

J. D. VAN PELT
MADE CHAIRMAN

His Success With Old Home Day
Last Year Causes Him to be Re-
Elected for 1915 Celebration—
Fire Department Will Have Charge
of Parade.

Another meeting for the arrangement of an Old Home Day Celebration was held in the City Hall last Monday evening. Mr. J. D. Van Pelt
was elected permanent chairman of the general committee for the present year and Messrs. Harold Hoffman and J. E. Coogan were elected secretaries to serve the committee. Mr. Van Pelt said that he felt highly honored
last year and again this year and that he really felt that some one else
should be given the chairmanship
this year. There was no opposition to any of the appointments. The second secretary was the suggestion of the chairman that there would be plenty of work for both.

The chairman stated that he would withhold the appointment of most of the committees until after the next meeting as he was desirous of considering the matter. He also asked to have the news spread broadcast
to the effect that he would appreciate it very much if all who were willing to serve on committees would advise
him of the fact as soon as possible.
This would not only facilitate the making of the appointments and also the work of the committees themselves, but would also remove any chance of anyone anxious to serve being overlooked. He said that he would like to have the names sent to him in any convenient way and as soon as could be as these committees should be appointed as soon as possible.

The chair stated that the committee on parade would be handed over to the fire department to take entire charge of its arrangement. This is because of the fact that the parade
this year is expected to be a firemen's parade only. Later in the meeting a committee consisting of Messrs. Timothy Sullivan, Joseph Sexton, Patrick
Cooney, Walter Compton, P. F. Kenah,
George Corcoran, Fire Chief Compton
and his two assistant chiefs, Gordon
and Neilltopp, and the mayor were delegated to meet with the fire companies to discuss arrangements for procuring out of town fire companies,
caring for them, etc. Each company
is to be asked to invite three visiting companies to come here and take part in the parade. The secretaries were instructed to write to the secretary of each of the local fire companies acquainting them with the action taken by the general committee and asking them to make arrangements for the election of at least one member from each fire
company as a nucleus for the formation of a parade committee.

The chair also stated that the baby
parade management and arrangements
would be turned over to the Woman's Club to do as they see fit. He hoped that they would do it as they did last year and he seemed to feel that there was no room for doubt as to its success again this year.

Mr. Van Pelt also stated that he did not see that the finance committee that served last year could be improved upon to any great extent
and he would, therefore, re-appoint them this year. The members of this committee are: Messrs. George Gundrum, Frank L. Day, P. F. Kenah, J.
D. Mullane and J. Sublinski. They have power to add to their number anyone they see fit to appoint.

The chairman spoke of the publicity committee in response to a suggestion from the mayor. He said that that committee last year was
as much responsible for the success of the celebration as any of the other committees that served and that he believed that most of that same committee should be reappointed. Accordingly Mr. E. C. Roddy was appointed chairman of the publicity committee again this year. The other members of the committee
named were: Harold Hoffman, William Miller, Samuel Lockner, Wm.
Schmidt, H. P. Mason, M. N. Roll,
C. T. Mason, Lewis Rulitz, M. Gornalka and J. E. Coogan. This committee also has the power to add to their number if it seems advisable.
Mr. Roddy referred to the fact that

EASTER SERVICES
FOR CHRIST CHURCH

The Rev. Chapman S. Lewis, Rector of Christ Church, has issued the following announcement of Easter
services:

There will be six services, five in the Parish Church, and one at Doane Memorial Chapel.
In the Parish Church, the day will begin with a celebration of the Holy Communion at 7 o'clock; this will be followed by another celebration of the Holy Communion (also plain) at 8 o'clock; then at 10.30 a. m., there will be a Choral Eucharist, with procession and appropriate and beautiful music under the direction of Mr.
Clarence R. Stults, Master of the Choristers, and Miss Emma Dayton, organist, and the Rector will preach
on "Intimations of Immortality."

In the afternoon, at 2.30, there will be an Easter Festival Service, in which the three Sunday Schools of Christ Church Parish will unite, and the Rector will give a brief stereo-picon talk on "The Building of the City." The day will close with Festival Evensong at 7.30 p. m., immediately following which the Rector
will, in the parish house, with the aid of the new reflectoscope, project
upon the luminaire screen many beautiful reproductions by Leinweber
of celebrated paintings illustrating
the "Cross and Passion, the Precious Death and Burial, the Glorious Resurrection and Ascension" of our Lord Jesus Christ.

At Doane Memorial Chapel, (between the two services at the Parish Church), the Rector will give an additional Celebration of the Holy Eucharist at 9.30 a. m.

Much preparations are being made
also for the Annual Parish Meeting
and Sociable which will be held on next Monday night at 8 o'clock, preceded by shortened Evensong in the Church. It is hoped that this meeting may be as successful as the one last year, which was attended by nearly 200 people. The annual elections will take place, and reports
from every society, guild and organization in the entire Parish will be received. St. Martha's Guild will serve refreshments free to all.

GRAND LODGE OFFICERS.

TO VISIT STERLING CASTLE
All members of the Knights Golden Eagle are expected to be present at the district meeting held in the rooms of Sterling Castle on April 3, 1915.

Officers of the Grand Lodge and visiting brethren will be present to take an active part in the meeting.

Immediately after the business
session the stunts will be pulled off.
If you have one, bring it along, if
not, forget it, and bring yourself,
meet your old friends, make new ones, satisfy the inner man, and you'll go home pleased with your sacrifice of one Saturday evening.

INSTALL OFFICERS OF

COURT RARITAN, F. of A.

A regular meeting of Court Raritan No. 44, F. of A., was held on Wednesday night. New officers were installed for the ensuing term. Grand Court Officers were present and rendered their service in an able manner much to the satisfaction of all present. About fifty members formed the assembly. After a short business session the members adjourned
to the reception room where a very delicious lunch was served. Then came the elms. After a few pleasant remarks had been offered by the Perth
Amboy delegation, the City Quartet of Jersey City then rendered several popular song hits of the day which demanded encore after encore. The boys left in the small hours of the morning. Our books are open for a short period to accept new candidates
in one of the best lodges in the State.

The officers elected were as follows:

- Chief Ranger—Nels Banks
- Sub-Chief Ranger—Thomas Grace
- Financial Secretary—Ed. Dwan
- Treasurer—James Minnick
- Recording Secretary—Martin Kane
- Senior Woodward—Fritz Della
- Junior Woodward—Michael Press
- Senior Headle—Chris. Neervo
- Junior Headle—Louis Wentzel
- Trustees—Mathew Cronin, Aaron
Oyer, Richard McCleod.

ALL ABOARD
THE FERRYBOAT

The People of This City and Vicinity
are Offered a Great Treat Next Monday Night at St. Mary's Hall
—Humor Galore in the Play and Dancing to Follow.

"All aboard!" Get your tickets early for the next ferryboat, which leaves next Monday night from St.
Mary's Hall station. Tickets are selling so rapidly that another rush
is expected.

The humorous play "In The Ferry House" is to be presented by the Robert Emmett Dramatic Association, which is sufficient guarantee that it will prove a great hit. The various characters are exceptionally good, in which some of the old-time
favorites will be seen at their best.
Everybody should see the "Ticket Agent," "Newsgirl," "Jewish Poddler,"
"School Teacher," "Ticket Chopper,"
and all the others who go to make up the usual ferry house crowd.

Everything is in readiness and all
will have another pleasant evening at St. Mary's Hall Easter Monday night.
There will be a matinee at 2 o'clock
in the afternoon for school children at which an admission of 10 cents will be charged, but grown people regular price.

Admission in the evening for the play and dance 50 cents. After the play dancing will be in order until the early hours. Refreshments will be on sale.

Don't wait until the tickets are all taken, but secure one from the young ladies who are going around, and then come early and secure your seat, and enjoy a very, very funny
play.

Woman's Club Will Conduct Baby Parade

The Woman's Club held their regular meeting in the City Hall on Thursday afternoon with the president, Mrs. Wm. P. Nichols, in the chair.

A letter was read from the secretary of the Old Home Day Committee requesting the Woman's Club to take charge of the baby parade this year, to which the ladies gladly consented.

After the reading of a very gratifying report from the President regarding the progress of the State College for women the following program was rendered:

- Education—Miss Helen Brown.
- Selections from American Humor-
ists, Mrs. Herbert J. Berrien, Miss Mary Buchanan, Mrs. F. M. Littell,
Mrs. R. M. Mack and Miss Emma A.
Dayton.

The Nobel Prize—Mrs. J. Mortimer
Parker.

The Executive Board will meet
with Mrs. Charles Safran on Tuesday evening next.

MRS. MARGARET BERRY.

Mrs. Margaret Berry, of Henry street, was buried in St. Mary's cemetery last Saturday afternoon.
The funeral services were held in Philadelphia and the remains brought here for interment.

Mrs. Berry passed away at the home of her sister-in-law in the above city early on Wednesday morning after having lived there about four months. She was sixty-seven years of age and had lost her husband about six months previous to her death. Mr. Berry died as the result of injuries received in the performance of his duties on the Raritan River Railroad. The couple had lived in this city for about forty years. No children survive them.
Interment was made under the direction of J. J. Scully.

MRS. C. I. BERGEN
CALLED TO REST

Carrie L. Bergen, beloved wife of Christopher I. Bergen, entered into rest at her home in First street about 3.40 o'clock last Saturday afternoon
after only a brief illness at the age
of forty-three years.

Mrs. Bergen was taken suddenly ill about two weeks previous. She seemed to recover in two or three days and it was thought all danger
had passed. But Friday night previous to her death a sudden turn for the worse took place, and on Saturday morning another physician was called in consultation, and it was then decided that an operation was imperative, and arrangements were immediately made to remove her to the Perth Amboy Hospital, but she sank
so rapidly that removal was impossible and she died at time stated.
Coming as it did so unexpectedly her death was a great shock to her family and friends.

Mrs. Bergen had resided in this city most all of her life, and had a host of friends who now grieve that they have lost a most loving companion. The sympathy of the community goes out to the surviving husband and stepchildren, to whom she was indeed a faithful wife and devoted mother. Mrs. Bergen since a young girl had been a member of the Presbyterian Church and was over active in church work, being a member of the Ladies' Aid and kindred societies of the church, among which she will be greatly missed.

Besides a husband Mrs. Bergen is survived by the stepchildren, Mrs.
Henry Solover, Raymond and Howard
Bergen, her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
George Applegate of Main street, and two sisters, Mrs. Wm. T. Hammell of this city, and Mrs. Sadie Sheppard of New Brunswick.

The funeral was held from her late home at 2.30 o'clock last Tuesday afternoon, and was attended by a very large gathering of relatives and friends. The service was conducted by the Rev. H. C. White, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and during his remarks spoke highly of the worth of the deceased, and of her great devotion to her church and her family. Interment followed in Christ Church cemetery. There was a vast array of floral pieces, evincing the great love friends had for the deceased, requiring a special carriage to convey them to the grave. Stillwell & Mason were funeral directors.

The pall bearers were Messrs.
Symmes Ingraham, George V. Bogart,
Frank Stratton, William A. O'Connor,
Willard S. Ingraham and Ralph Stuart.

SHIPPING AGENT CRANE

TO HAVE FULL CHARGE

Effective April first the entire charge of the operation here and at
P. R. R. "G. Y." Old Bridge yards, came under the terminal and shipping agent, Mr. Geo. W. Crane. He was empowered to make whatever changes were deemed necessary to satisfactorily handle the business.

The fusion of the forces of the yardmaster and terminal and shipping agent caused a number of changes in the positions of the men affected. Some transfers, some de-motions on account of reductions of force, some furloughs granted, and some promotions made were the results of the fusion.

DAMON AND PYTHIAS.

Probably one of the greatest moving picture shows ever given in Keyport will be that of "Damon and Pythias" which will be presented at the Surf Theatre next Monday afternoon and evening, under auspices of Sir Walling Lodge, K. of P. It is said that this production cost over $100,000. For further particulars see
adv. in another column. Tickets are on sale in this city by Wm. A. Chapman and Charles E. Buckelaw.

WILL TAKE UP

HOSPITAL PRACTICE

Melvin Hunt, of this city and now
a student of Jefferson Medical College, in Philadelphia, recently passed examinations in St. Barnabas Hospital, Newark, with higher averages
than any of the other contestants.
In consequence of this he will receive
the first appointment for hospital
practice and expects to enter there on June first. He will graduate from Jefferson this spring. Dr. Hunt is also a graduate of the local schools.

REQUEST FOR FIRE ALARM BOX

People of Bergen Hill Section Want
One to Protect Their Property—
Thompson Street May be Extended to Augusta—Other Matters
Before Council.

The council meeting Tuesday was rather sparsely attended. Mayor Dey
and Councilman Chevalier were absent. The other members of the council were, however, on hand.

A communication from Henry Miller was read, enclosing a bill of $7.50 for work on a sewer tap. It explained that the tap had been thought defective and an attempt to remedy the trouble had been made.
Afterwards it was discovered that the trouble lay in the sewer in the street.
This the street commissioner had remedied by flushing out the main.
The bill was for the work of examining the tap on Miller's property.

Councilman Parisen raised the question as to whether or not anyone
had authority to open the sewers
without permission from the authorities. It was brought out that the proper procedure to follow would have been for the complainant to interview the street commissioner and deposit five dollars. Then he could go ahead and do what was necessary.
The matter was finally referred to the committee on sewers.

The water commissioner submitted
an inventory of stock in his department as requested by the council
some time ago. It was received and filed.

The following bills were read and
ordered paid:

Mr. Slover reported progress upon the matter of placing a street light
on David street between Stevens avenue and Pine avenue. Councilman Stratton reported progress upon the matter of granting desired permission to Joseph Sexton to install a five-hundred gallon gasoline tank
underneath the sidewalk in front of his garage on Main street.

A resolution introduced by Mr.
Slover was adopted. It provided for the renewal of a Stevens avenue improvement note for $12,000 due on April 7 for three months at the rate of five per cent.

The reports of the collector and treasurer were read, received and filed. The collector had received a total of $1,010.03. The treasurer's report showed the following: General account overdrawn, $3,064.00; water account, balance, $4,008.40; sanitary sewer account, balance, $8,750.84;
Broadway improvement account, balance, $1,557.70.

Councilman Stanton spoke about the need of a fire alarm box in the Bergen Hill section of the city. He stated that there was no box nearer than the one located on the corner of Augusta and Fulton streets and that an alarm box was badly needed

somewhere in the central portion of the section he referred to. All the buildings in that section were of frame construction and the fire protection that they received was practically nothing. He said that this matter had been brought before the council a year or so ago and after being referred to the fire committee nothing more was heard of it. His motion that it be again referred to this committee for action was carried.

Mr. Parisen called attention to the fact that there was a large amount of money outstanding in unpaid taxes
and asked what was the proper step to collect it. The matter was discussed at some length and the solicitor asked for an opinion. He was not prepared to give positive advice
at the time. The matter was laid over for further consideration.

Mr. Richard Delaney was given the privilege of the floor and stated that he was going to build a house on Thompson street and that some hundred and twenty feet of water and sewer piping would have to be laid in order to reach his house. He thought that the city should bear this expense. He also called attention to the fact that his house would shut off a path much used in reaching the trolleys and that passengers
would have to go all the way around the block. All this led up to the suggestion that it would be a good idea
to open Thompson street all the way
to Augusta street, about sixty feet.
The matter of furnishing the desired water and sewer connections
was referred to the water and sewer committees respectively.

Councilman Slover stated that the City Hall was in need of painting
in some places, some new gutters
were needed and other minor repairs necessary. He made a motion that the committee on public buildings
and grounds be empowered to have necessary work done. Motion was carried and adjournment then taken.

MRS. CECILIA BLOODGOOD.

Mrs. Cecelia Bloodgood, widow of George Bloodgood, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W.
E. Post, 96 Catalpa avenue, Perth
Amboy, about midnight on Monday
last at the age of 78 years.

Mrs. Bloodgood was the mother of Wallace, Sidney and Benjamin Blood-
good, and a sister to Mrs. Andrew Dill and Mrs. Ambrose Newman, all of this city.

The funeral was held from her late residence at 2 o'clock on Friday afternoon, the Rev. W. A. Lad-ford, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church of this city, officiating.
The body was brought to this city
and interred in Christ Church cemetery. Stillwell & Mason were funeral directors.

Examination for Health
Board Officers

The local Secretary of the Board of Health is in receipt of a communication from the State Board to the effect that a special examination for
the offices of local health officers and sanitary inspectors will be held on April 15th. Applicants desiring to take the examinations are to send to the Trenton office of the State Board
for the proper application blanks
which will be forwarded to them immediately.

Usually these examinations are held only in the months of June and December but there have been so many applications recently that the State Board has decided to hold the special examinations. The usual examinations will also be held in June of the present year.

There has been some difficulty over
the plumbing inspector in this city for some time past. It seems that one or two of the local plumbers do not like the idea of having a plumber
made inspector for some reason and consequently there was more or less feeling in evidence. Now that the State Board is going to hold a special examination for the office it may be that the local condition may be remedied somewhat by the appointment of someone outside the trade.
Mr. Thomas Worley will take the examinations and it is understood that there are one or two others that intend taking them. This would, of course, give the local board a choice,
providing that all the applicants can meet the requirements.

At the present time the former inspector is filling the office of plumb-ing inspector until his successor is appointed.

FARM DEMONSTRATOR FOR MIDDLESEX COUNTY

Mr. Irving L. Owen has been appointed farm demonstrator for Middlesex County.

Mr. Owen's practical experience combined with his education along agricultural lines and the knowledge he has acquired of agricultural conditions in Middlesex County through a protracted residence there, combine to fit him admirably for the duties which will devolve upon him in his new position.

Hearred on a farm in New York State, Mr. Owen took a high school course, entering Rutgers College in 1904, from which institution he was graduated in 1908 in the agricultural course. Subsequently to graduation he accepted a position as assistant chemist in the department of soil chemistry and bacteriology at his Alma Mater, where he was stationed for four years in charge of field and soil experiments. In 1913 Mr. Owen was made manager of the department of farm crops, in which position he has supervised the general farm operations at The New Jersey Agricultural College. He leaves this latter position to take charge of the farm demonstration work in this county.

Veteran Engineer Dead.

George W. Scott, formerly an engineer on the old Camden and Amboy railroad, died at his home at Bordentown on Saturday in his ninety-third year. While he was an engineer he ran the old "John Bull," the first engine on the Camden and Amboy railroad. He was born at Fallsington, Bucks county, Pa., and came to Bordentown in 1846. He leaves a son, Winfield Scott, and a daughter, Sarah Messerolle, widow of the Rev. George Messerolle.

Engine Hits Auto, Three Escape Serious Injuries.

George P. Aitkin, assistant manager of the State House for Boys at Jamesburg; his five-year-old daughter, Naomi, and Ira Blauvelt, chauffeur, escaped serious injury Saturday afternoon when a Pennsylvania Railroad train struck an automobile they were riding in at Prospect Plains. Aitkin was injured about the leg and sustained a gash on the forehead. The little girl was cut by flying glass and also bruised. Blauvelt was only slightly injured. The latter says he did not hear the warning gong at the crossing, but heard the locomotive whistle when he was on the track. Three of the wheels of the machine were torn off. Aitkin and his daughter were on their way to Trenton to meet Mrs. Aitkin and John Enright, an officer at the State house. Aitkin and his daughter received medical treatment at their home at Jamesburg. The automobile belonged to Mr. Enright.

Expect Plainfield Will Appeal on Free Lights Decision.

It is believed that Plainfield will appeal from the decision of the Supreme Court wherein it was decided to be illegal for the Public Service Electric Company to furnish free lighting to the municipality as a part of its original contract. At the time of the last argument in the matter, the City Council authorized Corporation Counsel Charles A. Reed to take such action as he thought advisable, and it is the opinion that he will take the case to the Court of Errors and Appeals. In the first instance he secured a favorable decision before the Board of Public Utility Commissioners, after which the company took the matter to the Supreme Court. Under the terms of its franchise the company has been furnishing free lighting to the city offices, police station and firehouses.

Will of John Hinchliffe.

The will of former State Senator John Hinchliffe, of Paterson, offered for probate Monday, leaves a bequest of $50,000 to St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum of Paterson, one of $10,000 to the Columbia Building Company, owners of the home of the local council of the Knights of Columbus, to pay off the mortgage on the building, and large cash bequests to relatives and friends.

Fire Destroys Speedy Motorboat.

Buster B, one of the fastest motorboats on the Shrewsbury River, was destroyed by fire Saturday afternoon, when driftwood and dry grass along the bank of the river back of Riverside drive, Red Bank, caught fire and spread to the boat. The house of William W. Brown, owner of the boat, was threatened when the flames crawled up the bank and spread over a large area. The local fire department was called out. The boat was propped up on the bank with beams and covered with tarpaulin. A short time ago the engine was taken out and was sent to the factory to be overhauled. The boat was valued at about $600.

Railway Publishers Incorporated.

Papers of incorporation for the Railway Publishing Corporation were filed Monday in the Union county clerk's office, Elizabeth. The incorporators have taken over the Rahway Record, a weekly newspaper. The paper was also known as the New Jersey Advocate. The Record was published as a daily for a while. The incorporators are: Tracy M. Killman, Arthur H. Wendell and Edward M. Savage. The office is at 136 Irving street, Rahway, and the capital is $30,000.

Morris Bros. Sell Interest in Jersey Central Traction Co.

Man's Hand Cut Off by Tractor.

The right hand of Thomas Moran, eighteen years old, was severed at the wrist Tuesday when it was caught in the gears of a seventy-five-horsepower caterpillar tractor he was driving on the estate of J. B. Duke, at Somerville. He was taken to the Somerset Hospital.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

South Amboy, N. J. Mar. 25, 1915.

DEAR EDITOR:— If you will kindly allow me the space in your valuable paper, I would like to ask the Honorable Mayor and Common Council of the City of South Amboy if they think it is doing justice to taxpayers of the First District by retaining the present Assessor, Edward Deyan, in the position he now holds and a position which I am sure he is not fit to fill. Owing to the fact that he is incompetent and unjust, which fact he has pronounced when he raised the valuation of my little house on the corner of Main street and Stevens avenue from $1,250.00 to $2,050.00, in one year and raised the valuation on no other property in his district. When I went to see Mr. Dewan about this matter he told me it was a mistake and went so far as to intimate that some one had changed the figures and agreed to take my tax bill and rectify his mistake, but before I left him, he became very personal about some of my affairs and I took the bill from him saying I would let the County Board of Assessors straighten the matter out. I was not a favorite of course and failed in doing anything in the line of a reduction in my taxes. Now, I have common sense enough to know that I must pay my taxes and I expect nothing that is not right and just and in this case I contend I have been treated unjustly and to back my opinion I will relate some of the instances which I think will give the City Officials an idea of what I am getting at, also asking them if it is justice to me for my property 35 feet front by 125 feet back and a little 1½ story house when my taxes are just the same as my neighbor, who has more than twice as much ground, and a great deal larger house? And is it justice for me to pay more taxes by seven ($7.00) dollars than another neighbor who has a seven thousand dollar ($7,000) property on Main street below Stevens avenue, excepting a few property holders are taxed less than I, and how is it that Dewan gets away with six (6) lots and two (2) houses either of which are larger than mine and his entire property is assessed for eleven hundred dollars ($1,100.00), and along with that he has assessed the property adjoining him on Raritan street at $100.00 a lot and his own at $50.00 a lot. Now this does not look very good for Dewan, but it is a fact, nevertheless, and I do not think the taxpayers should be compelled to put up with such state of affairs. As I have said before, I know we must pay our taxes, but I do not think we should be compelled to pay some of the Assessor's taxes.

$40,000 Home Near Elberon Destroyed.

The summer home of former United States Senator Simon Guggenheim of Colorado at South Elberon was burned Wednesday. The loss is estimated at $40,000. The cottage, known as Whitehall, was one of the show places along the Atlantic coast. It had not been occupied for some time.

The Jersey Central Traction Company took hold of the road in 1906. The company operates trolley lines from Perth Amboy to the Highlands via Keyport and Atlantic Highlands through Campbell's Junction and to Red Bank. The company also furnishes electric lighting power in Middlesex and Monmouth counties. The new owners took control of the road Saturday.

The price paid is said to be in the neighborhood of a million dollars.

Units Pay For Tuberculous Cattle Destroyed.

The Senate Tuesday passed Senator Gaunt's bill amending a law enacted in this session which raised the sum the State should paid for pedigreed cattle suffering from tuberculosis. The law, as offered by Assemblyman Loblein, provides $225 for each animal destroyed by the State. Mr. Gaunt remarked that tuberculosis was always present in the State, and that, regardless of pedigree, such animals should be valued at no more than $50.

LOCAL PAPER THE
BUSINESS BAROMETER

An ambitious Pennsylvania town of 4,600 population called in the President of the American Advertisers Association to write them a boom booklet. The expert in publicity wrote the Chamber of Commerce that he had before him the last three issues of the local newspapers and declined the very attractive commission. "The advertising columns of your local newspaper is the mirror through which the business world sees you. The genius of a Kipling could not overcome your handicap. Forty per cent. of the advertising carried by your local newspapers is furnished by business men from outside who know its value. You can't interest investment, home or business, on a town that hasn't a business individuality of its own. Apply that test to any progressive town you know anything about. The only thing on earth that can't be helped by wise publicity is a town indifferent to its own, and the best sources of publicity. I never knew of a man looking for a home or business location that did not once but many times send for a copy of the local newspaper and form his own judgment of the town's business activities and its opportunities. There was never a booklet written that could overcome the potent influence of the starved advertising columns of the local newspaper."

"And let me tell you another thing: Publicity experts are not looking for losing propositions. The local newspaper that is worth while carries its weekly story of a community's business and social activity. It wants to carry the weekly story of your individual activity if it can be done with self respect. If you want a real publicity campaign start it yourselves. Make the advertising columns of your town newspaper tell as interesting a story of your mercantile and business life as the editor and reporters are telling of your social life. The business and investment world are watching the local business barometer, the local newspaper."—Ex.

WEEKLY LETTER TO FARMERS.

(By F. R. Stevens, Agriculturist, Lehigh Valley Railroad.)

The experiment stations and agricultural colleges of the states through which we traverse have been doing some remarkably good work lately in determining the amount of lime necessary for the various soils. This is done in a comparatively simple analysis of samples sent. The value of lime on new seedling has been demonstrated time and again. Many lime grinders and burners have been started in the last few years to supply the demand which is constantly increasing. Yet, comparatively little is known as to the lime required on each farm.

In the limestone belt of central New York, and in the other places where lime appears on our line, comparatively little is needed, although even in these favored sections it has been found that lime works downward in the soil and an occasional top dressing pays. In some of these sections I have found reports showing that only 500 lbs. of lime were needed per acre. In other sections along the line, farther removed from limestone, larger quantities, in some cases even as high as nine tons per acre, have been needed in order to bring about the most favorable conditions for the clover. It is in these sections where even a ton and a half or two tons per acre give most noticeable results.

The experiment station and colleges are more than willing to make lime determinations for you. All that is needed is to select the field which you wish to lime. Take six or eight samples of soil from four to five inches beneath the surface of the ground. Mix these, and from the mixture take about two pounds of the soil and forward it to your experiment station, making sure to place name and address on the tag. At the same time write a letter stating that you have sent the sample, and thus assure a reply.

The practice of using lime is beyond the experiment stage. Lime is needed on most soils. If you find that you need a large quantity, plan to supply that quantity gradually by a system of rotation of crops on which the ground is limed for new seedling. It is surprising to see how soon the whole farm will be brought to a clover growing basis. And this means not only better quality of hay, but better fertilizer conditions.

No careful how you drop remarks; they may hit the wrong chap.

Many Hear About
China at The Empire

The Rev. Chas. A. Killie gave an interesting lecture on the religious work being carried on in China and of conditions before, during and after the Boxer Uprising in that country, at the religious services which were held in the Empire Theatre last Sunday afternoon. The speaker denied the common belief of people in this country that rats and rice constituted the most popular diet among the Chinese race. He also said that the specimens that are to be seen in this country are not at all typical types of the race and that those we see come from only one section of that vast country across the Pacific and that the language they speak is only a dialect that would not be understood three hundred miles from their home towns.

Over fifty slides were used to illustrate the lecture and the pictures shown were, many of them, taken from negatives made by the speaker himself during his twenty-five years sojourn in China. Mr. Killie referred more than once to the great need of more missionaries to spread the Word of Truth among the heathen. He said that his own personal charge had more of a population than nine of the states in this country. He also stated that contrary to common belief the custom of binding the feet of the Chinese women is not dying out, except, perhaps, in some of the coast cities where the white population is as great as the yellow. Slides showing a pair of bound feet were shown to illustrate the barbarous custom of torturing the feet to make them look small and also to keep in fashion.

After the conclusion of the lecture the speaker exhibited some curios that he had brought home with him. He had a pair of shoes that had been worn by a Chinese woman whom he said weighed about a hundred and twenty-five pounds and was over 5 feet tall. The shoes were only about five inches long. He also had an idol that had been worshipped by one of his converts every day for more than twenty-five years. There were also ancestral tablets and other things in the collection.

An American flag and a Chinese flag adorned opposite corners of the interior of the theatre during the lecture. The theatre was darkened and the moving picture machine used to project the slides on the screen. The ladies were requested to remove their hats and most of them did so.

The Rev. W. A. Allen, of the South River Baptist church, again led in the singing of the "Billy" Sunday hymns. As before the pamphlets were distributed among the audience and collected at the door after the services were over. An offering was taken up to defray the expense incurred in procuring them. The singing was more spirited than before in spite of the smaller attendance. Mr. Allen also sang "The Holy City" by request.

The services were opened by the singing of the songs, then followed the opening prayer. This was made by the Rev. Mr. Edgar, of Jamesburg. Just preceding the closing prayer made by Mr. Killie he sang a song in the Chinese language. The tune was all right but the words—O my! The announcement was made that henceforth the combined choirs of the churches represented would serve at the "tabernacle" services. Any others who desired to lend their assistance were requested to meet at the Baptist church on the following Wednesday evening. They were assured that their efforts would be appreciated.

Mr. Allen said that he couldn't come down here every Sunday, but that he would be here next Sunday and would try the following Sunday. Beyond that he didn't know. He wanted to come next Sunday in order to hear his dear friend and classmate, Mr. Johnson, preach the sermon. He makes an admirable chorister and his absence would be very noticeable indeed.

The services closed with the singing of "America."

No Business Good Business.
"Yes," said the quiet man, "business has been good with me this week or two—I don't know which you would call it. I have been busier than the company likes to have me."
"What do you mean by that? Is there an employer who does not like to have his employees work? Could I get a job there? It seems to me that such a position would suit my temperament exactly."

"The company doesn't care to have anything doing in my department. It would be glad to pay me my salary and never have me do a stroke of work."

ELABORATE PREPARATIONS
FOR ANNUAL CONFERENCE
ON HOUSING IN NEW JERSEY

Passaic, N. J., April 1.—Elaborate preparations are being made for the reception and entertainment of the hundreds of guests coming to the Third Annual Conference on Housing in New Jersey, which will be held in Passaic, May 27-28, under auspices of the New Jersey Housing Association and the National Housing Association in co-operation with the Passaic Board of Trade. The Convention promises to be one of the greatest and most important of its kind ever held in this country.

No expense is being spared in the preparation of the program of addresses and the entertainment of the guests. There will be many special features of interest to the visitors. A thorough and extensive housing survey is now conducted in Passaic by experts, and the printed report of the same will be presented to the convention for consideration and discussion.

Passaic has housing conditions of a varying character; typifying such as are peculiar to large cities, to industrial communities, to commuter towns, to residential districts, and even to those of the village. The presentation of the problems arising from this situation and their solution in the report of the housing survey will prove of great benefit to all the New Jersey communities represented at the Convention.

Material is being gathered for an exhibit, showing typical housing conditions found in this State. The State Board of Tenement House Supervision is preparing an extensive exhibit of their work, and the Board of Trade will present much local material.

The Health Officers Association of New Jersey will hold their next official convention in conjunction with the Housing Conference. Under the State health laws, each community is empowered to delegate all its Board of Health officers and members to attend the Health Officers meeting, and the municipality must pay the delegates' expenses. Board of Health officials generally will therefore take advantage of the opportunity of attending.

In speaking of the housing problem, at the last annual conference of the National Housing Association held at Cincinnati, Ex-President William Howard Taft said, "It is really a great pleasure to come here and to take part in a convention that is one of a series of conventions that have done so much real good, and that is giving evidence of great good to be accomplished in the future. We have conventions and conventions. Some are political; others are social, and many are futile. I have known some of each kind. Sometimes they accomplish more than they seem to accomplish."

"But a convention like this, that has started a housing movement and has brought into it so many active municipal authorities all over this country, is a convention that ought to be continued each year, until the principles that it upholds shall spread through the country and become part of the policy of every municipality."

"In housing betterment we have a movement that is practical, with respect to which something can really be done, but can be done by legislation and enforcing legislation. Improvements of this sort are never easy. Great progress is never made without great effort and without falling back and then going forward. If reforms were as easy as some people think they are, and could be made by legislation over night, they would not be worth the doing. The real victories are brought about by hard work and constant effort, and that is what you have to do here. Legislation is necessary, but you have got to have behind that legislation the public spirit, and the public interest in the work that shall force your legislation into operation."

SATURDAY, APRIL 3, 1915.

Mr. J. D. Van Pelt, the chairman of the Old Home Day general committee, is anxious to receive the names of those who are willing to assist in the work of preparing for the celebration which is to be held on August 14th of this year. Last year there were a few who were anxious to do their part but who were overlooked in the naming of the various committees. Some, therefore, felt that they had been slighted. This was, of course, not the case, but it is admittedly an absolute impossibility to think of every one. So, in order to avoid any cases of this kind during the present year the chairman has requested that everyone who is willing to share in the success of the celebration send their name to him. Use any mode of communication that is convenient but send him your name. Do it at once so that he can have it for use at the next meeting of the committee. It will not only make his work of naming the various committees much easier but will facilitate the entire planning that has to be done.

TO PROTECT THE SEA COAST.

Word comes from Washington that, conforming to the provisions of the recent Rivers and Harbors bill, a corps of army engineers is about to undertake another survey of the Sandy Hook peninsula to ascertain the feasibility of protecting Seabright and the Shewsbury River from coast storms. Representative Scully, who has been persistent in his advocacy of the claims of the shore folk, succeeded in securing authorization for the work.

Colonel Abbott's recent report on the subject, which recommended the use of the old bulkhead system, was not concurred in by General Kingman, who favors bulkheads off shore. Colonel Abbott claimed that his plan of bulkheading, strengthened by a protective pile of riprap "crowded with heavy stones" would, while tending to spoil the bathing at Seabright, prove effective in repulsing the surf. Secretary of War Garrison has manifested a preference for the plan of General Kingman, but now that another survey is authorized one plan or the other will be recommended.

The State will probably lend its aid in solving the problem. While there is no disposition on the part of the New Jersey engineers to work independently on the project, nevertheless it seems that this plan will have to be followed as some of the State's engineers are by no means prepared to declare in favor of either plan of the Federal engineers.

Engineer Benjamin F. Cresson, of the State Harbor Board, believes that the solution will not be reached without much experimenting. He is not certain that a breakwater would not be the worst thing that could be provided. He believes in the plan of independent surveys for stretches of several miles along the sea coast in order to ascertain the ocean currents and the drift of sand at each place. He thinks that only by knowledge obtained in this way will a permanent remedy be found.

As the Federal authorities, however, expect assistance from the State, the fact that Uncle Sam has taken the initiative gives reasonable assurance that the Federal and State governments will before long get together and agree upon some plan that will save our seashore resorts from the ravages of the ocean.—The Jersey Journal.

SENATOR WHITE'S TORMENTORS.

Senator Blanchard White of Burlington county has been a fly in the Republican pie in Trenton since the Legislature convened. In retaliation the Republican politicians and newspapers have attempted to browbeat the Senator into submitting to their detection by insinuations anything but complimentary. For more vicious assaults have been made in private than have appeared in the newspapers. By word of mouth, dire threats have been conveyed to the Burlington County Senator unless he became the servile tool of the Republican majority.

This method of intimidation and coercion used to work most successfully, not only in State legislatures but in Washington. The man who had sufficient intelligence to think for himself, backed up by character and a will of his own, found a hard road to travel when he encountered made upon him that were inconsistent with his manhood and his citizenship.

None of the mud thrown at Senator White by those who wished to use him as a dummy to put through their nefarious schemes has stuck. If Senator White submits to these tactics in one single instance he immediately becomes helpless and in the position of a person paying blackmail. The assaults made upon him are no less than blackmail, and he is doomed the minute he surrenders, for he thereby virtually pleads guilty to their dirty charges.

What has Blanchard White done to justify the Republican attacks on his party loyalty? First, the Republicans attempted to use the Legislature to throw a Democrat out of office in Newark and put a Republican in office. There was no principle involved, and no party platform pledge was at stake. Mr. White voted against this political trick—and was immediately set upon by the pack of political wolves who had been holed by their own petard.

Next, we find Mr. White voting against a bill in the Senate revolutionizing the entire taxing system of the State, beginning with the original assessor and working its way up to the top with a State Tax Supervisor. The body of that bill was good. The general provisions were workable and, we believe, would prove beneficial to the taxpayers in the State. But it covered such a wide range of subjects as to make it top-heavy. The principal provision to which objection was raised was the destruction of the County Tax Boards. Senator White voted against this omnibus bill.

Of all the other hundreds of measures that have been put forth by the Republicans, Senator White has voted with his party, and in doing so he has voted for some rotten propositions. There was no reason or excuse for his vote in many cases except his desire to be in harmony with his party. In short, on two non-partisan bills on which there was no party pledge involved Senator White voted with the Democrats, while in the other hundreds of bills being pushed by his party-leader he stood regularly with his colleagues. On the whole, Senator White has been as regular as any self-respecting legislator could be who felt that he had brains enough and character enough to vote according to the dictates of his own conscience.

In the Senate Mr. Hutchinson voted with the Democrats on the Home Rule bill while Mr. White voted with the Republicans. In the Senate, party lines were shattered on the local option issue and so far no man has been accused of being a party traitor on that account. In the Assembly, party lines have been broken on every big bill. Everything went to pieces on the Godfrey Canal scheme, and clean, high-minded young Republicans refused to submit to the coercion attempted by Godfrey and the Lehigh Valley lobbyists. Nobody has accused these men of party treachery or corruption. When local option, which is unquestionably one of the liveliest issues in the State, reached the Assembly, party lines were ignored and men voted their own judgment, and so far no man has had the temerity to question those votes.

In short, there is not a man in the Legislature in either party who has a cleaner record or a better defence for every vote he has cast than Senator White of Burlington county.—Elizabeth Evening Times.

WILLS PROBATED AND LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION GRANTED.

The will of James P. Scully, late of this city has been probated by Surrogate Clayton, and disposes of considerable property to the wife and children of the testator. Mr. Scully devised $1,200 to his son Harold, and $1,000 each to his other children, John, Leo, Edwin and Cornelia.

His insurance in the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen is left to his wife, Ida Scully, who is also to have the residue of the estate so long as she remains his widow. Upon her death or re-marriage, the residue is to be equally divided between the five children of the testator. Harvey Commons is named as executor.

Letters of administration were granted as follows:

To Ira Boden, of South Amboy, on estate of William Boden, who died on October 23, 1912. Personal estate, $577. Granted March 24.

To Ira Boden, of South Amboy, on estate of Alexander Boden, who died on March 4. Personal estate, $7,500. Granted March 24.

To Elshaw Johnson, of South Amboy, on estate of Kate Johnson, who died on December 19, 1911. Personal estate, $500. Granted March 26.

The Junior League of the Methodist Episcopal Church is making preparations for the dollar ball on the entertainment which will be held about the middle of this month. The proceeds of this ball will be very valuable to the league.

Program Suggested For Old Home Day

When the business of electing officers was disposed of last Monday evening the Old Home Day committee adopted the plan submitted by the Plan and Scope committee for the day's celebration. It is only tentative and is subject to such changes as may later seem advisable. The plan submitted follows:

To the General Committee for Old Home Day celebration.

Gentlemen:

Your committee on Plan and Scope after a full and complete consideration of the matter begs to submit the following as a tentative plan of the Old Home Day celebration.

"Your committee does not feel that the plan herewith presented if adopted by this committee should be conclusive, but should serve only as a guide in the preparation; leaving to the future such changes therein as experience and wisdom may suggest. Having in mind this thought we would recommend:

1. That the celebration be opened on Friday evening, August 13th, by a Band concert and masque fete on Broadway.

2. Saturday, August 14th, 8.00-9.00 a. m., Water Sports.

3. 9.00 a. m., Baseball game.

4. 10.45 a. m., Exhibit of Fire Apparatus.

5. 11.00 a. m., Firemen's Parade.

6. 1.30 p. m., Athletic Events.

7. 4.00 p. m., Baby Parade.

8. 5.00 p. m., Automobile Parade.

9. 7.00-10.00 p. m., Band Concert.

"We further recommend that the following sub-committees take charge of the respective matters:

1. Finance Committee.

2. Publicity Committee.

3. Parade Committee, (This committee to be selected by and from the Fire Department).

4. Committee on Baby Parade, (This committee to be selected by and from the Woman's Club).

5. Masque Fete.

6. Music.

7. Reception.

8. Athletics.

9. Auto Parade.

10. Water Sports.

11. Baseball Game.

12. Grand Stand.

13. Finally we recommend that a committee be constituted and composed of the chairmen of the respective sub-committees and the officers of the General Committee and called "The Executive Committee."

Respectfully submitted,

PLAN AND SCOPE COMMITTEE.

In the discussion preceding the adoption of the above plan Mr. Corcoran asked what the masque fete on Friday night was to consist of. The chairmen replied that there would be bands, dancing on the pavement of Broadway, parade, carnival, etc., similar to the affairs that Asbury Park holds every year.

Mr. Burden objected to items four and five being timed so close together, on account of firemen not having time to don uniforms, etc. In reply the chairman stated that it was the intent of the plan and scope committee to get fire apparatus of the motor variety and give only a running exhibition through the streets, and doing away with the coupling to fire plug business. The best time that could be decided upon was thought just before the start of the firemen's parade. Then the fire apparatus would all be on the side streets awaiting to fall in line, people would be lined up on the sidewalks, more or less, and the streets, therefore, more clear of people than would be the case at any other time.

Mr. Roddy was responsible for the incorporation of the grand stand committee into the plan and scope committee's report. He spoke of the service rendered by the carpenters at the last hour last year in erecting the stands and suggested that they be formed into a separate committee this year. This was done as can be seen.

J. D. VAN PELT MADE CHAIRMAN.

the merchants of the city, or most of them, closed their stores on two nights a week and said that he thought there would be a better representation of business men if the meetings were changed to either of these two nights instead of holding it on Monday nights. Objections to any change were voiced by several. Tuesdays would conflict with the meetings of the council and Thursday night would be too late to get the desired amount of publicity from this paper on account of the day following being a very short and very busy day. The argument in favor of Monday night was that most people had less to do on that night than any other night in the week. Finally the matter was laid over for consideration at the next meeting.

Mr. Roddy spoke of the advisability of having the executive committee handle the apportionment of the appropriations, making up the budgets of the various committees, and such financial details. The idea was well thought of although it had already been considered by the plan and scope committee. No action was taken upon the matter at the time.

Upon motion the bill of Frank Guerin, for team hire for drawing the apparatus of the Mechanicsville Hose Company last year and a bill of five dollars for cuts from the New Brunswick Times were ordered paid. Remarks to the effect that this sort of thing was establishing a bad precedent were made and the consensus of opinion seemed to be that bills should be rendered at the proper time instead of being dragged along for a year or more.

On account of next Monday being Easter Monday adjournment was taken to meet again on next Tuesday evening. This will give the business men an opportunity to attend at least one of the Old Home Day meetings and if they appreciate it and would like to see the meeting nights changed it is to be expected that there will be a full turnout of the city's merchants at the meeting next Tuesday evening. If the mayor's office isn't big enough to hold 'em all, the meeting will be held upstairs in the council chamber.

The stork presented a little daughter to Mrs. Harry Schoefield at the home of her mother, Mrs. William Bloodgood, of George street, about half past ten o'clock on Monday morning. Mother and babe are doing well. Mrs. Schoefield's home is in Camden. She was formerly Miss Loretta Bloodgood.

Usually the so-called dignity a man attempts to stand on is nothing but a bluff.

BILL MAKING LITTLE PROGRESS ON IMPORTANT PROPOSITIONS

Amboy, April 2.—Whipped into the semblance of activity by the lashes of criticism leveled at the Legislature by the people of the State the members got together this week with the intention of meeting three times a day. This prodding on the part of the people, however, did not have the effect desired as the Legislature merely passed bills of an inconsequential nature, which the State would be better off without and entirely neglected any of those vital propositions which are being demanded by the electorate.

Those great propositions that have been definitely promised remain unacted upon and now as the session draws to a close the ambitious personalities that make up both branches of the Legislature are striving for personal preferment.

With this condition existing it looks as though the session would go down in history as one of the weakest in the history of the State. At this time there is absolutely nothing that can be pointed to with pride because there has hardly been a promise that has been carried through in the spirit that the people had a right to expect. Measures that tend toward the raising of salaries of Republican officials have met with very kind consideration and only this week the Majority Leader of the House fathered a bill to raise the salaries of the sergeants-at-arms of the Chancery Court by $500.

These bills are passed with an avidity that has aroused a feeling of resentment when it is remembered that the measures promised in the Republican party platform have been allowed to go by the boards. Not only has the session been a disappointment so far as accomplishing anything is concerned, but in the method of doing business the session has been remarkable.

If the people from the far ends of the State could see the House of Assembly at work they would arise in their wrath and demand that the servants of the people give the proper consideration to the people's business. Measures that are of interest and importance to the particular localities affected have been acted upon with a carelessness that has been outrageous. Upon one occasion the House continued in session with hardly a dozen members in attendance, and while the majority made no attempt to pass bills on third reading there were measures passed second reading, which is a most important step, in the business of legislation.

The Senate Republicans are playing a wily game. Gaunt, Edge, Read, Pierce and Colgate are watching each other for fear that each will get something in on the others and so advance their political ambitions. With this situation existing there is every reason to believe that the session will end as it has progressed, in an entirely worthless manner.

The minority, because it is a minority, has not been able to pass bills but it has succeeded upon a number of occasions in defeating iniquitous legislation. The greatest example of this was the Morris Canal bills presented by Speaker Godfrey and which would have cost the people of the State millions. The Democrats beat these bills.

THE PLANET MERCURY.

It Is Difficult to Weigh, and Its Orbit Is Very Eccentric.

Though Mercury is one of the smallest of the planets, it is perhaps the most troublesome of all to the astronomer.

It lies so close to the sun that it is seen but seldom in comparison with the other great planets. Its orbit is very eccentric, and it experiences disturbances by the attraction of other bodies in a way not yet fully understood.

A special difficulty has also been found in the attempt to place Mercury in the weighing scales. We can weigh the whole earth, we can weigh the sun, the moon and even Jupiter and other planets, but Mercury presents difficulties of a peculiar character. Le Verrier, however, succeeded in devising a method of weighing it.

He demonstrated that our earth is attracted by this planet, and he showed how the amount of attraction may be disclosed by observations of the sun, so that from an examination of the observations he made an approximate determination of the mass of Mercury. Le Verrier's result indicated that the weight of the planet was about the hundredth part of the weight of the earth. In other words, if our earth was placed in a balance and fifteen globes, each equal to Mercury, were laid in the other the scales would hang evenly. "Story of the Heavens."

HIGH SCHOOL MENTIONINGS

Middlesex County Championship Meet.

Prof. Hendrickson has announced that there will be an Interscholastic Athletic Meet for the championship of Middlesex county in which all the High Schools of this county are requested to participate. The meet, the twenty-fourth, 1915, at 2 p. m., ment Park, Keasbey, N. J., on April the twenty-fourth, 1915, at 2 p. m., is held under the auspices of the Woodbridge High School Athletic Association. No entry fees will be requested from those who desire to enter this contest, but there will be a general admission of fifteen cents. The following prizes will be awarded: To the school totaling the most points, a beautiful school banner; a silver cup to the individual totaling the most points, and a loving cup to the winner of each event. All students of the local High School who wish to enter this contest should send their entries to the Manager of the Woodbridge High School Athletic Association before April 17, 1915, as all entries will close positively after the said date. Many of the students of the High School are very enthusiastic over this opportunity, and they expect to start in training this week so if you see the students taking cross country runs or taking gymnastic exercises to harden the muscle you will know they mean to enter the contest to win. The following events will be run off at that meet: Hundred yard dash, two hundred and twenty yard dash, half mile dash, four hundred and forty yard dash, one mile run, one mile relay, shot put, 12 lb. shot, standing broad jump, running high jump and the standing high jump.

The Oriental Tea.

The Oriental Tea held last Saturday afternoon and evening in the auditorium of the High School, under the auspices of the High School Glee Club, was a great success, and was very much enjoyed by all who witnessed it. The attendance in the afternoon was small compared to the large crowd which turned out to witness the entertainment in the evening, and many were forced to stand, but all who did felt well repaid for doing so before the entertainment was over. Through the kindness of both the Woolworth and American five and ten cent stores, beautiful decorations appropriate to the Japanese life were secured at a very reasonable price, and by being artistically arranged around the walls of the room, did much to bring out the reality of the scene of an Oriental tea. Much credit is due to the directress, Miss Bertha Fulton, for the excellent manner in which the different parts were presented by those who took part. "The Festive Chinks" presented by three boys namely Norman Scully, Robert Kerr and Gerald Dey, and three girls, namely, Kathryn Himmelberger, Frances Gordon and Frances Porline; "The Parasol Drill" by sixteen girls and "My Pretty Oriental Maiden," a duet by Ida Lucas and J. Edward Shaw who received an encore, were decidedly the hits of the evening's entertainment. The entertainment was not only a success from a histrionic standpoint, but equally successful financially, there being over thirty dollars cleared counting the ten dollars made from the Junior canteen stand. The money at this entertainment will be used by the Glee Club for the purchase of new song books for the High School and music for the association. The patronesses who helped in making arrangements for the serving of refreshments and to which a vote of thanks is given from the Glee Club, are as follows: Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Dey, Mrs. Little, Mrs. Newton, Mrs. Himmelberger, Mrs. O. O. Barr, Mrs. Grace and Miss Everitt.

Mothers Hear Address.

John Harlitt, the County Superintendent of the schools of Monmouth County, gave an address in the auditorium of the High School last Monday afternoon to the parents of the pupils of the schools of this city. His subject was the "Relationship between the Home and the School." Mr. Harlitt is a most profound thinker and is the most progressive educator in this state today, and the mothers who were unable to attend his lecture certainly missed a rare treat.

In the course of his address Mr. Harlitt stated that in order to make any school in any community a success it is necessary that there should be a proper relationship between the home and the school, that is, the home should take more interest in the school. Mr. Harlitt gave the

illustration of the boy in school who sends in slovenly prepared home work to his teacher. He said the teacher who accepted slovenly work would always receive such work, but if she refused to accept anything but good work the pupil would know better than to send any other kind. So it is with the school, the parent gets from the school just what they accept. Parents should take the proper interest in the home training and encourage things of an uplifting character. He stated that the school should be the leader in any community and as one is never too old to learn the parents who have not had the advantages of their children often receive good information by taking an interest in their children's school work. He said that they may learn even from little children and told about a time when he was greatly puzzled by what was meant by "Ye are unprofitable servants," for you have done that which is your duty to do and to think you are yet an unprofitable servant. One day the meaning of this was made clear by a little child in the second grade in the following manner: It was required of every pupil in that grade that they be able to recite their multiplication table up to seven times. So one day they were tested, but every pupil knew his table up to seven times and yet they were unprofitable servants for they had done only that which was their duty to do. But one little fellow raised his hand and said, "I know my tables up to twelve times," he was tested and recited it perfectly. He was then asked where he had learned it, he replied "I learned it off my brudder." This was the profitable servant, he had done more than his duty. The pupils, he said, must not be satisfied with a 70 mark, but must strive to get a 100 mark and have 5 per cent profit, then he will be a profitable servant. So this is a lesson from a little child, and so it is the same in life, the profit lies in doing over and above what is required of us to do. He related that when he was a boy, as he sat at the supper table, his father came in from the farm, and asked him "what did you learn in school today, that happened in school today?" He warned against such questions saying, a child has a great imagination and he knows what kind of an answer a parent would like, but in the parent would require the right answer it would encourage the child against lying and show the child that he has some one interested in him. Thus was emphasized the fact that home training has a great deal to do with the success of the child in the school, and it is very important that there be perfect harmony between the home and the school for where this condition exists it will always bring good results.

Will Play at Jamesburg.

The local High School baseball team will journey to Jamesburg this Saturday afternoon and play the High School of that place. During the past week, Manager Newell James and Captain Richard Lewis have had their men out on the field every night after school for practice, and as practice makes perfect they hope to cop the bacon from the Jamesburg nine, their first opponents this season. The following will probably be the lineup for this game: Capt. Richard Lewis, catcher; Russel Hardy, pitcher; E. V. Shaw, first base; Furman, second base; J. Thorpe, short stop; N. Scully, third base; C. Thorpe, left field; M. Fox, centre field; R. Kerr, right field. Substitutes, Dey, Davis, Forgotson and Hill.

High School Jokes.

Professor's Enult.
"Remember boys" said the teacher, "that in the bright lexicon of youth there's no such word as fail." After a few moments a boy raised his hand, "Well, what if my ind" asked the teacher. "I was merely going to suggest," replied the boy, "that if such is the case, it would be advisable to write to the publishers of that lexicon and call their attention to the omission."

Physiology.
Teacher—"What little boy can tell me where is the home of the swallow?"
Arthur—"Please teacher, I ken."
Teacher—"Well Arthur."
Arthur—"The home of the swallow is in the stomach."

Needn't Mind for That.
William while being reprimanded by his teacher for some misdemeanor, sat down leaving her standing. She remonstrated him that no gentleman should seat himself while the lady with whom he was conversing remains standing. "But this is a lecture," replied William, "and I am the audience."

Teacher—"Can any of you tell me what a book worm is?"
Pupil—"A bookworm is a person who would rather read than eat, or a worm that would rather eat than read."

A Good Definition.

"Charles," said the teacher, "do you know what the word celerity means?"

"Yes'm," said Charles. "It's something you put hot plates down with."

First Pupil—"Did you have about the civil war when you were in the eighth grade?"
Second Pupil—"No, I had the scarlet fever during the civil war."

SPORTING COMMENT.

SACRED HEART HAVE

LITTLE PRACTICE
The Sacred Heart baseball team were out for practice last Sunday. A game was played on Conlogue's field in the afternoon. The Sacred Heart boys played on one side and a lineup of former Sheridan players held up the other batting list. Molly did some of the pitching for the S. H. lads and Nebus also tried his hand at flinging the sphere. Molly's youngsters seemed to be pretty good with the stick and they ran up a score of fifteen or twenty runs. No account was kept but that's the most conservative guess available. The other fellows didn't seem able to do much against the hurling of Molly and his understudy for they only got one run.

The Sacred Heart boys will open their season on April 11th with a game with the team that represented the International Smokeless Powder and Chemical Company, of Parlin, in the South Shore Industrial League last year. Other games for the balance of the season have been and are being arranged. An unusually successful season is looked forward to.

ANOTHER BASEBALL TEAM.

The Pennsylvania Railroad will be represented by a fast team this year in the South Shore Industrial League on Saturday afternoons. Some of the fast players of the city will be seen on Amboy team and the fans will be delighted to see some of the old stars in action.

Perhaps some new faces will participate in the schedule of the coming season. Those who will probably play are as follows: Jas. McDonnell, Ed. Hardy, Bob. Manaker, Ed. O'Connor, P. Bloodgood, B. Roberts, Jas. Manhattan, Craig, Andrew Carroll, Applegate and others. Applegate and McDonnell will do the receiving. Bloodgood, Carroll, Hardy and Manaker will do the mound work.

Whooping Cough.

Well—everyone knows the effect of Pine Forests on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Coughs, loosens the mucous, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. ## IN CHANCERY OF NEW JERSEY.

TO MAX STEINER & COMPANY:

By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of New Jersey made on the day of the date hereof, in a cause wherein The Star Building and Loan Association of South Amboy, N. J., is complainant, and you and others are defendants you are required to appear, plead, answer or demur to the bill of said complainants on or before the seventeenth day of May next or said bill will be taken as confessed against you.

The said bill is filed to foreclose two certain mortgages given by Margaret Blaney, now deceased, and John J. Braney her husband, to The Star Building and Loan Association of South Amboy, N. J., the first of which is dated the thirtieth day of August, 1907, and covers lands situate in the City of South Amboy in the County of Middlesex and State of New Jersey and the second of which is dated the fifth day of October, 1908, and covers the same lands as the first mortgage herein mentioned.

And you Max Steiner & Company are made defendants because you hold a judgment against John J. Braney, who has a life interest in the lands covered by the said mortgages.

Dated, March 16, 1915.

Yours truly,

JOHN A. COAN,
Solicitor, P. O. Building, South Amboy, N. J. 3-20-5

M. P. CHURCH NOTES.

The Methodist Protestant people had a rare treat in being privileged to hear Rev. Dr. H. L. Elderdice, preach one of his thoughtful, scholarly, spiritual, and judging from its effect, masterful sermons. He took for his theme, "Loving the Invisible" and with his pleasant manner and forceful delivery more than met the expectations of his audience.

Despite the number of absentees on account of sickness last Sunday, we had 26 more in Sunday School than on the corresponding Sunday for last year and about 10 more than on the previous Sunday present. New ones coming in to take the place of the "absconded" and Zion moves unhindered.

The pastor will preach from the theme of "The Resurrection" next Sunday morning, endeavoring to answer some of the puzzling questions arising from time to time as we read the Bible and meditate on the grave. The subject is appropriate for the occasion and has been promised to the Bible Class for some time. The Easter Program prepared by the Board of Home Missions will be rendered at the evening service, consisting of carols, recitations and addresses.

We are glad to note the increased interest manifested in the C. E. Society and are looking forward to the C. E. and S. S. Convention for the Eastern Conference to be held May 4 and 5, 1915, in St. Paul's M. P. Church, Inwood, Long Island, New York. Lodging and meals free.

"The virtue lies in the struggle, not the prize."—Milnes.

"Any coward can fight a battle when he's sure of winning, but give me the man who has pluck to fight when he is sure or losing."—George Eliot.

"The saloon is the first place a policeman looks for crime and the last place he would look for virtue."—W. J. Bryan.

Corsica and De Paoli.

While the island of Corsica derives its fame from being the birthplace of Napoleon, the name of Pasquale de Paoli is more dear to the natives, for it was under the leadership of this patriot, in 1755, that they escaped from the yoke of the Genoese. For fourteen years he wisely administered the affairs of the island. In 1769 France bought the island from Genoa and landed an army of 22,000, which Paoli met with a few thousand Corsicans and fought until his army was reduced to 537 men; yet he cut his way through and escaped to England, where he remained twenty years. At the outbreak of the revolution in France he returned to his native land and became military governor, but he could not get on with his old enemy, so he returned to England, where he died in 1807.

The Earwig.

There is no insect which has puzzled naturalists as to its proper classification more than the earwig. Some have asserted that it belongs to the beetles, of which it is an "aberrant type," others that it is connected with the grasshoppers. Even about its very name there has been endless discussion. Some have thought the name earwig is the result of the creature's supposed habit of getting into the ears, while others are equally certain that it is derived from the original name, which they say was earwig, from the fact that the wing when spread resembles the human ear. At all events, one thing is certain—the earwig as we know it now is a survival of an early type of which almost every other member has become extinct.

Britain's Standing Army.

The British standing army is a much more modern institution than most people imagine. It dates from 1610, when the famous "new model" was established by act of the long parliament and maintained in existence until the restoration. This army, which was organized by Cromwell, consisted of some 50,000 men and was probably the most effective army that England has ever possessed. But the cost was so great that on his restoration Charles II. agreed to its abandonment, except a bodyguard of household brigade of 5,000 sanctioned by parliament, which included Monk's coldstream regiment and two troops of cavalry raised by Charles himself, which formed the originals of the present life guards.

Man must always in some sense cling to the belief that the unknown is knowable.—Goethe.

All human things of dearest value hang on slender strings.—Edmund Waller.

We would have many ideal cities but for the scarcity of ideal citizens.

SOME JOTTINGS COLLECTED BY OUR REPORTER WHILE GUNNING ABOUT THE CITY.

The school kids can do Indian war dances just like real Indians do it now-a-days, having had actual instruction.

"I can't do a single thing unless I ask the boss first," says one of our city officials.

The resumption of dancing in the High School was almost as sudden as its discontinuance, wasn't it?

Are the offerings to be a permanent feature of the services now Sunday afternoons?

Are you "Brightening the Corner Where You Are" or phoning school-ers across the bar?

Evidently some people couldn't read that "hats off, please" sign in the Empire last Sunday afternoon.

That Bordentown avenue bridge sewer siphon is going to work now. It's just been cleaned out again.

Some say that a thing like that is a political necessity anyhow?

That last slide shown last Sunday afternoon was some slide wasn't it?

The proprietor swinging a red light as a signal to change the slides. Necessity was ever the mother of invention!

Did the same committee that furnished your office also provide the ash receivers, Bill?

That a certain contractor is laughing up his sleeve at one of our public bodies because they paid his bill after making all sorts of assertions that they wouldn't.

That our reporter got stung on that glued cigar thing that the mayor amuses himself with in idle moments.

That the former offices of the Publicity committee are not available this year. Too bad, Edwin.

That if the Old Home Day committee meetings are changed from Monday nights the barbers won't be able to attend.

And that that would be hard on our friend on the publicity committee.

That some of the boys say that they were simply handed a bundle of tickets to sell for that five pound box of candy graft, and not asked whether or not they wished to do it.

That if you get miffed at your wife, wrap yourself up in a blanket and sleep it off.

That it is noticed that an out-of-town paper mentioned that we have a secretary of a board of trade. Found out, at last!

That the city is now expected to pay for bum guessing as to where sewer trouble lies.

That the bone factory up Meehanville way is being objected to on account of its perfume.

A Tartar Courtship.

Among the Tullulan Tartars a curious mode of "popping the question" exists. The Tullulan bachelor in search of a wife, having filled a brand new pipe with fragrant tobacco, stealthily enters the dwelling of the fair one upon whom he has bestowed his affections, deposits the pipe upon a conspicuous article of furniture and retires on tiptoe to some convenient hiding place in the neighborhood, local etiquette requiring that he should execute this strategic movement unperceived by any other member of her family. Presently he returns without further affection of secrecy and looks into the apartment in a casual sort of way. A single glance at the pipe he left behind him enables him to learn the fate of his proposal. If it has been accepted he goes forth an accepted and exultant bridegroom; if not, the offer of his hand and heart has been refused.

A woman doesn't object to a man's past as much as she does to his present to some other female.

A self-made man is as proud of the money as he is of his ingenuity.

CHRIST CHURCH CHRONICLES

There were excellent congregations at all services on Palm Sunday. It is a matter of much gratification to the Rector to note each Sunday a steady increase in our congregations. There are now of people not a few who have "turned over a new leaf," and after years of absence from public worship are coming regularly to the services of the Church. For all this we thank God and take courage. The possibilities of Christ Church Parish, should we once "wake up," are greater than any of us have dreamed of.

Another thing, remarked upon by many, with regard to the congregations at Christ Church, is the unusual number of young men in constant attendance. Their presence, let it be added, is a continual inspiration to the Rector. We need old men for wisdom and counsel in the Church, but we also need youth for enthusiasm.

Baptisms:—Friday, March 26, William Peterson, Albert Edwards Conover and Margaret Dobson Grace; Palm Sunday, March 28, William Mary Mayo, Howard Dalrymple Hyers, and Leonard Tice.

Now that for once we have seen Christ Church crowded to the very doors, the Rector may sing the song of Simeon, "Lord, now lettest Thou thy servant depart in peace." The congregation which greeted the Bishop upon his visitation was said to be the largest he has yet had in any parish. About 700 people were present on that evening. The aisles, too, and the doorways, and even the vestry room were crowded and there was no more standing room anywhere. It would seem good to be able now and then to have to hang out this sign in front of the church about the time service is ready to begin: "S. R. O." ("Standing Room Only.")

Who that witnessed the beautiful and solemn service on last Tuesday night can ever forget the impressive moment when 92 souls knelt at the Altar Rail to receive at the Bishop's hands the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation? It was a great sermon which the Bishop gave us and will long be treasured by all those young hearts. Altogether, it was a memorable service, and another large chapter is inscribed in the history of our parish.

We have been asked to print the names of the Class, which contained 21 men, 19 women, 31 boys and 21 girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Reed, Mrs. J. Alfred Miller, Mrs. Alonzo Grace, Mrs. Catherine Fulmer, Mr. Leonard Tice, Mr. William Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Conover, Dr. John F. Weber, Mr. William Christian, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Reese, Messrs. Louis and Henry Thomas, Messrs. Robert T. and Thomas Wortley, Mr. Isaac Rose, Mrs. Mary A. Sullivan, Mrs. Alice Jorgensen, Mrs. Myrtle Jorgensen, Mrs. Rosalie Rose, Mrs. Peter Steuwerwald, Mr. Louis Wenzel, Mr. Thomas Lounsbury, Mr. Daniel H. Sanders, Miss Dora Hartmann, Miss Madeline Ellwanger, Mr. August Hartle, Miss Mary Manhattan, Miss Adah Bell Ward, Mr. Myron Wood, Mr. Edmund Hartmann, Miss Lillian Hartle, Misses Grace and Nellie Hubbs, Marcena Heston, Clifford Bastedo, Fred Lesly and Henry Dieker. Also the following children and youths: Walter McKenna, Marion Thomas, John and Russell Fitch, Margaret Brown, Clarence Wortley, Lloyd Nelltopp, Floyd McKenna, Charles Straub, Sarah Mount, Leslie Grace, Hilda Letts, Clara Ely, Henry Miller, George Samuelson, Beatrice and Irene Gamble, Irene and Emma Fleming, Phil and Mildred Stader, Leon and Melissa Frischknecht, Mildred Johnson, Thomas Sanders, John Lounsbury, Doretta Jones, Margaret Long, John Melford Roll, Elmer Parson, Willie Slover, Arthur Disbrow, Addie Weber, Ella Buckalew, Ruth Dalrymple, John Kewest, Charles and Anton Kamps, George Glick, Jacob and George Buckalew, Wilmer Mayo, Alfred Hartmann, Jacob and Gertrude Ellwanger, Edward Christian, Mildred and Edna Sullivan, Lelroy Falk, Roland Melzer, Alex. Parson.

Please look up the announcement of our Easter services which, for the sake of wider publicity, is placed elsewhere in "The Citizen." Let us aim at a goal that is worth while: A church well filled at all of the six services and an Easter offering of not less than $500.

The Vestry will hold its first meeting for the new parochial year next Tuesday at the Rectory at 8 a. m. Let every member be in attendance, as this is one of the most important meetings of the whole year.

We overheard one of our live and enthusiastic parishioners exclaim the other day: "My, what a grand, good time we had at our parish meeting last night!" Yes, and history is going to repeat itself this year. Come and see! It is to be very informal, and, aside from the duty which every member of the parish owes in attending the parish meeting, with its exceedingly important elections (if any have a "kick" to make, let him come and "air" his views, or hereafter forever hold his peace), there is the added joy and privilege of participating in the social fellowship. Come, Mr. Stiff and Frigid Parishioner, "thaw out," and get acquainted with your Christian brethren.

St. Martha's Guild held the first of its all day semi-monthly meetings on Thursday of last week. The attendance was fair considering that many of the women had not yet learned of the new plan, and in view of the fact that Lenten services and duties had absorbed the time of many. Mrs. Donald Reed had charge of the delightful luncheon served, and in which she was assisted by Mrs. William Day.

Rheumatism Yields Quickly to Sloan's

You can't prevent an attack of Rheumatism from coming on, but you can stop it almost immediately. Sloan's Liniment gently applied to the sore joint or muscle penetrates in a few minutes to the inflamed spot that causes the pain. It soothes the hot, tender, swollen feeling, and in a very short time brings a relief that is almost unbelievable until you experience it. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment for 25c, of any Druggist and have it in the house—against Colds, Sore and Swollen Joints, Lumbago, Sciatica and like ailments. Your money back if not satisfied, but it does give almost instant relief.

COMMITTEE ATTENTION.

Chairman Roddy hereby issues a call for an organization meeting of the Old Home Day Publicity Committee to be held in the City Hall at seven o'clock next Tuesday evening.

The planning of the publicity campaign will be discussed and the committee organized. The meeting will be held just prior to the meeting of the general committee on Old Home Day.

The members of the Publicity Committee are E. C. Roddy, Harold Hoffman, J. E. Coogan, M. N. Roll, C. T. Mason, R. P. Mason, Sr., William Mills, Samuel Locker, Louis Stults, William Schmidt, and Marlon Gonnulka.

OPENED LAW OFFICE.

Harry Medlnets, a former resident of this city and a graduate of the local High School, has opened law offices on State street, in Perth Amboy. Mr. Medlnets graduated from law school too young to take the bar examinations and had to wait a couple of years to do so. He successfully passed the bar early last spring and has been associated with Judge Kehoe since his graduation from the law schools. Already an extensive practice is seeking him out.

The services in the Methodist Episcopal Church to-morrow (Monday) evening should prove unusually interesting. In honor of the day a special program of singing, recitations, etc., will be rendered under the auspices of the Sunday School. The preaching of a sermon by the pastor will be omitted.

The girl with the curl was some singing leader at the Empire Theatre last evening. The crowd was larger than any during the week. Some say the janitor had a new role to act and that the drummer was some drum.
