TOWN TONICS BY THE STAFF LIT. & LUTER

On Tuesday the nation will celebrate the birthday of Abraham Lincoln, and thoughts will go back to the tall, sad, lonesome man, who had one of the most trying times of any occupant of the White House, as he strove enduring the treachery of those who should have been his friends, to hold the nation together.

Thousands will hear and read again the story of Lincoln and take new courage from his determination despite difficulties to continue on the course he had set for himself.

Despite the appearance on the American scene of a host of great men, Lincoln continues to stand head and shoulders above them all, and we find much to admire, his determination, his courage, his wit and his simple faith in God.

The conversations one hears about town by the man on the street are generally indicative of the popular sentiment of the entire city, and a straightforward representation of popular thought without embellishment.

Recently the South Amboy First Aid and Safety Squad held a testimonial for the World War veterans of the organization, who had returned from military service. At this affair, praise was heaped on the organization by the various speakers, and the presence of a large number of townspeople, showed how many friends these men have.

However, probably the simplest and most indicative tribute of the esteem in which the Squad is held, and the best indication of the faith people repose in it, was heard on the day of the banquet, when one person, casually discussing the affair would wonder what arrangements had been made to take care of calls while it was in progress. Always the answer was "Oh, they've made some provision, they wouldn't leave the town unprotected."

As a result of the present war, the value of medals awarded for military accomplishments seems to be lessened, not only in the minds of those who view them, but those who receive them as well.

Time was when medals were awarded only to soldiers for their valor and military brilliancy on the battlefield, but during the past war, it became the custom to award medals to civilians as well, with the result that one frequently saw pictures

School Board Holds Hearing On Budget To-night

Total Amount of Request Is $107,566.04

This evening in the Mayor's Office, in City Hall, a public hearing on the 1946-47 school budget will be conducted by the Board of Education, when the public will have an opportunity to voice its objections to the budget, as set up by the Board of Education and the Board of School Estimates.

For ordinary expenses, the budget sets aside, $97,391.04, as against $84,023.00 for the past term. The principal cause of the increase of the new budget over that for the past year, is an increase in the appropriation for teacher's salaries, $87,258.54 being set aside for this purpose in the new budget, against $75,601.54 for the same purpose in the 1945-46 budget.

The sum of $16,000.00 is set aside for extraordinary repairs, which is anticipated to cover a number of needed repairs in both school buildings.

The total amount of the request for this year is $107,566.04 as against $78,432.00 for the past term.

Property Sale Will Be Held Here On Monday

Several Veterans Have Already Made Bids

At the meeting of the Common Council on Monday evening, a public sale of city owned property will take place.

According to the recently adopted policy of the council, returning veterans of World War II will be given preference in the bidding for the plots. Following the announcement of this policy at a recent meeting of the Council, several veterans submitted bids for various plots and these, together with any others which may be received at that time, will be considered at the coming meeting.

At the coming meeting also the council will consider the granting of permission to the South Amboy Auto Sales Co. to install two gasoline tanks on property in the vicinity of the South Amboy Memorial Hospital, recently purchased from the city.

James Harkins Named to Head Planning Board

Housing Plans For Vets Are Discussed

Tuesday evening, an organization of the Planning Board, recently appointed by Mayor Joseph P. McKeon was held in City Hall. James A. Harkins was named chairman and Frank A. Morgan, secretary. The other members of the Board are — Frank S. Kaboski, Fred Mundy, Frank Gordon and Bernard B. Kubisiak.

Immediately the Board took up the housing situation with regard to returning veterans of World War 2, and decided to enlist the aid of the American Legion and local churches to evolve a plan to relieve the local situation.

The Board also decided to conduct a campaign to induce local property owners to expand their living quarters so that returning veterans might be accommodated.

Those wishing housing, and those wishing to offer housing facilities, have been asked to register with the Board, and forms for this purpose are being prepared.

In order to conserve fuel, local Public Schools will be closed on Monday. It was announced this morning.

The Monday closing order gives local school children a two day vacation, the schools being closed on Tuesday, in celebration of Lincoln's Birthday.

LOOKING BACK 22 YEARS

ISSUE OF FEB. 8, 1924

Among the many ordinances taken up for consideration by the members of the Common Council, at their meeting held on Tuesday night, was an ordinance introduced by Councilman-at-large Edwin L. Tice, to prevent and prohibit the transportation and storage of explosives within the corporate limits of the City of South Amboy, and providing penalties for the violation of said ordinance. It is rumored that the railroads are about to move explosives of similar nature, that caused the disastrous fire on the night of September 6th, when five victims were burned to death at the time, and others succumbed later. The ordinance was therefore, introduced to prevent a similar occurrence at any time in the future. It was adopted by motion of Councilman Connors, who moved that it be laid over under the rules on the first reading.

A resolution that will start the ball rolling in the way of securing a fire house for housing the local fire apparatus, and also the purchasing of the much needed fire apparatus, was offered by Councilman Cosens. His resolution instructed the City Clerk to make search for the ordinance pertaining to the construction of a fire house that was to have been erected some years ago, also when same is found, that the City Solicitor and City Engineer be prepared to go ahead with the necessary papers and plans for the floating of bonds to take care of the additional expenses incurred, and obtaining cost, etc., of firehouse and apparatus required. The resolution was adopted unanimously.

Last night the members of the choir of the First Presbyterian Church were entertained at the home of Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Mell on Broadway. After rehearsing for about an hour on the Easter Cantata music to be rendered at the Church on Easter Sunday, the guests, numbering twenty-five, were served with delightful refreshments. The tables were handsomely decorated and everyone assured the host and hostess that they had had a most pleasant evening.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Lockhart, Misses Ruth Ryan, Hazel Brietner, Gertrude Rue, Maude Oliver, Dorothy Schibrede, Catherine Albright, Mrs. Jean Fensel, Mrs. Maude Bergen, Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Mell, Messrs. Arthur Ingraham, Wilbur Oliver, Merrill Sheppard, Theodore Yackman, Harvey Day, Arnold Olson. The choir was in charge of Herbert A. Dix.

Edward Rander, of 395 Raritan street, is in the local hospital suffering from three broken ribs and a punctured right side, the result of a smash-up of the bus he was driving and a trolley car on Main street, on Tuesday morning about seven o'clock.

The bus which Rander was driving was owned by William Cosens. During the heavy smash-up, and while wiping the windshield to get a clearer view, Rander stated that he must have been driving closer to the trolley without noticing it. He would get his bus fixed, he stated, the Public into the machine and all but demolished it. How Rander escaped fatal injury seems to be a miracle. Other occupants of the bus, numbering about ten escaped unhurt.

He was given attention by Dr. Weber and later removed to the local hospital.

At a meeting of the Board of Education held on Tuesday night, the budget for the ensuing school year was adopted. It will be presented to the Board of Estimate, consisting of two members of the City Council, C. L. Cosens and E. L. Tice. It is thought that this Board of Estimate will meet on next Wednesday night.

A resolution was passed directing the closing of the public schools on the afternoon of Wednesday, February 6th, in honor of ex-president Wilson. The members present at the meeting were Mrs. H. G. Chase, Messrs. Rue, Delaney and Walsh, superintendent O. O. Barr and Secretary W. M. Emmons.

At a meeting of Melrose Hose Company No. 1 held last night, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: L. R. Coddington, president; John J. Andrejewski, vice-president; Frank Kosh, foreman; Theo. Bartz, first assistant foreman; Ph. DePort, second assistant foreman; John P. Levandoski, treasurer; Jacob DePort, Jr., recording secretary; B. Maliszewski, financial secretary; Frank Cosnowski, sergeant at arms.

At the next regular meeting of the company, many new appointments will be made and refreshments will be served. The company has just received their new uniforms and the members feel very proud of them. It is expected that the company will soon have a new fire house, the plans for which will be discussed at the next regular meeting.

A reorganization meeting of the Board of Education was held in Superintendent Barr's office last Friday night, at which time, a president, vice-president, secretary, custodian of school moneys, and a board of estimate were elevated and appointed.

A fifteen minute executive session was held previous to the meeting. Mr. Rue was unanimously elected president of the board for the coming year.

For the office of Secretary Oliver W. Welsh, the new member of the board, nominated John R. Segrave, while Mr. Rue nominated W. M. Emmons and Mr. Woodward nominated John Perkins. A ballot was taken and

Mr. Emmons was declared elected. Mrs. D. C. Chase was nominated and elected vice-president. George Kress, city treasurer, was appointed custodian of school moneys. On the Board of Estimate to meet with two members of the city council, Mr. Rue and Mr. Welsh were appointed.

Indications point to a bitter clash in the 1924 Legislature over the disposition of the Morris Canal Funds. There are already several bills introduced which will, in effect, take away the appropriation made last year of $875,000 for the purchase of rights of way for the New Jersey Ship Canal. One of these bills, Assembly No. 197, by Assemblyman Barkman, of Morris County, is a direct repealer. Another Bill, Senate No. 120 by Senator Bright, will establish a "Morris Canal Fund", which is to include all money received from the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company, and to only devote the balance, after all costs of dismantling the old canal have been paid, to the New Jersey Ship Canal project.

Proponents of the New Jersey Ship Canal project, among them Mayor Frederick W. Donnelly of Trenton; former Mayor J. Hampton Moore, of Philadelphia, president of the Atlantic Deeper Waterways Association; Assemblyman Harold Hoffman, who introduced last year's legislation; Senator Morgan F. Larson; Charles W. McCormick, of New Brunswick, and Russell A. Watson, president of the Raritan Terminal Waterways Association, are all up in arms over the attempt to take away the Ship Canal funds, at a time when such an action would seriously affect the chances of favorable action by the federal Congress.

Promoted Aluminum

Napoleon III was the most eminent of the early boosters of aluminum. In addition to his efforts to fit out his army with aluminum equipment and weapons, he himself wore an aluminum breastplate to foil would-be assassins. But another early promoter of the metal who, though of less renown, was no less enthusiastic, was the gentleman who christened his son, "Aluminum," and said that if he ever had a daughter he would name her, "Alumina," because he wished "as great and glorious a future for his children as indicated for the new metal."

Banks Buy Bonds

By 1922 more than half of the assets of member banks of the Federal Reserve System were government securities as contrasted with a proportion of less than 11 per cent in 1923.

AIRBORNE DIVISION HAILED IN NEW YORK CITY ... Maj. Gen. James M. Gavin, 38-year-old commander of the 82nd airborne division, and his staff lead the parade of his 13,000 battle-seasoned troops up the canyon of Fifth avenue, New York City. Thousands hailed the troops, symbolic of our victorious fighting forces. Most of them have since been discharged, although more than 1,000 have re-enlisted. This is believed to be a postwar re-enlistment record and has proven a big boost to new enlistments in the armed forces.

To make this magic filling, blend together 1 1/2 cups (15 ounce can) sweetened condensed milk, 1/2 cup lemon juice, grated rind of one lemon or 1/4 teaspoon lemon extract and the yolks of two eggs. Pour into baked pie shell. Cover with meringue made by beating two egg whites with 2 tablespoons granulated sugar. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F) 10 minutes or until brown. Chill before serving.

ONE THING a lot of people need acutely is shelter. Shortages of building materials and the scarcity of skilled workmen have combined to make housing about the rarest commodity in common use. It is an every day necessity, too. People have to have a place to live and they will pay whatever it costs to get in out of the weather, or they will take what shelter they can afford.

Comes now proposed legislation to protect home buyers and home builders from inflation, by governmental controls. Administration of rulings always brings delay, and more delay. Now we need housing, and more housing. Natural, competitive safeguards will provide better protection against inflation than rulings, as certainly as sturdy walls will keep out more cold than red tape.

Bid for STRATEGY now is to lower fix ceiling prices on residential property, new and old, to allocate building materials and regulate the transfer of new real estate. Allocating materials means giving somebody a right to say who can build and who can't. A crafty "co-ordinator" with such authority could soon have a great many fellow citizens doing his bidding. America needs a V-B Day on bureaus.

Ceiling prices on old residential property is an absurd idea. There is nobody in my state able to umpire the transfer of old homes in my town, much less yours. Such laws are only made

A home and ought to have it as fast as their local builder can meet their needs.

I don't want to see today's new home makers (least of all service men) pay three prices for houses, but natural competition among builders would prevent it if they could get materials. Paying a premium for promptness in a time of emergency is a trivial matter compared to the "highway robbery" we are courting in shoddy houses, built cheaply to sell under a ceiling.

Government's moral obligations to home-seeking service men are three: (1) Help builders get good building materials quickly to make suitable, small homes, (2) Begin no public works to busy the building trades until the home need is relieved, (3) See that mortgage money is not carelessly thrown around. Bank loans ought to be easy on well-built houses and impossible on poor ones.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS VICTIMS RECOVERING AT POLIO CENTER

Several victims of infantile paralysis struck down in the last year are recovering their health rapidly at the Middlesex County Polio Center located in North Brunswick Township. Since this institution was opened on August 31, 1945, 14 children have been admitted. 6 still remain there.

Many other patients are receiving physiotherapy treatments at their homes two and three times a week, with periodic checkups by an orthopaedic physician.

This care is being paid for by the Middlesex County Chapter of The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis with the money contributed to the "March of Dimes". All expenses at the Polio Center are being underwritten by the Middlesex County Chapter.

Half of the money contributed to the annual "March of Dimes" is retained by the County Chapter to care for those stricken with infantile paralysis in that county. The remaining half is sent to the National organization for scientific research, education and epidemic aid. It

Episcopal Church Fund Campaign To Start Sunday

Every Member Canvass Is Scheduled

The Reconstruction and Advance Fund campaign in the Episcopal Church will get under way throughout the Diocese of New Jersey next Sunday when an every member canvass is scheduled in all churches, Bishop Wallace J. Gardner announced today. Committees appointed in parishes throughout the Diocese will seek $250,000, the accepted quota out of a national goal of $8,800,000.

Ninety per cent of the money raised will be used to rebuild destroyed Episcopal Church Properties including colleges, universities, hospitals and other needed structures in the Philippines, China and the Southwest Pacific; also, it will be used to advance mission programs, including health and educational projects in Alaska, Brazil, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Haiti, Puerto Rico, Panama, Virgin Islands and Liberia, and for work among American Negroes. The Army and Navy Commission for 1946 is included in the estimate of needs.

Ten per cent of the total amount raised will be allocated for relief of European Churches. Seventeen Protestant denominations, united with Episcopalians are raising funds for direct relief of non-Roman, Christian Churches throughout Europe.

To meet the quota in the Diocese of New Jersey each Church has accepted a quota totalling a minimum at least three times the amount donated to missions in 1945.

In a Diocesan letter, Bishop Gardner has emphasized that the Reconstruction and Advance Fund offers "the greatest missionary opportunity to the Church. The need which brought it about certainly constitutes our greatest responsibility. Out of this movement may grow a more militant church, aflame with renewed evangelistic zeal for the generation of mankind. And, by giving, working, sacrificing, not only will we build up the Kingdom of Christ on earth, we will revitalize the Church at home, and kindle a new fervor for Him within our hearts."

Arthur B. Chapman is chairman for local Christ Church and the Middlesex County chairman is Fred W. De Voe.

The Industrial Basketball League of Union County lost a player, and they missed him so badly that they sent out alarms for him. He was Edward Thomas, twenty-one, one of thirteen members of the Rahway Reforming basketball contingent, that played and lost with the Diehl Manufacturing Company team in the Grover Cleveland Junior High School at Elizabeth. Thomas apparently mixed with the spectators after the game, and just crowded his way to freedom. He lived at 232 Orange street, Newark, before he was sent to the reformatory for larceny.

At Camden, William R. J. Barton, Advisory Master in Chemistry, recommended a divorce decree for Mrs. Lillian Kearney of Riverside, N. J., who testified her husband had made her hide under the dashboard of their automobile when he drove past a "girl friend" because the "girl friend" might become jealous.

Last week, Former Sheriff William J. McGovern of Jersey City, now a municipal judge, went to the Hudson County jail under court order, and submitted to fingerprinting and photographing by the present Sheriff, Theodore J. Fleming.

The former sheriff is under indictment on a charge of refusing to fingerprint three indicted members of the Jersey City tax department, who are charged with favoritism in tax assessments. The Errors and Appeals Court ruled that McGovern would have to submit to fingerprinting and photographing, upholding a 1930 state law requiring such procedure for all arrested persons prior to their trial.

The Stevens Institute of Technology at Hoboken, disturbed because there was no housing available for many married war veterans, teachers and students, achieved a partial solution by buying an apartment house. It is a five story building with ten six-room apartments at 904 River street, facing the campus.

Air Conditioning

Future requirements in air conditioning are said to exceed $1,000,000 in volume. This estimate is based on the small percentages of homes and other buildings now air conditioned, some of which are: less than 1 per cent of homes valued at $10,000 or more with central heating; only 3 per cent of department stores; 5 per cent of drug stores; 7 per cent of restaurants; 10 per cent of doctor's offices; 20 per cent of railroad cars, and similarly for many other buildings.

NO HALFWAY STATION

No sincere effort has been made to return to the free markets of a pre-war America. The web of government control is expanding rather than contracting, and shortages are increasing instead of becoming less acute. The emergency control over prices established for the sake of the war effort, was degenerated into a mad effort to escape the inevitable maladjustments of war and a perpetually rising public debt. A decision must eventually be made: We either return to the hazards and blessings of economic independence or we go all the way in setting up a total, automatic government. There is no halfway station.

Henry Hazlitt, writing in the New York Times, emphasized the latter when he said: "A great number of people try to evade this issue by talking complacently of a 'middle way.' What they overlook is the inevitable tendency of government intervention to grow upon itself. For an effort to prevent the free operation of a market economy at one crucial point has consequences that force interference at a second point, and then at a third. Government control spreads in ever-widening circles. It moves toward a regimented economy."

"Against all objections the OPA replies that its price ceilings are preventing inflation. That is no doubt what the equivalent of the OPA in Rumania thinks. Last week it made further drives against the black market there and seized huge quantities of gold and goods in raids. But prices in Rumania, none the less, have increased thousands of times above the pre-war level. Apparently there is a point beyond which price fixing is, at best, futile. What can the price fixers do when the government prints more than 2,500,000 lei daily?"

"The United States is not Rumania. The differences, however, are in degree, not in principle. The basic cause of our mild inflation is the same as of the superinflations of Europe — an unbalanced budget, and the constant issuance of more money and bank credit. Governments all over the world are busy today grinding out more money with their right hand, and trying with their left to prevent it from exercising its inevitable effects. The result is an increasing control over industry brought about by their own policies."

THE PUNCH THAT COUNTS

The recent non-stop flight of an army bomber from Guam to Washington, D. C., caused the Honorable Kenneth C. Royall, Under-Secretary of War, to remark: "As our thoughts range across the troubled vista of our postwar world, our minds dwell uneasily on the speed with which a new outbreak of international discord could vault the barriers of land and ocean and reach our farms and cities. From these thoughts, we as Americans, draw two lessons:

"First and foremost, we must do everything humanly possible to bring about world peace and preserve it

"And, second, at the same time that we are doing this, we must keep our own nation in a constant state of readiness to do its part in maintaining world peace and in repelling any sudden attack that may be made upon us."

It was the ability of industry to convert and produce mountains of armament — in time — that won World War II for us, as much as the courage and skill of our fighting men. However, the element of time will never work on our side again. If war should come and find this country in a state of unpreparedness comparable to 1940, we will face speedy disaster.

As the Under-Secretary added, "Our ability to survive will depend on our ability to strike back immediately. The time available for the initial mobilization will be measured, not in months but in weeks. It is a problem of stockpiling raw materials, and completed weapons, of maintaining standby plants, mines and other facilities, of keeping industrial as well as military manpower in readiness.

"Our industry is an indispensable element in our military strength. If we are to keep strong, we must estimate now our future war needs — for armament and civilian economy. We must translate these needs into factories, transportation facilities, machine tools, manpower."

As far as transportation facilities go, no one is more alert to the problems and the needs of the future than are the railroads. They are soberly aware of their key position in the defense of the United States. They make no bones about opposing legislative measures that permit one form of transport to enjoy a competitive advantage over another. They are fighting for conditions under which a privately financed, independently operated transportation system can flourish because it has been proven that only in this way can the country have strong railroads and strong industries — ready for any emergency.

"NEVER THE TWAIN SHALL MEET"

Regardless of whether the majority of people approve or disapprove of existing proposals for this country to adopt state medicine, whereby the Federal government would become the final authority in medical care, one great objection to the proposal cannot be overlooked. State medicine is opposed by the medical profession. If it is pushed down the throats of the doctors against their will, it cannot help but result in lowered medical standards. As one Veterans' Administration authority has pointed out in urging cooperation between that agency and the medical profession, "You can't push a good doctor into anything; he must come in because he wants to be of service. And that's the only kind of doctor we want."

If this is true of the Veterans' Administration, it is most certainly true of a nationwide medical system. Unless the system is supported in the hearts of the doctors who must work under it, it is doomed to failure.

Medical men have just one objective — the highest possible health standards. They will subscribe wholeheartedly to any program that they feel will bring their objective nearer. They do not feel that the goal can be reached by subjecting medicine to the control of government. Government interference has for centuries blocked the scientific and cultural progress of mankind. There is no reason to believe that such interference would bring any happier results now. For this alone, the medical profession can never be expected to support socialized medicine — and socialized medicine can never succeed, even in theory, without its support.

NOW IT'S FUEL OIL

The country seems headed for a fuel oil shortage. Again, as in butter and countless other commodities, the reason goes back to maladjustments in prices. OPA ceilings encouraged gasoline production during the war, at the expense of heating fuels. The Mayor of New York has frankly stated that a price increase for fuel oil is necessary. A spokesman for one of the largest refiners and distributors in the East says that, "An increase in fuel oil prices would undoubtedly promote a larger output."

Thus our era of regulated shortages continues. As long as free enterprise exists, the natural tendency will be to produce those things that result in a reasonable degree of profit. OPA has neglected to recognize that the war is over. Millions of consumers need oil in other forms than gasoline. Free markets would have recognized changing requirements months ago.

Why shouldn't the railroad industry be shown the green light of public support? It isn't asking for any handouts. It merely wants a chance to go ahead on its own initiative — a rare attribute in these days of public treasury raiding.

VETERANS' COLUMN

Q.: Two discharged veterans in northern New Jersey ask, — "What is the limit for a loan to two or more veterans going into business together?"

A.: Each may apply separately for a loan not exceeding $3,000.

Q.: A veteran writes, "After two years in the China, Burma, India theater I was sent back to the States with a perforated ear drum. I have been in the States over a year and would like to go back overseas. I am a surgical technician and would like to stay in the medical corps. — Where do I go for more information regarding my problem?"

A.: Your commanding officer or the adjutant.

Q.: An Army veteran asks, "When a man is discharged from the service on account of disability, does the Veterans' Administration then begin right away to pay him compensation for disability?"

A.: The granting of disability compensation is not automatic but must be applied for by the veteran to the Veterans' Administration, which is the agency having sole authority to determine the degree of disability and the amount of compensation payable to the veterans, if any. At time of discharge the veteran will be given an opportunity to file a claim.

Q.: A discharged Coast Guardsman asks, "Will I have to work while I'm finishing college or will the government allow me living expenses as well as tuition?"

A.: If single, and no dependents, the government allows $60 per month for subsistence; with dependents, $90 per month, as well as tuition, books, supplies, and equipment up to $500 per year for length of time earned by service in the armed forces, under the G. I. Bill.

Q.: An Army veteran asks, — "I received a Section X-AR-61530 discharge from the Army. Am I eligible for a pension? — What kind of discharge is this?"

A.: You received a discharge for Convenience of the Government, and it should contain a short statement indicating the specific cause of the discharge. If you have a disability which was incurred in or aggravated by your period of active service, which was not the result of your own misconduct, you should file a claim on Form 220 with the nearest Veterans' Administration office, or at the area office of the Division of Veterans' Services nearest your home.

PIPE DREAMS

Just about time you think you've discovered the meanest person in town, you find someone else who should have that distinction. We'd say it would be difficult to find a meaner person than the local girl, who, aided by her mother and sister, is endeavoring to undermine an ex-G. I. who works in the same office with her, so she can keep her own job and get the G. I.'s job for her sister.

There's an interesting reason why so many of the places about town are already talking about entering teams in a soft ball league this season, although wintery blasts are still blowing around local corners.

Two local lads, who have been earning considerable extra money for some time, weren't getting along very well at home, and decided it would be a splendid idea to have their own apartment, so they rented a part of an upstairs storeroom of a local business establishment.

The two decided the place needed a coat of paint to make it look more "homey", so they set about painting the floor Monday night. They started from opposite corners of the room, and went along backward on their knees, as they painted. Finally they landed back to back in the center of the room, surrounded by their painting. They yelled for the landlord, who rescued them.

There's one way to get around the coal shortage situation. If you have an attractive daughter. A young lad who works for a coal concern in Atlantic Highlands, is very much interested in the daughter of a Pine Ave. business man, and every time he visits he brings a bag of coal to her parents. He visits almost every night, and is always welcome.

There is a new excuse a man can use nowadays when he wants to get away from the fire-side. A John Streeter confided to a group of the boys the other night that a man he works with has "connections" and can get nylons occasionally. The local man says his wife doesn't object a bit if he's out several nights a week traveling to Keyport to see if he can get her a pair. However, he admits, she did check up and find his story O. K.

The reason so many cars belonging to local young men are seen traveling west these nights, is because a tavern has opened up in the vicinity of South River and the boys are all excited over one of the regular patrons of the place, whom they affectionately call "Petunia".

We've discovered that there is a local amateur barber who, while he compliments his customers on their wavy hair, and takes special pains with a person so equipped, has been trying for more than a year to discover some way to take the wave out of his own hair.

The boys in the western section of town had a good time Tuesday and Tuesday night with a new one. They told a local of that section, who has heart patters for a Sayreville girl named "Lilly", that he had married the girl Monday night when he had a load of inspiration aboard.

He was in a dazed condition the night before, but remembered that he was with the girl, and believed them when they said he married her. He had spent considerable for celebration juice before he found out they were kidding him.

Pay Raise Is Announced For Hercules Employees

Five Percent Increase Is Announced

In a recent bulletin to employees, Charles H. Gant, plant manager of the Parlin plant of the Hercules Powder Company, announced that a five per cent wage and salary increase would become effective on February 1st.

Simultaneously revised rates for certain job classifications, resulting from a job evaluation survey, recently completed at the plant, will be put into effect, adding a further over-all payroll increase of about one per cent.

"The five per cent increase will be based on the one year service rate", Gant said "All wage roll employees and salary roll employees subject to overtime regulations will receive the five per cent increase". Persons whose present pay is below the new scale, determined by the job evaluation survey, will receive the higher rate of pay with the five per cent increase added, while those now in a classification where a lower rate has been established under job evaluation will receive the five per cent increase on their present rate, it was explained by the plant manager.

The pay increase will be the third such wage raise made at the Parlin plant in the past four months, in addition to the resumption of time and one-half paid for Sunday work, following V-J Day, Gant said.

Fashion Frock of the Week

PRETTY LADY!

Femininity is the word for glamour this bright new season. It's a man's world again. And when a man has his choice he says, "I want my women to look pretty!" What could be prettier than frilly parasols splashed against sentimental pink crepe? They're as provocatively feminine as the coquettish Southern belles who once carried them.

Cap sleeves are feminine, too. Sleeves that aren't really sleeves at all, but a rippling carry-over from softly rounded shoulders. They expose soft arms to the gaze of the sun... and to the admiring glances of the male. Necklines should be just as revealing as the merest wisp of sleeves.

The man in your life might have had this Fashion Frock of the Week in mind when he said, "I like my women to look pretty!"

Short Cooking Time
Today, food specialists tell us the shorter the cooking time, the more food values we save. Instead of long slow cooking it's better to keep vegetables at boiling and shorten the time.

Aluminum Uses
Several of the main uses made of aluminum at the beginning of the century are still among the largest consumers of the metal today, such as cooking utensils, electrical conductors, marine construction, architecture, novelties and transportation.

Constant Care Is Imperative To Preserve Women's Beauty

Constant attention to detail is imperative if a woman wishes to maintain an even pattern of attractiveness.

All the effect of perfect grooming can be destroyed by a ragged, broken fingernail, or a wisp of stray hair marring the perfection of your coiffure.

Easiest ways to maintain the constant care that is necessary are described in an article in the February issue of Good Housekeeping magazine which states in part:

"Brush and comb your hair several times a day and shampoo to reveal those lovely highlights."

"Never file nails down at the sides. Let them grow out at the corners until they are even with the pads of the fingers and they will be less liable to break."

"Make symmetrical lip curves by pushing on your mouth until you have a clear idea of the best shape for your lips. Then practice drawing it on your hand until perfect symmetry is achieved."

"For a prettier mouth never have rounded lips or feathered edges. Choose a lip stick that doesn't bleed, and apply it with a brush in a clean, firm outline that keeps its pattern all day."

"To pep up thin, limp hair have a permanent regularly which will give your hair body and spring. Have it expertly cut in a rather short feather bob that creates an illusion of more hair than you have."

"For a fresher face change your makeup oftener. When a bit of repair is called for, take off the old coat entirely and put on a brand new one. It will make you look brighter and younger."

"To master oily skin shine, wash your face with soap and water three times a day if you can. Use cake makeup to suppress the glisten and give your skin a neat mat finish."

Looking Ahead

THE FAMILY, not the state, is the social and economic unit in the United States. France went collectivist in the autumn election. England went collectivist last August. Russia has been collectivist since shortly after World War I. Germany and Japan are no longer powers. America is the one powerful stronghold of liberty for the individual, remaining in the world.

England used to have free, private enterprise but the government tinkered with it until it was free no longer. Taxes squeezed corporation profits until the owners could not keep their plants modern. Then volume could not grow nor wages rise. The unhappy workers finally gave the nation a staggering swig of Russia's political vodka and elected a state ownership parliament.

Americans OLD WORLD politicians glibly predict that Uncle Sam will be next to follow Russia's example, but they don't know America. Income per person here is twice that of any other country. Even before the recent war, industrial wages in America were twice as high as in England; four times as high as in Russia. Our national income was bigger than that of any six other countries.

In its early stages, communism always is perfumed with a savor of freedom—freedom from something. Britain has more liberty than France today; France more than Russia. Even the Russians may feel better in a delirium of paternalism than butchered by repeated revolutions, but that's not saying much. A convalescent can be better than an invalid but still not be envied by a well man.

Cut-throat AMERICAN fac-competition stories are still financed, can yet keep modern. Our land has harbored no pirate army as France did. This nation has little to fear but cheap labor; not here, of course, but abroad. Collectivism means cheap labor—wages uniform and low. Such countries can imitate American products, make them poorly and sell them cheaply right here in America if we permit.

This same set of facts has been presented by people plugging for a high, protective tariff but that's only a crutch. The modern, 16-cylinder method for beating cheap-labor competition is to produce. America's skilled workers using America's costly machinery can turn out any manufactured product, in better quality and at a lower cost than is possible in a cheap-labor setup.

There is a collectivist theory that manufacturers will make too much profit for the good of society unless their workers slow down production. It is not true. No friend of Labor will put any obstruction in the way of maximum production because it is this nation's escape from collectivism. It is also the road over which men must march to better wages and higher living standards.

Two Coastguards Adrift 12 Hours In Raritan Bay

Rescued at Laurence Harbor And Taken To Local Hospital

Two Coastguardsmen, who were adrift twelve hours in Raritan Bay Sunday, were brought to the South Amboy Memorial Hospital, where they were treated for shock and exposure, and later transferred to the Marine Hospital on Staten Island.

The two, Norman G. Jamison, 22 of 523 Chester street, Baltimore, and Warren E. Day, 21, of Yonkers, N. Y., attached to the Perth Amboy Coast Guard Station, were on patrol duty at the Great Bed's Lighthouse, when the motor of the boat failed, and the high winds swept waves over the craft. They worked unsuccessfully to get the motor of the boat going, and as the water of the Bay became rougher and darkness settled down, they sent up flares which were unnoticed. They tried to row, but lost the oars overboard.

The tide changed, and they used their bare hands in an effort to paddle the craft toward shore. Finally they reached ice flows about fifty yards off the shore in the vicinity of Laurence Harbor, and abandoning their water filled boat, climbed on the ice. They struggled to the beach and collapsed.

Robert Kittle of 139 Floyd Terrace, Union, visiting relatives in Laurence Harbor, was about to get into his car, when he heard faint cries from the shore, and found the two men. The victims were wrapped in blankets and rushed to the local hospital by the First Aid and Safety Squad.

of medals being pinned on civilians, and the distinction attached to a medal seemed to be greatly decreased thereby.

It is the old story, too much of anything cheapens its value.

The post war planning in this city should unquestionably include plans for a municipal auditorium of sufficient size to accommodate the ever increasing army of local sport fans.

Recently when the two local high school basketball teams met in their first contest of the season, it was necessary to stage the game in Sayreville, and even with the greater facilities for accommodating spectators there, it was impossible to even permit all those who wished to see the game to get inside the building.

The attendance at the Hoffman High School basketball games played out of town is more than twice that at games played in this city, for the reason that practically every school plays on a larger court than the home court of the Hoffman team.

Domestic Treat

"Domestic rabbit is on the American menu for keeps," say countless Americans who first tasted rabbit during the recent meat shortage. "Domestic rabbit will remain high in American food favor not only because it is delicious to eat, economical, and easy to prepare, but because it ranks high among all meats in protein value," says Miss Elspeth Bennett, foods authority in charge of the Nutrition Service of the Ralston Purina Company.

"Fried rabbit is easy to prepare and attractive to serve," advises Miss Bennett. "Dip pieces of a two pound rabbit, cut for frying, in a mixture made of one slightly beaten egg, 1 1/4 teaspoons of salt, and 1/4 teaspoon of pepper. Roll pieces in fine, dry bread crumbs. Brown rabbit in 1/4 inch hot fat, then reduce heat, cover, and cook slowly 30 minutes, or until tender. Garnish with parsley, and serve on a bed of boiled rice with brown gravy."

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON

Edited by Western Newspaper Union.

BYRNES-RUSSIAN PLAN FOR WORLD ORGANIZATION

WASHINGTON — The least noted or discussed major news of these days is the permanent new world establishment organized by Mr. Byrnes at Moscow and implemented at the London UNO meeting.

Neither congressmen nor people are talking much about it, although the effects upon people everywhere will be greater, perhaps, and last longer than the effects of current strikes and demobilization (the two topics absorbing the popular mind).

The unfolding facts disclose the basic deal, which the American state secretary made for renewed co-operation of Russia in the world organization, is founded upon a validation of Russian conquests in eastern Europe and American co-operation to secure the most valued posts in the UNO for Russia.

Chairmanship of the "political and social committee," which will handle such affairs throughout the world, went to Dr. Manukh of the Ukraine, one of the many Soviet socialist republics (a geographical Russian state) which Stalin caused Mr. Roosevelt to recognize as an independent new nation at Yalta.

"The economic and financial committee" chairmanship went to Kenderski of Russian-dominated Poland. (The Byrnes-Molotov candidate for president of the assembly earlier narrowly failed of election.)

BIG THREE DIVIDE POWER AMONG SELVES

But Byrnes was careful to keep almost equally divided between the Big Three the more important "economic and social council," dealing with the same delicate world problems now obviously involved in revolutionary changes.

This council is a little autonomous UNO in itself, being literally empowered to go into practically any subject in any nation, and even the top security council of UNO only has authority over its general appropriations. This restriction on its funds is the only practical restraint upon its scope.

On this council the British, United States and Russia each have about equal representations, each able to control five votes in all reasonable expectations, while France has two and China one.

For the United States we can no doubt count on Chile, Colombia, Cuba and Peru in a pinch, while the British might be expected to sway Belgium (?), Canada, Greece (?), and India. The Russians own the Ukraine, control Yugoslavia and Czechoslovakia, and seem to be able to count on Norway (?).

Thus the council, which was contrived at San Francisco to bring the New Deal to the world, starts out with equal power of American democracy, British socialism and Russian communism. These are the brass tacks of the matter.

But underneath this new tacking is the new American foreign policy of rapprochement with Russia, as against Britain, which has never been explained. The Byrnes speeches at UNO are as unrevealing as his post-Moscow statements here, as to point and purpose. The reasoning behind our new policy has never been presented, even unofficially.

RUSSIAN SUPPORT USED TO GET UNO STARTED

My inquiries have developed the following understanding of many a Byrnes friend as to what changed him from his adamant stand for the Atlantic Charter, and Roosevelt freedoms for small European nations at the foreign ministers breakup, in London last summer, to this new policy (read no more into this, than their statement):

The British, who are our natural world allies, being similarly democratic, had proved no more co-operative inside than out in all postwar dealings. Their socialist government was rather plainly trying to move us as its pawn, just as the Russians would like to use us.

Apparently Byrnes figured he could do as well siding with the Russians as he had been doing while siding with the British.

As this is the formative period of the new world, the price in principles proved rather high. The Russian conquests have been validated in perpetuity throughout Europe, with a corresponding decline in the chances of any of those nations ever getting the Atlantic Charter.

Atomic concessions were made to an extent which is not even yet clear, although it is quite clear the atom bomb is to be used to guarantee this new-formed world forever, in addition to armies and airplanes (Byrnes speech at London).

Cut Pasture

In the years since 1920 more than 50 million acres of crop land and many million acres of pasture land have been released from production of feed for horses and mules and made available for production for the market. The land released from the growing of feed for work animals in this period would be sufficient to feed more than 18 million head of cattle.

SAVED BY MEAT PACKERS STRIKE . . . Meat on the hoof, and it will stay that way if the strike of two meat industry unions continues. Scene is the Chicago stock yards, where activity was virtually nil when the packing house workers and amalgamated meat cutters walked out.

LIGHTHOUSE GETS NEIGHBOR

Near the historic lighthouse at Cape Hatteras, N. C., towers the drill rig of Kase No. 1, where Standard Oil Company of New Jersey has begun a study of oil production on the Atlantic Coast. With South Amboyans In The Services

Calcutta — Sergeant, William E. O'Leary, aerial engineer, of 334 Henry street, South Amboy, N. J., has been awarded Air Medal (Oak Leaf Cluster) it has been announced by Brig. Gen. Charles W. Lawrence, commanding general of the India China Division, Air Transport Command.

The India China Division is completing, by homeward movements of freight and personnel, its war mission of trans-India, India-China and intra-China transport. It has made air history by flying cargo and passengers in regularly scheduled day - and - night transit over routes once virtually unuseable, primarily the famed Hump. Its war contribution, say aviation leaders, has provided far-reaching portents for the future of air transport on a worldwide scale. July 1945, saw 71,000 tons cross the Hump, while at the moment of Jap surrender the rate was nearly two tons a minute.

"From a small monthly tonnage at the outset," said General Lawrence in a war's-end statement to his troops, "cargo to China has increased until it has been proved that whole armies could be supplied by air in China — and they were, to the distress and destruction of our enemies".

Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, commander of all U. S. Forces in China, has said, "Through enemy fire and through all sorts of weather, over oceans, mountains, desert and jungle, those planes came, never falling. Upon their cargoes battles have been fought and victories won. Upon their cargoes China survived when there was no other contact with the world. Your flies made the Hump the most famous mountain range in the universe".

On the USS Dauphin — Edgar F. Marsh, baker, third class, USNR, 309 Catherine street, served on this assault troop transport during a part of her war cruise in the Pacific.

The Dauphin has been engaged in "Magic Carpet" duty — bringing veterans home from overseas bases. Previously, she participated in the Okinawa operation, and visited Japan at Sasebo, Hiro Wan, and Yokohama.

Tsingtao, China — Lindley H. Henry, Jr., fireman, first class, 421 Ferris street, South Amboy, N. J., served on the USS Jason, now anchored off Pagoda Pier here, providing headquarters for the Senior Officer Present Afloat in this area.

The Jason, a repair ship, serviced ships of all types during and following the war. To speed the vital job of returning fighting ships to battle, she was stationed just behind the front lines at Purvis Bay in the Solomons, Manus, and Ulithi before the surrender.

"Well done" commendations came to the Jason for her work on the USS Lexington and the USS Randolph, from Admiral W. F. Halsey and Fleet Admiral C. W. Nimitz, respectively.

Some of the famous large carriers repaired by the Jason include the USS Essex, Bennington, Bunker Hill, Enterprise, Franklin, Lexington, Saratoga, Shangri-la, Ticonderoga, Wasp, Yorktown, Hancock, Hornet and Intrepid.
