WORKS BOARD PLANS FACILITY SURVEY; PROPOSES $169,623 BUDGET

The Board of Public Works acted Tuesday to take on the services of the Metcalf & Eddy Engineers firm of New York to make a survey of all its water supply and distribution system and to make proposals or recommendations for changes or additions to the board.

The firm, in a letter to the board, declared that it would undertake to do this work at no cost to the board for any of the proposals for modifications and additions recommended should the board decide not to act on them.

However, a representative of this company met personally with the board members last week and explained in detail its plan. In the letter it was specified that the board can obtain an interest-free loan from the federal Housing and Home Finance Agency to promote any improvements to its water system.

The engineers will determine through their survey whether the city needs a new water tank, replace any water pumps or lines and other related engineering matters. Should the board accept any of the proposals, payment to them will be made by the board after any project is completed.

A reply, meanwhile, was directed to be made to the state Board of Health, in response to their letter, that the board had engaged these engineers to make the surveys. The state had asked in the letter if the board had made any firm decisions as to improving the water system.

TENTATIVE BUDGET DECIDED

With the assistance of Jack Dahill, municipal accountant, the board drew up a budget which it will submit to the mayor and council for approval. The budget must be completed to meet a February 10 deadline.

The proposed budget for Water Utility amounts to $169,623.69 for 1965. Although $157,826.95 was budgeted for this last year, the board actually realized $192,261.95. Water rents collected during 1964 were $145,435, as against $118,000 budgeted. For 1965, the budget calls for $123,000 for this item. Firehydrant services fees remain at $7,010, the amount the city pays to the board for this service work.

In the proposed Water Utility budget also was a sum of $39,613.69 earmarked for surplus appropriation account. Last year this sum was at $32,816.95.

Under appropriations, the board is seeking operating expenses of $123,000. This total is broken down into $64,000 for salaries and wages and $59,000 for other expenses. Last year, the amount budgeted was $133,000, ($64,000 for salaries and wages; $49,000 for other expenses; and $20,000 for emergency appropriations) of which total $123,583.45 was expended.

The capital outlay account, which was $5,000 during 1964, was increased to $15,000 since the board felt this account had to be buttressed for operations during 1965. Payment on the bond principal remains the same, $6,000, but interest on bonds was reduced to $2,848.69 from 1964's $3,051.95.

Regarding deferred charges, $20,000 is being asked for sundry work such as jobbing and other work, in new homes and developments which cannot be anticipated. Last year this account stood at $28,000. Statutory expenses, that is, deductions for employee social security and workmen's compensation payments, has been increased to $2,775, the same as last year, although $2,314.21 was spent for this purpose during 1964.

The tentative budget of $169,623.68 compares with $177,826.95 budgeted during 1964, during which year $167,949.61 is reported as being spent. Included also is

INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION SEEKS NEW INDUSTRIES

The South Amboy Industrial Commission faces a big job in the coming year or two. It is hoped that the Commission will attract some suitable light industry to the city to increase taxables and relieve residents of some of their tax burden.

The new commission appears to be attacking this task with renewed zeal. At a reorganization meeting held January 20, the members elected recently-appointed member Martin Doherty as chairman with Alphonse Kolakowski as vice-chairman. Kolakowski has been on the commission the two years that the commission had been in existence. Another member, Frank Cicala, was named secretary by the membership. Remaining members are Harold Evans and Frederick Grimes.

Grimes, the former chairman, had hopes of converting part of the waterfront to dock facilities for receiving ships and, perhaps, inspire a marine trade there. Elaborate plans for this were to be formulated, but the cost may have been prohibitive. At one time, Joseph Somers, county industrial commission, spoke to the commission members to give them some ideas where they may begin.

The commission was formed in 1963 when Mayor Joseph Charmello extended the privilege of naming one member each to the commission to each of the five municipal councilmen. Original members named, in addition to Grimes, Evans and Kolakowski, were John Baranowski and Louis Nemeth. Mayor Richard J. Schultz had named Doherty and Cicala to the commission this year.

No one will deny that the job given to the commission, that of bringing industry to the city, will be a difficult one. With the exception of the land fill, most of the vacant land belongs to the railroads.

FIRST AID COIN CARDS DISTRIBUTED - Captain Robert McKeon and Fund Drive Chairman Henry Miglin lead off with the coin card distribution for the South Amboy First Aid Squad. The drive began last weekend and will continue house to house for the next week. Residents are asked to put a quarter aside each week and the Squad will pick up the cards during the month of May.

Board of Education Budget $329,808

It was budget time for the Board of Education this week and board members have compiled figures which, if approved by the Board of School Estimate, will show a $25,266 increase over last year's budget.

The request for school purposes, to be raised by local taxation, has been tabulated at $329,808 as contrasted with $304,542 for the 1964-1965 school year.

In revealing the figures, board president John McDonnell evaluated the proposed budget as a fair and honest one. He recalled that a year ago the local board was, perhaps, the only one in the state which had asked for less money than for the preceding year. In that year the budget was reduced by $73.

Finance chairman C. Leslie Batchelor introduced the proposed budget, and his motion for approval was without dissent. The board now awaits word from Mayor Richard J. Schultz to set the Board of School Estimate public hearing date on the budget. This meeting must be held on or before February 15.

The following items, with the current year's totals in parentheses, have been listed in the new budget: Administrative salaries, $20,800 ($20,200); Contracted services, $750 ($750); other administrative expenses, $3,400 ($3,400).

Instruction: salary for principal, $9,000 ($9,300); salaries for teachers, $222,000 ($214,850); salaries for other instructional staff, $13,800 ($8,100); text books, $5,400 ($5,400); school library, $800 ($800); teaching supplies, $8,000 ($8,000); and other expenses, $1,000 ($1,000).

Salaries for attendance services, $800 ($400); health services, $8,350 ($7,750); of Public Works when it crepuscul transportation, $15,000 ($5,500); operational expenses, $30,550 ($29,800); extensive work. There are maintenance, $14,000 ($14,000); food services, $1,200 ($1,200); fixed charges, $25,222 ($19,647); student body activities, $4,850 ($4,850); and state appropriations, $53,114 ($49,803).

PUBLIC WORKS BOARD HAS DUTIES DEFINED

In explaining the duties and responsibilities of the Board of Public Works to its members, as requested by the board, City Solicitor John E. Mullane made exclusive reference to Chapter 22 of the Laws of 1925. This statute is a supplement to an act passed March 24, 1897, governing cities of less than 12,000 population.

Chapter 22, as enacted, permits such cities to own, maintain or operate a water works, a sewerage and drainage system, a disposal plant and an electric or gas lighting plant if the municipal governing body adopts an ordinance for each of these.

With such an ordinance, the city then is empowered to nominate six residents to constitute the Board of Public Works, each to serve a full term of three years or until successors have been appointed. The terms of two members are to expire each year.

Such a board is to be vested with all the powers, duties, rights and privileges which would ordinarily rest with the mayor and council in relation to water, sewers, power and light.

Under water duties, the board is empowered to lay pipes in the streets for private and public use and to regulate them. With regard to illumination, the board is charged with regulating and lighting of streets and public places, construction or purchase of suitable plants, works and machinery and their maintenance.

The board, as a whole, desired specific information with regard to its rights and duties concerning any sub-agency, such as the Planning Board or Zoning Board of Adjustment. Certain of the board's powers and prerogatives have been delegated to these boards by the Board of Public Works when it crepuscul assist the parent body in its duties. There are unclear lines of demarcation with regard to these delegated powers in the minds of some of the board members.

CRODDICK NAMED H. S. PRINCIPAL

James Croddick of 329 Parker Avenue, a social studies teacher for seventh and eighth grades in the local school system, was appointed principal of Harold G. Hoffman High School last night by the Board of Education. He will be paid $9,000 salary in the post which becomes effective Monday, February 1.

Action of the board came as a surprise, but it has been reported that his candidacy had been under consideration for several months. Croddick joined the school system in 1955, having received both his bachelor's and master's degrees at Seton Hall University, South Orange.

Chairman of the Teacher's Committee, Joseph Herrmann, who introduced the motion naming Croddick, stated that the new principal is fully qualified and state certified for the position. The board voted unanimously on the appointment.

Croddick, for many years, has been basketball coach at the school, succeeding in the previous season in bringing the state group title to the school with his team.

After the announcement, one spectator inquired if it were not better to have as principal one who has more degrees and one who has a more diversified education. Mrs. Dolores Sieke stated that the best qualified candidate should be nominated. In reply, board members declared that Croddick was fully qualified and possesses state certification.

SUPERINTENDENT OBTAINS TENURE

In another unexpected move, the board agreed unanimously to grant Superintendent of Schools Eugene S. Dobrzynski tenure in that post. He ordinarily would have had to wait one more year for this classification.

Board member, Mrs. Howard Ervin, made the proposal, remarking that "We are all well satisfied with his work." Her motion, to make tenure for the superintendent, was accompanied by remarks by Herrmann in which he declared that Mr. Dobrzynski performed his duties excellently. "He had a vacation coming to him this summer which he did not get."

A letter of resignation from Mrs. Mary T. Wilson, a fifth grade teacher, was accepted. On the recommendation of Herrmann, the board hired Mrs. Sally Olavary of Morgan, holder of a BA and an MA degree from Newark State Teachers College and six years teaching experience, to replace Mrs. Wilson at a salary of $620 per month.

Board member C. Leslie Batchelor revealed that he would meet with Mr. Dobrzynski to further implement the pre-school age pupil survey. A letter was read from the Parent-Teacher Association asserting that the board can rely on the full cooperation of the PTA in this program. Board president John McDonnell asked that a letter of appreciation for their offer of assistance be sent to them.

"It is very important that we proceed with this survey," Mr. Herrmann stated. The board is attempting to project a picture of what the school population will be in years to come so as to be able to have the proper facilities in the event of substantial enrollment increases. In recent years the public school enrollment has been steadily increasing and the school plant is, even now, considered inadequate with regard to classroom space. SCHOOL ADDITION TO BE PURSUED VIGOROUSLY

It was with strong conviction that Mr. Herrmann declared that the board ought to proceed vigorously for additional classrooms. "The need for more classroom space was made known more than two years ago," he said. He then urged that the board meet with the school architect to bring plans for four additional classrooms, drawn two years ago, up to date.

"The mayor made a strong point about school needs in his New Year's Day message," president John McDonnell recalled. "He stated that the local school system should be second to none."

In his comments Mr. McDonnell disclosed that in informal talks with the superintendent and the board it has been determined that something like 12 classrooms would be needed to meet all the school's needs. The proposed new city hall, he said, should be built upwards, not spread out. There is no necessity for the city hall to take all the space, he added.

To corroborate this opinion, he mentioned that the new county building was built upward because of space shortage. He also mentioned the skyward building of other structures, such as the Perth Amboy General Hospital, where space is at a premium. "Additional space ought to be given to the school," he concluded.

"If we expand eastward, it will cost us $60,000 to purchase the property. The ideal situation is to keep the entire school system under one roof, unlike other school systems where their schools are miles apart and complicate their supervision and administration."

Mr. Herrmann interjected the remark that the Master Plan predicted quite accurately the number of homes that could be expected to be built in the city, a thing that has come to pass with the Amshere and Benlap home developments.

Mrs. Ervin stated that the president's plan concerning the city hall was a most practical and economical one. "We have no transportation problems, no travel difficulties to and from school in our town."

The board set Monday, February 1 at noon as the time it will meet to reorganize. The board's new member, Frederick L. Reese, will take his seat at this meeting, succeeding Joseph J. Wojciechowski whose term had expired.

SCHOOL BUDGET

The total budget, including the state appropriation, amounts to $382,922. This year the board is being financed with a total budget of $354,347.

Mr. Eugene S. Dobrzynski, superintendent, was authorized to inquire prices on several types of office safes for safeguarding valuable papers and petty cash funds. He was also empowered to dispose of obsolete equipment, such as a drill press.

By action of the board, the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary was given permission to conduct boat safety programs at the school Monday nights at 8 p.m. for nine consecutive weeks. The board also voted to put into effect a revised salary schedule for 1965-1966. The school system will accept student teachers at the discretion of the superintendent in compliance with a recommendation from the state Board of Education.

Mrs. Eleonor Litts, president of the Parent-Teacher Association, reported that the New Year's dance sponsored by the PTA, as well as the post basketball game dance last Friday, was well attended and successful with the behavior of students being commendable. She said that the PTA would like to continue sponsoring the post-game dances on Fridays when there are home games.

She also requested permission to use school facilities for the taking of colored pictures of students on a voluntary basis on the part of pupils to be completed before Easter. The PTA would supervise this program, she said. "It is something the children will value and treasure," she declared.

The corresponding sums for 1964 were $35,000, $18,000 and $31,000 respectively budgeted and $33,865.90, $13,650.81 actually spent on these expenditures.

On Saturday evening, over 500 firemen and friends honored ex-fire chief Fred Lukie at a testimonial dinner at the Jernee Mill Inn.

Former Mayor Joseph Charmello was the principal speaker. He praised the local fire department on its outstanding record and low cost to the taxpayers. Charmello cited that it costs the taxpayers 20¢ a day per man -- which is a big bargain in today's labor market.

The invocation and benediction were offered by Rev. Edward R. Cook of the Christ Episcopal Church, and the welcome was extended by Arthur Burke, chairman. William McKeon served as toastmaster. Other speakers included Fire Chief Frank Conroy, and 2nd Assistant Joseph Keegan.

Presentations to ex-chief Lukie were made by Arthur Burke, on behalf of Mechanicsville Hose Co.; Mrs. Harriet Sweitzer, from the Ladies Auxiliary and Edward Erickson, from the VFW #2448. Mayor Richard Schultz presented the ex-chief's badge to the guest of honor.

Board Plans Check Of Amshore Projects

A motion made by board member Thomas Vail, passed by the Board of Public Works Tuesday, called for a letter to be sent to the mayor and council to investigate Section Four of the Amshore Realty Co., Inc. to see how many foundations the builders have installed there in violation of the Zoning Ordinance and to have this information sent to the building inspector for his action.

This action stemmed from a letter received from H. Thomas Carr, Planning Board consultant, with regard to Sections Four and Five of that building project. Section Five, Carr wrote, resulted from the builders acquiring additional land and developing a scheme on the Preliminary map which has had the direction of the Planning Board in its planning. This section will have from 8 to 11 homes; Section Four is to have 16 homes.

Carr wrote that Section Four is basically the same as it was on a previous preliminary map, containing a connection to Fourth Street, but also providing for access to Section Five. Before granting the builders preliminary approval, the Planning Board had requested the Board of Public Works to render its comments as to recommendation for approval or rejection of the plans.

The Planning Board, he wrote, must make a decision by March 29 of this year on the preliminary approval application in order to avoid giving the approval automatically and legally because of expiration of time.

According to Planning Board chairman John Ploskonka, who was present, only curbing and utility installations may be completed by the builders on preliminary approval. Board members, generally, are irate over suspected violations, the building of foundations without first obtaining building permits. There was some comment that, perhaps, the builders were not aware of how far they could go on just preliminary approvals.

MEMBERS STATES

One annoyed board member, Joseph Halmi, declared that these builders come into the city as though they want to run it and proceed to do as they please. Some people feel there may have been laxity in enforcing the law with respect to building operations by developers.

In any case, Superintendent of Public Works listed six items the builders at Amshore should take care of before the Planning Board issues preliminary approval.

These include installation of a sanitary sewer manhole complete on Pupek Rd. to Main St.; placement of a surface sewer to the railroad water outlet; installation of a hydrant on lower Pupek Rd. Also, placement of a fire box in the section; installation of all curbs and gutters so that water boxes can be placed in their right places; and correction of the property street line since the sewer is designated to run over private property on Pupek Rd. and Fourth St.

A typical lot in the development has been dimensioned at 50 by 100 feet. Over 100 homes are scheduled to be completed there; many of them already sold to buyers and occupied since work on the entire development had started several years ago.

In other action, board chairman Frank Tarallo released the following committee memberships with first persons named being committee chairmen: Water -- Joseph Halmi, Thomas Vail, John Stolte and James Dugan; Sewer Plant -- Vail, Halmi, Stoke and Philip Sullivan; Outside Sewers -- Stoke, Sullivan, Vail and Halmi; Also, Safety -- Sullivan, Halmi, Vail and Dugan; Buildings and Grounds -- Stolte, Vail, Halmi and Dugan; Administration -- Dugan, Stolte, Vail and Halmi; Lights -- Sullivan, Dugan, Stolte and Halmi.

Letters To The Editor

To The Editor:

I would like to congratulate one of our fine noble citizens for the good work he has done for our "speechless orphans"; namely, our dogs. When he stated, in a letter to the editor in an issue last year, that our dogs were mistreated he was 100% right. By appealing to the Humane Society, he really cleaned up this mess; as the enclosed article shows.

Signed: Mr. John Hurshman

Editors Note: The article to which Mr. Hurshman refers was written by William Hendrix and appeared in the Newark Star-Ledger, Jan. 24, 1965. In it, Hendrix claimed that many stray dogs picked up by dog wardens have been found in kennels, where there was "no heat, no food, no water provided for these speechless orphans of the storm."

Hardly anyone could afford all these electrical conveniences if the cost of electricity hadn't kept going down over the years. Your electric bill may be higher than it used to be — because you're using so much more electricity. But the price you pay per kilowatt hour is 20% lower now than it was back in 1929. Quite a bargain. And a fact we are pretty proud of.

HOLY NAME BANQUET ON JANUARY 31

The annual Holy Name Society dinner of the Sacred Heart Church is to take place this Sunday at the school cafeteria at 6 p.m. All members of the society and the parish are invited to participate. Those who have reservation cards are requested to submit them as soon as possible so that an estimate of the number to attend can be obtained.

As is the practice, followed in previous years, the society is inviting as special guests all those who have won awards in the recent Nativity Display Contest. The awards will be presented to the winners at this time. Something new to be started this year by the society is the naming of "The Holy Name Man of the Year," to whom an award will be given. Mayor Richard J. Schultz, a member of the society, will be the toastmaster. The featured speaker will be Municipal Magistrate Andrew Desmond of Woodbridge.

Sunday will also be the day for the installation of new members in a ceremony to take place in the church at 5 p.m. This ceremony is also for all members who have joined the society during the year and have not been installed formally, president Edward Moskwa stated. Those males who have indicated a wish to join the society by way of notation on the banquet reservation cards will be contacted by the membership chairman.

S.A. MEM'L HOSPITAL TO CONDUCT SURVEY

Mrs. O. H. Miller, administrator of the South Amboy Memorial Hospital, announced yesterday that a special survey will be taken involving area residents this Saturday and Sunday, January 30 and 31, 1965.

The purpose of the survey will be to determine community attitudes towards the hospital. "We expect that sometime in the next few years the hospital will have to undertake an expansion program," Mrs. Miller explained. "We hope the survey will indicate two things: the degree of financial support we may anticipate from our area residents and how much our area residents know about the hospital and its functions."

Mrs. Miller emphasized that the survey is not a "fund-raising gimmick." "No one will be asked to make a pledge or donate cash during the survey," she said.

"The survey will be conducted by co-eds from Douglass College and will help us to see the hospital in the same light as the residents who use its facilities," she explained.

The survey will consist of a random sampling of the residents from approximately ten communities in the area that the South Amboy Memorial Hospital services. The interviews will be short in duration, consisting of ten questions.

YUGOSLAVIAN CHORUS TO PRESENT CONCERT

The Branko Kramanovich Chorus, an 80-member mixed group from Yugoslavia, will present the third concert in the Rutgers Gymnasium Series on Wednesday, Feb. 3, in the University gymnasium on College Avenue.

The Chorus, which dresses in colorful native costumes for part of its program, will perform beginning at 8:30 p.m.

Julius Bloom, Rutgers director of concerts and lectures, said the Kramanovich Chorus, which appeared at Rutgers during its first American tour in 1960, has been invited back to the University because of "the magnificent reception it received from our audience."

Under the direction of Bogdan Babich, the Kramanovich Chorus is now on its third American tour, a transcontinental trip which will take it into some 50 cities.

The chorus, composed of undergraduate and graduate students from Belgrade University's Association for Art and Culture, will be in formal attire for the first half of its program here, which will include selections from the works of Beethoven, Schumann and Carl Orff.

Following the intermission, the chorus, in native dress, will present Yugoslavian folk and dance music.

During the last 10 years, the Kramanovich group has been a consistent prize winner at important international music competitions throughout the world. It has won awards at World Festivals in Vienna and Moscow, at the International Elated Music Festival in Llangollen, Wales, and at the International Polyphonic Contest in Arezzo, Italy.

Tickets for the Rutgers performance are still available and can be obtained at the University Concert Office in 542 George Street, New Brunswick, or by calling CHarter 7-1766, Ext. 6591.

Citizens Club Works On Banquet Plans

The Polish American Citizens Club is finalizing plans for their annual winter banquet which will take place Saturday, February 6, at Burdak's Hall. Among the speakers that night will be Reverend Leon Kasprzyk, assistant pastor at Sacred Heart Church, Joseph Szarejko, an honored guest at a former banquet, Mayor Richard J. Schultz, president of the club, and Rev. Francis A. Kapica of St. Stephens Church, Perth Amboy, a retired U. S. Army chaplain with the rank of colonel.

Rev. Kapica is the brother of this year's honored guest, Stanley Kapica of 350 Washington Ave., who was scoutmaster of Troop 95, Boy Scouts of America, for over a decade, having relinquished this post this year to Felix Wisniewski of Scott Ave.

Kapica, now an institutional representative of the troop at the Raritan Council, has distinguished himself in work with boys. He was in the habit of taking troop members to Camp Cowan on the average of once or twice a month. The entire troop has been led by him every year on Thanksgiving Day during a 4-day trek at the camp and every summer, without interruption, on a week's encampment there.

RECEIVED TWO MAJOR SCOUT AWARDS

At present, Kapica is interesting the boy scouts in his troop in woodworking, a skill they find challenging and interesting. During the years he has spent in this work, he had received numerous commendations. In 1960, he was the recipient of the Silver Beaver award, a principal scouting decoration for outstanding achievements with boys both within the council and at camp.

A year later, in 1961, Kapica was further honored with the Pelican Award, a presentation from Most Reverend George W. Ahr, Bishop of the Roman Catholic Trenton Diocese, for outstanding work with youth. The two awards are among the highest a person can receive in scouting.

Occasionally Kapica takes the scouts on weekend camping trips at Runyon in Old Bridge. Camping trips are generally very exciting adventures for the boys who find commuting with nature very satisfying. During his tenure as scoutmaster, he had seen eleven of his scouts receive the much desired and difficult to attain Eagle Scout awards. Among the eleven were his two sons, Stanley Jr. and John. Another son, Frank, is a life scout at present.

Kapica has been employed at the DuPont Film Plant in Parlin the past 36 years. The last 20 of these as foreman in the Finishing Department known as Cine.

He is married to the former Lottie Wnek of Sayreville. In addition to Stanley, Jr., a Rutgers University graduate and currently in officer's training school at Fort Polk, Louisiana, and sons Frank, a St. Mary's High School freshman, and John, the Kapicas are also the parents of Mrs. Theresa Krause of this city and Ann, a senior at St. Mary's High.

Chairman of the banquet, William Nebus, and his committee, co-chairman Theodore Midura, Victor Mackiel, Frank Jablonski and Adam Rzepka, are preparing the final plans which will be announced next week. As in the past, a large attendance is anticipated.

Job Corps To Fight "War On Poverty"

Young men 16 through 21 are heeding the call to "step up to the plate" as a concerted recruiting drive began throughout the country for the first Job Corps centers that are being set up in 30 states by the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Prospective enrollees in the Job Corps, a major program in the War on Poverty, want to enroll in the Corps so they can receive education and basic work skills which will make them more employable. Eligible for the Job Corps are young men and women who are out of school and out of work and want an opportunity to help themselves.

Sargent Shriver, director of the Office of Economic Opportunity, which is coordinating the war on poverty, said much progress has been made in the Job Corps campaign during the first 12 weeks of the anti-poverty drive, including:

1. Fifty-nine rural centers have been announced for conservation work and improvement of recreational areas. The first of these centers will open next month.

2. Three urban centers have been announced. These will open in the next two months. Additional such centers, operated under contract by the nation's leading educational institutions, private corporations, and state agencies, will be set up in the future.

3. Recruiting coordinators have been named in many areas. Screening centers are being set up in the major cities and many of the states throughout the country to handle the enrollment of Job Corps volunteers. National organizations have volunteered to help Job Corps in its recruiting efforts.

Dr. Otis A. Singletary, prominent educator and director of the Job Corps said 40,000 young men and women would be enrolled in the Corps during the first full year of operations and 100,000 by the end of the second year.

"The Job Corps provides a golden opportunity for young people who have not been able to finish their high school education, for those who have not been able to get a job because they lack the work skills and basic educational tools," he said.

"The Job Corps will help these young men and women to help themselves by providing these skills. Job Corpsmen will have the opportunity to learn and work to earn and save."

Dr. Singletary emphasized that enrollment in the Job Corps is voluntary. "Opportunity Cards," indicating a youth's interest in the Job Corps are available at 25,000 local branches of many national organizations. "However, a young man or woman can indicate his or her interest by simply sending a postcard to Job Corps, Washington, D. C.," Dr. Singletary said. "Just put your name, address, telephone number (if possible), age and sex on the card. Or you can clip the coupon in this paper, paste it on a postcard, fill it in, and mail to Job Corps."

The rural centers for 100 to 200 Corpsmen will be located on federal lands, such as national parks and national forests. Corpsmen will perform conservation work and improve recreational areas under the experienced direction of the National Park Service and Bureau of Indian Affairs, Land Management, Reclamation, and Sport Fisheries and Wildlife of the Department of the Interior.

Job Corpsmen in the rural centers will receive a combination of basic education and skill training in forestry, pest and weed control, surveying, farm work, carpentry and masonry, and vehicle and heavy equipment operation and maintenance.

Urban centers for 1,000 to 2,500 enrollees will be housed in unused federal or educational facilities in or near cities and will offer specialized and more intensive vocational training, in addition to basic education. Some of the skills to be taught are for jobs such as office machine and machine tool operators, appliance and automotive repairmen, sales clerks; accounting, shipping, and file clerks; hospital technicians, waiters, cooks and counter workers; laundry and dry cleaning workers, meat cutters, and custodial - maintenance workers.

Screening centers now are being set up in many cities across the country, as well as many states.

Dr. Singletary said each Job Corps man and woman will receive $30 a month living allowance, room and board, medical and dental care, work clothing, and recreation opportunities. An allowance of $50 for each month of satisfactory service will be given the enrollee at the conclusion of service. If an enrollee allocates up to $25 a month to his family, the Job Corps will supplement this allocation on a matched basis.

People In Our Town

On Sunday, January 31, 1965, Rev. Wilbur L. Newton, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, will officiate at a Communion Service in the church that will terminate the year-long centennial celebration local Presbyterians have been observing.

Rev. Newton has been at the local church since May 17, 1962 and he and Mrs. Newton live at the new Presbyterian manse located at 25 Macedulski Terrace with their three children, Susan, David and Diane. He says that he is "happy" to be in South Amboy, pleased with the cooperation of his congregation, and the friendliness of the town's residents.

A native of Philadelphia, Rev. Newton attended Eastern Pilgrim College, the University of Oklahoma, Temple University and Crozer Theological Seminary. He is currently planning work on a doctorate's degree at Temple. Although he has been in the ministry for 12 years, his previous background was one in business and he has done finance, investment and insurance work. During World War II, he was in the 88th "Blue Devil" Division that saw action in Italy. In addition to serving as pastor of the local church, Rev. Newton is also on the Board of the Monmouth Presbytery which is in charge of the ordination of Presbyterian ministers.

Interested in athletics, he lists golf, hiking, and ice skating as favorite pastimes. We doubt that he has too much time to enjoy any of his hobbies, for since coming to South Amboy, he has been most active in the affairs of his church.

Soon after his arrival, new by-laws were presented to the church members in which the Board of Session and Trustees were combined into one Board. New pews were purchased for the church, with each family contributing to their cost. In addition, new paneling and new carpeting were installed. In 1963, proposed by Rev. Newton, a School of Religion was started, sponsored by the South Amboy Council of Churches. Last year saw the start of a building program at the church in which a brick wall was completed in front of the church grounds and in October, the old manse, located next to the church, was torn down and a new building started. To be known as Westminster Hall, this building will have 3 classrooms for Sunday School, a gymnasium, a Board meeting room and a kitchen. It is not yet quite completed but the congregation is looking forward to an early dedication in the spring.

During the centennial year a church history titled "One Hundred Years" which was compiled by historian Mrs. Margaret Griawell was published and from it come many interesting facts about South Amboy's Presbyterian Church. In 1864, a group of local residents sent a petition to the Presbytery of New Brunswick requesting a church. On December 14, a meeting was held at the home of A.H. Van Cleve and with a committee on which such old local names as Muirhead, Webb, Hand, and Watkins appears, the organization of the local church was begun. On Sunday, January 29, 1865, the first communion service was held, administered by the Rev. S. S. Shriver of Hightstown. By April 20, the new church had 20 members.

In January, 1865, the trustees of the Camden and Amboy Railroad voted to donate a building lot to the church; in 1866 at the request of the congregation, the location of the land was transferred to its present site on Broadway. In September, 1865, the Rev. W. E. Westervelt accepted a call to serve as the first pastor. The actual church building was completed in 1868; its dimensions were 40 feet by 60 feet, with a basement and a spire.

The manse was completed in April, 1879. Amusingly, it was rented to a Mr. Jones for $15 a month and two rooms were provided for the minister, Rev. J. Edgar Franklin. In 1895 the Rev. Franklin initiated a stock plan at $1.00 a share to the parishioners as a means of raising funds and the church paid $7.00 to the Secretary of State for papers of incorporation. During its hundred years, the church building has had many mishaps, the first happening in October, 1918, when the explosion at the T. A. Gillespie Loading Co. in Morgan shattered many other local residences. Following the explosion, the Presbyterian Church was turned over to the American Red Cross for use as an emergency hospital to combat an epidemic of influenza and pneumonia. On November 27, 1928, a fire damaged much of the interior to the amount of $3,291. The congregation banded together to replace a stained glass window, new floors, electric wiring and fixtures and to repair the other damages. On Friday, May 19, 1930, all of South Amboy was dazed by a dynamite explosion at the Pennsylvania R.R. docks. The church and manse were badly damaged and that Sunday, May 21, services were held on the church lawn. Since the church was covered by insurance, it donated monies that it had received from the Luke A. Lovely American Legion Post to other Protestant churches. Among the repairs was the church tower, but it was found that the bell was now too heavy and it was donated to the Lambertville church. The restored buildings were rededicated on January 7, 1951. Whatever misfortunes have occurred, the Presbyterian Church here has been progressive in rehabilitating and continuing its work.

In 1954, under the leadership of Rev. David Muxkens, a program "Operation Church School" was started and two years later an annex at the back of the church was dedicated.

By 1962 when repairs to the old manse were becoming too costly, the congregation decided to purchase a new one, and this is the present residence on Macedulski Terrace occupied by the Newton family.

As the final preparations for the commemorative communion service is made, Rev. Newton remarks that, "from a small beginning in 1864, the church has grown, and now, 100 years later has a membership of 476. No one knows what the next 100 years will bring, but we hope the challenge will be faced with the same faith and determination that was shown by our forefathers. May this church be a guiding light in this community, and a home for all who seek the way of life that it has to offer."

FEDERAL TAX FACTS

INCOME TAX FILING REQUIREMENTS

A Federal income tax return must be filed by every citizen or resident of the United States, including minor children, who had gross income of $600 or more in 1964.

If a taxpayer's 65th birthday was on or before January 1, 1965, he is not required to file unless his gross income in 1964 was at least $1,200.

Even though a taxpayer does not have gross income of $600, he must file a return, if any income tax was withheld from his pay, in order to get a refund.

Self-employed persons such as businessmen, farmers, and most professional men must file a return if net earnings from self-employment were $400 or more.

A husband filing a separate Federal income tax return for 1964 cannot claim his wife's $600 exemption if she had income or was the dependent of another taxpayer.

Husband and wife may file a joint return even though one of them had no income or deductions for the year. If the wife had income, they may either file a joint return or separate returns. A joint return must include all income of both husband and wife. If separate returns are filed, neither may claim an exemption for the other.

For example, suppose a wife earned $400 from which $80 income tax was withheld. If she files a separate return to obtain her $80 refund, the husband cannot list her as an exemption on his return.

If husband and wife file separate returns, both must use the same type standard deduction, either the regular 10% standard or the minimum standard deduction, or both must itemize their deductions.

Joint returns may be filed on the punch card Federal Income Tax Form 1040A if:

1. Combined income of husband and wife is less than $10,000, and

2. Combined income consists of wages reported on withholding statements and not more than $200 total of other wages, interest and dividends, and

3. The taxpayers choose not to itemize deductions. Otherwise the regular Form 1040 must be used.

Answers to any questions on filing requirements may be obtained by telephoning any local Internal Revenue office.

Taxpayer Assistance will be provided in the following offices Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m.

MILE SQUARE TALK

Councilman Eugene S. Szeszko dropped down to City Hall Tuesday evening wearing a very distinct Florida tan.

The Industrial Commission had requested the Board of Public Works to meet jointly with them on matters of mutual interest. The invitation was accepted and, since the board meets at a special meeting with representatives of the Civil Service Friday, it set that date at 8 p.m. to confer with the commission members.

A determined front will be made by the Board of Public Works when it meets with the mayor and council on its proposed budget for 1965. Members vowed to give firm replies and explanations for each budgetary item. The board in the past had always felt that their budget had been dangerously pared down to pennies and cents, making many essential operations very difficult. This time they are prepared to defend any governing body cuts doggedly. "We won't take a defeatist attitude," one member remarked.

Mrs. Cora Howley, mother of Councilman Jack Howley was admitted as a patient to the South Amboy Hospital this week; the councilman himself was only last week discharged from the hospital after a recent illness. We wish Mrs. Howley well and a speedy recovery.

Mr. James Roberts, Jr., 140 Peitus St., recently returned from Washington, D.C. where he attended the inauguration of President Lyndon B. Johnson. He also attended the Inaugural Ball held at the National Guard Armory.

In spite of inclement weather Saturday evening, the turnout was not affected at the ex-fire chief's banquet at the Jernee Mill Inn. One "casualty" of the weather was the toastmaster Ed Powers who was snow-bound in Trenton. William McKeon who walked in as a guest, was given the job with no forewarning, and did a nice job.

On Saturday, February 13th, the "Dee" Kelly testimonial at the Robert Treat Hotel is reported to have an excellent advance ticket sale. Also, on the 13th is the Swim Club's annual affair at the Jernee Mill Inn—now we have many individuals playing tug-of-war with themselves trying to decide where to go.

PATTERNS OF SPRING FASHION

The pattern of fashion, as it shapes up for spring, is slim lines, light, bright colors, and above all a youthful look.

The big new favorite is the cutaway jacket or vest, showing its young ideas in its U-shaped neckline and narrow rounded collar. The cutaway forms a demure but flirtatious cover-up for the slim, trim shift—still the favorite dress shape among young fashionables, although the A-line dress or skirt is still going strong.

These trends can be seen in the new McCall's patterns. Practically an entire spring wardrobe in itself is McCall's Pattern 7704. From this one pattern package, the home sewer can get a cutaway jacket or vest, an easy shift dress, a hip-skimming sleeveless blouse, and a classic A-line skirt.

You can make Pattern 7704 even more versatile, suggests McCall's, by using it to create both a spring and a summer wardrobe; you do this by varying the materials you use. Start out with lightweight wools, tweeds and flannels, suitable for early spring wear. As days grow warmer, use the #7704 separates patterns to shape cool outfits of cotton, rayon and linen.

THE WORLDLY LOOK

Where kings sleep when they visit Washington. Recently refurbished Blair House above illustrates the new Worldly Look in decorating. In brilliant red, cranberry pink and stark white, focal point is the canopied bed with silken side-hangings lined in crimson velvet, on the lush French rug. At right, the Worldly Look photographed by Lady Pepperell in Madrid: again brilliant pinks, reds, white in the new Royalty Strips sheets, pillowcase, blanket—dramatic foil for the antique bed, sharp white walls, massive carved doors.

WATER-BASED COLORS WORK LIKE OILS

The Old Masters might not have thought it possible—but it's happened, and it's a scientific fact—water-based artists' colors (acrylic vinyl) to be scientifically exact, made from resin emulsions, that work and look like oil paints. The formulation of a young artist searching for brilliance and durability in colors, and a major New England manufacturer, the product is called New Masters, and eliminates the fuss of oils, turpentine or varnishes. Also there are no endless waits for drying. Even children, as the one shown above, working under the tutelage of the eminent artist, John Groth, find the medium exciting and rewarding in its facility. According to users, New Masters is the first major technological breakthrough in the art world in over 400 years.

SABRES' BANQUET SET FOR SATURDAY

Stanley "Tex" Rosen, who in the early 1930's made athletic history at Rutgers University in the four major sports -- football, basketball, baseball and track -- and a long-time coach and athletic director at Perth Amboy High School, will be the guest speaker at the South Amboy Sabres third annual banquet Saturday. Another speaker will be Lonnie Ayres, sports editor of the Evening News of Perth Amboy.

The banquet will feature, in addition, the presentation of special awards to a number of Sabre football players who had distinguished themselves during 1964 scholastically and athletically. It will be held at the Kozy Bar, Morgan, starting at 7 p.m. After dinner music will be by the "Videls."

Ed Powers, who had toastmastered last year's banquet, will be the master of ceremonies again this year. Eugene Kenny will welcome the participants. Remarks will be given by Sabre president Russel Hahn, Auxiliary president Mrs. Doris Buckiewicz, Recreation Commissioner Nelson Thomsen, twirler director Miss Joan Dooling, cheerleader director Miss Lana Scully, Mayor Richard J. Schultz and Council President Fred Henry.

"Tex" Rosen had many successful seasons in all the principal sports which he coached at Perth Amboy High. He once played football with Ozzie Nelson, now a sportscaster. In recent years he had largely given up coaching and has restricted himself to being the head of the Physical Education Department at Perth Amboy High.

Among the coveted trophies to be presented Saturday will be those for "Straight-A" in school donated by the Pop Warner National Headquarters, the "Best Athlete and Scholar," and a "Special Award" by the president, Hahn. Team trophies will be distributed by the mayor.

Plans call for accommodating of 250 people. The Kozy Bar & Restaurant is located on Route 35 in the Morgan section of Sayreville.

AT HIGHLAND PARK

Haystacks Calhoun, the 625-pound Morgan's Corner, Ark. favorite, will grapple with The Golden Terror in a one-fall co-feature.

In other bouts, Victor Rivero, newcomer in the Metropolitan area, will engage Gene Kelly and The Great Malenko will face Kenny Ackles.

HAHN RE-ELECTED SABRE PRESIDENT

Russel Hahn of 345 Main St. was elected to his third term of office as president of the South Amboy Sabres at a reorganization meeting held at the Progressive Fire Company headquarters recently. Hahn has been president of the organization ever since it was formed.

At this meeting, the Women's Auxiliary was dissolved and incorporated directly into the overall organization. The purpose of this move was to eliminate a separate meeting night for the two branches and to coordinate their activities so that business matters could be facilitated without delays.

Hahn praised the work of the Auxiliary during the time it functioned independently. He commended the women for the "wonderful" cooperation and assistance they had given in promoting the many activities of the Sabres. The choice of becoming part of the parent organization, to be known henceforth as the "South Amboy Sabres, Inc.," was made by them voluntarily.

The new organization will be divided into two working groups: the Business Administration group and the Field Administration. In addition to Hahn, officers for 1965 selected were Martin Graber, vice-president; Mrs. Charles Steuber, secretary; Mrs. Doris Buckiewicz, treasurer; Mrs. Terry Hurrych, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Arthur Burke, publicity chairman.

Field Administration will include the head coach, the assistant head coach, the PeeWee coach and assistant coach, the equipment manager, the cheerleader director and assistant director, and the twirler director and assistant director.

EXECUTIVE BOARD FORMED

In addition to these two groups, an executive board had also been created, comprised of the president, vice-president, treasurer, secretary, head coach, PeeWee coach, equipment manager, cheerleader director, twirler director and corresponding secretary.

Duties of the business administration group had been enumerated to cover all fund-raising activities, such as tag days and turkey shoot contests, programming, conducting banquets, making transportation arrangements, purchasing equipment and administering the refreshment stand for home games.

The field administration will select and train players, twirlers and cheerleaders, engage bands and other attractions for home game programs, advise the business administration group on equipment needs, attend all Federation meetings, prepare season schedules and other field duties.

February 15 at 8 p.m. is the date set for the next meeting of the Sabre organization at the Progressive Fire house.

PUBLIC HEARING SET ON ICE FISHING

Extension of New Jersey's ice fishing season through February 28 will be discussed at a Public Hearing to be held by the Fish and Game Council of the Department of Conservation and Economic Development at 2:00 P.M. on February 9.

Unusually mild weather in late December and early January prevented the formation of ice on most Garden State lakes in time for the opening of the season on January 1. Passage of the proposed extension will give ice fishermen the opportunity to fish for all species for two additional weeks to compensate for the fishing lost in early January.

Text of the official announcement is as follows: A proposed Amendment to the New Jersey Code is announced by the New Jersey Fish and Game Council of the Department of Conservation and Economic Development. A public hearing, as required by law, will take place on Tuesday, Feb. 9, 1965, at 2:00 P.M. in the office of the Division of Fish and Game, Room 702, State Labor & Industry Building, John Fitch Way Plaza, Trenton.
