COUNCIL GETS RESOLUTIONS

From Board of Freeholders On Bordentown Avenue Paving—No Objections to Vacating Part of Gordon Street—Bids Wanted for Auditing City Books.

Regular meeting of Common Council was held in the Council chamber at City Hall Tuesday night. Present were Councilmen Stanton, Delaney, Kress, Hackett and Shuey; Clerk Conkley, Engineer McMichael, Solicitor Conkley, Collector VanDusen, Street Commissioner Connors and Water Commissioner Braney.

Minutes of previous meeting were approved.

Communication from John Connors, secretary of Enterprise Hook and Ladder Company, announced that M. F. Nagle had been given power of attorney to receive money due the members of that organization for services during the year 1919. McMichael's report showed that the company advised that R. G. Nietopp would receive the money due that company. Both communications were received and ordered filed.

Public Service Railway through its secretary Percy Ingalls acknowledged receipt of complaint of council in regard to holding up traffic at Main street and Broadway by stubborn trolley employees and promised that the guilty parties would be reprimanded. The communication was ordered filed.

Joseph L. Swigard & Co., contractors on new water plant, requested that telephones be installed at site of new water works plant and further stated they would pay rent for same until plant is turned over to city. On motion of Councilman Delaney the clerk was instructed to notify N. Y. Telephone Company to install telephones as requested.

James A. Minnick, secretary, in a communication notified the council of the election of Walter F. Smith as Chief of Fire Department, M. F. Nagle and James Nolan, assistant chiefs. On motion of Councilman Kress the action of the department was confirmed.

Application of Louis Fixler for permission to erect a vestibule at the entrance to Jersey Lunch on Broadway was on motion of Councilman Delaney referred to committee on streets.

Communication from Thomas J. Melville, secretary of the Board of Freeholders, announced that copies of resolutions relating to Bordentown avenue paving were being furnished in compliance with the request of council. The clerk stated he had received the resolutions referred to. On motion same were ordered filed.

The following bills and claims were ordered paid on motion of Councilman Delaney:

SCULLY ACTIVE ON SHIP CANAL

Will Endeavor to Get Chairman of Rivers and Harbors Committee to Visit City—Important That New Jersey Show Active Interest in the Project.

The Intra-Coastal Ship Canal Association held a meeting at City Hall Monday evening. President F. P. Coan reported having had a conference with Congressman T. J. Scully and plans are under way to hold a meeting in the near future at which the chairman of Rivers and Harbors committee with another member of the committee and Congressman Scully will address the meeting on the canal project. The meeting will in all probability be held in the High School Auditorium. Congressman Scully is keeping in close touch with the canal subject and is of the opinion that if sufficient interest can be created in the project throughout New Jersey the prospects are bright for decisive action being taken by Congress at the coming session.

Secretary Coogan reported having placed order for membership buttons with a St. Louis firm. A slight change is to be made in the design as originally decided on which will add a little color to the buttons and emphasize the motive of the organization. It is expected the buttons will be ready by next meeting of the association and as every member is entitled to one all members should make an effort to attend and receive their button. The next meeting of the association will be held on Monday evening, December 22, in City Hall.

SOON GET THIEF WHO TOOK NICK TOLLI'S MONEY

Between 12.30 and 1 p. m. Tuesday, while Nick Tollis was out to lunch, some thief entered his store and took about $50 from his cash register. The thief made entrance by breaking the glass of a rear window, and after loosening the fastening, the entrance was easy.

The case was reported to Chief McDonnell who immediately started on the case. From inquiries circumstances pointed to a married man of this city as being the thief, and on Wednesday morning Officer McCormack was detailed to arrest the culprit. When before Chief McDonnell, the evidence was so pointed, that the thief admitted he took the money, and had spent all of it in various saloons. He promised to make good the loss, and Tollis was willing to take the money, and did not make any complaint. On account of the man's wife, children, and mother, the department did not give out the man's name.

WILL INTRODUCE RESOLUTION FAVORING SHIP CANAL

Robert P. Mason, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, has been instructed to draw up a resolution which will be read at the meeting next Monday. It will strongly favor the building of the ship canal across New Jersey, and will offer every aid possible to the Intra-Coastal Ship Canal Association of this city in their efforts to promote the canal. If adopted at this meeting, a copy will be sent to the association and also to the Citizen for publication.

CHRISTMAS PARCELS.

HACKETT AND SHUEY REFUSE TO VOTE ON CHANGING PUMP

Just prior to adjournment of Council meeting Tuesday night the old majority-minority feud leaped into prominence once more when a resolution authorizing the substitution of a McGowan pump for one of Worthington manufacture was introduced. During a recess the members of the council held a conference together with the city solicitor, city engineer and Joseph L. Swigard of the firm Joseph L. Swigard & Co., and on reconvening a communication from the Swigard firm recommending that alternate bid on a McGowan pump be accepted instead of that specifying a Worthington pump was read. It was stated the first named pump would do the same work as Worthington at one-half the revolutions and a saving of 25% in steam consumption. The McGowan pump will cost $3800 more than the Worthington.

The resolution authorizing the change was introduced by Councilman Delaney and the fireworks started immediately.

Councilman Hackett said it seemed strange that the majority faction had gone ahead and awarded the contract in the absence of himself and Councilman Shuey and had stated they were able to carry the load, now they are asking the minority to vote with them to break the contract they made. While he did not intend to place any obstacles in the way of an improvement for the city he had decided not to vote on the resolution.

Councilman Shuey stated he had looked into the merits of the two pumps and was satisfied no mistake would be made in accepting the McGowan as it was the better pump of the two. He would not stand in the way of the adoption of the resolution but had made up his mind to reserve his vote.

Councilman Delaney said it was no fault of the Democratic members that the Republicans were absent from the meeting at which the contract was awarded. Both gentlemen were in the building just prior to the meeting and it was their privilege and duty to have attended. He stated that everything was regular, both pumps were included in the bid and the city should have the better pump. While no man is infallible he was willing to carry his share of the load and would vote for the resolution. He thought all members should vote yes or no on every question.

Councilman Hackett still contended the contract as made is made, if changed it is broken.

President Stanton stated that the transaction of awarding the contract was legal, fair and honest and thought each member should vote on all questions as his conscience dictated and for the best interests of the city. He read from the rules that every member must vote unless excused by the council, which brought from Councilman Hackett the statement that he would leave the Council rather than vote.

Solicitor Conkley stated the plans had been approved by the State Board of Health and Commission on Water Conservation, if there were any irregularities this approval would have been withheld.

President Stanton called for the vote on motion to adopt resolution, which was as follows: Delaney, yes; Hackett, not voting; Kress, no; Shuey, not voting; Stanton, no. The motion was declared lost.

SUPERVISOR COAN HOLDS A TEST EXAMINATION

Supervisor of Census, Francis P. Coan held a test examination in the High School Building on John street on Saturday last, morning and afternoon. Applicants for the position of enumerators in Woodbridge, Roosevelt, Perth Amboy and New Brunswick to the number of fifteen submitted themselves to the examination.

Another examination will be held next Saturday morning, beginning at 10 o'clock.

WINDSORS ARE COMING TO TOWN

This Crack Big Five of Newark Will Match Their Skill With the Riversides—Gil Schwab Expected to Make a Great Showing—Lively Fight Expected.

To-night (Friday) at St. Mary's Hall the crack Windsor Big Five, of Newark, claimants of a one point victory over the Auditorium Five of Perth Amboy, will match their skill with our own Riversides. The Riversides, having won four straight games, are now plunging into their hardest games of the season.

It will be a great game, undoubtedly. Perth Amboy fans, who claim that their Auditorium Five is superior to the South Amboy outfit, will be on hand to witness what they believe will be the Riversides first defeat of the season. It is certain that the Newark team will put up a hard fight, and a comparison of the Perth and South Amboy teams may be gleaned from the resulting score. The Newark boys, being "wise" to Gil Schwab's style of playing, can be depended upon to "lay on" the crack Rivie forward, and Dehnert will also be well covered. Both of these Riversides, however, can be depended upon to do more than their bit, but in the close fight it may be that the bulk of the work will fall on Cantlon, Allen and Burns.

Stars in Lineup.

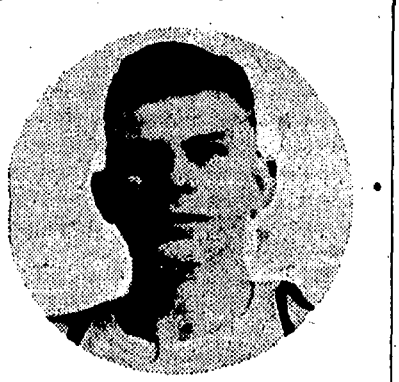

"Lizzio" Fein, who was the star of the Windsor team in their game at Perth Amboy, and who later played with a Newark outfit called the All Stars and featured in a game by which the Perth Amboys defeated the Newarkers by one point, will be in the lineup. There will also be Dutch Shelling, of the Whirlwinds; Clark, who played with the old Bayonne Points and Newark Centers; Solador and Schwankert, of the National Turner Triangles.

The Perth Amboy team takes exception to the published articles which appeared in the Perth Amboy Evening News stating that the Windsor Big Five claimed the game with the Auditorium team. But Fein, who starred in that attraction, personally told the Riverside manager that his team received a "raw" deal at Perth Amboy, and other South Amboy fans who saw the game voice the same opinion.

In that game the Windsors were leading by one point. The timer signalled at the expiration of the game, but Referee Thorpe did not see him, and awarded Hank Thomas a free throw, which he made, tying the score. The Newark team claimed they won by one point, but the referee declared it a tie. The Windsors refused to play the extra five minutes, and the referee awarded the game to Perth Amboy by the forfeit score of 2 to 0.

Lot Depends on Schwab.

Gil Schwab, who is responsible for the new court tactics of the Riversides this year, can be depended upon to make a great showing in any game where he may be forced to exert himself, and it looks as if to-night's clash will be one of them. The Newark boy certainly carries the interests of the Riversides at heart, and he can be counted on to "work his head off" to bring victory in his sport to-night. He is a good, clean sport, and the Rivers working with him, as well as the crowd, hold a soft place in their hearts for him. Schwab isn't one of the kind of professionals who play basketball entirely for what they get out of it. This was shown, when, in speaking of the pending Rivie-Auditorium series, he told Manager Hoffman to make any arrangements necessary to bring

MANY GUESTS AT MORGAN FIRE DEPARTMENT BALL

The masque and civic ball given under the auspices of our popular Chief John J. Donoghoe, of the Morgan Fire Department and comprising the following members: Messrs. Capt. H. J. Riley, Fireman W. J. Hefferman, V. Lombardi, E. Hasselacher, J. Schickling, W. J. Kennedy, W. Falkenberg, A. O'Connor, P. D. Rush, G. Riley, F. Santangelo, F. Bledron, C. J. MacLean, M. Dick and G. C. Gilbert, was held in the auditorium of the Morgan Welfare Club last Monday evening.

The following committee had charge of the arrangements: W. J. Hefferman, treasurer; E. M. Hasselacher, secretary; W. J. Kennedy, door manager; assisted by V. E. Lombardi, Sergeant-at-Arms, C. J. MacLean, assisted by W. Falkenberg and reception committee, Max Dick.

The chief and his fire laddies and the committee were congratulated by their legion of friends for the splendid masque and civic ball which was thoroughly enjoyed by a congenial throng of dancers throughout the evening's entertainment. The recreation hall was decorated artistically with cedar and fir trees and the ball room presented a picturesque scene as it was brightly illuminated with electric lights. The national colors played a prominent part in the decorations and was conspicuous everywhere throughout the building. Edgar Abbott employed with the M. G. O. D., painted a beautiful landscape in the rear of the ball room on a canvass 10x20 ft. depicting a picture of a winter sunset scene. Mr. Abbott was praised by everybody for his artistic ability and who has painted similar scenes throughout the New England and Atlantic States.

The grand march started at 10.30 p. m., led by Lieut. A. K. and Mrs. Barrows followed by officers, civilians and their ladies. The latest dances and classical selections were rendered by Prof. Wilbur Gardener's musical entertainers. Prof. Gardener's musicians played "The Vamp," fox trot which was played at Shubert's "Gaities" in their theatre in New York City and won great applause as rendered by the Rega Dance Orchestra. During this dance there was over one hundred and fifty couples on the floor keeping in step to such fascinating snappy tunes. Every person who participated in the fun and merriment were identified with U. S. Government work and in the general welfare of the Morgan Social Club's activities.

While the dancers were enjoying pleasure and gaiety in the ball room; Messrs. G. M. Smith and Geo. K. Williams were doing a little fox trot on their own initiative in the recreation hall dancing to the tune "Oh, What a Pal was Mary," which caused laughter from those present and from Arvid Anderson, one of the young bloods of the Administration Building whose mirth and laughter could be heard over the building.

The popular door prize and the best mask prize was won by Mrs. M. Bloodgood, who captured a handsome silk umbrella, also Miss May Trinley, too, for the best costume at the social function.

Miss F. Miller won a handsome woolen shawl six foot square, made by the members of the Fire Department. Miss Miller was delighted winning this handsome prize and stated that it will always be kept as a memento, being the first prize won by her at entertainments of this kind. The shawl must be seen to be appreciated, and its workmanship clearly speaks beyond comprehension that Chief Donoghoe, and members of the Morgan Fire Department are past masters in weaving shawls of this kind. The ladies who examined the shawl will strive hard and do their utmost endeavor to win a shawl when the firemen give one of their popular entertainments again in the near future.

It was past midnight when the Fire Laddies' dance was over and those who participated in the entertainment stated it was one of the best ever attended of this kind in Camp Morgan for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Zuspan, well known masqueraders, were at the ball and received a grand welcome from everybody participating in the night's pleasure. They are always in the shining light at all social affairs and are very popular.

BOY SCOUT DOINGS.

Troop No. 1.

The meeting of the Cobra and Flying Eagle Patrols on Monday, December 8, was held with a perfect attendance of both patrols. The scouts are improving rapidly in both the Semaphore and International Morse Codes, as practically all the scouts have received their 1/2 point in the patrol contest in signalling.

At the troop meeting on Monday, December 15, it is planned to have the Scout Executive of Perth Amboy talk on Scouting to the troop and present Second Class pins to the Tenderfoot Scouts who have just completed their Second Class tests.

It is also planned to have a contest between the patrols in signalling.

Some of the older scouts are attending the Scoutmaster's training course together with the Scoutmaster and assistance given by the Local Council of Boy Scouts of America of Perth Amboy on Tuesday evenings.

EX-GOVERNOR FIELDER

NEW VICE CHANCELLOR

Former Governor James F. Fielder was appointed a vice chancellor Monday by Chancellor Walker. The appointment was made to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Frederic W. Stevens of Morristown. In filing announcement of the appointment Chancellor Walker instructed the secretary of state to issue a commission for signature by Governor Runyon.

Mr. Fielder is a resident of Jersey City and will be fifty-three years old on February 26 next. He was elected Governor on the Democratic ticket on November 4, 1913, and was inaugurated on January 20, 1914, for a three-year term. His Republican opponent was Edward C. Stokes.

The Legion of Honor has been established as one of the major organizations of the First Baptist Church of South Amboy. The following are the charter members:

Rev. George W. McCombe, Mrs. George W. McCombe, Mr. Frank Hawes, Miss Margaret Campbell, Miss Marion Campbell, Deacon J. T. Dill, Mrs. J. T. Dill, Mrs. Reed, Miss Cole, Mr. Henry Dill, Mrs. Henry Dill, Deacon Andrew Dill, Mr. Norton Wheeler, Mrs. Peter Cassidy, Mrs. W. J. Edwards.

We are expecting much from this new society of faithful workers. The rules and condition of membership may be obtained from any of the members of the Legion.

To be great a nation need not be of one class; it must be of one mind. If we think together, we can act together and the organ of common thought and action is a common language. A difference of language within a country creates artificial distinctions, which are at the best awkward and are always a fertile source of discord. If we as a nation are to maintain our supremacy in the world at large, we must have a common language. One flag and one language go together. We do not say to the Alien, you must speak your mother tongue, but we do say, you must be able to speak and understand the language of the country, which gives you your bread and butter! No appreciation of our institutions and ideals can be effective without a knowledge of our language.

Miss Alva R. Compton who is now in training at the University of Pennsylvania School for Nurses sends the following letter in acknowledgment of the beautiful and useful present given her by the members of the First church; as a token of the esteem and appreciation of her work among us:

Members of the First Baptist Church, South Amboy, N. J.

Dear Friends:

The traveling bag arrived and it is perfectly beautiful. But though the bag itself is such a beauty it is a kindly thought and generosity of a you who gave it that I appreciate most. Every time I use it I shall be reminded anew of what you have done for me. The work is interesting and I am enjoying the experiences. I find the people nice to work with, but I do miss my home friends. Thanking you all, sincerely, for the lovely gift, and wishing you as much happiness as you have given me.
Gratefully yours,
Alva R. Compton.

Reports from the Mission Circle of the First Church indicate much interest, at their meeting last week. Practical discussion of live topics will do much to make us realize the needs of the home fields, even that of our own church and city. The following officers were elected:

President.....Mrs. B. T. Lambertson
Vice-President.....Mrs. Frank Hawes
Secretary.....Mrs. M. Stuber
Treasurer.....Mrs. Campbell
Deacons.....Mrs. Frank Hawes

on A. Miles, the senior of the United States at, and one of the First Baptist church in 1858, and there is only one other whose name has been longer on the list. During all these years he has retained a membership which is more than nominal, although on account of absence from the city he is not often able to attend the services of the church. He was present at the recent roll call and made a brief address, in which he said that he valued the associations and fellowship of such gatherings more than those of companies of any other sort. He is not afraid to acknowledge that he belongs to the church and the Baptist denomination.

There is a story of the Athenian Crates that he threw all his gold into the sea, saying, "I destroy you lest you destroy me." How vastly better and more Christian if any modern imitator of the Athenian should throw his gold into churches, missions, hospitals, libraries, colleges and institutions for the betterment of man. Then he would be rich indeed instead of living poor on earth, and going to heaven poor toward God.

Our mid-week service is growing in numbers and interest. Come out and enjoy the fellowship of your brothers and sisters in the church. The Wednesday evening service is inspiring and many say that they would rather miss any other service than that of Wednesday evening. The large number present each week is a pleasure to the pastor, not alone for his own sake, but for what it means to the First Church in its future work. Not a dull moment from the beginning to the close, in fact all say that the time given to the service is far too short. Come out next Wednesday and try it for yourself. You will enjoy it.

Every Sunday morning the pastor is preaching a series of sermons under the general heading of "Thoughtful Sermons for Thoughtful People." The sermons are based on the great doctrines of the Bible. The Baptist Church has no apology to make for believing and holding fast to the old doctrines; which has made our country great. If you are afraid of hearing the truth without the lies and Ands; you will not be happy in the services of the First Church; but if you want the truth without an apology you will enjoy all the services of the Baptist Church. We have no pew rents. All the seats are free.

The following will explain itself: The New Jersey Children's Home Society, Trenton, New Jersey.
Rev. George W. McCombe, South Amboy, N. J.
Dear Mr. McCombe: Thanks for your check of $21.63 for the Children's Home Society, for which you have our heartfelt thanks. I enclose receipt for same. With kind regards, I am

Yours sincerely,
E. J. Brewer,
District Superintendent, New Jersey Children's Society.
Copy of the receipt New Jersey Children's Home Society.

The old year is dying. How did you spend 1919? Are you satisfied? End the year right by joining the church. Why not?

THE FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH NOTES.

The services will be as follows in the First M. E. Church on Sunday, December 14th.
9:30 a. m. Class Meeting.
10:30 a. m. Preaching.
2:30 p. m. Sunday School.
7:30 Song Service.
7:45 p. m. Preaching, "The Tragedy of the Uninvested Pound."

The Fourth Quarterly Conference will be held on Monday evening, December 15th, at 7:45 o'clock, the Rev. J. D. Bills, District Superintendent presiding. Every member of the Quarterly Conference is urged to be present and every department of the church is asked to have a written report.

The devotional meeting of the Epworth League will be held on Tuesday evening at 7:45 o'clock. Topic "The Duty of Church Membership." The mid-week prayer meeting will be held on Wednesday evening at 7:45 o'clock, topic, "What is a Revival? How may we have one?" A number of persons will take part in this meeting. Come help and be helped. Friday evening choir rehearsal 7:45 o'clock.
The regular Sunday morning class meeting is to be revived on Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock. All members of the church as well members of this class are requested to be present. This will be a good way to start the day.

Some very good Christmas music is being prepared by the choir for the Christmas time. This will be a real treat for music lovers. The time of rendering will be announced later.

The plans for the coming neighborhood prayer meetings and special meetings in the church are nearly completed. The entire membership and constituency of the church has been divided into three provinces to be known as Galilee, Samaria, and Judea. Four persons are to be appointed as Tribe Leaders in each province. Five other persons are to be appointed in each province to act as a prayer meeting Committee. Simultaneous prayer meetings are to be held in the provinces during the week preceding the meetings in the church. The whole month of January is to be devoted to the prayer meetings and special meetings in the church. All our members and friends are urged to set apart this month for this purpose. Every one is needed, every one can help.

The boundaries of the Provinces and time of the meetings will be announced later.

A Christmas party is being planned for the Junior League for next Wednesday afternoon after school.

Let us not forget to keep our covenant to pray each day between the hours of twelve and one. Pray with faith in God who has promised to hear and answer our prayers.

A Christmas Cantata is to be given by members of the Sunday School on Christmas night in the church entitled, "White Gifts for the King." This is a very pretty cantata keeping in mind the real thought of Christmas.

PRESBYTERIAN PARAGRAPHS

At the time of writing these paragraphs, it would appear that the League of Nations has met with defeat in the United States; but neither Congress, nor our Chief Executive has spoken the last word. And in line with this great problem before the American people to-day, we will speak, upon Sabbath morning next, at 11 o'clock, upon the subject—"The League of Nations."

And when we announce that the evening subject is: "Don't Worry," you would like to ask how it is possible, during such times as these, to keep from worrying. At 7:30 next Sabbath evening you may get your answer, and a most emphatic one, in the light of Scripture.

That was surely a fine lecture which Rev. Garrison gave us last Wednesday evening. Now, next "Church Night," the 17th, we will resume our study of the Miracles, and will talk about "The Dumb Demon Cast Out By Jesus."

Coming events! Plan for them!

December 21st, Sabbath evening; the Carol Singers go forth to bring Christmas cheer to shut-ins.

December 24th, Wednesday, Christmas eve; Sabbath School and Church entertainment.

December 28th, Sabbath evening, Carol Singers again go in their mission of love and cheer.

December 31st, Wednesday, New Year's eve; 7:30 o'clock, New Year address. 8:30, Watch Night Social. 11:55 to 12:05, Watch Night Service.

Which last event opens up the Week of Prayer, January 1st to 7th. There will be services during this week of prayer every evening at 7:30, in preparation and equipment for one of the best years the First Presbyterian Church has ever known. Come with us and get spirit, and, most important of all, get the blessing!

The Cleanest Range Made

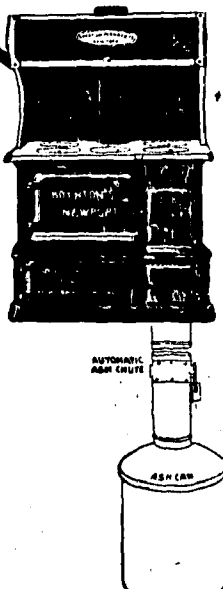

Cleanliness in a range is the result of exceptional designing plus careful workmanship.

Boytton's Newport Ranges in all models have smooth cast surfaces and highly finished nickeling. All joints fit tight. Some styles have the extra convenience of an ash chute direct from the pit to the ash can in basement.

When you examine a Newport at the Boynton dealer—near you—note these features:

1. Large fire box
2. Handy dampers
3. Capacious water back
4. Large ashpit
5. Attractive appearance
6. Sturdy construction

WHAT KIND OF SOAP DO YOU USE?

IS IT WASTEFUL?
DOES IT DISSOLVE TOO RAPIDLY?
DOES IT REFUSE TO LATHER IN COLD WATER?
DOES IT CONTAIN FREE ALKALI WHICH HURTS THE HANDS AND INJURES CLOTHING?

IF IT DOES ANY OF THE ABOVE THINGS, IT IS TIME TO CHANGE SOAPS!

We are placing on the market a NEW BRAND OF SOAP, which, we believe, is a God-send to the thrifty housewife in these days of high costs.

We have called it
EUROPEAN SOAP

Because it is made after a formula used and approved by the foremost European soap makers, which was obtained by us at great expense. This soap is not an experiment. It has been tried and proven under the most exacting tests.

It is lasting and economical, does not waste away, lathers in the hardest water, contains no injurious alkalies, is guaranteed to be the best that money and skill can turn out.

EUROPEAN SOAP will be placed on sale AT ALL GROCERS under a "Satisfaction Guaranteed or Your Money Back" pledge

We solicit your trade not only because we are a home industry, but because we honestly believe in the ability of our product to fulfill all your expectations toward the

"Criterion of Cleanliness"—EUROPEAN SOAP
Respectfully,

ONE REGISTER HEATER
Solves Many Problems

With but a single pipe—one register only—this entirely modern, scientifically designed furnace (made and guaranteed by the oldest and largest manufacturers of heating apparatus in the United States) furnishes a constant circulation of fresh, warm air throughout every room in the house—abundant heat at all times, evenly distributed.

Just think what this means in economy!—Installation costs cut to a minimum. No lengthy pipes to buy or run to various positions. No cooling of the heat before it can reach your rooms. Less dust—less dirt—less labor. Direct heat rises and spreads instantly to the upper floors. None is wasted. Warm house, cool cellar. And you can burn any kind of fuel—LESS OF IT than is demanded by other types of heaters.

The Richardson One-Pipe Heater is suitable for city or country homes, schools, churches, stores, etc.—old or new buildings. NOW is the economical time to install.

CAPTAIN DELVER.
Captain Delver, a well known steamboat captain at his home, 10 West Hudson Place, Jersey City, on Sunday morning last at the age of 76 years.
Many years ago resided in the city, and was captain of the boats of the old Camden and Atlantic Railroad which ran from this city to New York. He afterwards was in the tug boat service for the R. R. He was an Odd Fellow for many years, and was at one time a member of General Morgan Lodge of this city. A widow and two daughters survive.
Funeral service was held from his home Tuesday night, and interment was made at Hackettstown Wednesday.

REV. J. E. SHAW WILL SPEAK AT Y.
Rev. J. E. Shaw of South River will be on deck at the Y. M. C. A. meeting Sunday afternoon. Mr. Shaw is now preaching at his best and is worth hearing. The attendance at these meetings is improving and the singing is lively. No long faced dogmatic religion is tolerated at these snappy helpful services. All are invited to come, have a good time and hear something worth while.

COURT SANTA MARIA, D. OF I.
ELECT OFFICERS FOR 1920

At a regular meeting of Court Santa Maria No. 382, Daughters of Isabella, held Thursday night, December 11th, in St. Mary's School, the following named were elected officers for the year 1920:

- Grand Regent—Mrs. Francis P. Coan.
Vice-Grand Regent—Mrs. Maurice Lucitt.
Prophetess—Miss Alice Duggan.
Historian—Miss Kathryn Carr.
Financial Secretary—Miss Cecelia McGonigle.
Treasurer—Miss Elizabeth A. Regan.
Monitor—Miss Catherine Cleary.
Sentinel—Miss Sara O'Connor.
Trustees—Mrs. James W. Rea, Mrs. Francis P. Farrell, Mrs. James J. Dwyer, Miss Margaret Gallagher, Mrs. John W. Mahoney and Mrs. John J. Coakley.
Organist—Miss Madge Mahoney.
Lecturer—Miss Dorothy Watts.
Chaplain—Rev. Edward C. Griffin, D. D.

The ladies outlined a course of action for the winter months which includes social, intellectual, educational and charitable activities. Among other things, the Court donated $25 to the South Amboy Memorial Hospital, and appropriated $100.00 to take care of the poor and needy of the community during the Christmas holidays.

SOUTH AMBOY GETS $26,938.52
AS RAILROAD TAX

County Collector F. William Hilker has sent check to this city for $26,938.52, as this city's portion of tax on second-class railroad property. This is about $12,000 more than heretofore. The total amount of railroad tax for the county was $181,399.47. Woodbridge received $70,448.12, and Perth Amboy, $50,318.52.

SIX PASS CENSUS TEST PERFECTLY

Francis P. Coan, Supervisor of the Census for the Third District of New Jersey, announces that of the applicants for census enumerators examined thus far only six have passed the test perfectly. Those who were perfect in every detail are: for Middlesex County, John V. Burke, 85 Jefferson street, Perth Amboy; and Miss Frances N. Henry 194 High street, Perth Amboy; for Monmouth County, Edwin C. Giffard, Red Bank; and for Ocean County, Alfred J. Scanlon, and William S. Turner, Lakewood; and William Henry Brown of Barnegat.

These six with about seventy others, whose names will be announced within the next week, have been confirmed by the Director of Census, Sam L. Rogers, for the position of enumerator of census. The actual enumeration will begin January 2nd, 1920, and will continue for two weeks in places having a population of 2,500 and over and for a places having a population of less than 2,500.

WORK DONE BY T. H. RIDDLE AND LIDDLE & PFEIFFER ACCEPTED

Work done for the county under a contract with the city of Perth Amboy, for the paving of Smith street from the car barns to the city line, has been completed and was accepted by the Board of Freeholders at a meeting held December 4.

Of the contract price, five per cent. will be retained by the county as a guarantee that the road will be satisfactorily maintained for one year. The balance to be paid to Liddle & Pfeiffer, the contractors, by County Collector F. William Hilker.

A portion of the cost of this work is to be paid for by Perth Amboy, and by the resolution presented by Freeholder Clarence M. Haight, accepting the work as complete, County Collector Hilker was authorized to bill the city for their share.

The new payment laid by T. H. Riddle on Main street, Milltown, was also accepted as complete, and authority given to pay ninety-five per cent of the contract price, and bill the borough for its share of the improvement.

During the month of November produce to the value of $164.34 was sold from the county farm and the revenue turned over to County Collector Hilker.

Five hundred and eighty-four weights, measures and scales were inspected by County Sealer of Weights and Measures Nathan Robbins, as shown by his report for November. Of that number two counter and five computing scales were found to be inaccurate and were condemned, the balance being found correct and were sealed.

On the advice of County Solicitor Frederick F. Richardson, the Board of Freeholders will refuse to settle the claim of William Burchell of Madison township, for damages to his automobile, unless the claim is established by a suit. Mr. Burchell's claim was made after his machine had been damaged by running into a washout in the road near Cranbury.

A second claim made by Mr. Davis, whose automobile was damaged when it hit an iron drain pipe at the intersection of the Lincoln Highway and the Vineyard road, near Metuchen, was disposed of in the same manner.

A report from the property officer at the Morgan General Ordnance Depot for the week ending November 29, was read, showing that during the preceding week 8,385 high explosive shells had been shipped, leaving a balance on hand as of the 29th of 425,977. Other explosives stored at the reservation were reported as follows: Low explosive shells, 1,765,063; smokeless powder, 463,455.75 pounds; amatol, 197,046 pounds; T. N. T. 6,662 pounds, and tetryl, 1,050 pounds. In a letter to the board, Charles A. Bloomfield called the attention of the members to the crooked condition of the road between Bloomfields Corner and Fords Corner, which he stated should be straight. Through the want of care, some engineers have caused this bend, which is bound to make a great deal of trouble unless the error is corrected immediately, was a statement contained in the communication.

PUBLIC SERVICE RAILWAY COMPANY

The complaint was referred to the road committee for investigation. Complaints made by the board, against the condition of the Public Service street railway tracks, along Amboy avenue, Metuchen, where they require shifting, at Main street Sayreville where the tracks need to be raised, and between Highland Park and Bonhamtown where filling in is needed, were acknowledged by the company. These conditions will be investigated by the operating department of the company and reported on later.

County Collector Hilker was authorized to issue a three months note for $25,000 to pay for keeping county roads open and in a passable condition. This note will be paid off from the funds due the county, out of its share of the 1920 motor vehicle fund, which will be paid by the state highway commission next year. For the purpose of draining and controlling by oil, the breeding of mosquitoes in the county, the county mosquito extermination commission has requested from the freeholders an appropriation of $10,000 for the next year. During the last year ditches were dug totaling 995,000 feet in length, on the 8,000 acres of salt meadow land in the county, where the extermination has been in progress. The draining done is about half done, as set forth in the communication from J. G. Lipman director of the agricultural experimental station.

ODDS AND ENDS

People to-day are thinking for themselves. Questions of commerce and politics engage the attention of the average man. Even questions of a religious nature are attracting the attention of the people. In answer to one of the many questions asked him, Mr. McCombe will speak Sunday evening at 7.30, in the Baptist Church, from the subject, "Will An Unbaptized Child Go To Heaven?" What is your opinion? Come and see whether you agree or disagree with the pastor of the First Church. The seats are free. The meeting house is warm and the people are friendly.

The "Y" basketball league is now organized with six teams named after popular fish and will start playing at the High School next Monday evening at 7.45 o'clock, two games. Y. M. C. A. members and their families are invited to attend.

M. F. Nagle will pay annual allowance to members of Enterprise Hook and Ladder Company next Monday night.

Before a very large crowd the Howe Rubber Company basketball team on Thursday evening went down to defeat by the du Pont team, of Paris, on the latter's court, by the score of 19 to 15. The game was interesting from beginning to end and greatly pleased the fans.

Much reading matter is crowded out this week on account of late arrival of advertising, making it impossible for us to insert extra pages and take care of advertising too. However, all will profit if they take time to read the advs. and note the bargains.

At the hearing by the Common Council Tuesday night on the vacating of a portion of Gordon street no objections were presented by property owners residing on that street.

Perth Amboy is keeping up to its slogan, "The Pacemaking City," especially when it comes to vice and immorality, according to evidence obtained by the County Prosecutor.

We had a chair caned by pupils of the public schools this week, and we must compliment both teacher and pupils on their good work.

South Amboy Council No. 426, K. of C., held a special meeting Wednesday evening, at which plans were laid for the minstrel to be presented early in January next. The first practice will be held next Tuesday evening. The committee in charge expect to give the public a great treat, and many new features will be on the program. At the regular meeting of the Council next Wednesday evening the building committee will present some recommendations in regard to the new building. All members are desired present to take action on same.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Lambertson, after a residence of forty years at Keyport, have removed to this city, and for the present are making their home with their son, B. T. Lambertson of Second street. South Amboy is not new to the aged couple, as they lived here previous to going to Keyport, and retained many old friends.

Miss Catherine Cleary, teacher in the High School, is ill at her home.

Trolley Dirigible.

Trolley dirigible system, electric motor driven, is proposed for the carrying of mails, particularly for over sparsely settled territory. The pipe from car to gas bag carries electrically heated air for regulating the buoyancy. The trolley cable is wound on a drum, allowing adjustment of altitude. Popular Mechanics Magazine.

BUSINESS MEN WILL BOWL.

An innovation in bowling lines is being arranged at the local Y. M. C. A. for next Wednesday evening. The business men of the city who are members of the "Y" are going to have an evening on the alleys all by their lonesome. All the old-timers and middleaged young fellows will try out their wings by themselves.

Bowling is a good exercise for the business man and keeps him in good condition for the week's work. Keep the date, Wednesday, December 17, 1919, at 8 p. m.

Y. M. C. A. MINSTREL.

The big new featured Y. M. C. A. Minstrel show will be presented to the public at the Empire Theatre on Wednesday evening, January 7th. This show as was last year's is something different in the line of minstrels. It is called the Soviet Singing Contest and brings out all the fun and eccentricities of a Soviet meeting. The personnel is much improved and the cast is going strong to make this the best performance that South Amboy has ever seen. Keep this date open, if you desire to have a full evening of fun.

Very True.

Easy-going men are apt to spend too much time up in the clouds looking for the silver lining.

If you expect to buy any gifts for your Men folks, this is the store and now is the time to make your purchases.

We have most everything a man wears and you can select many articles from our stock that will reflect the kindly spirit of the giver for many days to come.

Silk Mufflers in a variety of color combinations and very moderately priced.

Neckwear in holiday boxes at $1.00, $1.50, $2.00 and $2.50.

Holeproof Hosiery: Lisle at 60 cents, half doz., $3.25; Silk 85 cents, dozen, $8.50. These socks are worth 75c and $1.00. Other fancy socks from 50c to 95c.

Armbands, Garters and Suspenders in appropriate boxes make inexpensive but very practical gifts.

Handkerchiefs, plain and initialed. Also Silk Handkerchiefs in plain white and colors.

And if you care to spend a little more, we have Bath Robes, House Slippers, Umbrellas, Suit Cases and Travelling Bags, Raincoats, Sheepskin Coats and Mackinaws.

Little Boys' Red top Rubber Boots. Rubber Footwear for Men and Boys, Women and Girls.

Any article held until called for upon the payment of a small deposit.

Give your home merchants the first chance.

PUBLIC HEARING.

PURSUANT TO A RESOLUTION of the Common Council of the City of South Amboy, County of Middlesex and State of New Jersey, Notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be held on Tuesday, December 23, 1919, at 8 o'clock p. m., at the Council Chamber, City Hall, on "An Ordinance to vacate portion of Gordon street," and at which time objections will be heard. Said ordinance reads as follows:

Whereas, The South Amboy Hospital Association has petitioned the Common Council to vacate that portion of Gordon street running through their grounds and dividing said grounds into two tracts, and, Whereas, Public notice has been given of the intention of this body to introduce and consider an Ordinance to affect such vacation and said notice further stated that any persons interested or whose lands would be affected by such vacation would be given an opportunity to be heard on December ninth, the date set for said hearing, therefore,

Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of South Amboy, Section 1. That a certain portion of Gordon street running through the property of the South Amboy Hospital Association and bounded by the property of Whitehead Brothers on the west, South Amboy Hospital Association on the North and South and on the east by a line drawn parallel with the westerly boundary line of the property of Nathaniel Day-ton be and the same is hereby vacated.

Section 2. This ordinance shall take effect upon its publication.

PETER J. COAKLEY, City Clerk.

LOBSTER FISHERMEN SEEK MORE CONSERVATION LAWS

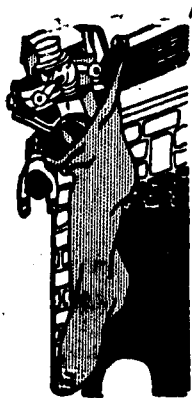

Aiming to conserve New Jersey's newly developed lobster fisheries and to prevent trusts from monopolizing this infant industry, a score of lobster fishermen at Keyport and vicinity have appealed to the State Fish and Game Commission through State Protector James M. Stratton for protective legislation. The delegation ask that a bill be introduced before the next Legislature providing that every person engaged in the business of taking lobsters shall pay an annual license fee of $10; that these licenses shall be issued only to bona fide residents of New Jersey and that each license-holder shall be limited to operating 100 lobster pots.

The lobster fishermen are especially anxious to prevent the use of nets known as otter-trawls in taking lobsters and ask that these devices be outlawed. Claiming that conservation regulations that prevent the taking of small lobsters have been largely responsible for building up the lobster fisheries off the Jersey coast until more than a hundred boats were profitably operated in the industry, during the present year, the fishermen ask further that in addition to the fine for bringing ashore or offering for sale under-sized lobsters, the offender's license be revoked and all his fishing equipment be confiscated by the state.

Chinese Love Horses.

China is one of the last of the nations of the world to adopt and enjoy the motorcar. Indeed, the conservative Chinese shrink from anything that seems to cast any aspersions upon horses, for equines have played a big part in tradition, history and the life of that mysterious land in the far East.

American Legion Shells

*Fired in Interest of Luke A. Lovely

Soup-y, Soup-y, Soup-y!

Line up for chow!

All hands on deck at next Tuesday night's meeting of the Legion. There were many A. W. O. L's. at last week's meeting, and they missed a good time.

We had coffee, a ham sandwiches and olives and everything.

On Tuesday, January 6th, there will be a big get-together meeting of the Luke A. Lovely Post. Every Legion member and ex-service man in South Amboy should be present. There will be a big time. The speakers of the evening will be Colonel Hobart Brown, of Newark, State Commander of the Legion, and Adjutant Thomas Goldingay, a "soldier of fortune" who has been all over the globe and fighting wherever there has been sign of scrap.

The entertainment committee, which has been more than holding up its end of the Post work, will again do "things" for arrangements are in hands for the "Get Together" ting. Post Entertainment Officer Lee Sults has called a meeting of the committee for Sunday afternoon at one o'clock, at the Club House.

Plans are under way for the organization of a Women's Auxiliary of the Legion, as authorized by the National Convention. The ladies will receive a charter from National Headquarters, and will wear pins similar to the Legion emblem. Mothers, wives and sisters of Legion members or soldiers killed in the war are eligible for membership. Miss Winifred Gibbons is chairman of the committee to plan for the organization of the Auxiliary. Miss Gibbons was the first woman in New Jersey admitted to membership in the American Legion.

Joe Massopust, of Keyport, was present at Tuesday night's meeting and was admitted into membership. After being declared a member in good standing, which is pretty good for a lawyer, he displayed his gratitude by trimming the Post Adjutant and two Trustees in a pinocchio game.

And "James" Gordon, a well known real-estate of Broadway, New York, and Church street, South Amboy, was also present.

about the series, and offered to play for nothing in order to get a chance to help the Rivies score a victory over the Perth Amboyans.

Schwab, too, has offered to give an exhibition of floor tumbling at one of the games, and may perform to-night, unless he considers that the game will be too strenuous to run an extra risk of tiring himself. Gill for several years held the National Turn Verein championship on apparatus, and is said to also be very clever in floor gymnastics.

No Dancing.

There will be no dancing in connection with to-night's game, this pastime having been forbidden by the pastor of St. Mary's parish in connection with the basketball games. Some form of entertainment will be introduced, and to-night the Arthur Scully-Bill Pearson team, a local duo that scored such a big hit at the "Rip VanWinkle" production, will help amuse the crowd. There will be other entertainers, and this in addition to Schwab's gymnastic exhibition, should it be offered to-night, should furnish a great program for the fans.

The lineup:

Rivies	Windsor Big Five
Schwab	Forward Schelling
Cantlon	Forward Fein
Dohnert	Center Schwankert
Allen	Guard Solador
Burns	Guard Clark

Win Fourth Game.

Although fighting gamely until the final sound of the timer's whistle, the Oakwood Field Club, of Long Branch, went down before the Riverside onslaught last Friday night by a score of 63 to 35. Starting with a rush the Long Branch team, using great team work and making some extraordinary shots, quickly attained a four point lead. Then Jimmie Cantlon dropped in the first counter, and Dohnert after a dribble up the floor, tied the score. The faith of the crowd, remembering past performances of the Rivies, never wavered, although the visitors again forged ahead to a six-point lead.

Here it was that Gil Schwab started his clever work that kept the fans in continual good humor throughout the evening. The elusive little Riverside was everywhere that the Oakwood's thought he wasn't. And usually he was under the basket, while the ball would be parting the shreds. He worked wonderfully well with Jimmie Cantlon, who also made some shots that were given a great hand by the crowd. The Riverside captain shared the scoring honors with Gil, each of the forwards getting nine baskets. Dohnert made five, Ruffe Allen five, and Scott Burns two. Burns was a little off in his floor work Friday night, his work not being up to the standard he has kept in the three preceding games.

For the visitors Brown, the husky center of the quintet, played a great game on the floor and on defense, although the scoring honors went to Woolley, who made some spectacular shots. The Long Branch guard made eight field goals, three of which were scored from the center of the floor.

Although the first part of the first half was marked by a nip and tuck score, the visitors weakened before the scoring bee that was started by Schwab and Cantlon. The Rivies forged ahead rapidly and almost had the score doubled at the end of the first half. In the second half the Amboyans kept up the good work, and again Schwab's floor work kept the fans in a continual uproar.

This is how the Rivies hung up their fourth straight victory:

RED CROSS NOTES.

Mrs. Henry Stratton, 217 Henry street, chairman of the knitting committee of the Red Cross, would like all Red Cross knitted goods finished or unfinished, and all yarn belonging to the Red Cross, to be returned to her at once. Please do not delay as this is a matter that demands immediate attention.

Mrs. Stratton would be glad to sell the yarn at cost price to anyone that would like to have it. She still has an abundance of sock yarn, both gray and natural in stock.

A HAPPY HOME.

One of the happiest events of the year took place at the home of Henry M. Dill, on Main street, last Wednesday evening.

Herman and Edward Dill, returned soldiers of the great war, desiring to show their appreciation of a good home, planned a surprise party on the birthday of, to them, the best mother in the world. It was a complete surprise. Mrs. Dill as usual with her husband attended the prayer meeting of the Baptist Church, and on returning to her home found every room on the lower floor filled with people, who had been invited by the two sons to help them celebrate.

During the evening, the Rev. George W. McCombe, pastor of the Baptist Church, called the large gathering to order, and in a few well chosen words presented to Mrs. Dill, on behalf of the father and sons, three gold pieces of large denomination; as an appreciation of their affection to the wife and mother, on her birthday. Mrs. Dill was completely overcome and Mr. Dill with a smile that radiated the entire room was having the time of his life; as he watched the evident effort of his wife to gain control of herself. The smile faded as his pastor called him to the centre of the room and told him, that his boys had not forgotten that his wedding anniversary was near, and to show their appreciation of their dad, he had been instructed to deliver to him this envelope; which on being opened contained the generous sum of $50.00 in greenbacks. Mr. Dill started to respond and nearly broke down as he recalled how "Uncle Sam," had demanded, not one, but both of his boys, for the great cause of making a free world, but he said, "I am glad I was able to make this sacrifice for my country; though no one can realize what it meant to wife and myself to see our boys go away, perhaps never to return. God has been good to me and the missus, and our boys have come back and we have now a new home."

Senator D. C. Chase, President of the Chamber of Commerce, was then introduced and in his masterly way carried the audience through Henry Dill's early career. It was good to hear the Senator tell of the faithfulness of Brother Dill; and it was evident that the Senator had a warm place in his heart for the man who had worked for him for many years. The Senator with his usual convincing oratory dwelt on the important place which the Baptist Church had in the city, dwelling on the beauty of the church building, and the artistic windows which helped to make the building of the First Church, a perfect gem; and on behalf of the membership of the First Baptist Church, presented to Brother and Sister Dill, as a token of their esteem and love, one of the beautiful windows to have and to hold forever. The clerk then read the official letter confirming the gift of the church. Brother and Sister Dill responded in a fitting manner, after which refreshments were served, and the handsome birthday cake was cut. The remainder of the evening was spent in various social ways, and it was near the midnight hour e'er the last of the happy guests departed to their homes.

All who were fortunate to attend this gathering came away with the feeling, that it was one of the best evenings that they had spent in South Amboy; as for Henry M. Dill and wife, to say nothing of Herman and Edward, they are all wearing the smile that won't come off for some days to come—the evidence of one united happy home in South Amboy.

Mary's Dramatic Club at St. Mary's Hall. The acting of the entire cast, without one exception, was simply fine. A small but appreciative audience greeted these young people and it is to be regretted that the drama was not more generally advertised. Those who failed to attend, certainly missed a great treat. While many of the characters and situations were calculated to excite merriment and laughter, there was not even a suggestion of vulgarity; in fact every word and gesture, was refinement itself. Miss Corcoran's "Marion" was thoroughly appreciated by everybody. Her attitudes were exceedingly graceful and her mannerisms were that of a lady throughout the entire evening.

Miss Campion was heartily applauded for the way in which she dealt with her brother, "Martin Moore" who was addicted to strong drink. She showed an intelligence and force of character that was really commendable. Miss Coan did the "Flirt" Jessie to perfection. She looked charming in every particular. Her acting was good and entirely consistent with the character assumed. Great credit is due Mr. Kane for the many different characters he impersonated during the evening. As "Charlie" he did well and certainly deserved Jessie's heart and hand. As "Charles" he did well and certainly deserved Jessie's heart and hand. As the "Texas Cowboy" he made a great hit and was fully equipped for the "Wild West". In the character, "Richard Bell", Mr. Kane was equal to the occasion and his audience deeply sympathized with him in his affliction. Mr. Fitzhenry as "Pete" a gentleman of color was really very comical. He appeared in every scene, and his appearance was invariably greeted by an explosion of comic laughter. His singing of "The Love Bird" provoked much laughter and he received an encore.

"Robert Peck" depicted by Mr. George Corcoran was well received and showed much story and earnestness.

John F. Martin as "Clifton Johnson" a young lawyer, did justice to his role and made a most dignified appearance.

"Martin Moore" a slave of the past, was well represented by Mr. F. Campion, whose every word could be heard in every corner. He made a very convincing impression on his audience.

Last but not least, was "Water" the servant, played by Mr. Kane. He was a perfect gentleman and his acting was of the highest order.

Commercial department team. As a feature in the evening's performance, five youngsters ranging in age from eight to four, hailing from Olean, and every one of them the offspring of telephone folks, gave a first-class demonstration of a real problem in first aid.

Vail medals in bronze were presented by President H. F. Thurber, of the telephone company, to three Western Division people for meritorious service performed in 1933. Two of them were Mrs. Irene Crawford and Miss Florence Fillingham, operators at Wilson, Niagara County, who were rewarded for the part they played in frustrating the activities of a bandit gang; and the third was Angelus A. Kirwan, a Buffalo cable splicer, who gave first aid single-handed to the victims of an automobile accident.

During the past year, about 1,400 telephone men and women of the Western Division have taken the first aid training courses in the evening and on their own time. Lost time accidents in the division have decreased from 4.1 per 100 employees in service in 1926 to 0.94 per 100 employees in 1933.

Want United States

Boxers in Australia

At a recent dinner of the New South Wales Amateur Sports club the question of inviting amateur boxing teams from the United States and South Africa for a tour of the Australian states was discussed and a committee was finally named to investigate the possibility of making the necessary financial arrangements.

It was reported that the boxing team of Stanford university in California has agreed to make the tour if arrangements can be made to pay its expenses and the same assurance was given from the South African boxers.

other attributes were assigned gloves. It was when worn in the hat, a testimony in ancient times that its wearer was a good farmer.

The glove has always signified dignity, especially in the traditions of the Church of England. When a consecration of a bishop took place the archbishop was presented with a pair. They were of lavender color with golden fingers. This hand-dress was also always hung on the pews of those who died early and were unmarried. To bite the glove was mark of deadly enmity or revenge.

The familiar "old shoe" of the wedding is a tried token of good luck. How the custom ever originated is not certain, but it is believed by many to be a feigned attack upon the bridegroom for carrying off the bride. This idea is suggested by the early barbaric practices of capturing the bride against resistance.

Others, however, attempt to trace the hurling of the wedding shoe to the custom of the ancient whalers. God-speed and good-luck were in the olden days synonymous with throwing old shoes at the vessels as they left the wharves.

Symbol of Authority.

Still another theory is that which allows the wedding shoe to become the symbol of authority and dominion over the bride by the husband. To receive a shoe in Biblical times indicated the conferral of ownership, just as the return of the shoe signified the relinquishing of it. In this period the father always kept the discarded shoe of his daughter as a symbol of his possession and it is believed by some that the familiar practice at modern weddings is only the persistence of the old custom in which the father threw the shoe at his new son-in-law as a sign of surrendering his proprietorship over the bride.

Stockings, like shoes, have many legends and beliefs woven about them. To wear a stocking inside out is still regarded as lucky. Bad luck, however, overtakes the unfortunate who finds out her mistake before taking off the stocking. Good luck always awaits the person who has the wisdom of putting the right stocking on first. Woe unto him or her if the left is put on before the right.

Even pins have been potent talismen in the past. Anyone having a bitter enemy whom he wanted to punish had to do nothing but make a rude effigy of his foe. After inscribing the name of the enemy on the image, all that was needed was to stick it full of pins, each pinhole causing pain in that part of the victim's anatomy which in miniature was already being stabbed.

Wishing wells are still popular trying places for the lovers of Norway. Sweethearts, according to tradition, will have all their wishes fulfilled by the simple expedient of making the wish and then dropping a crooked pin in the well.

Title has passed between the United States of America and Sigmund Rimer, et al, to the three tracts at Morgan, formerly known as the Morgan General Ordnance Depot. The consideration mentioned is $145,000. The deed was recorded in the office of the County Clerk on April 7th. Due to the fact that title had not passed previously, the owners of the property, who are said to be Frederick Schneider, of New Brunswick; Sigmund Rimer, of Red Bank; James Alpen, president of the South Amboy Trust Company, and others, were exempt from taxation for 1924.

Good Night, Ladies

When an operator in a small rural telephone exchange would give one long ring on a line, it was a signal for all to listen in, to receive weather reports, or news of a dance, or the like. Each line had from ten to twenty subscribers on it, says Judge.

One night about twelve o'clock, when all the farmers had got nicely to sleep, some one on the line gave a long ring, everyone made a run for the telephone, expecting to hear some startling news.

A man's voice asked: "Are you all on the line?"

A dozen or more voices answered, "Yes."

"Well," replied the man, "I just wanted to say good-night to you all."

Home builders are prone to delay the matter of insuring their property against loss by Fire, Water, Tornado and Cyclone until the structure is completed and all other expenses have been met. Quite often they learn the mistake of such methods—through heavy financial loss.

The minute you start construction on that new home, barn or improvements is the time to have in place a blanket policy which will cover you, whether the loss is $10, or a total loss of the full building value of your investment.

Maybe the home in which you now live is still uninsured? Fire, Water, Tornado and Cyclone Insurance is cheap and you can get full protection of your home for a very small sum.

by towns soon reached the scene of the disaster.

Soon after Wire Chief Frank Titlow, of New Brunswick, tried to get in communication with Netuchen, but all the trunk lines to that office were busy. Then, hurriedly collecting all available repair materials, Titlow and a repair man started for the scene of the explosion, six miles away.

On reaching the scene, the repair-

Several of the operators who were off duty at the time of the explosion, realizing that their help would be needed at the switchboards in handling the rush of calls that would follow, went immediately to their central offices.

Helpful Springtime Hints for the Modest Home Garden

Telephone Engineer, Amateur Gardener, Gives Practical Advice.

A garden that has been scientifically and systematically planned, planted and cultivated will flourish, says The Telephone Review, while one tended in a haphazard fashion will bring forth "haphazard" fruits and vegetables—undeveloped, sparse and imperfect. The truth of the old proverb applies again, "Nothing is worth having unless you work for it" and "What's worth doing at all is worth doing well."

Sun and rain contribute their share toward success. It remains for us to provide a garden that is worth cultivating. By skillful treatment vegetables can be grown in what would seem barren soil, such as sand or clay.

R. L. Ashley, a telephone engineer of Newark, N. J., gives the following directions for gardeners:

No. 1. Make plans and draw a map to scale of the plot of ground allotted to the garden. The space should be mapped out in rows and it is generally wise to run the rows north and south in order that the plants may get the maximum amount of sunlight on both sides. Arrange so that the taller varieties of plants will not shade the shorter ones and so that there will sufficient space between rows for the development of the plants and for future cultivation.

Rotate the Crops

For a garden that has been cultivated in previous years it is a good policy to do in a small way what the farmers call "rotation of crops." Plant in the space occupied by one variety of vegetable the previous year another variety this year. Short season crops such as lettuce, string beans and peas may be followed in the same year by the late variety of vegetables. For instance, celery may be planted in July in the space from which peas or string beans have been harvested.

Do not plan to do any more than can be well done with the time and labor available. A small garden well cared for is far more productive and satisfactory than one which has been partly neglected.

No. 2. Consult a good catalogue or some reliable gardener and select carefully the varieties, amount and kinds of seeds that will suit your requirements of space, soil and tastes. The only implements necessary are a spading fork, iron-toothed rake, hoe, garden line, and trowel. If the area to be cultivated is large enough, a wheel hoe may be used at a great saving of time and labor.

No. 3. Prepare the soil as soon as the ground has dried out sufficiently. The soil should be dug deeply and thoroughly pulverized to the depth of the spading. Pulverizing the soil is one of the most important operations in gardening and the time taken for spading thoroughly is time well spent.

A Limestone Dropping

After digging is completed a dressing of ground lime stone, air stacked or "agricultural" lime may be spread over the surface at the rate of about 100 pounds to every 1,200 square feet of area. The lime corrects soil acidity.

The easiest process of all is the actual planting. Using the information given on the seed containers in regard to time, distance apart, and depth, plant carefully in straight, well-prepared rows. After the plants have formed their first pair of leaves the surface of the ground should be loosened up with a hoe or cultivating tool on each side of the row to allow the air to circulate through the top layer of loosened soil and to conserve the moisture in the soil underneath. This process of cultivation should be kept up at regular intervals until the maturity of the plant.

Costa Rican leads the world in strict telephone etiquette—of a kind—according to an official of the Western Electric Co., who has recently visited there. The Costa Rican lady or gentleman never answers the telephone, that duty being left to a servant. There are, moreover, no telephone numbers—since all calls are made by requesting the operator for the desired subscriber by name. This naturally makes the affair a long process, particularly if the servant is out of sorts, or the telephone operator is not up on the social register of the community.—Telephone Review.

French experiments, we hear from the Telephone Review, have worked out, through an ingenious code of rules, a new vice testing device, with the aid of the telephone. An electric current linked up to a telephone is supposed to reveal the true character of the wine under investigation, and whether there is an adulteration present.

The only point to consider is that if your furniture covering and drapes are of plain material, a figured rug should be used. The purpose of a floor covering is to furnish softness and comfort, as well as to afford a background for furniture. When deciding to completely furnish a room, the rug should be decided upon first.

SACRED HEART JRS.

WIN OPENING GAME

The Sacred Heart Juniors met and defeated the Baritan Jrs. of South Amboy in their opening game last Sunday which took place at Whitehead's field by a score of 14 to 3.

The heavy hitting of "Frankie" Kusawa was mainly responsible for the victory, who hit for two bases every time at bat. "Archie" Zamorski being in good form allowed the visitors but four hits and struck out eight men, while Zyakooski being on the mound for the visitors allowed fourteen hits, fanning four men, while Malik featured at bat.

The next opposition will be furnished by the Lyceum Jrs. of Perth Amboy for the Sunday of April 27th on Whitehead's field.

SACRED HEART'S B. TEAM TO PLAY AT SO. ORANGE SUNDAY

Manager Bill O'Tools and his Sacred Heart Baseball team have arranged to play the Elm of South Orange on Sunday next, at South Orange. The trip will be made by from South Orange. "Bill" has many surprises in store for the coming season and expects to convince the fans that he has the real representative team of this city.

Owing to this being Holy Week, the National Sporting Club, of Perth Amboy, did not conduct any boxing bouts. They will hold their next show Thursday, April 24th. Another Club was idle this week and that was Gus Trozier's, of Newark. Gus has been running fights for twenty years and never runs during Holy Week. It will soon be time for the open air season. An open air club in Perth Amboy in a suitable location would pay the promoters.

Jack McGuire and Chris Mulrain are still looking for that 165 pound fighter to fight Tiger Nelson.

The Y. M. C. A. Courts have been put in first class shape for the coming season. New screens, posts and other essentials have been procured thereby giving promise of greater interest in tennis this season.

J. L. Applegate has been appointed Booking Manager of the Y. M. C. A. Baseball Club for the 1924 season. Eugene Thomas was appointed as Field Manager.

E. A. Mell has been designated as Manager of the Junior Team with Milton Clayton, as Assistant Manager, James Bloodgood, Secretary and Martin Russell as captain, to assist him.

Many exciting games are looked forward to the coming season.

PASSAIC HIGH SCHOOL FIVE AT PERTH AMBOY MONDAY

The world's greatest amateur basketball team will appear at Perth Amboy on Easter Monday at the Auditorium. The players referred to are the Passaic High School courtmen, winners of 147 consecutive games, state champs four consecutive years and conceded to be the hardest, cleanest and fastest playing team in existence. Their opponents for the occasion will be the Perth Amboy Riveraires, composed of the amateur stars of the city. Fine, Martin, Griev, Dooley, Chismadia, Westcott and Polkowitz.

The appointments are indeed a surprise to many, as Mr. Lovely had repeatedly stated that he expected to appoint two ladies to fill these places.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS

OF AMERICA NOTES

Members of the local order traveled to Keansburg Sunday last where they participated in the organization of a new court at that place. The local degree team deserves a great deal of credit for the way they exemplified the degrees on the fifty-five charter members of the Keansburg court.

NOTICE

There will be a special meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary to Protection Fire Company in Protection Hall on Wednesday evening next at eight o'clock. A social time will follow the business meeting and refreshments will be served. Each member may invite a lady friend. Matters of great importance will be transacted at this meeting.

ity of Christ Church Cemetery, which was extinguished in short order.

Again at 10:55 o'clock, another alarm was turned in from the same box and the firemen were recalled to the fire that had started up again. A fire was made of it, this time firemen again returned to houses.

MRS. DUVIER HAS PLANS

FOR CITY "CLEAN UP"

Mrs. B. C. Duvier, head of the Civic Department of the Woman's Club, urges the earnest cooperation of all South Amboyans during "Clean Up" week. This department urges that first the citizens display their interest by making a special effort to beautify their home surroundings, giving due regard to public health, and next, to keep the city streets and sidewalks clean. The dates of collecting garbage are: Tuesday, from Augusta street and Stevens avenue to the shore; August, David, Henry, John and George streets and Borden-town avenue; Wednesday, from Stevens avenue to Feltus street, George, John, Henry, David, First, Second, Main street and the so-called "Pennsylvania alleys"; Thursday, Maxwell, Bergen Hill and Mechanicsville; Friday, the same route as Tuesday collections; Saturday, same route as Wednesday.

COUNCIL TO JOIN

IN BUS SURVEY

Arrangements are now in the making, whereby the members of the Common Council will go into conference with members of the governing bodies of Keyport, Perth Amboy and Sayreville, with the idea of establishing more systematic relations on the bus situation. At the instruction of the Council, the City Clerk has communicated with the various municipalities to try and arrive at a date that will be suitable to all.

This is the outcome of applications made by James Doukas to operate two additional busses on the Keyport line. The applications have been held up for some time awaiting the result of the conference. The application of Wolf Cohen to operate an additional bus between this city and Perth Amboy was refused by the Board of Public Utilities on April 10. Attorney McGuire, of this city, represented Cohen and Asst. Prosecutor Toolan represented Doukas, the objector at the hearing. Permission was refused on the ground that two busses now operating with a forty-minute layover were sufficient to take care of the traveling public between these points.

...their shoulders. He followed them to Alpine street, where he called to them to halt. They ran toward an auto. Dooling was hot upon the chase and ran up to the car before it could be started. Charles Novitsky was at the wheel as Dooling jumped on the running board. Frank Novitsky was standing a few feet away from the car with Pajka. Someone suggested pushing Dooling off the running board. He drew his revolver, according to his story, and shot in front of Charles Novitsky to scare him. Then, jumping into the car Dooling told Charles to drive to the South Amboy police station.

En route, according to Dooling's story, Charles became unruly and an argument ensued in which Dooling again drew his pistol and shot Charles in the arm. After taking Charles to the South Amboy police station it was decided to take him to the hospital to have the wound dressed.

Frank Novitsky when questioned by County Detective Ferd David and the policemen, stated that he had been one of the party in the yards stealing coal. He admitted that he was placed under arrest with Pajka and said that the first shot, which was meant to scare his brother fired by Dooling struck him in the breast. He remembered saying to Pajka, "I'm going to lay down and die."

Pajka it appears deserted Frank Novitsky after the latter fell, wounded, and went to his home. Frank furnished Pajka's address and the police immediately went to his home, where they placed him under arrest. Pajka stated that he was not in the car on the trip through Sayreville but that he had been with Frank when Dooling placed them under arrest. He stated that when Dooling called to the men to halt and showed his badge that the men stopped and that there was no reason for the firing of the shot.

Chas. Novitsky's Statement

In his statement to Police Justice Forgotsen, Charles Novitsky claimed that he was 23 years old and had left his home earlier in the evening to see John Rander on a little business. On his way to Rander's, he stopped in the barber shop, owned by Joseph Jerome and found Rander there. Leaving the barber shop in company with John Rander and his son, Edward, he walked up toward Alpine street, where his car was parked. Rander left him at this point and started for home. Novitsky, according to his statement, claims that he was just getting out his keys to start his car when approached by Dooling who demanded "Who owns this car?" "I do," replied Charles. "Where are you going with it?" asked the officer. "Wherever I please, it is my car," answered the driver.

there have been all sorts of demonstrations and invitations to various municipalities to witness some of the apparatus at work.

Among the prominent companies who have had representatives in touch with the Council are the Ahrens Fox, American LaFrance, Buffalo, Mack, Stutz and White.

who are considered to be successful from their very start in life, but this thing, Opportunity, overtakes men at all ages, and in all walks of life. The question is not "when it comes", but "will you know it and grasp it when opportunity presents itself?" He cited cases of great men, Lincoln and Grant, who had been what the world calls failures, until their opportunity came and they grasped it.

His talk, which was interpolated with well-chosen bits of humor, was concluded with Kipling's "What makes a Man?"

Mr. Muir also entertained the members of Rotary with several popular songs, the rendition of which added much to the zest and polity of the occasion. Mr. William Mulvey, of Plainfield, was also a guest of Rotary on Tuesday.

Martin Next Speaker

Next Tuesday noon the program is in charge of George Gundrum, Jr., and John F. Martin, of Elizabeth, who is declared by George to be "one of the 'lives' undertakers in the State", will be the speaker. Mr. Martin is known in the circles of his profession not only in the State, but in the Nation.

He is secretary of the New Jersey State Association of Undertakers, and a Past President of the National Funeral Directors' Association. He is bound to have a message that will prove interesting.

There will be some novelty "stunts" at the next meeting, and further announcement will be made in regard to the "Charter Night" dinner. John A. Coan is chairman of this committee.

M. E. SUNDAY SCHOOL

TO HAVE CHARGE OF SERVICE

The Easter service "Dawn of Hope" published by the Adam Gelbel Music Company, will be presented by the Sunday School of the First Methodist Church Sunday evening at 7:30. The choir of both the Church and the Sunday School will sing, accompanied by the organ and full orchestra. The program promises to be interesting and helpful, and all are welcome.

JACK SOUTHARD NOW WITH JAS. BELL COMPANY

John "Jack" Southard, well known legionaire, has become affiliated with the James Bell Company, of Newark, purveyors of carnival accessories. Jack's "pep" as a member of the arrangement committee of the last Legion Jubilee, attracted members of the above concern, and negotiations were soon arranged whereby the local man has been given entire charge of the territory comprising Monmouth, Middlesex, Hudson and Essex counties. Through the efforts of Mr. Southard, the Bell company expect to cover all carnivals and jubilee attractions in these four counties, assuring the various organizations of the personal touch of Jack's magnetism.

A rather pleasing entertainment is slated for the evening of April 29th at the Baptist Church. "The Village School of Long Ago" will be presented under the direction of Mrs. Sarah Clayton. Ice cream and cake will be on sale.

Now turn your experience into profits! Don't miss another opportunity. The wealth, rapidly pouring into this section, logically belongs to YOU—if you will take the steps to secure it.

Now here is your own chance to get one of the greatest of all Mortuary and Walker developments has opened—CLIFFWOOD BEACH. $198,000 worth of property was purchased the first week. Hundreds of your neighbors stood in the driving rain at 6:30 that morning of Sunday, April 7th, waiting for the opening. Between 6 and 7 A. M. they bought $40,000 worth of lots, and $45,000 more before dark, despite the increasing scarcity of the items. You've seen enough of other Mortuary and Walker developments to realize the enormous significance of such an opening. It means unprecedented value rises.

You know now that the opportunity for exceptional profit, typical by the success of small investors in the early days of Atlantic City and Asbury Park, still exists. Right here in your own section you can people double and treble their money in a year or two in Keanburg property. Only recently, Laurence Harter multiplied values far beyond forecast as mentioned. BUS DRIVERS' ROW

LEADS TO COURT.

OTHER POLICE NEWS

On Wednesday night, four of the drivers of the red busses were brought before Police Justice Forgotton to hear complaints of each other that there has been considerable "gypping" of the others time.

Each driver complained that the other was lagging back of the scheduled time, who in turn complained about the driver of the bus ahead. It seemed that one of the drivers by holding back on his time threw the others off their schedule. When they were checked up as to their proper running time and informed that they were late, they immediately accused the "other fellow" of being guilty.

No decision could be reached as to who started the thing and after considerable debate as to the responsible party, it was too much of a problem for the Court to decide. According to the story of each of them, all hands seemed to be guilty and the Judge, restricted their licenses to operate for the period of one week, telling them that they would have seven full days to thresh the matter out among themselves.

While doing traffic duty at the Christ Church Cemetery gate on Saturday last, Motorcycle Officer McCormack signalled for cars to stop in order to allow a hearse to get out of the cemetery. Max Goldberg, of 527 Belmont avenue, Newark, evidently thought it best to take a chance and get by the gate. The officer blew his whistle stopping the car. In doing so H. J. Clouter, of 757 West Eighth street, Plainfield, ran into the car of Goldberg. Clouter reported to the police department that his car had been damaged to quite an extent, having broken a fender and a mudguard. Goldberg was given a summons to appear for a hearing at a later date.

RED MEN TO HOLD BIG BOOM MEETING

On Thursday, April 24th, Seneca Tribe No. 23 Order of Red Men will hold a district boom meeting at their lodge rooms in the K. of P. Hall.

The Board of Great Chiefs will be present at that time and some very interesting "pow-wowing" will be done. Among the many distinguished guests that are to address the tribe will be: William A. Stalcup, Great Sachem, of Bayonne, N. J.; Great Junior Sagamore, Francis J. Oughton, of New Brunswick; and Great Chief of Records H. F. Stetser, of Camden. Initiation of candidates will also take place on this evening, ending up with the usual "good eats". All members are requested to attend as the committee in charge has worked hard to make the meeting one of the outstanding affairs of the season.

Riversides Defeat Keyport Orions

In the presence of a large number of fans, the champions Riverides defeated the fast Keyport Orions on Saturday night on the Broadway Theatre Court at that place. The score was 11 to 1, the Riverides leading by a comfortable margin all throughout the game. The best work of the Riverides and their stars again proved to be their "lover" of strength. At the end of the first half the Riverides were in the lead by the score of 11 to 1.

One fact that cheered the Amber fans was that the Riverides captain, Johnnie McCree, was back at his old pivot position. "Mac" played a fine game during the first half but became winded, Hank Thomas taking his place. Allen and Burns, as usual, were in the limelight as guards and were mainly responsible for the low score rolled up by Keyport.

Caston's floor work and passing was another feature and he furnished much excitement for the large crowd of spectators. Eddie Rosen was also in good form.

The work of the Keyport referees seemed decidedly off color and occasioned many disputes. Tom Caston of this city refereed. For the Keyport team, Ross Fountain was the star, scoring four field goals and four goals from play.

The crowd at the game was about the largest that ever witnessed a game at Keyport and was made up principally of visitors from this city and Perth Amboy, who displayed their loyalty to their team by accompanying them to the burg down the bay. The following is the score and happy Riverides.

Forwards	Halfbacks
Caston	Holmes
Rosen	Burns
Centers	Fullbacks
McCree	Thomas
Guards	Tight Ends
Burns	Allen
Field Goals—Rosen 2, McCree 1, Allen, Burns, Thomas, Holles, Fountain 4.
Goals from Play—Caston 7, Fountain 4, Redner, Van Meter, Umpire, Caston.
Time of halves 30 minutes.

"MILK" PANGLOSS GOES FISHING

William Pangloss of this city is claiming quite a reputation as a fisherman. "Milk" went down to the Long Branch Pier a couple of Sundays ago and brought home with him about a hundred and twenty fish. "Milk" was asked by a friend to go fishing with him and he went down to the pier with him. He is now preparing them to be frozen as a proof of his story.

SPORTING NOTES

The Whitehairs of Bayville, will play the local Flying Five on Friday, January 11th and on this work as was announced in last week's issue. The Bayville team has booked the Hermann-Ascham Five of South River for this week's attraction.

We know a certain young man who received a "big" to a party out of town. A P. S. was added. "Please bring candy and all your friends." He didn't go.

The Totterville A. C. lost the second game of the island series on Saturday night when the Riverides defeated them by two points the score being 25 to 27. Remember that the decisive goal, O'Connell, in some game when the Riverides lost these two games on the local court again this season. The Riverides defeated both teams on the local court, although they lost to the T. A. C. in Totterville.

Mr. Murray Horton almost made his debut in pugilistic society during the past week. Almost.

Like "David Harum" we believe that a "good" man is "Do unto the other fellow the way he'd like to be done to you—ah! do it fun"—Q. M. D.

The Empire Football Eleven, of this city, journeyed to Woodbridge on Sunday and were defeated by the Raritan Juniors, of that place by the score of 36 to 6. The local boys were weighed, but put up a good game, notwithstanding the large score piled up against them. Lettie Duggan, Sullivan, and Murphy played an excellent defensive game. Connors and Murphy starred on the offense.

ODDS AND ENDS

Names of Interest Presented in Short Paragraphs for Easy Readers.

The session of night school will re-open on January 5.

W. H. Parison, agent, has sold house and two lots on Augusta street, owned by Margaret O'Brien, to Max Nebus.

Rev. Milton L. Cook, of Wyalusing, Pa., will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church on Sunday next.

The residents of Stevens avenue are anxiously awaiting the time when the sand will be removed from the new pavement.

A large number of people attended services at St. Mary's church on Christmas morning. The music was of a superior order, and greatly enjoyed.

Next Thursday the new council will meet at the City Hall to organize for the ensuing year. There is much speculation as to the changes in appointive officers.

Mr. Horace Wilson will please accept our thanks for a copy of "The Need of Vocational Education," an address delivered by Theodore W. Robinson, first vice-president of the Illinois Steel Company.

Mrs. Osborn Woolley has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Dorothy L. Brett, of Asbury Park, to Mr. Howard E. Shinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Shinn, of this city. The date for the wedding has been set for New Year's evening.

Mr. Kaufman has fallen in line and now in front of his store is a high powered incandescent light, which every night adds to the brilliancy of Broadway. This is the kind of progress that will make people take notice of our city.

On Friday night, December 19th, at 11.30 o'clock, Alice, beloved child of Joseph and Sophia O'Brien, died after a short illness at the age of 2 years, 1 month, and 10 days. Funeral took place from residence of her parents, 108 John street, Monday afternoon at 2.00 o'clock. The funeral was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. Interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery. Lee J. Thompson was funeral director.

The D. B. S. Lodge, No. 86 will hold their annual private Christmas reception and dance, on Saturday evening, December 27, in Bundeon's Hall, Main street. A good time is expected as the committee in charge, are working hard to make the affair a success. During the evening three gifts will be awarded to the persons holding the lucky numbers. Santa Claus will also be there to entertain and distribute presents to the children. Hans Miller's orchestra of three pieces will furnish music for the occasion.

Chief of Police McDonnell went to Bordentown last week to arrest Winfield Dubell, formerly of this city, on a charge of desertion made by his wife, who lives on Augusta street. The man left this city about two years ago, deserting his wife and two children. His whereabouts were learned but when Chief McDonnell went to Bordentown it was found that the man was suffering in an advanced stage of tuberculosis, and a certificate was received from a physician stating that he was unable to be removed. It is reported that the man has since died.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Miss Pearl M. Coward entertained a number of her friends at her home on Prospect street, on Saturday evening, December 20th, in honor of her eighteenth birthday. The evening was spent in a most delightful manner and musical selections and games formed the programme of the evening.

Refreshments were served and the guests departed at a late hour, after wishing their young hostess many happy returns of the day. Miss Coward received many beautiful gifts. Those present were: Misses Jennie Manhattan, Mary Manhattan, Helen Thomas, Jennie Hendrickson, Gertrude Kamps, Clarvenia Lawew, Ella Bennett, Sallie O'Connor, Anna O'Connor, Katherine Hickey, Hattie Christian, Hattie Coward, Pearl Coward, and Bertha Hyer, of Belford; Messrs. SKIRMISHING FOR THE BATTLE OF 1914

Congressman Scully, who is winning support at Washington, looking up as a candidate for United States Senator and is likely to be Wittpenn's running mate.

(From the Hudson Dispatch.)
 New Jersey will see its greatest and most important political battle in all history three years hence, and already the main draftsmen are getting their political maps laid out for the fray.

Democracy will most certainly face a Republican party fighting as it has never fought before to regain the Presidency of the United States, with New Jersey, the home-state of Woodrow Wilson, as the pivotal state; but the fighting in New Jersey will not centre entirely on the Presidency, primarily important as that may be, but hinged very closely to the campaign for President will be the elections for Governor and for United States Senator.

It is now far too early to prognosticate what the lines may be at that time, much less the outcome, the only certainties being that Wilson will be a candidate for re-election as President, and that Wittpenn will make his third fight to become Governor of New Jersey. In fact, both of these moves are already under way. President Wilson, with his long sightedness, actually began to plan for his second term before elected for his first one, for his first election was so certain that he was able to make moves right from the start that would have a bearing upon his candidacy of 1916.

Wittpenn in The Field.

From the day of Wittpenn's withdrawal last summer, upon receipt of a letter from President Wilson refusing his support to Wittpenn for the nomination against Fielder, the ex-mayor of Jersey City has been craftily making his plans for 1916, just as he began to plan for the Governorship nomination, for the 1913 campaign.

But his present plans are being made on far different lines from those of his two previous attempts. He has been tamed—temporarily. He still has his enormous ego, and his ambitions to boss everything are just as strong now as ever before—possibly stronger; but he no longer attempts to force himself with that vigor that characterized the man with a political machine at his back.

He goes with the tide now; he no longer dominates, he doesn't even dominate, he hardly leads—he is just feeling his way; carefully, craftily, almost stealthily.

Last time out his one aim seemed to be to make the right moves; this time his attention seems to be more centered upon avoiding the wrong moves than upon making the right ones, though the line of demarcation must be admitted to be of a fine distinction. But the idea to be driven home is that he is ever bent on watching for the shoals.

Every Avenue Covered.

Every political avenue is being covered already, with the fight almost three years ahead. No political move is made in any part of the state that Wittpenn and his allies do not watch, and attempt to shape to the interests of the tall young man from Hudson county.

One of the most important arrangements for the campaign will be the selection of the right man as his running mate for United States Senator. At the present time the most likely looking man is Congressman Thomas J. Scully, of Middlesex county, who represents the Third Congressional district, which is made up of Middlesex, Monmouth and Ocean counties.

Scully's Quick Rise.

Scully has had a remarkably quick rise in politics. He is endowed with natural political instincts inherited from a remarkable father and great wealth—also inherited from his father.

Not only is the selection of Albert Bollschweiler, of Perth Amboy, Sheriff of Middlesex county, for appointment as United States Marshal a decided victory for Scully, but this achievement in itself presages his entrance into the field for United States Senator at the expiration of the term of United States Senator James E. Martine, whom he defeated in the marshaling fight.

Scores One Over Senator Martine. For many years the selection of the men to be named as United States marshals has been considered the prerogative of the United States Senators. This practice has been followed in recent years, and for that matter for the last decade. Therefore, the selection of a man recommended by a Congressman is all the more noticeable, and is construed by friends of Mr. Scully to indicate that he has the friendship of President Wilson at this time.

Last spring, when there was some doubt as to the selection of a gubernatorial candidate, the Congressman's name was mentioned, but later, when the fight narrowed down to Wittpenn and Scully, the name of Scully was dropped.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

AND LIGHTNING

It was on June 15, 1752—let's see that was one hundred and seventy-six years ago today—that Benjamin Franklin demonstrated the coalescence of electricity and "lightning". We wonder what they thought it was before "Ben" made his discovery. Well, I wager that they ducked under beds, hid themselves in dark closets and down into cellars just as many people do today when a big thunder storm comes to town. After all this is perfectly all right if it relieves the nervous tension and brings comfort to those who are afflicted with a terrible dread of thunder and lightning.

Franklin was convinced that lightning was an electrical phenomenon. So he experimented with a kite. The kite was made of a large silk handkerchief, the stick was a piece of iron wire. The string was of hemp, except the hand end, which was silk. An iron key was fastened to the hemp string a little above the silk hand piece.

One muggy, hot day (which was June 15, 1752) Franklin and his friends went to the corner of Race and Eighth streets, Philadelphia. Storm clouds were gathering and this is just what Franklin wanted for his experiment.

The kite was sent up. The hempen string stiffened and swelled like an angry kitten's tail. Franklin touched the iron key with his knuckles and a spark flashed. It is recorded that again and again Franklin drew the spark, and so the experiment was a success and the discovery made.

It is said that it was Franklin who first proposed the construction of sharp pointed lightning rods for the protection of buildings. Franklin died at Philadelphia in 1790, he was eighty-four years old.

It is certainly wiser to be alone in this cold world than to bring up a boy to play on the saxophone.

THE CRITICS

It is a strange thing that the men who know exactly how to run a newspaper and will tell you about it are always engaged in some other line of business. And the meek and lowly editor merely blinks and winks and does the best he can.

"UNSER FRITZ"

Frederick III., German Emperor and father of the last Emperor, William II, who is now exiled, died just forty years ago today. Emperor Frederick married the Princess Royal, Victoria on January 25, 1858. Emperor Frederick was a big, blonde man with a sunny disposition. He was beloved by the German people who nick named him "Unser Fritz". There fell a King, not King alone in blood.

Nor Royal throne, by right of which he reigned.

But by the royalty of soul unstained, and heart that beat on for his people's good."—Iris D. Cochrane

FIRST LIBERTY LOAN

On June 15, 1917, First Liberty Loan Station was closed. The time period for subscriptions began on May 1, 1917. This loan was for $200,000,000—two billion dollars—to be repaid at 4 1/2% per cent. Most of the $200,000,000 was subscribed in less than 24 hours. The loan was a great success and it was a great help to the government. A BROKEN HEARTED "WET"

Bing bang, ring, a-o-o-o. Gentleman, be seated. One tender with the beautiful false teeth and expensive red nose, will now sing. Oh, Somebody, Somebody, Buddy, Put Something Over On Me. Sing me a song of malt and hops. One with a gay refrain. Sing me a song of the good old brewery. That I may be merry again.

Chorus— I just can't buddy, I would if I could.

For I'm so sad, you see. Oh, somebody, somebody, buddy. Put something over on me!

Sing me a song of foaming shells and schooners. When they drew it from the wood. Sing me a song of days sadly gone. I just can't buddy, I would if I could.

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL SUNDAY SCHOOL

Don't forget, school meets in morning at 9:45.

Sunday being third Sunday of the month will be Missionary Day.

June 24th will be Calendar Day. Let all collectors take care of their work next week and be ready with full report.

The printing for the advertising of the Union Sunday School Excursion has been delayed awaiting definite information as to starting and leaving time for the trains. The committee have been after the railroad for this information and hope to have the bills out early next week. You know the date, July 12th.

The Sunday School is anxiously waiting to see what the Building and Improvement Committee are planning to do as to decorating the interior of the Sunday School room when painting outside of church buildings.

Let every member, especially the Officers and Teachers, be on time for Sunday School session at 9:45 a. m. The Children's Day exercises by the children last Sunday evening were appreciated by the audience and the faces of the little folks showed that they enjoyed it too. The Pastor was much pleased with the liberal response of the congregation in the collections for the Educational Fund which is handled by the Board of Education of the church for the purpose of loaning money to worthy young people desiring an education, loan being returned when the parties are able to earn the money.

Sections Without Roads

There are no permanent roads in Newfoundland and Labrador; in summer the sea provides means of communication between the scattered hamlets, while in winter the whole snow-covered and frozen country is one broad highway.

Prussia Took Lead

Prussia was first to take action in regard to international copyrights, passing an act in 1896, which gave protection of the Prussian statute to the writers of all countries which would reciprocate.
