GIVE BOARD THEIR OPINION

Chamber of Commerce Gives Board of Education Their Opinion on Nursing Proposition — Expect to Elect Officers January 24th.

The Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors held their regular meeting in their rooms on Wednesday evening. James D. Van Pelt, President, occupied the chair.

Treasurer R. C. Stephenson rendered his annual report which exhibited a satisfactory financial condition at the close of the year just passed.

The Secretary was directed to send a letter to the Board of Education expressing the regret of the members of the Chamber of Commerce that the High School debating team was not taking an active part in the debates this term as they did last year, that it was the judgment of its members that this mental practice was highly beneficial to the pupils who had so well acquitted themselves in this branch of training, and to express the hope that this line of mental practice would not be neglected.

A communication was received from the Royston Paper Company of Boston asking for information as to any vacant building in this city, 40x100 feet suitable for their purpose, as they desired to move their business to some point in this vicinity.

A communication was also received from the N. J. State Chamber of Commerce relative to the meeting to be held in Newark, N. J., on January 11th, when the discussions would be especially devoted to considering legislation, arbitration of commercial and other disputes.

The Chamber of Commerce passed resolutions approving of the attitude of State Senator Larson respecting his proposed legislation concerning the interstate canal, and assuring the Senator that this project would result in great benefit to the nation, the state, and all the communities along its borders. Also resolutions concerning the advisability of the privileges of the act providing for the creating of Boards of Public Works being extended to cities of the third class.

The following letter was forwarded to the Board of Education, regarding the Nurse proposition.

South Amboy Jan. 10, 1923.

Board of Education,

South Amboy, N. J.

Gentlemen:

We have your valued communication of the 6th inst., requesting from us an expression of the view of the Chamber of Commerce on the merits of the nursing proposition in this community.

This Board accepts with pleasure this opportunity to express its views, and after considerable thought on the matter, we consider that the financial condition of this city is a prohibiting factor against assuming the expense heretofore borne by the State, and therefore make the following recommendation.

A Red Cross nurse is now employed within this city doing similar work, and is both qualified and willing to undertake the duties performed by the nurses from the Bureau of Child Hygiene, therefore we earnestly recommend that she be placed in charge of this work.

Respectfully yours,

P. H. LOCKER, Secretary.

It is expected that the Chamber of Commerce will elect officers and its Board of Directors at the meeting to be held on Wednesday evening, January 24th.

FERDINAND BUSCH

Ferdinand Busch, a resident of this city, died very suddenly last Saturday morning at his home, 429 Leffert street.

Mr. Busch was 75 years of age and was born in Germany. The funeral services were held from his home on Tuesday morning, the Rev. R. R. Steir of the Sayreville Presbyterian Church officiating. E. S. Mason and Son had charge of funeral arrangements.

AMERICAN LEGION NOTES

American Legion activity for 1923 is starting with a rush. There are lots of good times in store for the members this year, and every ex-service man in South Amboy should "sign on the dotted line," and become a member of one of the liveliest posts in the State.

The Auxiliary is likewise planning to make 1923 a banner year. Miss Catherine Clearly, president of this organization, favors a joint meeting of the Legion and Auxiliary trustees to discuss the year's program. This plan seems to be an excellent one, as it will avoid the conflict of dates and insure closer cooperation of the two organizations.

The Lincoln's birthday dance will be one of the next events on the social program of the Post.

Several members of the local Post are planning to attend the big Legion rally at New Brunswick next Tuesday night.

Commander Chris Mulrain is "hot-footing" it around the city signing up new members for the Post this year. The gonk purveyor of hamburger steaks is bound to have the Post set up a record for the year.

John Conlogue, past commander, has been elected chairman of the Board of Trustees for 1923.

"Bill" O'Toole, senior vice commander of the local post, has been appointed by County Commander Ronald Kleckner as county publicity officer. Past Commander Conlogue has been made county organization officer. S. Newell James, of this post, who was elected county adjutant, has been compelled to resign this office due to business reasons. The vacancy has been filled by the selection of "Joe" McLaughlin, of Perth Amboy.

Emil Anderson, formerly of this Post, is associate editor of the "Morning Report," a publication issued by the Bluefield (West Virginia) Post of the American Legion.

Harold Hoffman, of the local Post, who is treasurer of the Fourth District, New Jersey American Legion, attended a meeting of the Convalescent Home Committee at Toms River Sunday. This committee has recently purchased the Haines estate at Toms River and plans to open the home, for the use of ex-service men, in April. When alterations and furnishings are completed the home will represent an investment of over $25,000.00.

Entertainment Officer Harry A. Leonard, promises "beaucoup eats" every meeting night.

Don't forget to mark down on your calendar the 22nd of February. That's the night of the Washington's Birthday dance in the high school auditorium. Phil Downs is chairman of the committee, and the affair promises to be a big success.

A number of members of the local Post will attend the gathering of Middlesex Voiture, No. 128, "Forty and Eight" to be held in Hotel Klein, New Brunswick, to-night, (Saturday). Dinner will be served at 6:45 o'clock. Those wishing to attend should meet at the corner of Broadway and Augusta street at 6 o'clock and transportation will be furnished.

A committee has been named to secure a bronze tablet bearing the names of the comrades who have "gone west," to be placed in the club house. Harry A. Leonard is chairman.

January 25th is the big "Get-Together" meeting of the Post and Auxiliary. There will be a splendid social program and the meeting will be full of "pep" and Legion activity. Every member of the Post and Auxiliary should be present.

How about an old fashioned straw-ride and dance? A committee has been appointed to arrange such an event, securing, if possible, the clubhouse at Cheesequake for the affair. The plan seems to meet with approval, and it should be a huge success when held. The date will probably be in April.

Past Commander John Conlogue is heading a committee to secure a Legion standard and colors before Memorial Day. Other Posts are proud to own such emblems, and they would make a splendid acquisition for the local Post.

Commander Chris Mulrain and Harold Hoffman are members of the sick visitation committee for January. Slip the names of any comrades who are "under the weather" to these boys.

Watch for the big movie benefit. Love time since the Post ran one.

AGAIN ASKS FOR LEASE OF BEACH

Morris Alpine Again Submits Proposition to Council for Lease of Beach at "Minnow Ditch"—C. F. Thompson Applies for Position.

Morris Alpine, a local merchant, in a communication to the Common Council, on Tuesday evening, asks that they reopen negotiations for the leasing of the beach around what is known as the "Minnow Ditch." In his proposition, he asks the city not to let or lease any adjacent property for a similar enterprise, the lease to run for a period of five years with an option of renewal for a similar period, and to cover a stretch of land of about 400 feet between Portia and Catherine streets.

Mr. Alpine offers to maintain and keep the beach and bathing houses in a clean and sanitary condition, and not to permit any public nuisance to establish there. On motion of Councilman Delaney, the communication was laid on the table and the clerk instructed to notify Mr. Alpine to meet with the Council at a regular business meeting.

A complaint was received from the Monmouth Lighting Company regarding the breaking of street lights in different sections of the town, especially at Felts and John streets, by boys throwing snowballs and using them as targets. On motion of Councilman Delaney the communication was received, and the Chief of Police instructed to use every effort possible to apprehend the boys doing the damage.

A communication was received from the Secretary of the Mechanicsville Hose Company, advising the Council of their fire truck being out of commission for the past three weeks, due to badly needed repairs, and as their treasury will not permit having the work done themselves, they ask that $100.00 be appropriated by the city to cover this work. On motion of Councilman Delaney, this communication was referred to the Committee on Fire.

A communication was received from Mrs. Helen M. Van Pelt, chairman of the Civic Committee of the Woman's Club, calling the new council's attention to a petition, which they presented to the old council a few months ago, in reference to the establishment of a building code in this city, and asking the present council to grant their petition. On motion of Councilman Delaney, this communication was referred to the Council as a whole, the City Solicitor and the City Engineer.

Charles J. Agan, Secretary of the Shade Tree Commission, in a communication to the council, submitted a proposed ordinance covering the protection of trees, shrubs, etc., and asked that the same be considered by the council at an early date. On motion of Councilman Delaney, this communication and proposed ordinance was referred to the council as a whole.

The Council was notified in writing by Reuben Forgotson, Police Justice, that he was unable to submit a detailed report at the meeting Tuesday evening, but would submit a report before the next regular meeting.

The Clerk read a letter from Mrs. Margaret T. Kerr, stating she would be unable to accept the honor conferred on her by the Mayor as a member of the Library Board.

In lieu of Mrs. Kerr being unable to serve on the Library Board, Mayor Chase appointed Mrs. Emma R. Holman to serve as a member for five years, which action was confirmed by the Council as a whole.

A communication from the Star Building and Loan Association, requesting rebate on taxes paid by them covering certain of their members, who are exempt firemen or ex-service men, was on motion of Councilman Delaney referred to the Committee on Taxes.

M. F. Naele, Fire Chief, notified the Council that four lengths of new hose were burned at the fire in the Thomas building last month, and asked that this matter be taken up

PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION

DEMAND WATER REPORT

On "Wednesday the Public Utility Commission asked the Supreme Court for a mandamus writ, compelling this city to file a report of the operations of our water plant for the year ending December 31, 1921.

The commission set forth that this city not only failed to file this report, as required by law, but failed to have a representative present at a hearing in the matter held on December 5, 1922.

Justice Trenchard of the court set February 20th as the date for argument on a rule to show why the writ should not issue.

Other municipalities failing to file reports for the same year were Bridgeton, Beach Haven, Wenonah, Avalon, North Arlington and Union township.

HAROLD G. HOFFMAN

TAKES OATH OF OFFICE

Assemblyman Harold G. Hoffman, of this city, took his oath of office as a member of the 147th Legislature on Tuesday at Trenton. The Assembly organized with William M. Evans, of Passaic, as speaker of the House, Joseph A. Corio, of Atlantic, as majority leader and William George, of Hudson, as the Democratic minority leader.

The local man fared exceptionally well in committee appointments, heading the Assembly joint committee on Treasurer's Accounts, and also being appointed to the committee on Banking and Insurance. He was also made a member of the Committee on Boroughs and Borough Commissions, and on the joint committee for the Home for Feeble-Minded Women. Assemblyman Thomas L. Hanson, of Perth Amboy, was appointed to the joint committees on State Reform School and Public Buildings and Grounds, and the standing committees on Riparian Rights and Corporations. Assemblyman Fred Devos, of New Brunswick, received appointments to the committee on miscellaneous business and the joint committee on sinking funds.

Assemblyman Hoffman received many beautiful floral offerings from various organizations and his friends throughout the county.

Local people who were in Trenton for the opening of the Legislature were Mr. and Mrs. James Hackett, Mrs. Harold Hoffman, Thomas E. Capner and Frank C. Hoffman. Mr. Hackett has received an appointment as doorkeeper in the Senate. The local man served in this capacity last year and made so many friends that Senator Larson was importuned by his colleagues in the Senate to secure his reappointment.

CAST NOW SELECTED

FOR OH! OH! CINDY

Mrs. Helen Harkins will appear in the title role of Cindy in the local production of "Oh, Oh, Cindy" when it is presented here January 19th and 20th at St. Mary's Hall under the auspices of St. Mary's Parent-Teachers Association. This announcement was made to us today by Mr. R. G. Woods, the director, who is here as a representative of the John B. Rogers Producing Company. Playing opposite her will be James Birmingham in the part of Stephen Craig, her betrothed. Both of these parts are very well suited to the people who have been cast to play them. During the play there are a number of songs and dances in which both participate to good advantage.

One role which is certain to create favor with the audience is that played by John Triggs. The character is that of Terrence O'Hooligan, manager of the "Follies" and affectionately known to the company as "Godmother." Few people know him as a spry, but in his interpretation of the character he bids fair to rival Titania.

The part of Blanche Blodia, or "Goldy" offers a rare opportunity for Miss Helen Dooling to display her abilities as a dancer. She plays prominently in the production with the Misses Margaret Donovan, Margaret Cusick, Helen Emmons, and Catherine McKeon and Ted Mahoney, Ray Kress and William Grace as the "Three Bears."

The role of Robinson Crusoe will be portrayed by John McDonald, whose antics at the rehearsals keep those participating in the play in a constant roar of laughter. Friday and Saturday are played by Arthur Scully and William Brophy respectively; and their work thus far bids fair to stop the show. Probably the best comic song in the production is that sung by Friday during the first scene of Act II, "I Want a Chance to Beat that Drum."

Lily, who acts as a maid to Cindy and who later appears as the cannibal princess, will be played by Miss Sarah O'Connor. This part is one of the best and funniest roles in the entire cast.

John Crozier as Felix Gotrox, sometimes called Santa Claus, producer of the "Follies" is unusually clever.

Among the songs which are certain to score favorably are, "Oh, Miss White," "I'm the One," "Come Along to the Movies," "Oh, What a Bump," "Quack," says the Duck," "I Want a Chance to Beat that Drum," "You're all the World to Me," and the musical finale, "Songs of Yesterday and Today."

The dances give promise of being especially artistic as no expense has been spared either in costumes or scenery. In the groups will be seen fairies, flowers, nymphs, fire-flies, gnomes, cannibals, show girls, harlequins, etc. Other groups include Indians, Irish colleens, Quakers, Japanese maidens, Hula girls, beauties of Hindustan and others too numerous to mention. The Starlight group gives promise of being unusually interesting as does the Ballet.

Those who will appear in the choruses and groups are as follows: Fife and drum—The Misses A. Thompson, A. Scully, H. Maloney, M. Geregthy, V. Dooling, C. Sullivan, L. Quigg, C. Keenan, M. Coan, M. McCarthy, G. Kierst, A. Nicorvo, M. Lovely and A. Grimley.

Indians—The Misses H. Sullivan, C. Grimley, M. Wurga, and R. Conway.

Japanese—The Misses A. McKenzie, N. Coleman, T. Kilcommins, and M. Parin.

Irish—The Misses A. Jacobs and M. Munn.

Quakers—The Misses A. Carroll, C. Grace, M. Brady, M. Maloney, and V. Medeham.

Harlequins—The Misses K. Cheeseman, H. Ryan, M. Kerwin, H. Mullen, M. Brophy, D. Hickey, G. Brahney, C. Cooney, C. Coan, L. Ginter, G. Geregthy and L. Mulhern.

Two little girls in blue—Misses Kerome and Dewan.

Show and Chorus Girls—The Misses Anna Hickey, Irene Smith, Margaret

Keenan, Tessie Delaney, Bess Birmingham, Madge Mahoney, Margaret Lenahan, Mae Lyons, Mrs. J. Harvey, Ella Bulman, Isabella Farrell, Molly Salmon, Margaret Ryan, Kitty Dolan, Tessie Triggs, Anna Grimley, Margaret Munn, Mary Quigg, Mabel Watts, Mae Duggan, Anna Munn, Julia McGuire, Kitty Sullivan, Anna Fitzmorris, Margaret Brancey, Claire McCarthy, Dorothy Watts, Mae Tringley, Margaret Kress, Dorothy Dwyer, Gertrude Mullane, Bess Sutliff, Helen Monaghan, Katherine Miller, Katherine Cleary, Katherine Geregthy, Anna Mullen, Helen Duggan.

Chorus Men—The Messrs. Edward Emmons, William O'Toole, Joseph Geregthy, Joseph Triggs, James Borlund, Francis Ryan, John Dooling, Lewis Tringley, Salvador Albattello, Vincent Treblewz, Joseph Kress, Charles Lovely, Leo Brady, Felix Melanaphy, George Cheeseman.

"The Crier"—Miss Catherine Mullen.

Soloists—Mrs. Edward O'Connor, Miss Dorothy Hickey.

Phonist—Mrs. Regina McGovern.

Oriental—The Misses A. Chevalier, C. Rue, H. Downs and R. Dooling.

Mr. John A. Coan, chairman of the Ticket Committee reports that the seat sale has started out very satisfactorily. Tickets may be procured from any member of the cast or chorus.

Tickets may be exchanged for reserved seats at the office of John A. Coan at 7 p. m., on and after January 15th. There will be a special matinee for children on Saturday afternoon, January 20th.

FIDELITY TRUST COMPANY'S

STATEMENT SHOWS BIG GAIN

Maintaining by a big margin its lead as the largest banking and fiduciary institution in New Jersey, the Fidelity Union Trust Company of Newark, in its latest published statement shows a capital, surplus and undivided profits of over $9,500,000, resources of $67,044,762.46, and deposits of $57,073,538.31, the latter figure being an increase of nearly $8,000,000 over the institution's total of a year ago. The company recently declared a quarterly dividend of 5 per cent, thus placing its stock on a twenty per cent annual basis and at the same time the directors granted to the institution's 350 officers and employees a bonus equal, in each case, to five per cent of their annual salary.

It was said today by Uzal H. McCarter, president of the company, that the growth of the institution's business in its commercial banking, trust, real estate mortgage, title-insurance, safe deposit, savings, investment, and foreign departments has exceeded, and is daily passing, the brightest anticipation and estimates of its directors and officers and that the company is almost constantly in need of more room for the accommodation of its rapidly increasing number of customers and employees. It now occupies three floors in one of the big Prudential buildings and also the four story structure adjoining its general quarters.

"While all our departments, particularly our commercial banking and savings departments, have shown a most gratifying growth" said President McCarter, "the business of our real estate title insurance department and that of our trust department has shown extraordinary gains. In our trust department, for instance, we are safeguarding and handling estates and trusts that aggregate, in value, more than $200,000,000."

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS

LOSE TO PERTH AMBOY GIRLS

The local high school girls were badly beaten in a basketball game on the high school court on Wednesday afternoon, the score being 55 to 6.

It seemed as though the girls from across the river dropped them in from all angles, and had an easy time in winning. Miss Ward did all the scoring for the local team.

WOMEN WORKERS

The problem of labor has always been a difficult one. Each section has its own problems, and no two alike.

Every year the industrial field is invaded by an ever increasing number of women, until today it is stated, that in the gainful occupations, out of every four persons so employed one is a woman.

While no one denies the women the right to labor, yet it is a question, whether it is an advantage to a nation to have its women in the field of toilers.

Now that women have the right of vote, it is well to look at things as they are, and where evil exists, attempt at least to right the wrong.

With the advent of women into the field of labor, there will be advantage taken of the fact, that few women expect to pass the remainder of their lives in labor, but have entered the field, in order to supply themselves with extra luxuries, that the family cannot afford to give them, until that day when they leave the factory, shop, mill or business house to enter the marriage state.

Thus, a dangerous competition arises between the single woman and the married man, the one working to supply herself with extra pleasure, the other working that he might be able to supply his family with the necessities of life.

Women will do the labor world a power of good, if they insist that the wages paid shall be equal that paid to a man for the same work, for if that day comes when as she hopes, some man will marry her, how is the man going to support her and keep a decent home, if she in the meantime has broken down the scale of wages? So that the wages, while it might gain pleasure for a single woman, supported in part by her family, it would fall far short of sustaining a home with even the necessities of life, with none of the luxuries; for a married man depending on his daily toil for his support.

Then again some of the factories which employ women are not as they should be. A rigid factory inspection should be insisted upon; and the requirements of the law lived up to. It would seem as if here was a field where the Women's Clubs, and other organizations in the city could do a mighty service in behalf of their less fortunate sisters, who are obliged to work in order to live.

FAIL TO LEAVE

PRESIDENT'S CABINET

Hon. Albert B. Fall, Secretary of the Interior, follows in the footsteps of Will Hays, in leaving the official family of the President. With the attractive offers held out to men high in public office, by private concerns, and the high cost of official living in Washington, it is becoming a difficult matter to find men of a high order of intellect and business ability to accept public office.

True official living in Washington is becoming out of reason, and certainly without the reach of the man, who is depending on his salary to support him. This may be due to the fact that men of great wealth have from time to time, been elected to the House and Senate, and with their lavish manner of entertainments have increased the demands upon the official body, that many times is beyond the financial ability of the ordinary man to meet, hence the necessity of returning to private life.

There is a danger to our democratic life, in the excessive cost of living in Washington, for in time it will act as a barrier, to the man of ordinary means, in seeking to represent the people in the National government at Washington. To have the House of Representatives and the Senate to say nothing of the President's official advisors, to be made up entirely of men of great wealth would be a decided calamity to a popular government.

It would seem to be opportune to start an agitation for plain living at the seat of government. Our earlier governmental family did not lose anything, in the eyes of the world, by their simple manner of living, and as for their mental ability that is beyond question. For plain living is conducive to high thinking and the man who can fulfill his obligations to his country and his God, and live within his income, is the man who can best represent our peculiar form of government.

When wealth becomes a necessity to the man seeking a place high in the affairs of the nation, then begins the decay of the Republic.

PUBLIC OPINION

South Amboy, January 10, 1923
To the Editor South Amboy Citizen,
Dear Sir:

It is highly gratifying to the taxpayer to observe that our new Mayor has given prompt evidence that his message is not meant to be simply a parade-day exhibition. This is something out of the usual order, as many messages appear to pass into the pigeonhole of obscurity, seldom to be heard of again.

The Mayor appears to have accepted the task before him as a business proposition, to which business rules and usages are to be applied. It is evident that he has read aright the appeal of his fellow citizens, presented by the election returns. By general consent he has marked out for his plans the only path that can lead to any escape from present demoralized conditions. He appears to be putting to a practical test the ideas that have been the popular theme of discussion in office, store or street, wherever men have met and have given expression to their sentiments respecting deteriorating conditions, that have been brought about chiefly by ill advised expenditures, and a lack of appreciation of what must be the inevitable results.

"Look before you leap," is the advice he offers. "Count the cost," is an adage that he has emphasized. He says, cut off the surplus limbs that absorb more than they give. His order has issued to look down deep for the causes of our leakages, and to find the exact spots to which the remedies must be applied. That he is earnestly impressed with the work he has been given to do is evident. He has brought business experience to bear upon his work. His recommendations will not be of a class to be lightly passed by, or toned down to a comatose state.

No common council in this city for many years has had an equal opportunity to render the people a worthwhile service. The time to serve partisanship purposes has passed. Its evil consequences remain, to be removed. The intelligent citizens are looking to our governing body to lend all possible help to the hands of the Mayor. This is the substance of their stewardship. The people are looking for deeds, not intentions, for concrete purposes, not apologies. The "ifs" and the "buts" have no place on the public thought. The uppermost need of the present is energetic team service. "Follow the leader," is the slogan that appeals at this time. Follow until it can be unquestionably shown that a better policy can be applied.

If harmonious team service is made the practice of the present council, this year will be made a year of constructive advancement for South Amboy.

An Observing Taxpayer.

RESIDENTS OF NEW JERSEY USING LESS WATER

Figures compiled by the Water Resources Branch of the State Department of Conservation and Development show that the average daily consumption of water per capita throughout the State is gradually decreasing. During 1921 the average daily consumption per person was 109 gallons. With a population of about 2,950,000, the total daily supply required was therefore about 321,550,000 gallons. The average per capita consumption for 1920 was 114 gallons per day while for 1918 the allowance was 117 gallons per day.

In commenting on this fact, H. T. Critchlow, Hydraulic Engineer of the State Department of Conservation and Development, said, "This apparent decrease in the quantity of water consumed per person cannot be traced either to a decline in the popularity of the bathtub or a decreased use of water for drinking purposes. It is due mainly to the increased use of meters on water supply systems, which tend to prevent waste."

9,000 MILES IN NINETY DAYS

Portland, Oregon, to Boston and return via Philadelphia in a two-year-old Chevrolet sedan in something less than ninety days proved some interesting things to Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Speller concerning the stamina of their machine. Their route covered 9,008 miles, and most of the camping at night was done inside the sedan. A bed was constructed by placing a special seat in front so it could be let down and brought back flush with the rear cushion. Only two nights were spent in hotels. No mechanical trouble was suffered. Mr. Speller writes of his Chevrolet: "It has proved its mettle; it is an unusually good car."

Don't place too much confidence in a man who thinks he understands women.

TEMPUS FUGIT

A motorist stopped at the roadside to buy some especially attractive apples which a farmer boy offered for sale. The order given, the lad disappeared toward the house to fill it from his reserve stock. After a long lapse he returned.

"Are you the boy who went for my apples?" asked the exasperated motorist.

"Yes, sir," was the meek answer. "Good gracious—how you have grown!"

Many holders of 1918 War Savings stamps in South Amboy, who intended to exchange them for Treasury Savings Certificates have been so absorbed in holiday affairs that they have temporarily overlooked the matter.

Such persons will be glad to learn through Postmaster James W. Rea that it is not yet too late to make the exchange, furthermore attention is particularly called to the fact that Treasury Savings Certificates, issued up to January 15, 1923, in exchange for 1918 War Savings Stamps will up to January 1, 1923, thus there will be no loss of interest, not even for a single day. After January 15, all certificates will bear the date on which they are issued. The Postmaster anticipates that many people will take advantage of this opportunity to continue their investment with the Government.

LEGION DANCE

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

Luke A. Lovely Post of the American Legion, under the leadership of Chris Mulrain, the new commander, is starting off with a snap, which augurs well for the success of the Post during the year 1923.

The Third Annual Washington's Birthday Dance, on the evening of February 22nd, in the High School auditorium is well under way, and under the direction of a committee composed of Philip A. Downs, chairman, Harry Mathis, James Harkins and M. Lee Stultz, assisted by the Entertainment Officer, Harry Leonard. Dance lovers, and those who do not dance but who are keen for the success of the legion, will do well to attend the dance on February 22nd, as the novelties, the orchestra, and the surprises, will delight everyone.

It is no secret that the committee, on the coming dance, with the valued assistance of the Woman's Auxiliary, expects and intends to surpass everything in the line of dances undertaken by the Legion up to this time.

THE LADY WAS RIGHT

The lady who was thinking of buying an automobile had had the agent show her the carburetor, the differential, the transmission and everything she thought seemed important about the car. Then she said: "Now, are you sure you've shown me all the things I ought to know about?"

"Why, yes, madam, I think so," replied the agent.

"Well, then, where is the depreciation? I am told that is one of the most important things to know about when you are getting a car."

PRESBYTERIAN PARAGRAPHS

Next Sabbath morning we are to have the privilege of having with us at the eleven o'clock service, Mr. Conrad Henken, one of the Secretaries of Near East Relief, who was a member of the party that visited the Near East last summer. He saw the work among the refugees and orphans in and around Constantinople, Derindje, Batoum and all the principal cities in Armenia as far as Erivan the Capitol of Armenia. Returning from Trans-caucasia, Mr. Henken visited Syria, Palestine, Egypt, and was an eye-witness of many scenes of suffering, and this comprehensive study of conditions in the Near East he will have at his disposal in bringing a message to us at this service.

At this morning service those who have infants and children whom they desire to consecrate by baptism will present these children.

At the evening service, 7:30 p. m., we shall have our second consideration under the general theme "Come and See," the particular subject being: "Testing By Tasting."

At the mid-week service, Wednesday, 7:30 p. m., we shall listen to "A Distinct and Specific Call."

LEGION GETS RIGHTS TO

AMERICANISM PICTURES

The American Legion has acquired exclusive distribution and exhibition rights of the screen classic "The Man Without a Country," according to an announcement from the office of Lemuel Bolles, national adjutant of the Legion. The rights carry with them the ownership of the negative and ten copies of the film, all of which are transferred to the Legion by S. H. Boynton, of Chicago. The film is valued at $60,000.

Immediately after completing negotiations for the acquisition of the film, Mr. Bolles announced that the picture would be placed in distribution through the American Legion Film Service in connection with the Legion's Americanism campaign.

"We want this picture shown in every city, town and hamlet in America," declared Mr. Bolles. "It will inspire a finer appreciation of our government and of the country we are privileged to call our own. 'The Man Without a Country' is one play that carries a real message. It thrills to the core and sends its audiences back a second Bolles announced that distribution of the picture in cities above population would be conducted by Mr. Boynton, the former assistant by Gene Harrison, former a member of the staff of the "Indian Legion Weekly," and Capt. C. Flaherty, of Indianapolis, who been active in Legion circles.

In cities under 45,000 population, the film will be distributed through the Legion Film service.

Proceeds from the exhibition of the film will be divided with the local posts and will be used in aiding the disabled ex-service men, the furtherance of Americanism work and other interests of the Legion.

At the Liberty and Hudson

No man in the amusement field knows his Broadway better than George M. Cohan. And why wouldn't George M. know? Hasn't his pen, more than any other, helped to make Broadway what it is today, "the playground of the whole world?"

All of which leads us to Mr. Cohan's latest achievement, "Little Nellie Kelly," which has taken possession of the Liberty theatre and Broadway at one and the same time.

Oh, what a hit is Nellie "Little Nellie Kelly" a real song and dance show that makes you want to shout with joy and sends you home whistling its tunes and laughing over the delicious satire that only George M. Cohan knows how to put into a play with musical trimmings, which, for speed, pep and fun, has not been equalled on the big thoroughfare in a month of moons.

Don't take our word for it. Ask anybody. Or better still, go and see it. It's a pippin!

While you are in the "going" mood don't forget "So This is London!" George M. Cohan's other production now in its second year at the Hudson theatre; that is to say it opened in August, 1922, and is still going strong in January, 1923, and if an advance sale that stretches for weeks ahead means anything, "So This is London!" will play a Fourth of July matinee at the Hudson theatre.

ST. MARY'S PARISH NOTES

DRESS-UP CLOTHES SHOULD

NOT MAR CHILD'S HAPPINESS

If when ideally clothed, one is quite unconscious of what one wears, then just how many tiny folks, especially when "dressed up" are really dressed as they should be? Take a look around you, suggests Mrs. Catharine Griebel, clothing specialist of the New Jersey Agricultural College.

Here comes a pretty little girl wearing a pink silk dress, white shoes and stockings and a ducky little bonnet trimmed with dainty flowers and tied beneath her delectable chin with a big pink bow. She looks like a fairy and you turn to stare after her to see her stumble, child fashion, and to see mother, just in time, catch her and give her a good shaking.

Away down the street you hear angry tones warning the small girl that a good whipping awaits her if — You hurry on sure that your small fairy is not unconscious of what she is wearing, at that particular moment anyway.

Isn't it a pity to be made miserable because one's dress is pink and made of silk, when it might just as well have been made of stuff which would look nicer every time it went into the wash tub? We see things like the pink frock in the shops—garments which one is sure will not stand the use a healthy child puts her clothes to—and yet they are so lovely that we linger and often buy.

When every mother knows that her child should wear clothes that will let her enjoy herself, why should she not consider it when buying or making the little garments? To be sure there must be some dress-up clothes. Even at four, one needs a party dress. But why not choose washable materials, made in such a fashion that the laundering takes little time? When sister goes out you expect her to come home soiled and mussed. She will not disappoint you in this respect, but one look at her radiant face will convince you that she has not even remembered she was "dressed up," she has just had a wonderfully good time.

Next day the party dress goes into the tub and comes out as good as new.

Why take chances of proposing to a girl on Friday. She might not refuse you.

What Our Neighbors Say

PLANNING FOR ANOTHER YEAR

The New Year's time is a period when many folks look ahead and think of the things they want to do during the year. Imaginative young people are specially apt to cherish rosy dreams of some large achievement they expect to reach before the twelve-month ends.

In the main this looking ahead is useful. The people who drift along year after year without setting any goals to ambition are apt to be content with small achievement.

The old fashioned father used about this time to lay out a certain sized woodpile for his boys to cut up. It looked awful big to them. They groaned in spirit as they thought of the innumerable swings of the bucksaw and strokes of the axe that would be required to work up that wood. But their spirit of achievement was incited by the laying out of a definite "stint" to be accomplished. Father with his wise head knew that he would get more wood cut if he gave the kids a mark to aim at.

Many business concerns at this time are looking ahead, and setting certain marks of sales that they wish to make in 1923. Their salesmen are urged to bring in a greater total than they made in 1922. Aiming at a high figure stirs the energy of human nature. People who at first double if they could reach the goal set, often find that they not merely reach it, but go much beyond it.

The community should have its marks of achievement toward which it is looking with hope and purpose. Here in Keyport our people may well make a New Year survey of their present condition and needs. It would be a helpful thing if our community organizations could lay out certain definite civic tasks that ought to be finished in 1923, and exert every energy to get them done. High purposes count in community work just as in personal ambition.—Keyport Enterprise.

LIGHT SENTENCES FOR BOOT-LEGGERS

The Somerville Unionist-Gazette makes the charge that the Federal Court in Newark and the County Court in New Brunswick are too indulgent to bootleggers and are thereby responsible in a degree for repeated law violations. It is also charged that there is little or no publicity of the justice meted out to offenders acting as a warning to others.

The Unionist-Gazette adds the following valuable pointers to those in this county charged with the enforcement of the new State law:

"The detection and prosecution of bootleggers need not be confined to Federal courts and officers. By the provisions of the State enforcement law all county and municipal officers are encouraged to take a hand in the game, and by so doing reap the double benefit of suppressing the dispensers of some very bad liquor and also securing the amount of the fines imposed by the local courts to enrich the county treasury which has already paid out for 'evidence' and loose Federal enforcement a greater amount than it has ever received from fines imposed."

The treasury of Middlesex county could easily be enriched if our officials did their full duty by fining more heavily those who violate the law governing the sale of liquors.—New Brunswick Home News.

OBSCURITY ONLY PLACE

FOR "FATTY" ARBUCKLE

Will Hays, the czar of films, was more sympathetic than sensible when he ordered the ban lifted from Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle, and authorized him to again ponderously caper before millions of American citizens on the silver screen.

This is no case for the "Christmas spirit," as Hays expresses it. There are plenty of other jobs for "Fatty." He might buy a ranch and raise prunes, chickens or pork; and by reducing his adipose tissue be a healthier and better-looking man. Returning him to stardom is another proposition. He has been acquitted of the charge of murder and manslaughter, but nobody will deny that he did hold in his apartment a disorderly booze party, with lecherous accompaniments, as a result of which one tipsy young actress lost her life, under suspicious circumstances. Arbuckle was the host, and provided the booze in violation of law; and the whole proceeding was lawless, disgraceful and disgusting. We have seen no report that Arbuckle has been tried or released from bail on these charges.

It is Hays' duty to protect the public, not to act as "big brother" to discredited actors who want to replenish their bank accounts. Arbuckle on the screen again would mean that his riotous and disorderly sensuality will be condoned; decency discounted; and men and women of his type be made popular heroes by other thoughtless men and women; and vice, rather than virtue, enthroned.

There is no place in decent society for the Fatty Arbuckles, and they should be forced into obscurity.—The American Issue.

FOR BETTER TEACHERS

Discussion of the married woman as a teacher has been waged long, and at times furiously, and there is still much prejudice against them even among women. So it took some courage for the Mothers' Congress and Parent-Teacher Association to declare boldly in their favor at its national conference in Atlantic City.

Married women should be encouraged to enter the teaching profession, in the opinion of these mothers and teachers, who deplore the youth and inexperience of so many teachers whose lack of understanding of children unfits them for the work. This stand is but one phase of the emphasis placed by the association on the need of more home influence in the schools. Better home instruction of the children before it reaches school age is urged. This is meant to include not only brain work, but better discipline and habits, and the mothers were urged by one speaker to refrain from feeding their children cake and pie, on the ground that they are not proper food for children and interfere with mental effort.—South River Spokesman.

HEEDLESS DESTRUCTION

Recently lumbermen in British Columbia chopped down a Douglas Fir tree. Investigation showed that the tree was at least 420 years old, sprouting shortly after Columbus discovered America.

While it required 420 years to grow, it took but a few minutes for the lumbermen with their sharp axes to cut it down. Heedlessly man destroys in a few minutes what it has taken the Creator hundreds of years to bring to maturity. Honor and success are like that tree. It takes but a short time to destroy what has required a long time to build up. Trees add to the beauty of any street where human beings dwell, and we should think twice before we destroy one of God's adornments in the natural world.

ANOTHER RECORD FOR WOOD BROOK FARMS

Radium of Ewing No. 72,730, a pure-bred Guernsey cow, owned by Wood Brook farms of Metuchen, N. J., has just completed her year's record of 12,702.3 lbs. of milk containing 560.08 lbs. of butterfat. She was four and a half years' old when she started her record.

When we consider that the average person in the United States consumes one pint of milk a day, we find that Radium has produced 11,817 pints of milk which tested 4.4% butter-fat. Her milk would supply over thirty-two persons a day for one year. The average cow in the United States produces less than 4,000 pints of milk a year.

This record proves the value of pure-bred cows over the average cow. Her record was made under certified stable conditions standing in a stanchion.

Chevrolet Closed Cars in Demand.

Never before have automobile manufacturers felt the demand for closed cars that has been shown this year. Seemingly the motoring public has just discovered the real desirability of the enclosed car and the feasibility of winter driving.

For example, from January to August 1, 1922, the Chevrolet Motor Company built one closed car to three open cars. In August this company began to feel the increasing demand for closed cars and during the period from August 1 until the latter part of October, when these figures were obtained, the ratio changed to two closed cars for every three open cars.—Briggs' Garage.

IT HAPPENS EVERY DAY

"Do you think the motor will entirely supersede the horse?" "I hope not," replied Farmer Jones. "There must be some market for hay. I depend on what I make on hay to buy gasoline."

MANY FIND ENJOYMENT AT LOCAL PARTY

On Saturday evening a party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Casey of 317 Augusta street. A very enjoyable evening was spent in playing games and dancing. Many vocal selections were rendered. Refreshments were served and at a late hour the guests departed. Among those present were: Misses Ester Grace, Alice Hubbs, Mary Quigg, Irene Quigg, Elizabeth O'Neil, Anna Guerin, Anna Hayes, Margaret Nolan, Margaret Kerwin, Gertrude Murtha, Mary Dooling, Margaret Keenan, Anna Thompson, Katharine Keenan; Messrs. Vincent Dooling, James Wallis, Joe Geregity, John McDonnell, Joe Triggs, John Mullane, Cornelius McGonigle, Edward Cox, Steve Tronez, James Duggan, Andrew Trinley, Frank Meacham, Bill Duggan, John Connors, Frank Bartkowiak, Arthur McGan, Oscar Bonhni, Mrs. A. Hubbs, Mr. Michael Hussey, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Casey.

HO! HUM! STRETCHING IT A BIT!

Lem Bushnell, our marshal, who stood in the road yesterday while he enjoyed a good stretch, brought a strange, big-city automobile to a stop, as the driver mistook Lem's movements for some kind of a traffic signal.

The following application was received from Charles F. Thompson, applying for a position as head of the South Amboy Water Works:

"Mayor and Common Council, Gentlemen:

I as a citizen of South Amboy, am applying as head of Water Works. I am not trying to dictate to your Mayor or you but feel justified in asking for a position of such kind as I am sure I can make the water works a paying problem.

My three offerings are as following:

First offer—On a monthly basis of $300 per month paid semi-monthly payments.

Second offer—$150 per month paid twice per month and one quarter of the net saving per year.

Third offer—One half of the net saving over the expense and under the income, semi-monthly payments. There are no repairs to be made at my expense.

Charles F. Thompson."

Commander Mulrahi, Senior Vice Commander O'Toole, Adjutant M. L. Stults, and Past Commander Conlogue attended the big State Legion rally held in Trenton last Saturday.

A box of cigars has been offered for the member submitting the largest number of membership applications before the joint meeting on January 25th.

A prize has also been offered to the member of the Auxiliary submitting the largest number of names for membership in that organization by the "Get-Together" meeting.

New members admitted at Thursday night's meeting of the Post are Russell Wallace, John Joseph Andrejewski, and Sylvester P. Kane.

COOPERATIVE MARKETING SAVED FARMER'S PROFITS

Cooperative marketing of farm products, that followed lines which experience in other states has shown to be economically sound, produced satisfactory results for two large groups of New Jersey farmers last year, the State Department of Agriculture finds, in a survey of the reports of the New Jersey Cooperative Fruit Growers and the Garden State Cooperative Potato Association. Both organizations closed a fiscal year which was rather discouraging to most farmers, with profits and savings on market costs that were pleasing to members.

The fruit growers, with local cooperative branches at Vineland, Camden, Moorestown, Riverton, Burlington and Mount Holly, sold by truck and train, a total of approximately 250,000 bushels of peaches and apples. The entire selling cost was about 12 per cent, with a prospect of further reductions to 10 per cent with the anticipated collection of outstanding railroad claims. The fruit was distributed over a wide territory, from Florida to New England and west as far as Chicago. General satisfaction of the cooperating fruit growers with their plan is shown by the fact that only three of the 62 members of the six groups have withdrawn and many other growers are seeking admission to the cooperative units. The organization has made plans for a still more efficient selling system for the coming year, and the growers say they will profit also by the good will established by graded and guaranteed products last summer.

The Garden State Cooperative Potato Association, while a small organization, with seventeen large producers combining to market their crop, sold more than 300 carloads of potatoes, at a total selling cost of only seven per cent. All potatoes were graded and sold as such with the result that better prices were obtained and destination adjustments were found necessary on only six car lots during the entire summer. The potato men say they are well satisfied with their year's experience and like the fruit growers, are planning a more intensive marketing program for the coming summer.

Both organizations were formed on plans suggested by the State Bureau of Markets, and approved by the State Federation of County Boards of Agriculture, and were financed by local banks. Commenting on the record of the two associations, market officials say they were successful because they were founded on basic units of small groups of local growers, loyal to their cooperative plan and to each other. Cooperative marketing, they point out, is merely a partnership on a larger scale and a local group should be made up only of men who have the capacity for working together on a mutual business project. Neither of the above organizations, it is said, solicited members, nor are they seeking new members, although ready to affiliate with other groups of growers who are thoroughly converted to the cooperative advantages.

The cooperative marketing plan used by these New Jersey farmers centralizes the selling activities of a group, reduces overhead expenses, provides for scientific distribution to active markets, sells all products under a uniform grade and with a trade name and yet keeps the business within the grip of the local growers.

POULTRY CLASSIC WILL FEATURE N. J. FARM WEEK

Birds of fine feather throughout New Jersey are prepping their plumage in preparation for the grand march before the judges at the poultry classic which will feature the Farm Products show, at the Trenton Armory, January 16 to 20. The big exhibits will be staged in conjunction with the Farm Week program of the State Department of Agriculture, that will bring thousands of the State's most successful farmers to the capital city.

Competition in all breeds of poultry has been invited for the big show, which will be under auspices of the Mercer County Poultry Association. Cash prizes of more than $1,000 have been offered, assuring big entry lists and strong contests.

Mercer County farmers are especially interested in developing big competitive classes of poultry for which this particular section is famous. Black Giant and Rhode Island Red enthusiasts aim for at least 250 birds of these classes in the exhibition. Trenton is capitalizing the fact that it is the centre of the district in which originated the Giants, a famous meat breed whose popularity is now sweeping Poultrydom, and the Broad street National Bank has made a special offer of ten ten-dollar gold pieces for the ten best cockerels of the Jersey Black Giant breed, no one breeder to receive more than one. The Giant breeders plan to make this the largest show of Jersey Black Giants ever staged anywhere.

Entries for all classes of the poultry show are being made through Carroll H. Hoagland of Trenton.

fact that Mrs. Yarnall has been a stockholder of the Company for 40 years, having obtained her first shares on March 7th, 1877. She makes her residence with her son, Mr. Howard E. Yarnall, who is President of the Yarnall Paint Co., 1026 Race street, Philadelphia.

In spite of her advanced age, Mrs. Yarnall has retained excellent health and up to the present time remains very active. For a number of years she has been going to the Pocono Mountains every May and remaining until autumn, and expects to do so this coming season. Her husband, Mr. Howard Yarnall, began acquiring stock in the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in 1865. He died in 1875.

Mrs. Yarnall is a sister of the late Amos R. Little, who was a director of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for 18 years, from Nov. 28, 1883, to his death on December 12, 1906. The proxy which she has forwarded for her shares will be voted just one day after she completes her 104th year of life.

While there are, of course, no official records of statistics regarding the ages of the Company's stockholders, there can be no question that Mrs. Yarnall would stand at the top of the list, and it is not only possible, but quite probable that she is the oldest stockholder of any railroad in the United States.

THE OLDEST RAILROAD STOCKHOLDER IN THE COUNTRY CLAIMED BY THE PENNA. R. R.
Who is the oldest stockholder of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company? This question has been answered beyond any reasonable doubt by a pencil memorandum on one of the many proxies which are being received at the Secretary's office, Broad Street Station, for use at the annual election of the Company, which was held on April 24th.

The proxy came from Mrs. Sarah G. Yarnall, 4727 Springfield avenue, West Philadelphia, and the memorandum, which was written on one corner, said: "Mrs. Yarnall will be 104 years old on April 23rd."

The proxy was brought to the attention of President Samuel Rea. At his request, inquiry brought out the SCOUT DOINGS.

The meeting of the Senior Patrol next week is responsible for the extension of time allowed for passing tests by the members of the six patrols. No tests will be given at the meeting of May 14th so get in touch with the scoutmaster or assistants before that time. This will be an outdoor one, assembling at headquarters at 6.30 P. M. Note the time.

Another hike will be taken this Saturday leaving the meeting rooms at 1.30 P. M. Here is a good opportunity to pass the remainder of the tests needed to become either a second or a first class scout. Bring some grub along and remember that pencils and paper will be handy for taking notes for map drawing and tree study.

Members of the Senior Patrol will have a visitor at the meeting Monday night so let there be as good an attendance as there was to the first meeting.

Ask Fatty and Howard how they liked the mice for companions when they slept in a barn on their over night trip. Saturday.

Excellent Idea.

It is a good thing for all of us not only to have our eyes on our work, but also to have in the back of our heads a picture of what the relation of our work is to the general scheme of world progress.—H. B. Thayer.

Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of South Amboy:

Failure on the part of any consumer who has not now a meter to have a meter installed, or a refusal on the part of any consumer to comply with the terms of this ordinance, shall be sufficient reason and cause for the Water Commissioner to shut off or discontinue the water service to such consumer.

Section 2. Application for the installation of such meters shall be made in conformity with section 5 of the ordinance to which this is a supplement, and the terms of sections 5 and 6 of said ordinance shall be a guide to the applicant and to the Water Commissioner in the installation of said meters.

Section 3. For the purpose of this ordinance the Water Commissioner is hereby empowered to employ such licensed plumbers as may be necessary to assist him in doing the work hereby required.

GIVE BOARD THEIR OPINION

Chamber of Commerce Gives Board of Education Their Opinion on Nursing Proposition — Expect to Elect Officers January 24th.

The Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors held their regular meeting in their rooms on Wednesday evening. James D. Van Pelt, President, occupied the chair.

Treasurer R. C. Stephenson rendered his annual report which exhibited a satisfactory financial condition at the close of the year just passed.

The Secretary was directed to send a letter to the Board of Education expressing the regret of the members of the Chamber of Commerce that the High School debating team was not taking an active part in the debates this term as they did last year, that it was the judgment of its members that this mental practice was highly beneficial to the pupils who had so well acquitted themselves in this branch of training, and to express the hope that this line of mental practice would not be neglected.

A communication was received from the Royston Paper Company of Boston asking for information as to any vacant building in this city, 40x100 feet suitable for their purpose, as they desired to move their business to some point in this vicinity.

A communication was also received from the N. J. State Chamber of Commerce relative to the meeting to be held in Newark, N. J., on January 11th, when the discussions would be especially devoted to considering legislation, arbitration of commercial and other disputes.

The Chamber of Commerce passed resolutions approving of the attitude of State Senator Larson respecting his proposed legislation concerning the interstate canal, and assuring the Senator that this project would result in great benefit to the nation, the state, and all the communities along its borders. Also resolutions concerning the advisability of the privileges of the act providing for the creating of Boards of Public Works being extended to cities of the third class.

The following letter was forwarded to the Board of Education, regarding the Nurse proposition.

South Amboy Jan. 10, 1923. Board of Education, South Amboy, N. J. Gentlemen:

We have your valued communication of the 6th inst., requesting from us an expression of the view of the Chamber of Commerce on the merits of the nursing proposition in this community.

This Board accepts with pleasure this opportunity to express its views, and after considerable thought on the matter, we consider that the financial condition of this city is a prohibiting factor against assuming the expense heretofore borne by the State, and therefore make the following recommendation.

A Red Cross nurse is now employed within this city doing similar work, and is both qualified and willing to undertake the duties performed by the nurses from the Bureau of Child Hygiene, therefore we earnestly recommend that she be placed in charge of this work.

Respectfully yours,

P. H. LOCKER, Secretary. It is expected that the Chamber of Commerce will elect officers and its Board of Directors at the meeting to be held on Wednesday evening, January 24th.

FERDINAND BUSCH

Ferdinand Busch, a resident of this city, died very suddenly last Saturday morning at his home, 429 Telford street.

Mr. Busch was 75 years of age and was born in Germany. The funeral services were held from his home on Tuesday morning, the Rev. R. R. Steir of the Sayreville Presbyterian Church officiating. E. S. Mason and Son had charge of funeral arrangements.

AMERICAN LEGION NOTES

American Legion activity for 1923 is starting with a rush. There are lots of good times in store for the members this year, and every ex-service man in South Amboy should "sign on the dotted line," and become a member of one of the liveliest posts in the State.

The Auxiliary is likewise planning to make 1923 a banner year. Miss Catherine Cleary, president of this organization, favors a joint meeting of the Legion and Auxiliary trustees to discuss the year's program. This plan seems to be an excellent one, as it will avoid the conflict of dates and insure closer cooperation of the two organizations.

The Lincoln's birthday dance will be one of the next events on the social program of the Post.

Several members of the local Post are planning to attend the big Legion rally at New Brunswick next Tuesday night.

Commander Chris Mulrain is "hot-footing" it around the city signing up new members for the Post this year. The genial purveyor of hamburg steaks is bound to have the Post set up a record for the year.

John Conlogue, past commander, has been elected chairman of the Board of Trustees for 1923.

"Bill" O'Toole, senior vice commander of the local post, has been appointed by County Commander Ronald Kleckner as county publicity officer. Past Commander Conlogue has been made county organization officer. S. Newell James, of this post, who was elected county adjutant, has been compelled to resign this office due to business reasons. The vacancy has been filled by the selection of "Joe" McLaughlin, of Perth Amboy.

Phil Anderson, formerly of this Post, is associate editor of the "Morning Report," a publication issued by the Bluefield (West Virginia) Post of the American Legion.

Harold Hoffman, of the local Post, who is treasurer of the Fourth District, New Jersey American Legion, attended a meeting of the Convalescent Home Committee at Toms River Sunday. This committee has recently purchased the Hannes estate at Toms River and plans to open the home for the use of ex-service men, in April. When alterations and furnishings are completed the home will represent an investment of over $25,000.00.

Entertainment Officer Harry A. Leonard, promises "beau coup eats" every meeting night.

Don't forget to mark down on your calendar the 22nd of February. That's the night of the Washington's Birthday dance in the high school auditorium. Phil Downs is chairman of the committee, and the affair promises to be a big success.

A number of members of the local Post will attend the gathering of Middlesex Vulture, No. 128, "Forty-and-Eights" to be held in Hotel Klein, New Brunswick, to-night, (Saturday). Dinner will be served at 6:45 o'clock. Those wishing to attend should meet at the corner of Broadway and Augusta street at 6 o'clock and transportation will be furnished.

A committee has been named to secure a bronze tablet bearing the names of the comrades who have "gone west," to be placed in the club house. Harry A. Leonard is chairman.

January 25th is the big "Get-Together" meeting of the Post and Auxiliary. There will be a splendid social program and the meeting will be full of "pen" and Legion activity. Every member of the Post and Auxiliary should be present.

How about an old fashioned straw-ride and dance? A committee has been appointed to arrange such an event, securing, if possible, the clubhouse at Cheesecake for the affair. The plan seems to meet with approval, and it should be a huzz success when held. The date will probably be in April.

Past Commander John Conlogue is heading a committee to secure a Legion standard and colors before Memorial Day. Other Posts are proud to own such emblems, and they would make a splendid acquisition for the local Post.

Commander Chris Mulrain and Harold Hoffman are members of the sick visitation committee for January. Slip the names of any comrades who are "under the weather" to these boys.

Watch for the big movie benefit, Long time since the Post ran one.

AGAIN ASKS FOR LEASE OF BEACH

Morris Alpine Again Submits Proposition to Council for Lease of Beach at "Minnow Ditch"—C. F. Thompson Applies for Position.

Morris Alpine, a local merchant, in a communication to the Common Council, on Tuesday evening, asks that they reopen negotiations for the leasing of the beach around what is known as the "Minnow Ditch." In his proposition, he asks the city not to let or lease any adjacent property for a similar enterprise, the lease to run for a period of five years with an option of renewal for a similar period, and to cover a stretch of land of about 400 feet between Portia and Calhoun streets.

Mr. Alpine offers to maintain and keep the beach and bathing houses in a clean and sanitary condition, and not to permit any public nuisance to establish there. On motion of Councilman Delaney, the communication was laid on the table and the clerk instructed to notify Mr. Alpine to meet with the Council at a regular business meeting.

A complaint was received from the Monmouth Lighting Company regarding the breaking of street lights in different sections of the town, especially at Peltus and John streets, by boys throwing snowballs and using them as targets. On motion of Councilman Delaney the communication was received and the Chief of Police instructed to use every effort possible to apprehend the boys doing the damage.

A communication was received from the Secretary of the Mechanicsville Hose Company, advising the Council of their fire truck being out of commission for the past three weeks, due to badly needed repairs, and as their treasury will not permit having the work done themselves, they ask that $100.00 be appropriated by the city to cover this work. On motion of Councilman Disbrow, this communication was referred to the Committee on Fire.

A communication was received from Mrs. Helen M. Van Pelt, chairman of the Civic Committee of the Woman's Club, calling the new council's attention to a petition, which they presented to the old council a few months ago, in reference to the establishment of a building code in this city, and asking the present council to grant their petition. On motion of Councilman Delaney, this communication was referred to the Council as a whole, the City Solicitor and the City Engineer.

Charles J. Agan, Secretary of the Shade Tree Commission, in a communication to the council, submitted a proposed ordinance covering the protection of trees, shrubs, etc., and asked that the same be considered by the council at an early date. On motion of Councilman Delaney, this communication and proposed ordinance was referred to the council as a whole.

The Council was notified in writing by Reuben Forgotsen, Police Justice, that he was unable to submit a detailed report at the meeting Tuesday evening, but would submit a report before the next regular meeting.

The Clerk read a letter from Mrs. Margaret T. Kerr, stating she would be unable to accept the honor conferred on her by the Mayor as a member of the Library Board.

In lieu of Mrs. Kerr being unable to serve on the Library Board, Mayor Chase appointed Mrs. Emma R. Holman to serve as a member for five years, which action was confirmed by the Council as a whole.

A communication from the Star Building and Loan Association, requesting rebate on taxes paid by them covering certain of their members, who are exempt from or ex-service men, was on motion of Councilman Deanev referred to the Committee on Taxes.

M. F. Naurie, Fire Chief, notified the Council that four lengths of new hose were burst at the fire in the Timmins building last month, and asked that this matter be taken up.

PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION DEMAND WATER REPORT

On Wednesday the Public Utility Commission asked the Supreme Court for a mandamus writ, compelling this city to file a report of the operations of our water plant for year ending December 31, 1921.

The commission set forth that this city not only failed to file this report, as required by law, but failed to have a representative present at a hearing in the matter held on December 5, 1922.

Justice Trenchard of the court set February 20th as the date for argument on a rule to show why the writ should not issue.

Other municipalities failing to file reports for the same year were Bridgeton, Beach Haven, Wenonah, Avalon, North Ailington and Union township.

HAROLD G. HOFFMAN TAKES OATH OF OFFICE

Assemblyman Harold G. Hoffman, of this city, took his oath of office as a member of the 147th Legislature on Tuesday at Trenton. The Assembly organized with William M. Evans, of Passaic, as speaker of the House, Joseph A. Corio, of Atlantic, as majority leader and William George, of Hudson, as the Democratic minority leader.

The local man fared exceptionally well in committee appointments, heading the Assembly joint committee on Treasurer's Accounts, and also being appointed to the committee on Banking and Insurance. He was also made a member of the Committee on Boroughs and Borough Commissions, and on the joint committee for the Home for Feeble-Minded Women. Assemblyman Thomas L. Hanson, of Perth Amboy, was appointed to the joint committees on State Reform School and Public Buildings and Grounds, and the standing committees on Riparian Rights and Corporations. Assemblyman Fred Devoe, of New Brunswick, received appointments to the committee on miscellaneous business and the joint committee on sinking funds.

Assemblyman Hoffman received many beautiful floral offerings from various organizations and his friends throughout the county.

Local people who were in Trenton for the opening of the Legislature were Mr. and Mrs. James Hackett, Mrs. Harold Hoffman, Thomas B. Capner and Frank C. Hoffman. Mr. Hackett has received an appointment as doorkeeper in the Senate. The local man served in this capacity last year and made so many friends that Senator Larson was importuned by his colleagues in the Senate to secure his reappointment.

AST NOW SELECTED

FOR OH! OH! CINDY

Mrs. Helen Harkins will appear in the title role of "Oh, Oh, Cindy" when it is presented here January 19th and 20th at St. Mary's Hall under the auspices of St. Mary's Parent-Teachers Association. This announcement was made to us today by Mr. R. G. Woods, the director, who is here as a representative of the John B. Rogers Producing Company. Playing opposite her will be James Birmingham in the part of Stephen Craig, her betrothed. Both of these parts are very well suited to the people who have been cast to play them. During the play there are a number of songs and dances in which both participate to good advantage.

One role which is certain to create "wow" with the audience is that played by John Triggs. The character is that of Terrence O'Hooligan, manager of the "Follies" and affectionately known to the company as "Godmother." Few people know him as a spry, but in his interpretation of the character he bids fair to rival Titania.

The part of Blanche Bledia, or "Goldy" offers a rare opportunity for Miss Helen Dooling to display her abilities as a dancer. She plays prominently in the production with the Misses Margaret Donovan, Margaret Cusick, Helen Emmons, and Catherine McKeon and Ted Mahoney, Ray Kress and William Grace as the "Three Bears."

The role of Robinson Crusoe will be portrayed by John McDonald, whose antics at the rehearsals keep those participating in the play in a constant roar of laughter. Friday and Saturday are played by Arthur Scully and William Brophy respectively; and their work thus far bids fair to stop the show. Probably the best comic song in the production is that sung by Friday during the first scene of Act II, "I Want a Chance to Beat that Drum."

Lily, who acts as a maid to Cindy and who later appears as the cannibal princess, will be played by Miss Sarah O'Connor. This part is one of the best and funniest roles in the entire cast.

John Crozier as Felix Gotrox, sometimes called Santa Claus, producer of the "Follies" is unusually clever.

Among the songs which are certain to score favorably are, "Oh, Miss White," "I'm the One," "Come Along to the Movies," "Oh, What a Bump," "Quack," says the Duck," "I Want a Chance to Beat That Drum," "You're all the World to Me," and the musical finale, "Songs of Yesterday and Today."

The dances give promise of being especially artistic as no expense has been spared either in costumes or scenery. In the groups will be seen fairies, flowers, nymphs, fire-flies, gnomes, cannibals, show girls, harlequins, etc. Other groups include Indians, Irish colonists, Quakers, Japanese maidens, Hula girls, beauties of Hindustan and others too numerous to mention. The Starlight group gives promise of being unusually interesting as does the Ballet.

Those who will appear in the choruses and groups are as follows: Wife and drum—The Misses A. Thompson, A. Scully, H. Maloney, M. Goregity, V. Dooling, C. Sullivan, L. Quigg, C. Keenan, M. Coan, M. McCarthy, G. Wierst, A. Nicorvo, M. Lovely and A. Grimley.

Indians—The Misses H. Sullivan, C. Grimley, M. Wagon, and R. Conway.

Japanese—The Misses A. McKenzie, N. Coleman, T. Kilcommins, and M. Farin.

Irish—The Misses A. Jacobs and M. Munn.

Quakers—The Misses A. Carroll, C. Grace, M. Brady, M. Maloney, and V. Meacham.

Harlequins—The Misses K. Cheeseman, H. Ryan, M. Kerwin, H. Mullen, M. Brophy, D. Hickey, G. Brahney, C. Cooney, C. Coan, L. Ginter, G. Gerehety and L. Mulhern.

Two little girls in blue—Misses Kerome and Dewan.

FIDELITY TRUST COMPANY'S

STATEMENT SHOWS BIG GAIN

Maintaining by a big margin its lead as the largest banking and fiduciary institution in New Jersey, the Fidelity Union Trust Company of Newark, in its latest published statement shows a capital, surplus and undivided profits of over $9,500,000, resources of $67,044,762.46, and deposits of $57,073,538.31, the latter figure being an increase of nearly $8,000,000 over the institution's total of a year ago. The company recently declared a quarterly dividend of 5 per cent, thus placing its stock on a twenty per cent annual basis and at the same time the directors granted to the institution's 350 officers and employees a bonus equal, in each case, to five per cent of their annual salary.

It was said today by Uzal H. McCarter, president of the company, that the growth of the institution's business in its commercial banking, trust, real estate mortgage, title insurance, safe deposit, savings, investment, and foreign departments has exceeded, and is daily passing, the brightest anticipation and estimates of its directors and officers and that the company is almost constantly in need of more room for the accommodation of its rapidly increasing number of customers and employees. It now occupies three floors in one of the big Prudential buildings and also the four story structure adjoining its general quarters.

"While all our departments, particularly our commercial banking and savings departments, have shown a most gratifying growth" said President McCarter, "the business of our real estate title insurance department and that of our trust department has shown extraordinary gains. In our trust department, for instance, we are safeguarding and handling estates and trusts that aggregate, in value, more than $200,000,000."

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS

LOSE TO PERTH AMBOY GIRLS

The local high school girls were badly beaten in a basketball game on the high school court on Wednesday afternoon, the score being 55 to 6.

It seemed as though the girls from across the river dropped them in from all angles, and had an easy time in winning. Miss Ward did all the scoring for the local team.

WOMEN WORKERS

The problem of labor has always been a difficult one. Each section its own problems, and no two every year the industrial field is ded by an ever increasing num- of women, until today it is d, that in the gainful occupa- tions, out of every four persons so employed one is a woman.

While no one denies the women the right to labor, yet it is a ques- tion, whether it is an advantage to a nation to have its women in the field of toilers.

Now that women have the right of vote, it is well to look at things as they are, and where evil exists, attempt at least to right the wrong.

With the advent of women into the field of labor, there will be ad- vantage taken of the fact, that few women expect to pass the remain- der of their lives in labor, but have entered the field, in order to supply themselves with extra lux- uries, that the family cannot afford to give them, until that day when they leave the factory, shop, mill or business house to enter the mar- riage state.

Thus, a dangerous competition arises between the single woman and the married man, the one working to supply herself with extra pleasure, the other working that he might be able to supply his family with the necessities of life.

Women will do the labor world a power of good, if they insist that the wages paid shall be equal that paid to a man for the same work, for if that day comes when as she hopes, some man will marry her, how is the man going to support her and keep a decent home, if she in the meantime has broken down the scale of wages? So that the wages, while it might gain pleasure for a single woman, supported in part by her family, it would fall far short of sustaining a home with even the necessities of life, with none of the luxuries; for a married man depending on his daily toil for his support.

Then again some of the factories which employ women are not as they should be. A rigid factory in- spection should be insisted upon; and the requirements of the law lived up to. It would seem as if here was a field where the Women's Clubs, and other organizations in the city could do a mighty service in behalf of their less fortunate sis- ters, who are obliged to work in order to live.

FALL TO LEAVE

PRESIDENT'S CABINET

Hon. Albert B. Fall, Secretary of the Interior, follows in the footsteps of Will Hays, in leaving the official family of the President. With the attractive offers held out to men high in public office, by private concerns, and the high cost of offi- cial living in Washington, it is be- coming a difficult matter to find men of a high order of intellect and business ability to accept public office.

True official living in Washington is becoming out of reason, and cer- tainly without the reach of the man, who is depending on his salary to support him. This may be due to the fact that men of great wealth have from time to time, been elected to the House and Senate, and with their lavish manner of entertain- ments have increased the demands upon the official body, that many times is beyond the financial ability of the ordinary man to meet, hence the necessity of returning to pri- vate life.

There is a danger to our demo- cratic life, in the excessive cost of living in Washington, for in time it will act as a barrier to the man of ordinary means, in seeking to represent the people in the Na- tional government at Washington. To have the House of Representa- tives and the Senate to say nothing of the President's official advisors, to be made up entirely of men of great wealth would be a decided calamity to a popular government.

It would seem to be opportune to start an agitation for plain living at the seat of government. Our earlier governmental family did not lose anything, in the eyes of the world, by their simple manner of living, and as for their mental abili- ty that is beyond question. For plain living is conclusive to high thinking and the man who can fulfill his obligations to his country and his God, and live within his in- come, is the man who can best represent our peculiar form of gov- ernment.

When wealth becomes a necessity to the man seeking a place high in the affairs of the nation, then begins the decay of the Republic.

PUBLIC OPINION

South Amboy, January 10, 1923
To the Editor South Amboy Citizen,
Dear Sir:

It is highly gratifying to the tax- payer to observe that our new Mayor has given prompt evidence that his message is not meant to be simply a parade-day exhibition. This is something out of the usual order, as many messages appear to pass into the pigeonhole of obscurity, sel- dom to be heard of again.

The Mayor appears to have ac- cepted the task before him as a business proposition, to which busi- ness rules and usages are to be applied. It is evident that he has read aright the appeal of his fellow citizens, presented by the election returns. By general consent he has marked out for his plans the only path that can lead to any escape from present demoralized conditions. He appears to be putting to a prac- tical test the ideas that have been the popular theme of discussion in office, store or street, wherever men have met and have given expression to their sentiments respecting de- teriorating conditions, that have been brought about chiefly by ill advised expenditures, and a lack of appre- ciation of what must be the inevi- table results.

"Look before you leap," is the ad- vice he offers. "Count the cost," is an adage that he has emphasized. He says, cut off the surplus limbs that absorb more than they give. His or- der has issued to look down deep for the causes of our leakages, and to find the exact spots to which the remedies must be applied. That he is earnestly impressed with the work he has been given to do is evident. He has brought business experience to bear upon his work. His recom- mendations will not be of a class to be lightly passed by, or toned down to a comoteose state.

No common council in this city for many years has had an equal oppor- tunity to render the people a worth- while service. The time to serve partisanship purposes has passed. Its evil consequences remain, to be removed. The intelligent citizens are looking to our governing body to lend all possible help to the hands of the Mayor. This is the substance of their stewardship. The people are looking for deeds, not intentions, for concrete purposes, not apologies. The "ifs" and the "buts" have no place on the public thought. The uppermost need of the present is energetic team service. "Follow the leader," is the slogan that appeals at this time. Follow until it can be unquestionably shown that a bet- ter policy can be applied.

If harmonious team service is made the practice of the present council, this year will be made a year of constructive advancement for South Amboy.

An Observing Taxpayer.

RESIDENTS OF NEW JERSEY USING LESS WATER

Figures compiled by the Water Resources Branch of the State De- partment of Conservation and De- velopment show that the average daily consumption of water per capi- ta throughout the State is gradually decreasing. During 1921 the average daily consumption per person was 109 gallons. With a population of about 2,950,000, the total daily sup- ply required was therefore about 321,880,000 gallons. The average per capita consumption for 1920 was 114 gallons per day while for 1918 the allowance was 117 gallons per day.

In commenting on this fact, H. T. Critchlow, Hydraulic Engineer of the State Department of Conservation and Development, said, "This appar- ent decrease in the quantity of wa- ter consumed per person cannot be traced either to a decline in the popularity of the bathtub or a de- creased use of water for drinking purposes. It is due mainly to the increased use of meters on water supply systems, which tend to pre- vent waste."

9,000 MILES IN NINETY DAYS

Portland, Oregon, to Boston and return via Philadelphia in a two- year-old Chevrolet sedan in some- thing less than ninety days proved some interesting things to Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Speller concerning the stamina of their machine. Their route covered 9,008 miles, and most of the camping at night was done inside the sedan. A bed was con- structed by placing a special seat in front so it could be let down and brought back flush with the rear cushion. Only two nights were spent in hotels. No mechanical trouble was suffered. Mr. Speller writes of his Chevrolet: "It has proved its mettle; it is an unusually good car."

TEMPUS FUIGT

A motorist stopped at the roadside to buy some especially attractive ap- ples which a farmer boy offered for sale. The order given, the lad disappeared toward the house to fill it from his reserve stock. After a long lapse he returned.

"Are you the boy who went for my apples?" asked the exasperated motorist.

"Yes, sir," was the meek answer. "Good gracious—how you have grown!"

Many holders of 1918 War Savings stamps in South Amboy, who intended to exchange them for Treasury Savings Certificates have been so absorbed in holiday affairs that they have temporarily overlooked the matter.

Such persons will be glad to learn through Postmaster James W. Rea that it is not yet too late to make the exchange, furthermore attention is particularly called to the fact that Treasury Savings Certificates, issued up to January 15, 1923, in exchange for 1918 War Savings Stamps will up to January 1, 1923, thus there will be no loss of interest, not even for a single day. After January 15, all certificates will bear the date on which they are issued. The Postmaster anticipates that many people will take advantage of this opportunity to continue their investment with the Government.

The lady who was thinking of buying an automobile had had the agent show her the carburetor, the differential, the transmission and everything she thought seemed important about the car. Then she said: 'Now, are you sure you've shown me all the things I ought to know about?'

"Why, yes, madam, I think so," replied the agent.

"Well, then, where is the depreciation? I am told that is one of the most important things to know about when you are getting a car." —Youth's Companion.

SYBTERIAN PARAGRAPHS

On Sabbath morning we are to have the privilege of having with us the eleven o'clock service, Mr. Conrad Henken, one of the Secretaries of Near East Relief, who was a member of the party that visited the Near East last summer. He saw the work among the refugees and orphans in and around Constantinople, Derindje, Batoum and all the principal cities in Armenia as far as the Capitol of Armenia. Returning from Transcaucasia, Mr. Henken visited Syria, Palestine, Egypt and was an eye-witness of many scenes of suffering, and this comprehensive study of conditions in the Near East he will have at his disposal in bringing a message to us at this service.

At this morning service those who have infants and children whom they desire to consecrate by baptism will present these children.

At the evening service, 7:30 p. m., we shall have our second consideration under the general theme "Come and See," the particular subject being: "Testing By Tasting."

At the mid-week service, Wednesday, 7:30 p. m., we shall listen to "A Distinct and Specific Call."

LEGION GETS RIGHTS TO

AMERICANISM PICTURES

The American Legion has acquired exclusive distribution and exhibition rights of the screen classic "The Man Without a Country," according to an announcement from the office of Lemuel Bolles, national adjutant of the Legion. The rights carry with them the ownership of the negative and ten copies of the film, all of which are transferred to the Legion by S. H. Boynton, of Chicago. The film is valued at $60,000.

Immediately after completing negotiations for the acquisition of the film, Mr. Bolles announced that the picture would be placed in distribution through the American Legion Film Service in connection with the Legion's Americanism campaign.

"We want this picture shown in every city, town and hamlet in America," declared Mr. Bolles. "It will inspire a finer appreciation of our government and of the country we are privileged to call our own. 'The Man Without a Country' is one photoplay that carries a real message. It thrills to the core and brings its audiences back a second time."

Mr. Bolles announced that distribution of the picture in cities above 45,000 population would be conducted by Mr. Boynton, the former owner, assisted by Gene Harrison, formerly a member of the staff of the American Legion Weekly, and Captain C. Flaherty, of Indianapolis, who has been active in Legion circles.

In cities under 45,000 population, the film will be distributed through the Legion Film service.

Proceeds from the exhibition of the film will be divided with the local posts and will be used in aiding the disabled ex-service men, the furtherance of Americanism work and other interests of the Legion.

At the Liberty and Hudson

No man in the amusement field knows his Broadway better than George M. Cohan. And why wouldn't George M. know? Hasn't his pen, more than any other, helped to make Broadway what it is today, "the playground of the whole world?"

All of which leads us to Mr. Cohan's latest achievement, "Little Nellie Kelly," which has taken possession of the Liberty theatre and Broadway at one and the same time.

Oh, what a hit is Nellie. "Little Nellie Kelly" a real song and dance show that makes you want to shout with joy and sends you home whistling its tunes and laughing over the delicious satire that only George M. Cohan knows how to put into a play with musical trimmings, which, for speed, pep and fun, has not been equaled on the big thoroughfare in a month of moons.

Don't take our word for it. Ask anybody. Or better still, go and see it. It's a pippin'!

While you are in the "going" mood, don't forget "So This is London!" George M. Cohan's other production now in its second year at the Hudson theatre; that is to say it opened in August, 1922, and is still going strong in January, 1923, and if an advance sale that stretches for weeks ahead means anything, "So This is London!" will play a Fourth of July matinee at the Hudson theatre.

ST. MARY'S PARISH NOTES

The committee for the card party on Wednesday evening, January 17th is as follows: Chaitlady, Mrs. Richard Powers; Committee—Mrs. Edward Dooling, Mrs. James Hackett, Mrs. John Conkley, Mrs. Anna McCormack, Mrs. Moran, Broadway; Mrs. Robert Anderson, Mrs. John Leonard; the Misses Bessie Hensberger, Carmelita Gilchrist, Claire McCarthy, Winifred Keane, Sally Purcell, Irene Smith, Annie Dowling; Messrs. Thomas Lovely, Thomas Grace, William Bullman, E. Scott Heston, James McNeany, Joseph Spencer, Edward South, Francis Quinlan, J. J. Keane, John Connelly.

DRESS-UP CLOTHES SHOULD

NOT MAR CHILD'S HAPPINESS

If when ideally clothed, one is quite unconscious of what one wears, then just how many tiny folks, especially when "dressed up" are really dressed as they should be? Take a look around you, suggests Mrs. Catharine Griebel, clothing specialist of the New Jersey Agricultural College.

Here comes a pretty little girl wearing a pink silk dress, white shoes and stockings and a ducky little bonnet trimmed with dainty flowers and tied beneath her delectable chin with a big pink bow. She looks like a fairy and you turn to stare after her to see her stumble, child fashion, and to see mother, just in time, catch her and give her a good shaking.

Away down the street you hear angry tones warning the small girl that a good whipping awaits her if — You hurry on sure that your small fairy is not unconscious of what she is wearing, at that particular moment anyway.

Isn't it a pity to be made miserable because one's dress is pink and made of silk, when it might just as well have been made of stuff which would look neater every time it went into the wash tub? We see things like the pink frock in the shops—garments which one is sure will not stand the use a healthy child puts her clothes to—and yet they are so lovely that we linger and often buy.

When every mother knows that her child should wear clothes that will let her enjoy herself, why should she not consider it when buying or making the little garments. To be sure there must be some dress-up clothes. Even at four, one needs a party dress. But why not choose washable materials, made in such a fashion that the laundering takes little time? When sister goes out you expect her to come home soiled and mussy. She will not disappoint you in this respect, but one look at her radiant face will convince you that she has not even remembered she was "dressed up," she has just had a wonderfully good time.

Next day the party dress goes into the tub and comes out as good as new.

Why take chances of proposing to a girl on Friday. She might not refuse you.

What Our Neighbors Say

PLANNING FOR ANOTHER YEAR

The New Year's time is a period when many folks look ahead and think of the things they want to do during they year. Imaginative young people are specially apt to cherish dreams of some large achievement they expect to reach before the twelve-month ends.

In the main this looking ahead is useful. The people who drift along year after year without setting any goals to ambition are apt to be content with small achievement.

The old fashioned father used about this time to lay out a certain sized woodpile for his boys to cut up. It looked awful big to them. They groaned in spirit as they thought of the innumerable swings of the bucksaw and strokes of the axe that would be required to work up that wood. But their spirit of achievement was incited by the laying out of a definite "stint" to be accomplished. Father with his wise head knew that he would get more wood cut if he gave the kids a mark to aim at.

Many business concerns at this time are looking ahead, and setting certain marks of sales that they wish to make in 1923. Their salesmen are urged to bring in a greater total than they made in 1922. Aiming at a high figure stirs the energy of human nature. People who at first double if they could reach the goal set, often find that they not merely reach it, but go much beyond it.

The community should have its marks of achievement toward which it is looking with hope and purpose. Here in Keyport our people may well make a New Year survey of their present condition and needs. It would be a helpful thing if our community organizations could lay out certain definite civic tasks that ought to be finished in 1923, and exert every energy to get them done. High purposes count in community work just as in personal ambition. —Keyport Enterprise.

SENTENCES FOR BOOT-LEGGERS

The Somerville Unionist-Gazette makes the charge that the Federal Court in Newark and the County Court in New Brunswick are too indulgent to bootleggers and are thereby responsible in a degree for repeated law violations. It is also charged that there is little or no publicity of the justice meted out to offenders acting as a warning to others.

The Unionist-Gazette adds the following valuable pointers to those in this county charged with the enforcement of the new State law:

"The detection and prosecution of bootleggers need not be confined to Federal courts and officers. By the provisions of the State enforcement law all county and municipal officers are encouraged to take a hand in the game, and by so doing reap the double benefit of suppressing the dispensers of some very bad liquor and also securing the amount of the fines imposed by the local courts to enrich the county treasury which has already paid out for 'evidence' and loose Federal enforcement a greater amount than it has ever received from fines imposed."

The treasury of Middlesex county could easily be enriched if our officials did their full duty by fining more heavily those who violate the law governing the sale of liquors. —New Brunswick Home News.

OBSCURITY ONLY PLACE

FOR "FATTY" ARBUCKLE

Will Hays, the Czar of Films, was more sympathetic than sensible when he ordered the ban lifted from Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle, and authorized him to again ponderously caper before millions of American citizens on the silver screen.

This is no case for the "Christmas spirit," as Hays expresses it. There are plenty of other jobs for "Fatty." He might buy a ranch and raise prunes, chickens or pork; and by reducing his adipose tissue be a healthier and better-looking man. Returning him to filmdom is another proposition. He has been acquitted of the charge of murder and manslaughter, but nobody will deny that he did hold in his apartment a disorderly booze party, with lecherous accompaniments, as a result of which one tipsy young actress lost her life, under suspicious circumstances. Arbuckle was the host, and provided the booze in violation of law; and the whole proceeding was lawless, disgraceful and disgusting. We have seen no report that Arbuckle has been tried or released from bail on these charges.

It is Hays' duty to protect the public, not to act as "big brother" to discredited actors who want to replenish their bank accounts. Arbuckle on the screen again would mean that his riotous and disorderly sensuality will be condoned; decency discounted; and men and women of his type be made popular heroes by other thoughtless men and women; and vice, rather than virtue, enthroned.

There is no place in decent society for the Fatty Arbuckles, and they should be forced into obscurity. —The American Issue.

FOR BETTER TEACHERS

Discussion of the married woman as a teacher has been waged long, and at times furiously, and there is still much prejudice against them even among women. So it took some courage for the Mothers' Congress and Parent-Teacher Association to declare boldly in their favor at its national conference in Atlantic City.

Married women should be encouraged to enter the teaching profession, in the opinion of these mothers and teachers, who deplore the youth and inexperience of so many teachers whose lack of understanding of children unfits them for the work. This stand is but one phase of the emphasis placed by the association on the need of more home influence in the schools. Better home instruction of the children before it reaches school age is urged. This is meant to include not only brain work, but better discipline and habits, and the mothers were urged by one speaker to refrain from feeding their children cake and pl. on the ground that they are not proper food for children and interfere with mental effort. —South River Spokesman.

HEEDLESS DESTRUCTION

Recently lumbermen in British Columbia chopped down a Douglas Fir tree. Investigation showed that the tree was at least 420 years old, sprouting shortly after Columbus discovered America.

While it required 420 years to grow, it took but a few minutes for the lumbermen with their sharp axes to cut it down. Heedlessly man destroys in a few minutes what it has taken the Creator hundreds of years to bring to maturity. Honor and success are like that tree. It takes but a short time to destroy what has required a long time to build up. Trees add to the beauty of any street where human beings dwell, and we should think twice before we destroy one of God's adornments in the natural world.

ANOTHER RECORD FOR WOOD BROOK FARMS

Radium of Ewing No. 72,730, a pure-bred Guernsey cow, owned by Wood Brook farms of Metuchen, N. J., has just completed her year's record of 12,702.3 lbs. of milk containing 560.08 lbs. of butterfat. She was four and a half years' old when she started her record.

When we consider that the average person in the United States consumes one pint of milk a day, we find that Radium has produced 11,817 pints of milk which tested 4.4% butter-fat. Her milk would supply over thirty-two persons a day for one year. The average cow in the United States produces less than 4,000 pints of milk a year.

This record proves the value of pure-bred cows over the average cow. Her record was made under certified stable conditions standing in a stanchion.

Chevrolet Closed Cars in Demand.

Never before have automobile manufacturers felt the demand for closed cars that has been shown this year. Seemingly the motoring public has just discovered the real desirability of the enclosed car and the feasibility of winter driving.

For example, from January to August 1, 1922, the Chevrolet Motor Company built one closed car to three open cars. In August this company began to feel the increasing demand for closed cars and during the period from August 1 until the latter part of October, when these figures were obtained, the ratio changed to two closed cars for every three open cars. —Briggs's Garage.

IT HAPPENS EVERY DAY

"Do you think the motor will entirely supersede the horse?" "I hope not," replied Farmer Jowles. "There must be some market for hay. I depend on what I make on hay to buy gasoline."

HO! HUM! STRETCHING IT A BIT!

Lem Bushnell, our marshal, who stood in the road yesterday while he enjoyed a good stretch, brought a strange, big-city automobile to a stop, as the driver mistook Lem's movements for some kind of a traffic signal.

The following application was received from Charles F. Thompson, applying for a position as head of the South Amboy Water Works:

"Mayor and Common Council, Gentlemen:

I as a citizen of South Amboy, am applying as head of Water Works. I am not trying to dictate to your Mayor or you but feel justified in asking for a position of such kind as I am sure I can make the water works a paying problem.

My three offerings are as following:

First offer—On a 'monthly' basis of $300 per month paid semi-monthly payments.

Second offer—$150 per month paid twice per month and one quarter of the net saving per year.

Third offer—One half of the net saving over the expense and under the income, semi-monthly payments.

There are no repairs to be made at my expense.

Charles F. Thompson."

COOPERATIVE MARKETING SAVED FARMER'S PROFITS

Cooperative marketing of farm products, that followed lines which experience in other states has shown to be economically sound, produced satisfactory results for two large groups of New Jersey farmers last year, the State Department of Agriculture finds, in a survey of the reports of the New Jersey Cooperative Fruit Growers and the Garden State Cooperative Potato Association. Both organizations closed a fiscal year which was rather discouraging to most farmers, with profits and savings on market costs that were pleasing to members.

The fruit growers, with local cooperative branches at Vineland, Camden, Moorestown, Riverton, Burlington and Mount Holly, sold by truck and train, a total of approximately 250,000 bushels of peaches and apples. The entire selling cost was about 12 per cent, with a prospect of further reductions to 10 per cent with the anticipated collection of outstanding railroad claims. The fruit was distributed over a wide territory, from Florida to New England and west as far as Chicago. General satisfaction of the cooperating fruit growers with their plan is shown by the fact that only three of the 62 members of the six groups have withdrawn and many other growers are seeking admission to the cooperative units. The organization has made plans for a still more efficient selling system for the coming year, and the growers say they will profit also by the good will established by graded and guaranteed products last summer.

The Garden State Cooperative Potato Association, while a small organization, with seventeen large producers combining to market their crop, sold more than 300 carloads of potatoes, at a total selling cost of only seven per cent. All potatoes were graded and sold as such with the result that better prices were obtained and destination adjustments were found necessary on only six car lots during the entire summer. The potato men say they are well satisfied with their year's experience and like the fruit growers, are planning a more intensive marketing program for the coming summer.

Both organizations were formed on plans suggested by the State Bureau of Markets, and approved by the State Federation of County Boards of Agriculture, and were financed by local banks. Commenting on the record of the two associations, market officials say they were successful because they were founded on basic units of small groups of local growers, loyal to their cooperative plan and to each other. Cooperative marketing, they point out, is merely a partnership on a larger scale and a local group should be made up only of men who have the capacity for working together on a mutual business project. Neither of the above organizations, it is said, solicited members, nor are they seeking new members, although ready to affiliate with other groups of growers who are thoroughly conversant to the cooperative advantages.

The cooperative marketing plan used by these New Jersey farmers centralizes the selling activities of a group, reduces overhead expenses, provides for scientific distribution to active markets, sells all products under a uniform grade and with a trade name and yet keeps the business within the grip of the local growers.

POULTRY CLASSIC WILL FEATURE N. J. FARM WEEK

Birds of fine feather throughout New Jersey are priming their plumage in preparation for the grand march before the judges at the poultry classic which will feature the Farm Products show, at the Trenton Armory, January 16 to 20. The big exhibits will be staged in conjunction with the Farm Week program of the State Department of Agriculture, that will bring thousands of the State's most successful farmers to the capital city.

Competition in all breeds of poultry has been invited for the big show, which will be under auspices of the Mercer County Poultry Association. Cash prizes of more than $1,000 have been offered, assuring big entry lists and strong contests.

Mercer County farmers are especially interested in developing big competitive classes of poultry for which this particular section is famous. Black Giant and Rhode Island Red enthusiasts aim for at least 250 birds of these classes in the exhibition. Trenton is capitalizing the fact that it is the centre of the district in which originated the Giants, a famous meat breed whose popularity is now sweeping Poultrydom, and the Broad street National Bank has made a special offer of ten ten-dollar gold pieces for the ten best cockerels of the Jersey Black Giant breed, no one breeder to receive more than one. The Giant breeders plan to make this the largest show of Jersey Black Giants ever staged anywhere.

Entries for all classes of the poultry show are being made through Carroll H. Hoagland of Trenton.
