

Parking Near Schools Creates Problems

As if the city didn't have enough problems with their schools, the parking problem near them is compounding the situation. This was brought to light when a letter was received from the Traffic Officer, Sgt. James Tedesco, of the local police department. In his letter to the City Council Tedesco states, "Motorists park in the area of the schools and refuse to move for school buses. They state as their reason that 'NO PARKING' applies to the school buses as well as them. Quite naturally this creates a traffic jam and, literally interpreted, the motorists are correct."

On a motion made by Councilman John Howley, and seconded by Councilman John Connors, this letter was referred to the City Attorney, Mr. John Mullane, with the understanding that the feasibility of changing the law to allow standing and parking of school buses only during school hours will be looked into.

MINUTE OF SILENCE OBSERVED

At the beginning of the meeting, a minute of silence was observed by the Council in memory of the late Captain Alexander Abbatiello. This was followed by short eulogies from the Council members and Mayor Richard Schultz.

RECREATION COMMISSION SETS ANNUAL DINNER

NAGLE RETIRES

Street Commissioner Michael Nagle, in a letter to the Council, stated that due to the Civil Service Commission's rule on mandatory retirement at the age of seventy, he was submitting his resignation effective November 1, 1966. A motion by Connors, and seconded by Howley, received Mr. Nagle's letter with regret, and both Councilmen expressed their wish that sometime in the near future the City will name a street after him.

NEW FIREMAN ACCEPTED BY INDEPENDENCE

Secretary Albert Sorrentino notified the Council that Mr. James Alexander Nemeth has been elected to regular membership in the Independence Engine and Hose Co. No. 1. He will replace Mr. Thomas Lakomake. A motion by Howley, and seconded by Connors, confirmed the fire company's action.

TO CHECK INTO MOSQUITO PROBLEM
In other business the Council expressed their desire to have a joint meeting with the officials of the Borough of Sayreville in order to study the possibility of having a co-operative effort made to clear up the mosquito problem in the Swan Hill-Bayview Manor area. This action is suggested by the Middlesex County Mosquito Commission who have expressed their willingness to do the necessary engineering and labor if the two communities will share the cost of the necessary materials.

In a letter received from the Borough of Sayreville, the new development below Veteran's Field, Orchard Gardens, is causing a drainage problem at Brooks Ave. in Sayreville. Councilman Howley made a motion, seconded by Councilman Connors, that this matter be turned over to the City Engineer.

REQUEST OPENING OF TEEN-AGE CLUB

TO SPEAK AT DEM RALLY SUNDAY

Postmaster O'Brien will be the main speaker at the local Dems dinner-dance Sunday, November 6, at 5 p.m. at the Jernee Mill Inn. Also expected to address the gathering are James Howard, congressional candidate, aide Timothy Sullivan, and Warren Wilentz (pictured far right), candidate for senator.

President Johnson kept him on as liaison man in his administration and appointed him Postmaster General on August 29, 1965.

Mayor Richard J. Schultz and council candidates Fred Henry, John Connors and John Howley are also scheduled to speak.

County candidates are also expected to attend. Tickets for the affair may still be obtained from committeemen and committeewomen at $2.50 per person. Agnes Holton and Chet Ciszewski are co-chairmen.

SOUTH AMBOY MARINE PROMOTED

In ceremonies held at the Navy and Marine Corps Reserve Training Center, 3 Porter Ave., Buffalo, New York, a local Marine Officer was promoted to the rank of Major. Jeremiah P. Connors, son of Mrs. Mary Connors, 535 David St., was advanced to his present rank on October 13, 1966 by Colonel V. R. Blacaglia, Director of the First Marine Corps District, Garden City, L.I. Major Connors is the Officer in Charge of the U. S. Marine Corps Recruiting Station in Buffalo. As such, he has cognizance over recruiting matters for the Western New York area. During Fiscal Year 1966, which ended June 30, 1966, the Recruiting Station attained the best achievement record in the First Marine Corps District. with other major Stations located in New York City, Hartford, Connecticut, Boston, Mass., and Albany, New York. Otlowski Speaks At Dem Rally

Dem Headquarters, at the corner of Augusta and Broadway, certainly was lively with activity last night as over 200 persons heard Freeholder George Otlowski's moving speech.

No stranger to South Amboy, George gave a glowing report of the activities that he and Freeholder Thomas Lee were in on concerning the establishment of the new Middlesex County College and Roosevelt Hospital. He told of the workings as to how the board of freeholders used money wisely in order to put at everyone's reach the ability to send a boy to college for $200. He said that many of us who are sending our boys to school know that at one time or another "we have to eat grass".

Otlowski also gave a stirring report about Warren Wilentz. He said that when no one wanted to run for the office, Warren went in as a David but now he seems to have turned into a Goliath. He is now giving Senator Case a tremendous fight.

Otlowski also urged the citizens to support James Howard for Congress, and cited the tremendous advantage Middlesex County has in having two congressmen represent them, namely, Howard and Patten. Most important is that both Howard and Patten were on very important committees. Howard was on the Public Works Committee while Patten served on the Appropriations Committee. Of vital importance to Middlesex County is that when federal funds are needed for important projects whether on municipal or county levels,

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor:

The City of South Amboy has created a Zoning Ordinance and Subdivision Ordinance to protect the general safety, health and welfare of its citizens. Both of these documents have been carefully written to prevent overcrowding of streets, homes, and schools by limiting the density of various areas of town. These laws will protect the land values of any homeowner's neighborhood if they are enforced.

The Amboy Gardens section of the Stevensdale area as well as the adjacent developments were designed as single family dwellings. The old ordinance specifies that 5,000 sq. ft. lots which make up this area can be used for only single family homes.

The new ordinance which is soon to be passed reinforces the concept of one family homes in the Amboy Gardens area by upgrading the zoning to single family units only. Although it is now zoned for two family houses none can legally be built since there are no 7500 sq. ft. lots, which is a two family requirement.

In the original Amboy Garden Development of 47 homes, there now is 7 two family dwellings, plus 2 rooming houses. One street in particular where there is eight homes, 1 house is a two family, 1 a rooming house and still another proposed as a two family dwelling. This creates a situation that most of the residents moved from the city to avoid.

If the practice of two family homes continues in this area there is no sense of continuing this area as the highest residential B level. We might as well go back to Zone C, which allows two family dwellings, stores, shops, etc.

All the residents who have converted have done a fine job with their property. But what about the next owner? Suppose he wants to live upstairs and put a shop in on the ground floor. With variances being granted so comparatively easy, without a thorough study of the ordinance, who is to stop said shopkeeper.

I think the residents of the area should express their opinions either in writing or in person to the Zoning Board of Adjustment, City of South Amboy.

To the Editor:

I feel the situation in our 2nd Grade in Hoffman Elem. School warrants action from interested parents and taxpayers of South Amboy.

I am sure most of you found a substantial increase in your latest tax bill -- in so far as this in part is to provide BOOKS and teachers for our children I feel everyone should know that NOT ONE pupil in second grade is ALLOWED TO TAKE HOME A READING BOOK.

IT MUST BE READ AND REMAIN IN SCHOOL FOR THE OTHER SESSION AS THEY -- DO NOT --- (as of Oct. 19 P.T.A. Meeting) HAVE ENOUGH READING BOOKS FOR EACH STUDENT.

The money has been provided WHY NOT THE BOOKS? Taxpayers and parents should make it their duty to see that this situation is investigated and corrected as soon as possible.

SENIOR CITIZENS URGED TO CHECK SOCIAL SECURITY

Attaining age 65 is an important milestone in the life of each of us. By this time we are looking forward to taking life a little easier, contemplating what we will do with our extra leisure time, tallying our assets and liabilities, and wondering if we can actually afford retirement.

As you near this milestone, you should check with your social security office to find out what you can expect in monthly retirement benefits and just what medicare can do for you.

If you haven't talked with the people at your social security office and you're nearing 65, by all means do so as soon as possible. If you're still working and can't take the necessary time off during the day, you'll find that most offices are open one night a week or on Saturday. A letter or phone call will give you the needed information and can start the application process, if you so desire.

It is important that you sign up for medical insurance protection three months before you reach 65. This will insure that you have the coverage effective with the month you reach age 65. If you do not enroll during this period you will not have another opportunity until the last three months of the next odd-numbered year (1967). Also, if you wait to enroll, you may have to pay higher premiums and your coverage won't begin until July 1 of the following year. Your hospital insurance coverage will start immediately when you are 65. Remember, the same application form is used for medical insurance (doctor bill) hospitalization, and for any retirement benefits which may be payable. If no cash benefits may be paid because of current earnings, you'll still have the hospital and medical protection. Even if you've never worked under social security you're probably eligible for medicare.

When you file your application you will be asked to submit proof of your age. Your social security office will be able to help you obtain satisfactory proof, if you need assistance. The local office is at 93 Smith Street, Perth Amboy. The telephone number is 826-4407.

If you're nearing 65 don't procrastinate -- it may be later than you think.

Surely blessing I will bless thee. -- (Heb. 6:14)

Let us bless all that we have -- our home, our work, our material possessions of every kind. Let us bless these things, realizing they represent our acceptance and use of God's substance. As we bless these outer expressions, our appreciative attitude quickens us to see even more of the good. If we are given a gift, if someone shares some good with us, let us remember to give our blessing for the gift and to the giver.

INTERNATIONAL NETWORK - Rutgers graduates around the world are making plans for the University's big Nov. 10 birthday party. Some of them, clockwise from upper left, are: San Francisco - Judith Ann Cox, Douglass '65, with Edwin J. Schwartz '55, chairman of the event and publicist for the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra; New York - I. Robert Kriendler (left) '36, president of "21" Club, before a committee meeting at "21" with Kermit Axel '41; Phoenix - Marshall G. Rother '39 (left) vice president of the advertising firm of Roland D. Ptak and Associates, with Kenneth M. Ross Jr., '42, director of Research and Development, The First National Bank of Arizona, and Tokyo - Miss Bernadette Terango of American Rutgers Alumni in Japan with Dr. Toru Imura, professor at the Institute for Solid State Physics, University of Tokyo, and a member of the Japanese Rutgers Alumni Association.

Rutgers alumni all over the world are getting ready for a birthday party.

The party will be observed under widely varying circumstances--from a gala black-tie affair at the New York Hilton to a small Pacific island called Kwajalein, where a Rutgers man and his wife, a Douglass graduate, will drink a toast. The unifying theme of "Rutgers Night Around the World" to be celebrated Nov. 10, will be to wish a happy 200th birthday to Rutgers.

The "Night" will be the last major event of the Bicentennial Year proclaimed by New Jersey Governor Richard J. Hughes at the beginning of 1966. The parties will commemorate the birth of Rutgers on Nov. 10, 1766, when William Franklin, last Royal Governor of New Jersey, granted a charter for Queen's College in the name of King George III of England.

According to Bicentennial Coordinators Van Wie Ingham and Miss Elizabeth Durham, 73 parties are scheduled, and it is expected that "On the Banks of the Old Raritan" will be sung at all of them.

At many gatherings a 20-minute film strip will be shown. The film includes greetings from Dr. Mason W. Gross, Rutgers president, and scenes of the Bicentennial Convocation, Sept. 22, at which Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey was principal speaker and was awarded an honorary Doctor of Laws degree.

About 400 persons are expected at the New York party, at which many guests will bring individual gifts for Rutgers. I. Robert Kriendler, 1936 graduate and President of the "21" Club, played a major part in the planning but will be absent. A lieutenant-colonel in the Marine Reserve Corps, he has just gone on a military tour of the Pacific. New Jersey Senator Clifford P. Case and Charles H. Brower, president of the Rutgers Board of Trustees and President of the advertising firm of Batten, Barton, Durstine & Osborne, both Rutgers graduates will be speakers.

Chicago's dinner-dance will be visited by Albert W. Twitchell, Rutgers director of Physical Education. In Phoenix, Dr. Leslie Marchand, who retired from Rutgers in June after a 30-year stay, will be guest speaker. Dr. Marchand, now visiting professor at Arizona State University, is a noted English literature scholar and author of the definitive modern biography of Lord Byron.

The party in Tokyo will have an added anniversary flavor, for 1966 marks the centennial of the arrival of the first Japanese students at Rutgers, the first American institution to establish relationship with Japan. One of the largest overseas parties will be held at Gakushi Kaikan, the graduate house near the main campus of the University of Tokyo.

The Rutgers Southern California claims that "an announcement of great interest to Rutgersmen everywhere" will be made at its dinner in Los Angeles.

The only non-geographical celebration of "Rutgers Night" will be the meeting of the Class of 1927 at the Charnor Lodge in nearby Franklin Township.

New Jersey has the largest number of parties scheduled, with events planned for Atlantic, Camden, Essex, Hudson, Mercer, Monmouth, Hunterdon, Morris, Sussex, Ocean and Warren Counties and tri-county parties for Union-Somerset-Middlesex and Bergen-Passaic-Rockland, (N.Y.).

Members of the Rutgers family, staff and faculty will hold a family party at the Commons on the College Avenue Campus here.

TEACHERS AND STUDENTS TEAM TO GET VOTE

Local teachers and area students will work together to report vote returns Tuesday.

The teachers will be "on assignment" at the polling places throughout this and other counties. They will "report" to students who will be staffing a huge telephone and tabulation center in the Prudential building in Newark.

Their teamwork will supply New Jersey's newspapers and broadcasters with returns for the Senate and Congressional races.

The operation has been set up by News Election Service, and agency of the news media owned jointly by The Associated Press, United Press-International, ABC, CBS, and NBC.

Teachers of the New Jersey Education Association are serving as NES representatives at the polling places, in most cases being assigned to the ones in which they themselves vote.

Education students from Newark State College and the Newark campus of Seton Hall University will man the NES tabulation center on the 14th floor of the Prudential building. There they will operate over a hundred telephones and an elaborate computation and checking procedure to assure that their reports are accurate and complete.

The results go to AP, UPI and broadcast representatives with the center for relay to newspapers and radio stations of New Jersey, and to a national NES tabulation center in New York City.

The teachers, who go to the polls, donate their services. NES, however, contributes $5,000 to the NJEA Disadvantaged and Disaster Fund, which supports projects for teaching disadvantaged children and aids schools in disaster areas.

The students at the NES center are members of the Student Education Association chapters at Newark State and Seton Hall.

CHANGE NAME OF HOSPITAL

At the request of the Board of Managers of Roosevelt Hospital and by resolution of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of Middlesex County, the name of Roosevelt Hospital for Diseases of the Chest is officially changed to "Roosevelt Hospital," effective November 1, 1966.

The Roosevelt Hospital was officially dedicated in October, 1936, as a tuberculosis institution. Over a period of time there was an appreciable increase in admissions of other diseases of the chest. This necessitated a change in title to "Roosevelt Hospital for Diseases of the Chest," which came about in 1949.

Since that time Roosevelt Hospital has become a long-term hospital serving the needs not only of pulmonary tuberculosis and chest disease patients, but various long-term chronic illness cases and acute and chronic rehabilitation cases.

As of July 1, 1966, Roosevelt Hospital was certified under Medicare as a long-term general hospital. It is presently in the process of applying for certification under Medicare for extended care units. Such approval will be effective January 1, 1967.

Peace Corps To Test - On November 12

South Amboy area residents interested in putting their skills to use in developing nations around the world are invited to take the Peace Corps placement test at 9 a.m. on Saturday November 12, at the Main Post Office, New Brunswick.

The Peace Corps uses the placement test to determine how an applicant can best be utilized overseas. The test measures general aptitude and the ability to learn a language, not education or achievement. (If test scores indicate a limited language-learning ability, for example, the Peace Corps tries to place the applicant in an English-speaking country.) The placement test requires no preparation and is non-competitive--an applicant can neither pass nor fail.

The application form, not the placement test, is the most important factor in the selection of Volunteers. Persons interested in serving in the Peace Corps must fill out an application, if they have not already done so, and present it to the tester before taking the test. Applications may be obtained from local post offices or from the Peace Corps, Washington, D.C. 20525.

The placement test takes about an hour and a half.

HOUSE'S CORNER

by Irv House

Ed O'Connor, of Morgan, has brought our attention to an article about clams and oysters in the October issue of the "NATIONAL MAIN COAST FISHERMAN." It seems that the Raritan Bay is one of the three bodies of water that excludes using power boats for the dredging of oysters. Peconic Bay, in New York, and the Chesapeake Bay in Maryland are the other two.

Since most of the New York waters, and the Raritan Bay, are closed to the Shellfisherman, due to the pollution, the Chesapeake Bay is the last United States stand of "Working Sail," meaning, a fleet of sail vessels, reasonably kept up and maintained.

To combat the effects of pollution of the New York waters and the Raritan Bay, the "Fisherman" reports that efforts are under way to build a purification plant on Staten Island. This plant will cleanse the clams so that they can be sold in the open market.

The clams will be taken from Mount Loretto to Great Kills, Staten Island, and on out to the New Jersey State line. All of this area, including Raritan Bay, is one of the richest Shellfish areas in the world.

Recalling the early history of South Amboy and surrounding territories, we know that not only did the early families of our community make a living from the Bay, but also the Leni-Lenape and Delaware Indians.

Legend has it that a huge battle was fought between these two tribes, in the vicinity of what is now known as Morgan, over the fishing rights to the Raritan Bay. Several skulls and skeletons of Indians were found when the railroad tracks were being laid near the section known as "The Point," in Morgan.

Another piece of evidence attesting to the "happy fishing grounds" of the Indians is the large, round, knoll-like hill to the right of Highway #35 as you approach the Morgan Creek, from South Amboy. Again, legend has it that this mound is composed mostly of clam and oyster shell left there after the tribes has smoked their catch and returned to their homes, via the Minniskink Trail.

To further protect the possibility of a return to the shellfish industry of this area, which was closed down about 1961 due to the threat of an hepatitis epidemic, the Department of Conservation is taking a look at the dredging operations that are taking place in the Kill and in the Raritan Bay.

When a contractor wants to remove fill from the bottom of the harbor, he must first remove the shell fish from the area and place them in a new bed. This is done by a special dredge that shoots a stream of water to break up the harbor bottom and loosen clams which are then swept into a basket. The clams are then taken to the new beds and washed over the side with a high pressure hose. All of this is done at the expense of the contractor, with conservation officers overseeing the operation.

Noting that there is a very good possibility of reclaiming clams from polluted waters by transferring them to clean waters, and thence to the previously mentioned purification plant, South Amboyans may well again one day lay claim to the name that they have been affectionally known by down through the years, Clam Diggers.

Seriously, this news item from the "Fisherman" lends hope to many of us who wish to see the end of pollution in the Raritan Bay and the restoration of a once proud industry of our city. To have a busy waterfront once again, with the white sails of hundreds of "Skipjacks" and "Bug-eyes" plying their way back and forth across the Bay, while dredging for the clams and oysters, could very possibly be. (If and when, we, as a united people, would only clean up our FRONT yard, the Raritan Bay!)

CITIZENS URGED TO DISPLAY FLAGS ON VETERANS DAY

Plans for the observance of American Education Week (Nov. 6-12) and Veterans Day (Nov. 11) by American Legion Posts throughout New Jersey will be discussed by the Legion's Executive Committee in Trenton on Saturday, November 5.

Designed to focus public attention on the problems, needs and accomplishments of the nation's schools, American Education Week was originally sponsored by the Legion in 1921. It is now co-sponsored by the Nat'l. Education Association, the U. S. Office of Education and the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Urging all citizens and business establishments to display the flag of the United States on November 11, Albert J. Moeller, State Legion Commander, said: "Today, gallant Americans are once more fighting and dying in Viet Nam. Let us show, by our participation in this patriotic observance, our fullest support of their endeavors and, at the same time, honor those who served their country during its previous wars."

Commenting on the conflict in Viet Nam, Moeller further stated that as a result of action taken at the Legion's recent National Convention, necessary Congressional approval and Presidential signature, discharged veterans of the period beginning August 5, 1964, may now join The American Legion, provided their period of active duty has been terminated under honorable conditions. Service in the Viet Nam area, itself, is not a requirement of membership.

Legion Headquarters here reports that a noteworthy number of such veterans have already been accepted into Legion membership by its 421 Posts in the State.

Federal Tax Facts

NEW JERSEY SALES TAX TABLES

The Internal Revenue Service has released the sales tax table which may be used by New Jersey taxpayers as a guide in preparing their 1966 Federal income tax returns. Amounts paid for state sales taxes may be deducted only by taxpayers who itemize their deductions.

Joseph M. Sholtz, IRS District Director for New Jersey, pointed out that taxpayers are not required to use the table. It is furnished as a guide for those who wish to deduct a standard amount which will not require detailed substantiation. Taxpayers have the choice of deducting instead the actual amount of taxes paid during the period that the New Jersey sales tax has been in effect.

The table is based on consumer spending patterns and it shows the average amount of state sales tax actually paid by New Jersey residents. It does not include the sales tax on automobiles. A taxpayer who purchased an automobile may add the tax actually paid on it to the amount shown for his family and income bracket on the table.

The table takes into consideration the fact that the tax will have been in effect for only six months of 1966. The allowable amount for 1967 will be approximately double. A copy of the table will be included in the 1966 income tax instructions which will be mailed to every taxpayer on record in December.

Crime does not pay, is the motto at Loew's "35" Drive-In. "DEAD HEAT ON A MERRY-GO-ROUND," in color, starring James (Our Man Flint) Coburn is the co-feature with "ASSAULT ON A QUEEN," also in color, starring Frank Sinatra and Virna Lisi now playing at Loew's "35" Drive-In.

"DEAD HEAT ON A MERRY-GO-ROUND" is a suspense comedy, which concerns the ingenious robbery of a Los Angeles airport bank just as the plane carrying a Soviet premier on an official visit is touching down. Coburn plays a smooth talking con man who charms girls only to dump them once they are no longer useful to his schemes. But, he dumps one girl too many and loses out on a great deal.

"ASSAULT ON A QUEEN" is a spine-tingling adventure story of modern day piracy, involving a gang of larcenous characters who decide to plunder the majestic luxury liner, The Queen Mary.

Garden News

Don Lacey, extension home horticulturist, discusses living screens in the current issue of the Garden State Beauty Digest.

He offers some practical suggestions, such as these: Choose trees and shrubs that are easy to maintain. Plants that need frequent spraying, pruning or watering may disappoint you.

Evergreens are ideal because they do their work of screening all year. However, you can expect quicker growth from some of the deciduous trees and shrubs when they are young.

Or why not use a combination? If you have room, plant flowering shrubs in front of the evergreens.

If a fence is your choice, add some beauty and interest by planting vines.

Before you buy plants, give your nurseryman all the details you have about your situation, such as soil type, drainage, and exposure to winds.

The Beauty Digest is published at the Rutgers College of Agriculture and Environmental Science. If you'd like to read Mr. Lacey's article and other information in it, just ask your county Extension Service office for a copy. Or write Editor, Beauty Digest, at the college in New Brunswick.

Mile Square Talk

Knowing that the Council is studying the situation reported in the Citizen a month ago concerning the problem at the corner of Parker and Bordentown Avenues, we can't help but report an incident that occurred there the other day. Two trucks, one trying to enter Parker Ave. from the westerly direction and the other trying to turn left on Bordentown Ave. from Parker Ave., caused a bit of confusion for a few minutes. With cars parked close to the corner on both avenues, the drivers of the trucks had to help guide each other in order to negotiate the maneuvers necessary to complete their turns. It was a real "Alphonse, Garcon" act.

Judging from the number of calls and comments received on the article about Waterloo, in last week's Citizen, nearly everyone but a Mr. N. Bonaparte were there, or plan to be there in the near future.

And while on the subject of Waterloo, Lloyd and Marge Neilltopp told us that the Colony expects to have a real old-fashioned Christmas motif this year. We will try to keep you informed.

And whatever happened to the mailbox that used to be on the corner of Feltus and Bordentown?

Franklin English, Chairman of the Shade Tree Commission, announces that due to the shortage of proper trees, there will not be a Fall planting, as previously promised. He states that next Spring there will be Norway Maples and Flowering Cherry trees available. Watch for the advertisement.

We are going to try to convince a proud grandfather that he should buy the Citizen regularly and not only when his grandson's picture is in it.

Birthday greetings go out to young Joe Michael McCarthy who will celebrate his 9th birthday on Saturday. Many happy returns!

All of us down at St. Mary's High would like to wish Mike McCormack a happy 17th birthday. Mike's celebrating his birthday today.

The staff at the Citizen were all happy to hear that our councilmen, Frank Zebro and Joseph Rush, have returned home from the hospital. Hope to see you around soon!

Belated birthday greetings go out to Angie Kilcomons who celebrated her natal day last Thursday.

A bus load of local football fans stopped at Kenny's Restaurant in Camden after the Notre Dame-Navy game last Saturday. Among them was Professor Ken Szaro who complained of being very hungry and was worried about being served promptly. Bob McGowan hearing this, called aside a waitress and told her Kenny was the bus driver and thus he was served first.

In a proclamation signed by Governor Richard Hughes and countersigned by Mayor Richard Schultz, the week of Nov. 7 to the 13 is designated a Junior Women's Club Week.

Mayor Schultz, Council President Henry, Councilman John Howley expressed their wishes for speedy recoveries to Councilman Frank Zebro and Councilman Joseph Rush. Both Councilmen are out of the hospital and hope to be back on the job in a short time.

City Clerk John Triggs may soon be known as the Grover Whalen of South Amboy if he continues doing the fine public relations job that he is now doing. Uncle John recently conducted a group of 1-B students through the City Hall and a letter was received by him thanking him for showing them the workings of the City Government.

Police News

Two calls, thirty minutes apart, were received from a resident of Parker Ave. complaining about the loud noise coming from the Thunderbird.

Mrs. Mae Locker of 246 So. Broadway called headquarters to report a burglary in the downstairs apartment of Mr. John Kabecki. Captain Raymond Mundy and Patrolman John O'Leary were detailed to the scene and reported that entry was gained with a key that had been hidden on the porch by the victim. Missing were pieces of jewelry and a large sum of money. The investigation is continuing.

The police received a call from Mr. John Durnyea of the South Amboy Skating Arena requesting an officer due to eggs being thrown at the building. Officer Noble was detailed to the scene where he obtained all the information regarding the juveniles involved.

Mr. John J. Gallagher of 704 Bordentown Ave. entered a plea of guilty to a charge of careless driving by Captain Raymond Mundy. Judge Everitt fined him $20.00.

Miss Claudette Clark of 85 Maryland Ave., Staten Island, N. Y., called headquarters to report her car stolen from the Thunderbird Inn's parking lot last Sunday. Full particulars were put on the teletype.

Mr. Le Beda of 221 Potter St. reported an attempted burglary to the police. Apparently the culprits were scared off when the Le Bedas returned to their home. Nothing was reported missing although the house had been partially ransacked.

Headquarters received a call reporting a group of boys starting a fire in the "M. U." yards of the Penn Railroad. Officers Orszulski and Brown found that the manhole covers of the sewer had been removed and the fires had been started in the sewers. A group of boys ran from the scene when the police arrived.

Four Point

Safety Plan

Area motorists today were urged to apply four driving tips to make their going safer and more pleasant.

The suggestions were given by Daniel A. Zack of Briggs Chevrolet, as part of a safe driving campaign his organization is sponsoring in cooperation with the Auto Industries Highway Safety Committee, Washington, D. C.

The four-point plan involves the following:

1. Have the family car safety-checked bumper to bumper. A safe drive demands a car kept in safe driving condition.

2. Lock all doors from the inside before you drive. This helps keep you and your passengers in, and other people out.

3. Buckle your seat belt. It not only might save your life, but it can reduce fatigue on long trips.

4. Drive defensively. You can never be sure what the other guy will do. Experience has shown he's full of surprises, often with unhappy consequences.

Mr. Zack cautioned motorists against taking short drives around town for granted. "Studies show that 80 percent of all traffic accidents happen within 25 miles of the driver's home." Seventy-five percent of all traffic deaths occur within the same radius, he said. "It's equally important to use the four points for around town driving as it is for long vacation trips," Mr. Zack stressed.

"You can't clear your own fields while you're counting the rocks on your neighbor's farm."

SMALL GAME SEASON TO OPEN

Excellent sporting opportunities await New Jersey licensed hunters during the upland game season opening this Saturday, November 5, according to the Division of Fish and Game in the Department of Conservation and Economic Development.

Seasons will open at 9 a.m. for rabbit, pheasant, squirrel, quail, grouse and fox. After opening day, hunting hours will be sunrise to 1 1/2 hour after sunset. Sportsmen should consult the 1966 Compendium of New Jersey Game Laws for bag limits and other regulations.

The best news is that rabbit populations have increased notably over last year. State Wildlife Managers have observed that cottontails are more abundant in most areas of good habitat throughout the State. Populations are exceptionally good in Cape May, Salem and Gloucester counties in the south, Monmouth and Hunterdon counties in central New Jersey and Sussex, Warren and Morris counties in the north. A good beagle can add greatly to success with the hunters' favorite small game animal.

Tagged rabbits have been released on the Clinton Public Shooting Grounds and the Round Valley Reservoir tract. Cooperation of sportsmen is asked in examining the animals' ears for tags and sending the tag and information about where and when the rabbit was bagged to the Division of Fish and Game, Box 1809, Trenton 08625.

Pheasant populations appear about the same as last year, when the harvest exceeded the ten-year average. Ringnecks are especially abundant in the farm belt of Hunterdon County and surrounding portions of Mercer, Somerset, Morris, and Warren. A pointer, setter or springer spaniel is an invaluable asset in hunting pheasants. Squirrels have risen considerably in abundance, reflecting an increase in the mast crop of acorns. Wildlife Management Chief George N. Alpaugh feels that this under-harvested species offers a "golden opportunity" for good sport, especially for novice nimrods. Squirrel hunting is best in the early morning and late afternoon when the animals come out to feed.

Native quail populations are as good or better than last year throughout southern New Jersey. Bobwhites are most abundant in southern Monmouth, Burlington, Ocean, Cumberland and Gloucester counties. A good pointer or setter is recommended for quail gunning.

Grouse populations appear to almost equal last year's banner season. Grouse are most abundant in Sussex County and the adjacent northwest corner of the State. Chief Alpaugh says that hunters should not overlook opportunities to bag grouse on such southern areas as the Wharton Tract, Colliers Mills Public Shooting Grounds, Greenwood Forest, Public Shooting Grounds and Bass River State Forest.

Fox populations again appear ample for running of hounds, with a slight increase in the red fox. This species rounds out bright prospects for recreational use of New Jersey wildlife resources.
