MULLANE NAMED CITY PROSECUTOR

A motion made by Councilman Rush and seconded by Councilman Zebro, was passed by the council naming Mr. John Mullane as the City Prosecutor by resolution. This action, long advocated by the CITIZEN, had been proposed informally several times by various councilmen and at last Monday's business meeting, Councilman Fred Henry, brought it to a head. (Ed's Note: - Tuesday night's Court Session ran into overtime, and perhaps the council, who were forced to watch some of the court proceedings, took note of the manner in which attorneys manhandled our police officers, legally.)

This is the second honor bestowed on Mullane in two weeks. Last week he was named as counsel for the Board of Public Works. In his new position as City Prosecutor Mullane will prosecute only those cases deemed important by the Chief of Police. Traffic violations, non-moving, will not be handled by Mullane.

Sympathy Extended

A minute of silence was observed in memory of PFC Charles Brown, who was the first South Amboy soldier killed in Vietnam. Members of the council and the mayor expressed their personal sympathies and instructed the city council to convey their feelings to the Brown family by letter.

Budget Adopted

A resolution adopting the city budget, which will have a rate of $4.86, more or less, depending on the county, was passed.

In other business, the council is again urging all local business to close between the hours of noon and 3 p.m. in observance of Good Friday.

Sacred Heart Grammar and Hoffman High came in for words of praise from the mayor and council, on their outstanding achievements on the basketball court.

Survey Taken

Rush reported to the council that a survey was made of the residents of George St. between Broadway and Stevens Ave., asking their opinion on making this a one-way street. Of a possible 29 homes, 23 were contacted and they all agreed that this would be a good thing. City Attorney Mullane was instructed to draw up the necessary ordinance.

RAISING OF THE GREEN - 'Twas a cold, snowy, St. Patrick's Day as "Richard Sean O'Schultz", also known as Mayor Richard J. Schultz, raised the tri-color flag of Ireland at City Hall on St. Patrick's Day. On hand for the flag raising were, left to right: Charles Thompson; Detective Jack Duggan; James Bloodgood; Mrs. Ruth Hult; Mrs. Jack Howley; Councilman Howley; City Clerk John Triggs; Al Pavich; Mayor Schultz; and Chief of Police Ed O'Leary. The Ladies Auxillary, Division #4, of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, sponsor the annual flag raising ceremony.

City Lock-Up Again Under Fire

Councilman John Connors, in his remarks to the council, told of a letter received from the state criticizing the city jail. "If we were to follow their recommendations it would cost South Amboy $30,000. Instead of throwing good money after bad, I would rather see a new City Hall", he said.

Councilman Howley stated that he hoped the present building wouldn't be around five years from now, and that a meeting should be held with the state officials to explain the city's position.

Councilman Frank Zebro requested a letter be sent to Freeholder Phillips thanking him for the repairs the county made to the hole-in-the-wall.

Howley reported that he had a meeting with Phillips concerning lower Main St., and both agreed that repaving of this road is a must. Phillips also told Howley that the County would clean the stopped-up catch basins which are the cause of flooding in this area.

Sgt. Dooling Praised

Mayor Schultz informed the council that the new patrolman, Anthony Warn, has been working for the past two weeks. Schultz also joined with Howley and the rest of the council in praising the exploits of S.Sgt. Frank Dooling, and endorsed Howley's suggestion of giving Dooling a public acclaim, when he returns home. Sgt. Dooling, of 524 Henry St. received the Silver Star for outstanding bravery and leadership while under fire. The mayor has also given orders to the police that if they find anyone on any school grounds after 9 p.m. they are to be charged with loitering. This order does not apply to social functions.

Mrs. Margaret Rieger of 42 Barkalow St., asked the council why the fire alarm was sounded at 7 p.m. She was told that this was a test that has been going on for a number of years, but, a meeting would be held with the officials of the Fire Dept. to see if the time could be changed to 5 p.m. as she requested.

COUNCIL ANSWERS QUERIES ON LAND-FILL

Former Mayor John Leonard brought out in the open a question that has been fermenting around town for many weeks. "Where does South Amboy stand on the aluminum plant? Is a high county official, Freeholder George Otlowski, going to be allowed to criticize our biggest taxpayer, Jersey Central Power and Light Company, and no one answer him? Leonard wanted to know.

The council and mayor responded as follows:-

Council Pres. Henry: - "We heard about this business in December because Jersey Central heard about the possibility of using the land-fill area for a possibility of getting a big industry in there. We have made no commitments with anyone. We want to do what is best for South Amboy.

Councilman Howley: - "We were asked whether or not we were interested in attracting industry to the land-fill. We said yes. There was absolutely no mention of an aluminum plant per se. I will never go for anything that is detrimental to South Amboy. I am against contamination."

Councilman Connors: - "We have a very valuable piece of property here. It is known throughout the industrial world. I will never go for anything that is harmful for South Amboy. I intend to live here the rest of my life."

Councilman Rush: - "There will be a public hearing. All the facts will be presented. We will not go for anything that is detrimental to the city."

Councilman Zebro: - "We will do what we think is best for the town."

Mayor Schultz: - "I repeat what I said at the Sayreville meeting, we have made no commitments with anyone."

TOPSY TURVY

We've gone topsy turvy. We're standing on our heads looking for new listings. You see, we have a problem: no sooner do we get a home than, BINGO, it's sold. So, we're always running out of listings.

Of course, our customers don't mind our problem one bit. In fact, they rather like the idea. Their homes are sold one, two, three--no headaches or red tape--no delays. The fact is, we sell more homes for more people than any other real estate agency in New Jersey. That's a lot of homes--and a lot of satisfied customers.

If you want to sell your home fast and for a fair price, look no further than The Berg Agency. Give us a call now and we'll go into action immediately.

METHODIST CHURCH TO HOLD SHADOW SERVICE

The Methodist Church of South Amboy announces that on Friday evening, at 8 p.m. there will be a Tenebrae Service or Shadow Service. This service is based on the truth that only those who know something of the darkness without Christ appreciate what Easter means. This service is an adaption of the Ancient Tenebrae or Shadow Service. The ceremony of gradually extinguishing candles to dramatize the fading light of the world. This service has been used in the Church since the 8th Century. Though the basic idea of this service is twelve centuries old, the materials have been assembled particularly for this presentation.

"Pathways to Peace" was the theme of the induction ceremony held on March 15, 1967, by the Sayreville War Memorial High School Chapter of the National Honor Society. The candle lighting ceremony began with a presentation of the poem "The Master's Touch" given by Robert Merski. In speeches dealing with Character, Leadership, Scholarship and Service, the Senior officers suggested pathways to peace which might be followed by striving for perfection of these four qualities which are necessary for National Honor Society membership.

Remarks were made by Dr. Marie Parnell, Principal, after which she presented the new National Honor Society candidates and administered the National Honor Society Pledge. Dean Howard J. Crosby, Dean of Men at Rutgers, the State University, was the guest speaker for the program.

"Let There Be Peace on Earth" was sung by Susan Cox, accompanied on the piano by Mr. Allan Mount. The program ended by recitation of the National Honor Society Prayer by all members. Organ music for the program was provided by Anne Marie Merski, a junior student.

Following the induction ceremony, a reception, sponsored by the Home Economics Department under the direction of Miss Barbara Hirschberg, was held in the high school cafeteria for the members, their parents and guests.

Johnny Hossie! Does this name ring a bell, or, more appropriately, a gong? Johnny Hossie, as you may remember him, or, John Hospidor, as I know him, was born and raised in Perth Amboy and was very active in the boxing arena during the period of 1924-29. John is now employed by the Middlesex County Parks Department as a radio dispatcher for the police department, and still resides in Perth Amboy.

During his career as a boxer, Hossie had 28 fights. Twenty-two of these he won; eight by knockouts, two were draws, and he had four losers. Tiger Nelson, Jack Allen, Pop Deliman, Meyer Shapiro, Harry Powers, Babe Schwartz, Larry Socko and Young Taylor were kayo'ed by Hossie.

Sailor Andrews had an 8 round decision over Johnny, and the two also fought two 6 round draws. Willie Walker, Doc Conrad and Little Boy Blue had victories over Hossie.

A casual conversation with Mr. Hospidor, one day, acquainted me with his background as a leading boxer of this area, and, after pursuing this bit of information further, I learned that he was, at one time, a leading contender for the light-heavy weight class. In fact, from bits gathered here and there, John was the champion of his class in this section of the country. His record, as stated above, seems to attest to this statement.

During an interview with him I was able to garner a lot of information concerning the sports world of this era (1924-29) and will pass along his memoirs to the best of my ability.

When asked how he became a fighter, John answered, "I was always interested in all sorts of athletics and sports, and being sort of an athlete, I took to fighting in order to make spending money. I graduated from Vocational School, where I learned the trade of a machinist, but I soon discovered that when I started to fight in the main bouts, 8 to 12 rounds, I could earn enough money to make it unnecessary to work at my trade."

Mr. Hospidor, who is a well-spoken and soft-spoken man, and a true gentleman, in every sense of the word, told me, without any false modesty, of some of his experiences in the ring and out of the ring with some of the luminaries of the sports world.

"Tiger Nelson", said Hossie, "Was the big-man in the light-heavy weight class at this time and he was knocking out every contender he fought. In fact, he knocked out one of your South Amboy lads, Sturdy O'Leary, and Sturdy was a good boy in the ring. Anyway, Sailor Andrews was slated to meet the Tiger, but, for some reason or other, he was unable to appear on the card, and I took his place."

When asked how he made out with Nelson, Hossie said, "Well, I was fortunate enough to knock him down about eight times, and, in the eighth round, I knocked him out. I was very lucky."

"With Sailor Andrews," Hospidor went on, "It was a different story; strictly a Mexican stand-off. In those fights we each won a decision and had one draw."

When asked to comment on some of the leading lights in the sports world during his time, Johnny said, "I was a sparring partner for Maxie Rosenbloom. Now there was quite a person! Maxie was a real slipstick and slapstick fighter. Always on the move. Always active. Always "on-stage"! A lotta laughs. I also sparred with Mike McTigue, the light-heavy weight champion, and Harry Wills, one of the leading contenders for the title. I knew Gentleman George Ward, but never had any action with him. It was during this period I had an opportunity to become a sparring partner for Gene Tunney when he was training for his fight with George Carpentier."

(Note* I will have more on McTigue and Ward in a forthcoming column.)

Hospidor continued, "I'm not going to reveal his name, but I must tell you something funny about one of these gentlemen I met during my fighting days. I was waiting in the ring for him, and, when he appeared, he tried to make his grand entrance by jumping over the ropes. He tripped and fell flat on his face. Incidentally, I won that fight which took place in Highland Park."

(These Highland Park fights were held in the Masonic Temple which was destroyed by fire two years ago. I was able to obtain the ring bell from the ruins, and it is now in the recreation room of a friend of mine here in South Amboy.)

"When it comes to Mickey Walker," Johnny went on, "He was a fighter's fighter. I remember when Ray Bolger brought him to the forefront. He became the champion of the welter-weight division by finishing off all contenders and decided to move on up to middle-weight, light-heavy weight and heavy weight. During this time he changed managers, placing himself in the hands of Jack Kearns, who had brought out Jack Dempsey. Kearns, along with Tex Rickard, arranged for the first million dollar gate in the history of boxing. This was the match between Dempsey and Firpo at Boyles 30 Acres in Jersey City. During this period, Mickey lost his money via high living but he never lost his art of fighting. He still remained the ferocious "Toy Bulldog."

To be continued next week.

Due to the snow storm on Friday, induction ceremonies to the National Honor Society were postponed until Monday.

At this time, ten new members were added to the Society. The ceremony began with an Invocation by the Rev. Edward Cook. Roll call of the members was then called by Janice Fennner. A welcome to the faculty, students, and guests was given by Sherry Schmidt, president. Marlene Zar explained the colors of the Society, and Sally Smith gave an explanation of the emblem. Speeches were then given by Shirley Zakrzewski, Curtis Wood, Patricia Vari, and Margaret Van Mierlo. They spoke of character, scholarship, leadership, and service in that order. Mr. Croddick awarded the certificates and pins to the new members. Sherry Schmidt then passed the torch on to Curtis Wood. After these formalities, a speech was given by Robin Applegate.

Robin was a former member of the National Honor Society, and a graduate of H. G. Hoffman High School.

Now that basketball season has drawn to an end it is time for many of these basketball players to play another brand of ball - baseball. Practices are being held after school for those who are interested.

Interviews for the new curriculum for the class of 1968 are now being held in the Guidance Office. These interviews are under the direction of Mrs. Miriam Hoffelder, guidance counselor.

It has been decided by the class of 1968 that "Some Enchanted Evening" will be the theme of the Junior-Senior Prom. The prom will be held on May 19 at the Battleground Country Club, Freehold, N. J.

Cecil B. DeMille's classic "THE GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH," in color, starring Charlton Heston, Betty Hutton, Cornel Wilde, Dorothy Lamour and James Stewart is the co-feature with "FRANKENSTEIN CONQUERS THE WORLD," also in color, starring Nick Adams now playing at Loew's "35" Drive-In Theatre.

"THE GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH" winner of the Academy Award for Best Picture of the Year when it was first released combines two of America's most popular entertainments--the special kind of spectacle for which DeMille was famous, and which no one to date has been successfully able to imitate, plus the thrills of the Ringling Bros.-Barnum & Bailey Circus. Against all of the circus activity is told a gripping and dramatic story that adds to the entertainment of this all-time great film.

"FRANKENSTEIN CONQUERS THE WORLD" is the story of a descendant of the famous Frankenstein, who, due to atomic radiation, grows to a tremendous size and threatens the entire world.

Mile Square Talk

Heard around town is that certain members of the Richard J. Schultz Association are planning on entering the "pie eating contest" on TV sponsored by Alka Seltzer!

And have you seen the billboard at the corner of 9th St. and So. Pine Ave., congratulating Russ Hardy on his retirement from the state? We wish to add our congratulations also, Russ!

A case printing out the need for a public prosecutor was vividly demonstrated last Tuesday night when one of the attorneys for the defense questioned the right of the police officer who was acting for the state and protested to his line of questioning. He stated that the police have no right to prosecute. They are not lawyers.

This sort of business is very unfair to all. It is especially unfair to the police, the plaintiffs, the judge, and most of all, to the people.

Lance Corporal and Mrs. Chester Wortley of Beaufort, South Carolina, will celebrate their first wedding anniversary on Mar. 28.

Lance Corp. Wortley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wortley of Skytop Gardens, Parlin. He is currently stationed at the U.S. Marine Base at Beaufort. His wife is the former Dee Soltis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Soltis, formerly of South Amboy.

Celebrating her 15th birthday on Easter Sunday is Miss Linda Kojzar of 124 No. Broadway, So. Amboy.

Belated birthday wishes go out to Mrs. Virginia Grant of So. Pine Ave., who celebrated her birthday on Palm Sunday.

Celebrating her 5th birthday on Holy Saturday will be Miss Karen Prybylowski of Hilltop Ave. Happy birthday, Karen!

John A. Miller of Matawan has returned from Los Angeles, Calif., where he spent a week at the Howard Hughes Aircraft Plant supervising the installation of an antenna on Army airplanes.

The antenna was developed at the U. S. Army Electronic Center at Fort Monmouth.

Dr. Frank Farrell, local Democratic Chairman, submitted to the Middlesex County Democratic Committee the name of Mayor Richard J. Schultz for the County Freeholders ticket.

The color of the tiles to be used for the new roof at the Water Works, was a subject of great importance at last week's Board of Public Works meeting. One Commissioner was of the opinion that they should be green for two reasons the make-up of the Board and St. Patrick's Day.

Another member thought that red would be an appropriate color for St. Joseph's Day.

One lone voice, after the meeting, said something about orange, but, this went unheeded.

We promised to tell you about the nickname "Cornflakes", but, after checking this out, we found it to be sort of an "inside", or, hidden joke.

At Sayreville's Industrial Commission meeting last week, efforts to hook up the public address system failed. There was no need for it anyway, the people were plenty loud in voicing their objections to the bauxite plant.

We note that one Sayreville official had nothing to say at the meeting that night. He saved his remarks for a private press conference a couple of days later.

Judging from the enthusiasm of the Board of Public Works Commissioners over their choice of John Mullane as their attorney, there will not be an "escape clause" in his contract with that board!

And, while we're on the subject of that board, we must publicly thank Commissioner O'Leary for suggesting that the press be allowed to hold an informal-type question period before the meeting breaks up.

Planning Board Consultant Tom Carr and Mayor Richard Schultz promise to shoot off firecrackers July 4 if the new zoning ordinance is passed by then.

Note to Police Chief O'Leary: Don't we have an ordinance governing firecrackers?

And a Happy Birthday to our little neighbor, Judy Nebus of South Feltus St. Judy will be 7 years old on Easter Sunday.

Watch for the possible re-opening of the famous "Missing Dirt" bit in Sayreville, and that's all for now!

Joanne, remember the ballerina! Did you forget to leave it? 721-0588.

Joseph Beninato, of Morgan is currently in second place in all events in the American Bowling Congress Tournament in Florida. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Beninato, proprietors of Kozy Lanes, Morgan.

Affectionately known as "Aunt Sally" by her family and friends, one of town's "younger" citizens celebrates a significant birthday next Monday... her 87th! The lady we refer to is Mrs. Harry Petty, a long-time resident of South Amboy and an early member of the local Woman's Club. "Aunt Sally" keeps busy by still attending the club's meetings and is also a regular worshiper at the first Methodist Church. Her great-niece, Karen Bouchard, daughter of Bill and Kay of 350 Main St., also celebrates her birthday the same day... her 21st! Our wishes for happiness go out to these lovely ladies.

The big happy smile on the faces of John and Edith Dobrzynski are their way of letting you know that son Bob, and daughter-in-law Joan, are the parents of another baby girl, Deborah Ann, born February 23 in Louvain, Belgium, where Bob is a medical student at the Catholic University of Louvain. Their other daughter is 20 months old, Ellen Margaret. We're sure Bob and Joan will get our good wishes, although a little late, as they are among the CITIZEN'S far distanced subscribers.

Readers who have heard about the plight of baby Alan Lee Sneed, born prematurely with two holes in his heart, may not be aware that his father, George, now a policeman of Edison, is a former resident who lived on upper John St.
