the law, and every effort is being made to meet this demand.

Notices have been mailed out by the Board calling attention to the change in policy made necessary and it is expected sufficient funds will be secured to meet its financial obligations.

Officials of the board have declared that in cases where the bills are not paid it may be necessary to shut off water immediately. Three methods of meeting the situation have been discussed, first to cut off all delinquents, second to add a service charge for re-connection in cases where service is discontinued and third to increase the rates to all users. After considerable discussion the members of the board decided on the shutoff policy, feeling that a general increase in rates, because of the new law would be unfair to those water users who pay bills promptly.

The half dozen spectators present at the Tuesday evening meeting of the Council saw the members start their session but twenty minutes late and pass an ordinance authorizing the improvement of practically all the remaining unimproved streets in the city. The ordinance authorizes the issuance of $13,500 worth of bonds to finance the city's contribution toward the work which will be performed under WPA auspices and $9,500 worth of bonds to cover the cost of improvements to be specially assessed.

The new ordinance sets the hours between 7 A. M. and 3 A. M. as the time taverns may be open for business.

From Commissioner Burnett the Council received information concerning an investigation conducted by the ABC recently at the Bay View Inn, when the place was found open after the closing hours provided for in the existing ordinance, and the matter was referred to the Council for action toward revocation or suspension of the license. The matter was referred to City Solicitor McGuire.

$15,000 Improvement Program Sanctioned For Empire Theatre

Work Will Begin In Short Time Declares David Snapper

David Snapper, owner of the Empire Theatre here, announced this week that as soon as some minor details are decided upon, complete renovation of the theatre, involving the expenditure of $15,000 will take place. The major portion of the improvement plan will be carried out so that it will be necessary to close the theatre but a short time, he added.

Complete renovation of the interior of the building will result in more standing room and a new standard rail will be installed. The new drapes will be hung and the entire building will be repainted inside and outside.

LOOKING BACK
22 YEARS

Issue of May 6, 1916

Freeholder A. T. Kerr, of this city, introduced a resolution at the meeting of the Board of Freeholders held in New Brunswick, on Monday for the improvement of Main street from Broadway to Washington avenue and continuing up the avenue to Deep Cut Bridge. It was unanimously adopted.

If the plans of the Mayor of this city materializes there will be another Old Home Day celebration here this summer. Mayor Day has issued a call to all that are interested to meet in his office at the City Hall next Monday evening to discuss the matter. A special invitation is extended to the members of last year's committees and all others will be eagerly welcomed.

The celebration this year will fall on August 12th, that being the second Saturday in the month of August. Owing to the short space of time between that date and the present time, the committee will have to get a hustle on if the celebration is to be held. Last year's monster success will render much of the work comparatively easy, however, as many of the ideas can be used again to good advantage.

There is, of course, much to be done notwithstanding and a big meeting is hoped for next Monday night so that plans can be gotten out and work started with a rush.

South Amboy Council No. 426, has chartered a special train to take the members to Newark on Monday, May 15, the time set aside by the committee of one hundred on the 250th anniversary of the City of Newark for a night parade of the Knights of Columbus. From latest information there is likely to be 17,000 Knights in line. A band of drum corps will be engaged to lead South Amboy Council.

Official fobs may be obtained from John Connors, treasurer, for 25 cents each. Every member should have one. Tickets may be secured from any member of the committee, at regular fare rate, or may be secured at station by mentioning K. of C. special. Any person not a Knight can go, and no doubt many will avail themselves of seeing Newark's handsome decorations and illuminations. The parade of the K. of C. alone will be worth going miles to see.

The Congregation Seven Brothers of this city, has filed articles of incorporation at the County Clerk's Office, the object being to acquire land for the erection of a Jewish house of worship to be conducted along orthodox principles.

The trustees for the first year are Samuel Lerner, Alexander Goldstein, Joseph Goldstein and B. Paffer, all of this city. The papers were drawn by Leo Goldberger, of Perth Amboy.

The Woman's Club held their annual election of officers at a meeting on Thursday afternoon, and Mrs. William P. Nichols was elected to the office of the presidency of this organization for a third term. Mrs. Nichols has already served two terms in that office and was somewhat adverse to again accepting the honor. The Club, however, managed to persuade her to again guide the destinies of the organization.

Other officers elected were as follows: First vice-president, Mrs. G. W. Crane; second vice-president, Mrs. Edwin Jaques; recording secretary, Miss Edna Agan; corresponding secretary, Miss Josephine James. The office of corresponding secretary also includes that of press correspondent. Mrs. Emilie Christani was elected as treasurer and directors for three years were as follows: Mrs. William S. Dey, Mrs. D. W. Wood, Miss Bertha S. Fulton, and Miss Bertha Deibert.

Blair, Bears Shortstop
"Had To Show Them"

Announcement that Buddy Blair would be the shortstop for the Newark Bears for this season didn't cause the fans to become excited. They assumed that Missouri attitude as fans do when the thermometer is down around zero. They wanted to be shown, and personally inspect the youngster before passing judgment.

When the Bears returned from their training camp the ability of Buddy was well known. Yet the fans reserved judgment. The former Binghamton player was seen in two exhibition games at Ruppert stadium and his work pleased. Then the race was on. Blair was off to a good start. His hitting stood up, his fielding was high class and his throwing made the fans marvel.

He has a great arm, fast and covers acres of ground. Buddy has already instilled himself with the Bear fans.

The youngster has improved very much since the race began. Manager Neum is satisfied he will be one of the stars of the team and also the league.

The Bears are now on their first trip through the north. They will wind up Saturday at Buffalo and move into Syracuse Sunday for a single game with the Clif's. Then they go to Toronto for a three game series with the Maple Leafs.

George Delaney has taken over the agency for the Hupmobile and this week received one of the latest improved cars of that make. It is a big seven passenger, and is indeed a thing of beauty.

It is stated that an air ship was seen hovering over this city about 10 o'clock Tuesday evening.

There is, of course, much to be done notwithstanding and a big meeting is hoped for next Monday night so that plans can be gotten out and work started with a rush.

The Rivers and Harbor Committee of the House of Representatives has adopted a resolution requesting a review of the reports on Compton Creek, Monmouth County, New Jersey, with a view to determining if it is advisable to modify the existing project in any way at this time. This resolution was presented at the request of boat owners who use Compton Creek, where it is stated, additional anchorage and docking facilities are necessary. The action is intended to permit the Chief of Engineers to decide further up Compton Creek.

Beach Haven Inlet

The new Rivers and Harbors Omnibus Bill, H. R. 10298, which passed the House of Representatives a few days ago, included two measures your Congressman introduced. One of them, H. R. 8338, provided for "an examination and survey of Beach Haven Inlet by the Secretary of War, with a view to securing and maintaining a satisfactory channel at that point between the Atlantic Ocean and Barnegat Bay."

Cedar Run Creek

The other measure included was H. R. 9851 which authorized an examination and survey to be made of Cedar Creek, Ocean County, New Jersey, from its mouth to the point where it is crossed by New Jersey State Highway No. 4, with a view to dredging a channel in Cedar Creek of adequate width with a depth of approximately eight feet at mean low water."

Hearings To Be Held

In all of these instances hearings will be held by the District Engineer at which those persons interested may state their views regarding the needed work in each case, the extent and depth of the channels and whatever data can be gathered to justify Federal participation in the cost of the work. Those desiring to be heard may be notified of the hearing by sending me their names and addresses and indicating the project in which they are interested.

Merchant Marine Act Amendments

A bill passed by the House and now awaiting Senate action, would amend the Merchant Marine Act of 1936 in a number of sections, chiefly designed to make the 1936 Act more workable, and smoothing out certain sections which presented administrative difficulties. There are, however, two important changes, both designed to stimulate the flow of private capital into American merchant ship construction.

The 1936 Act provided for ship subsidies not exceeding one-third of the ship construction cost except where the Maritime Commission possesses "conclusive" evidence that the actual differential between domestic and foreign construction cost is greater than that amount. Since it is almost impossible to state when evidence is "conclusive," the new act changes that word to "convincing." It also provides that the down payment required of ship lines building ships under the provision shall be 25% of the "contract price" which does not include the subsidy, rather than 25% of the "contract cost" which does include the subsidy. The effect here is to reduce the amount of down payment required, which, of course, makes it easier for the ship line to finance a new ship.

The second major provision which will encourage flow of private capital to ship construction is the inclusion of a "ship mortgage insurance" policy, patterned after the Federal Housing Administration home mortgage insurance.

This new Title X provides for the insurance of preferred mortgages up to 75% of the value of the ship when constructed, or, in the case of reconditioning mortgages, when reconstructed. The mortgages will bear interest at 5 per cent, have a maturity date of 20 years. A premium charge of from one-half to one per cent is also provided for.

Ships engaged in Great Lakes, intercoastal, coastwise and foreign trade are eligible for this mortgage insurance, but the ships must be shown to be economically sound. The measure is expected to encourage new ships and modernization of old ships. As in Federal Housing old mortgages does not supply the mortgage money, but insures mortgages obtained from private financial institutions.

Controversial section 30 of the bill, which would give operation subsidies to intercoastal shipping, was struck out of the bill. It would have favored ocean shipping allegedly to the detriment of rail transportation.

St. Mary's School News

No piety would be truly Christian if it did not include in its object the Mother of the Incarnate Word. Devotion towards the Virgin Mary is not only important, but necessary, if we wish to draw abundantly at the source of life. To separate Christ from His Mother in our piety, is to divide Christ; it is to lose sight of the essential mission of His holy humanity in the distribution of divine grace. Where the Mother is left out, the Son is no longer understood.

Has not this befallen Protestant nations? In rejecting devotion to Mary under pretext of not derogating from the dignity of a single Mediator, have they not ended in even losing faith in the Divinity of Christ Himself? If Jesus Christ is our Saviour, our Mediator, our Elder Brother, because He has taken upon Himself our human nature, how can we love Him truly, how can we resemble Him perfectly, without having a special devotion for her from whom He took this human nature?

But this must be an enlightened devotion. We will consider what Mary has done for Jesus; secondly, what Jesus has done for His Mother; from this we shall see what the Blessed Virgin must be for us. What has Mary given to Jesus? While remaining a virgin, she has given Him a human nature. That is a unique privilege that Mary shares with none. The Word might have appeared here below by taking a human nature, drawn out of nothing and already formed in the perfection of its organism. For reasons of infinite wisdom, this was not done. What is so wonderful in this birth is that the Word made it subject, so to speak, to the consent of this woman, Mary. Mary is the Mother of Christ, for, as all other mothers do for their children, she formed and nourished with her most pure substance the body of Jesus. Such is the ineffable union existing between Jesus and Mary: she is His Mother; He is her Son.

Now all her greatness is founded on this privilege of her divine Motherhood. Christ has, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, "chosen" her in preference to all others. Moreover, there was a special predestination of Mary in the Divine plan, for the Church, on the feast of Our Lady applies to her a passage of Scripture which can only relate in certain points to Eternal Wisdom: "The Lord possessed me in the beginning of His ways, before He made anything from the beginning." (Prov. VIII, 23, 25). Further, the Virgin Mary is "Immaculate." All the children of Adam are born with the stain of original sin, slaves of the devil, enemies of God. This is the law passed by God for all Adam's race. Alone out of all creatures, Mary is to escape this universal law. The Eternal Word will make this one exception—one only—for her in whom He is to be incarnate. Not only is Mary immaculate in her conception but grace abounds in her. For did not the angel salute her, as "full of grace?" There are the graces that the hidden life with Jesus brings to Mary; there are those coming from her union with her Son in the mysteries of His public life, and of His passion; and, to fill up the measure, there is Her Assumption into Heaven. All of these privileges and graces, Mary receives from the eternal choice God made of Mary to be the Mother of His Son.

Let us, therefore, ask Our Lady that grace may be poured forth abundantly from her Jesus, upon us, so that by love we may become more and more conformed to this beloved Son of the Father, Who is also her Son.

State Scholarship Deadline Is June 1

Applications for state scholarships in the next entering class at Rutgers University must be filed by June 1st, according to announcement by Dean Fraser Metzger, chairman of the scholarship committee. These scholarships, open to students wishing to enter college next September, cover all tuition and fees except certain minor fees, but not living expenses and are allocated to counties numerically according to the number of legislators representing each county.

No student will be eligible for one of the awards unless he stands in the upper half of his graduation class, and unless he needs the assistance to obtain a higher education. Applicants must also satisfy requirements of character, evidence of leadership, and similar qualities of civic usefulness, and they must pass a scholastic aptitude test to be given at Rutgers in the latter part of June. Candidates must have the endorsement of their school principal or headmaster based on the above qualifications.

Requests for application blanks and for additional information may be obtained from Dean Fraser Metzger, Rutgers University, New Brunswick, N. J.

Two Railroad Vets Living in This City Were on 'John Bull'

The fact that South Amboy and South Amboyans have played an important part in the development of the railroad industry in the United States from its infancy, was brought out the other day when the members of the local Retired Men's Association visited Elizabeth.

The local veterans were guests at the Elizabeth YMCA when motion pictures showing the development of equipment from the "John Bull," first engine on the Camden and Amboy railroad, until the present day were shown. It developed during the discussion that followed, that two members of the party, R. M. Kerr, Sr., former engine house foreman here and Charles B. Pearce, worked on the famous pioneer engine, which hauled the first trains from Camden to this city. These two men were among the crew who reconditioned the famous engine before it was moved to the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, where it is now on exhibition. Both local men were mere lads at the time, beginning their railroad careers. Thomas Kerr, Sr. was the master mechanic in charge of the work.

The "John Bull" was the first locomotive used for passenger traffic in America. It was built by the Stevensons, of New Castle on Tyne, England. In 1830 it was brought to this country in sections and landed at Philadelphia in 1831 and taken from there to Bordentown in a sloop and transported from the landing place to the track, about two miles distant, by teams and wagons, the track having been laid while the engine was being brought from England.

The trip to this city was made in May 1831 and was witnessed by a great multitude of people including members of the legislature and president and officers of the new road. Isaac Dripps was the engineer and Benjamin Higgins the stoker. During the trip it made the then almost unbelievable speed of ten miles an hour.

The trip to Elizabeth brought forth a flood of recollections of the "John Bull" and early railroading days here and former Mayor Chas. T. Mason unearthed an interesting souvenir in the shape of a nut from the old engine, which he has been saving for years as a paper weight. The nut, hand forged of brass is 2 1/2 in. wide and 1 1/2 in. long, the top grooved to a depth of about an inch so as to look like a nut.

Other veteran railroaders recalled an interesting story in connection with one of the cars of the original train, which is now on exhibition in Washington. For some years, the car took from railroad service and was used as a chicken coop by the late Samuel Newton and when the historical value of this train was brought to the attention of the museum authorities, it was discovered after a considerable search and reconditioned for exhibition purposes.

During the Elizabeth visit, the local men were the guests of S. H. Ingraham, another railroad veteran and a former resident, and the "Old Guard". Elizabeth retired men's association. They visited the Union County Court House and jail and later were served dinner at the Elizabeth YMCA.

Members of the local party were: Charles B. Pearce, Thomas S. Spangenberg, George G. Oliver, Charles H. Stockton, J. Tracy Dill, W. Britt Dietrick, T. F. Bloodgood, R. M. Kerr, George T. Allen, Marshall E. Magee, James K. Stultz, John Brophy, T. F. Brennan, David H. Edwards, Peter W. Applegate, Benjamin H. Gominger, Henry M. Dill, William P. Nichols and Lewis Tringley.

At the next meeting of the local organization, to take place at the YMCA Tuesday afternoon, C. C. Lever of Elizabeth will talk on "The experiences of a telegraph operator".

Spotswood Mayor Heads South River Hunn-Ford Agency

Mayor George J. Siegel Made Manager of Ferry St. Sales Office This Week

Mayor George J. Siegel, of Spotswood, former automobile racing star mechanic, was made manager of the Ferry street salesroom of the V. P. Hunn Ford agency in South River early this week.

Mr. Hunn, who also manages the Spotswood agency of Ford-Lincoln sales and service, in announcing the appointment of Mayor Siegel as South River manager, said that the Mayor has brought good luck to the business from the time he entered the organization several years ago and that a pick-up in business since the decision to make him the South River manager has been noticeable already.

Mayor Siegel has been the head of the Spotswood governing body for eight years and was a Councilman for the borough for three years before that. He has an enviable reputation as a star in the automobile race three years ago with a wide reputation as a star in the automobile field.

He has had thirty years' experience in the automobile business, during which he has been practically everything from mechanic to factory representative. He was the mechanic who rode with David Rasta when Rasta won the world's championship at 116 miles per hour on a wood plank track in a Peugeot car. Rasta was killed in England later and Mayor Siegel still has vivid recollections of his experiences with Rasta.

Mayor Siegel helped Gaston Chevrolet, a brother of Louis Chevrolet, after whom the present well known car of that name was named, build a special racing car in which Chevrolet later lost his life in a race in California.

Mr. Hunn thinks the recession is over and suggests that anyone interested in automobiles, even though not yet ready to make a purchase, drop in and get acquainted with Mayor Siegel, who can and will tell you of experiences that date back to the one-cylinder days of the automobile business and practically everything in between.

WHY RETAIL STORES FAIL

Competition, from chains or other stores, is an insignificant factor in the failure of independent merchants. That statement goes against popular conception—but it is buttressed by impressive statistics.

According to Dr. Julius Klein, the well-known economist, 33 per cent of such failures are due to lack of capital; 30 per cent to lack of experience; 34 per cent to miscellaneous causes, and only 3 per cent to competition.

Dr. Paul H. Nystrom, another noted authority on merchandising, estimates that 75 per cent of all business mortality may be attributed to incompetence, inexperience, and lack of capital.

The United States Chamber of Commerce attributes 37.2 per cent of failures to lack of capital; 31.4 per cent to incompetence; 4.9 per cent to inexperience, and but 3.9 per cent to competition, with extravagance, unwise credits, natural disasters, etc., accounting for the balance.

The Federal Trade Commission recently investigated the underlying causes for the failures of 167 stores in 30 communities, and found that it had been the result of competition in only 3 cases.

It cannot be a coincidence that these four independent surveys reach almost identical conclusions. The adequately-financed thrifty, efficient and experienced merchant need have little fear of competition, or of failure from any other cause.

RUSSIAN "PROSPERITY"

(From the Boston Herald)

To earn a pound of butter the unskilled worker in Moscow must labor almost two days. His wages will be 150 rubles a month, a ruble being 20 cents. (That's $30 a month). Butter costs ten rubles a pound. The skilled worker may earn a pound of butter in a single day. The cheapest shoes to be had in Moscow, of a quality probably the worst in Europe, will cost the unskilled worker the equivalent of one month of toil.

For a decent pair of shoes the skilled worker also must invest his earnings of a month. For any sort of respectable suit of clothes a college trained employe, paid from 600 to 1,000 rubles a month, must hand over the wages of six weeks.

These comparisons, however, make no allowance for the deductions from the wages of every toiler. He will have to work many more hours and days for his butter, shoes and clothes, because one ruble in every five goes for trade union dues, association subscriptions, taxes and loans, all of which are collected under compulsion.

These comparisons are from the correspondence of the Manchester Guardian, in an article reproduced in the Baltimore Sun. Lately returned from a prolonged residence in Russia, the writer pictures conditions there as anything but alluring. Everybody is entitled to employment but nobody has any freedom to go and come as he pleases, or any control over his rates of pay. The low level of real wages, the worker's income, not in rubles and kopecks but in their exchange value for the necessities of life, is an unsolved problem in the Soviet republic.

The writer holds that the technique of production somehow must be mastered before long or else the "very existence of the Soviet system will be jeopardized." What is happening is what may be expected to happen anywhere when private initiative is abolished. Nobody who works in any sort of occupation in Russia takes any genuine interest in the quality or quantity of his output.

PIPE DREAMS

By Nick-o-Time

Man walking around with the best undertaker face during the past week was not an undertaker, but an ex-barber now a truck driver.

He pilots the red truck at the local power plant and always has it shined up like a pair of new shoes. He was detailed to carry mud in it scooped from the meadows about the plant with steam shovels.

Everytime he backed the truck up and stood there watching it being loaded, he looked as if he was posing for a statue to be entitled "Calamity" or "Sad Charlie".

Local girl sat in the back seat of a car the other night, having her finger pinched, and she didn't say a word. It wasn't that she was sitting with one of our Romeos who was pinching her finger, and besides, who ever heard of local Romeos pinching fingers.

The truth of the matter is that the girl was riding in the back seat of a car belonging to a local bus mechanic and when she wanted to put the window down, caught her finger in it and rode along for ten minutes before she could think of the word "stop", so often used in the back seat of cars.

This girl, who works in a local uniform factory, was all put out of breath after her experience, and sat down emitting plenty of pants.

One of the local railroad vets, who went with the gang to Elizabeth Friday afternoon almost stayed in that city for a while, when he was found to be a spoon thief despite the fact that he's a prominent church member and has always been looked up to by local residents as an ideal citizen.

It was while the group were visiting in the jail kitchen that the undersheriff plunged his hand into the pocket of the ex-railroader and discovered he had one of the prison spoons. It was only because the undersheriff decided to be a good Scout too that the local ex-railroader escaped embarrassment. After our subsequent development, however, discloses the fact that the spoon was dropped into his pocket by another ex-railroader in the group.

Local automobile mechanic who works on a hill here, had trouble with his knee action while walking down First street the other day and almost stalled his engine at the corner of First and Stockton streets where he stood for several minutes swaying, then moving toward first one street then the other. He finally found the old town is still laid out as it always has been and proceeded slowly and with caution, to his destination.

Sunday afternoon the Lewis A. A. married and single men held another ball game and they are still debating whether the score was 783 to 7 or 73 to 7 in favor of the unhandicapped.

There were so many highlights in the game that it gave the appearance of an airport. The club sponsor found he was so fat that when he finally did hit the ball he had to call for a runner to get to first. Later when someone threw him the ball and he didn't catch it, he decided that since he didn't have the ball in hand he'd use a bat and swung one back at the player who threw the ball to him.

The big Moose of the post office staff was out in the field allegedly performing the duties of a fielder up until the time someone knocked a ball in his direction, he reached up for it and it came down on top of his head.

The grey haired bar wearer of the local police department prepared for several days for a fishing trip recently, then went off without the only real important part of the equipment—the reel.

When this former Marine arrived at the South Jersey fishing grounds, he found he had plenty of bait, a fishing line and a pole but no reel to use on the pole. He exhibited real concern over the absence of the equipment that is of real importance to every real fisherman and was set back several hours on his fish catching schedule before he could secure the necessary equipment.

Things are moving fast in this world nowadays that a fellow has all he can do to keep up with things. Popular young gas man of town got married one Saturday only a couple of weeks ago and last Sunday he strolled up Second St. with a bassonet.

At that rate we expect that by Decoration Day, we'll observe him sitting on the front porch with several of his grandchildren on his knee.

While he was walking down Smith street, Perth Amboy, Saturday night, a local mechanic certainly told his wife. When she got through talking he declared "I'll get a couple of shirts some other time". "Now you'll get them right now when I'm along, to help pick them out", she said, as if she was snapping out a Junior Order.

Some of these local boys who are exerting every effort to get just one girl, must envy that popular bus driver who recently became a landscape gardener and has to keep his foot on the brake when he drives a bus, to keep from running over the women who are anxious to get on his bus.

Saturday night, when he was piloting No. 24, two women were eager to get on his bus in Perth Amboy at five minutes to ten that they rushed out in the street in front of the vehicle, and only the fact that he's a good driver prevented there being run over.

Apparently jealous of the publicity the proprietor of the "Ray of Sunshine", received recently over double yolk eggs, the "Firt Ward Wildman" went over to his friend's thirteenth birthday party and got what he thought was a dozen double yolk eggs and passed them out to the "Sage of Baptist Hill" and other barologists present in the place.

They turned out to be overgrown single yolk eggs however so the "Wildman" only got half his money's worth. He has five witnesses ready to prove they only got single yolk eggs.

There's no doubt about it, Forty Two Street George is slipping. Last winter when he took the girls out in a car he used to turn off the heater and pull the windows down to keep the temperature even, he thought he was so hot. He's lost confidence in himself, however, and one recent hot day when he took his heart throbs out in a car he turned on the heater.

Two Broadway grocery clerks went to New York the other day and were A&P (anxious and perturbed) before they arrived back here.

They journeyed to the big city to see "Jungle Love" and somebody figured the picture was so hot that the local boys didn't need their overcoats and stole them.

Sunday a local group went down to the South Jersey hunting grounds for a little party and one member, a Melroseite, took two bottles of soda home for his wife, fearing evidently that his dear would bowl him out for spending all that time in the deer woods.

When the local Elephant Lovers went to that Plainsboro conflagration, some of them left the crowd for huddle purposes. One member of the party, who was so dressed up, he looked like a rose in bloom, went off alone and thought he had found the place he was looking for, until he pushed a button on the plumbline. Then he found he wasn't where he thought he was, but in a shower bath, because the water came down from above, immediately after contact with the thumb and button. He was different from the rest of the politicians present after that, because he had to admit he was "all wet".

We've been using all our Powers of detection rectly trying to learn the reason why a local comedian left a banquet one morning recently at 2 A. M. and told his companions to wait for him. They waited thirty minutes then left, and are still trying to find out why he didn't return. For their information, the fellow has persuasive Powers.

The other night a Chevrolet Sedan was parked directly in front of the double doors of the Broadway fire house and two Helens got out, walked back to the next corner for an ice cream cone, and left two other ladies in the back seat.

They returned in about half an hour but the car remained parked while the occupants sat there eating their cones. When the firemen outside gave strong hints about the parking they got nothing but looks as cold as the contents of the ice cream cones.

Former local man about town, who deserted our fair city for Newark which he considered fairer, was slightly peeved at finding himself mentioned in this column. The truth of the matter is that he was worried about what the girl friend would think. However, although his name appears several times on page 18 of our little black book, we will not transfer the information to print right now, because he still stands Pat with us.

Man and woman who recently sent a dog to oblivion by means of an improvised gas chamber, as reported here recently, are still busy. They're trying to find how the news leaked out, since the gas didn't.

Prominent young man, ex-president of a popular club, denies he bought a DeSota car for the purpose of making it easy to meet the girl friend, who lives in President Park. We still see that har however. This same young fellow undertook to drive to work one rainy morning, and stopped in Perth Amboy to get a paper. When he re-entered the car he couldn't make it go forward, but had no trouble making it go backward. Puzzled he called a local wrecker then walked off to work in the rain. That night the mechanic told him there were nothing wrong with the car, except that its driver forgot it was "free wheeling".

Quite an ingenious fellow he is too, we found. He wanted a dog house, but had no saw, borrowed one from a neighbor then set to work building the dog house with the aid of a stove lifter, screw driver, some rusty nails and screws, a cigar box, packing box and a double barreled hand saw.

But when, many funny things so to speak are happening in that neighborhood. For instance the paper hanger who recently went to Newark with a girl friend to purchase an ice box is now a varnisher and a big clay man starting work on the clay as soon as it comes from the Bank.

That popular Pine avenue hair clipper certainly believes in going at a lively clip in order to keep in practice. Recent Sunday morning he was observed shaving and trimming some poles that he intends to use for a barber's arbor.

"We've known for some time that the men on all these local firemen are desirous to be wardens is because the badges entitle them to free admission to some places, but we couldn't figure why a former chief of the local department was present at the showing of each new picture at the "Cowboy Theatre" in Perth Amboy until we discovered his brother is an usher over there.

Up on the Hill there are many queries concerning the whereabouts of "Cedar Street Mike". Apparently he's finally selected one from that string of women he has to become his steady. Our guess is that it's a girl whose first name has five letters and begins with "H" and ends with "N".

Crack Eastern Pilots Promise Speed Thrills At Langhorne Opening

Many Entries For Event To Take Place May 15

Langhorne, Pa., May 4.—With cars identical in design and horsepower, with the trim speed craft that western and Indianapolis speedway drivers are bringing to Langhorne on May 15 for the opening of the big mile track, crack eastern drivers have served notice that they are prepared to accept every challenge from the invaders. Joe Dawson, zone supervisor for the AAA contest board advises.

The fact that tremendous high speeds are possible at Langhorne and the races are exceptionally long, AAA experts say that it isn't always to the swift that the race goes as only a machine in perfect mechanical condition can stand the pace and strain, particularly if the driver fails to breathe his motor regularly.

This condition develops hope for such consistent drivers as Frank and Don Moore, Eldridge and Monk Tadlock, Henri Guerand, Al Cusick, Red Redmond, Roy Lake, Eddie Stanek, Walt Brown, Doc Keim, and a couple of dozen more whose machines are not considered quite as fast as the screaming Millers, Cragars and McDowells. Dawson also points out that Frankie Bailey won the eastern championship in 1936 in a Hal Special and there will be at least a dozen Halls in the race May 15 that will have an excellent chance to cop the money.

Three Rutgers Teams To Face Lafayette Invaders Tomorrow

Scarlet Varsity Nine Revamped For Encounter

Lafayette, traditional rival of Rutgers, will furnish the opposition for three Scarlet athletic teams at New Brunswick this Saturday. The Leopard varsity and freshmen baseball teams and varsity tennis team comprise the invading forces.

The Scarlet baseball team will face the Marquis with a revamped line-up on Neilson Field at 2 P. M. A lame arm has benched Shorty Schank, popper short stop, and Bub Shaw has been moved from 3rd base to short. Chuck Bobrowski will be at third, Parker Staples in left field, and Carl Miller will be at first in the absence of Moon Mullin, away to Maryland with the track team. Jim Oughton will be in Miller's regular spot in right field. Bill Freeman in center field, Stan Dresswick as catcher, and Shorty Tilton at second base completes the line-up.

Dick Steadman, dependable senior right hander, will probably be on the mound for Rutgers as the Scarlet seeks its first victory over Lafayette since 1935. Last year, the Leopards won twice, 9 to 1 and 6 to 2. In the series dating back to 1887, Lafayette enjoys a wide margin in the victory column. Leopard teams have won 38 games, Rutgers, 12, with one game in 1936, ending in a 6-6 tie.

A victory for the Rutgers freshman nine on Neilson Field following the varsity game, will give it the Middle Three crown, since it has already defeated Lehigh's cubs.

Seeking to repeat its 8 to 1 victory of last year over Lafayette and thus gain a leg on the Middle Three championship it is defending, the Scarlet tennis team will face the Leopards on the Bleeker Place courts at 2:30.

The varsity track team will invade Maryland Saturday, for the first meet in history with a University of Maryland track team. The Scarlet will be heavily favored in the field events, but Maryland's superiority in the track events will probably give the Terrapins the meet.

The freshman lacrosse team will be seeking its first victory of the season when it meets the Manual Training High School team of Brooklyn on College Field at 2:30.

DIAMOND DUST

Recently our brother columnist, Bill Kozusko stated that Perth Amboy's gifts to organized baseball were playing regularly with their respective clubs but he hadn't seen Pete Pavich's name in the Fort Smith lineup.

The reason Pete Pavich's name was not seen in the Fort Smith lineup was due to the fact that he was stricken with two successive ailments. For the first three weeks of his training period, Pavich was unable to play because of his sore arm. After his arm healed, he was ordered to have his tonsils removed which left him idle for another week.

Even though Pavich suffered from the above injuries for more than a month, it is understood that he played shortstop for the Fort Smith club when the season started on May 4th. Incidentally, fans can be assured that Pavich will be seen in his team's lineup throughout the entire season, barring injuries.

Because of his numerous ailments, Pete's teammates nicknamed the local boy, Kid Ailment. Since he has his tonsils removed, Pavich should gain weight very easily.

Reporter's time clock: Sunday, April 24th: Saw Romeo's loss to the Sayreville Cardinals and Allen Hoffman strike out with the bases loaded in the same game. Tuesday, April 26th: Witnessed the Governor's loss to Frehold and saw Bob Maxfield relieve Russ Sprague with the bases loaded and no outs. He pulled a Dizzy Dean and retired the side with three successive strike-outs. Took in the Tri-County Boxing Finals and saw Gus Balbach defeat DiNunzio, the idol of Perth Amboy.

Wednesday, April 27th: Witnessed the surprise of the bowling league when Peterson's Pharmacy defeated Greens and were crowned champions of the "x" circuit. Thursday, April 28th: Attended the city baseball meeting and discovered that Romeo's trophy is in possession of the Hot'n Dogs. Friday, April 29th: Saw the Governors lead Keyport by a 10-1 score but the latter team rallied and defeated the locals by a 19-16 count. Saw Vince Fratello of Hackensack, 160 lb. open amateur champ of the state, win his 25th and 26th straight bouts and heard Sam Corti refuse to fight Gus Balbach because the Balbach A. A. wouldn't pay him twenty dollars for expenses.

A group of bowlers told yours truly that Shorty Stivers article in this column last week was very good but they added that Stivers forgot to mention that Shorty himself was the biggest bowling disappointment of the circuit. They also asserted that Red Coogan is the most improved bowler in the Class B league.

In their St. Peter's tilt Tuesday afternoon the Blue and Gold made five straight errors in the first inning. The Hot'n Dogs pitchers took this correspondent to wear a catching outfit when batting against the DiSantis club. The Mechanicsville team will wear new suits in the city league.

The city league should attempt to have the services of an officer of the law present at all city league games this season whose duty it would be to eradicate all profanity and vulgarity then maybe the women folk would witness the city league contests because of the lawlessness that existed last year most of the males refused to bring their female companions to the games.

After watching Banjo Scritore work out this corner is inclined to believe that the Tigers will have the next to best, if not the best, son. Better keep plugging, Budniak, catcher in the city circuit this season if you wish to be known as South Amboy's best catcher.

Lefty Jankowski is now pitching for the A. S. and R. in the Industrial league. He quit pitching in Totenville in preference of Saturday and Sunday games with a Linden team. He plays four games a week. One with the Hot'n Dogs, two with Linden and one with the Industrialists. He'll have his arm in a sling when this season terminates.

Here's a coincidence: The Peterson Pharmacy Bowling team went through the same routine as did the Romeo baseball team before they were crowned champions. In the first half of the bowling league, Peterson's rolled off with the Green's Men's Shop and lost. In the first half of the baseball league, Romeo's played the playoff with the Sacred Hearts and lost.

In the second half, Peterson's bowled Brennan's in a roll off and won. Romeo's played the Tigers a play off game for the second half and won. Peterson's met Green's for the championship and won. Romeo's encountered the Sacred Hearts and won the championship.

It Is Dangerous

It is dangerous to sell a SUBSTITUTE for 666 just to make three or four cents more. Customers are your best assets: lose them and you lose your business. 666 is worth three or four times as much as a SUBSTITUTE.
